UNION PACIFIC FIGHTS SOUTHERN

Claim to Central Pacific Is Opposed.

LIVELY CONTEST EXPECTED

Sixty-Day Stay Granted in Divorce Proceedings.

APPEAL CHANCE GIVEN

Carl R. Gray Issues Statement to Effect That Road Ought to Be Entirely Free.

The Union Pacific is determined to combat the claim of the Southern Pacific to Central Pacific, from which she was recently divorced by court order. Carl R. Gray, president of the Union Pacific system, announced yesterday when he said his people would oppose any further claim of the Southern Pacific to the Central in defense of Union Pacific rights under the railroad acts.

Order Held in Abeyance.

The recent order of the supreme court for the divorce of the Central from the Southern Pacific has been held in abeyance for 60 days to give opportunity to file petition for a rehearing. This was upon the request of the Southern Pacific company.

Portland is sought to be drawn into the contest for California interests are jealous of Southern Pacific prestige and have asked the Chamber of Commerce of this city to align itself upon the side of that line in the controversy. The following committee has been named by President O. W. Mielke of the Chamber to investigate the whole situation and report: H. B. Van Duser, chairman; L. Allen Lewis, F. A. Nitoby, Ira Powers, C. D. Bruun, Nathan Strauss and Emery Olmstead.

President Gray speaks of the community of interest between the Union Pacific and Central Pacific, built as they were to make the shortest through route from coast to coast. He says that the Union Pacific prefers the Central Pacific to be entirely free from other roads and to be operated as an independent line. If that condition cannot be realized, the Union Pacific is willing to purchase the Central, but efforts by the Southern Pacific to continue its present control of the line will be opposed strongly.

Special Interest Recognized.

"Although there was a clear recognition by the supreme court," President Gray's statement proceeds, "of the special interest of the Union Pacific in the Central Pacific as the owner of one-half of the line built under the Pacific railroad acts with the aid of government bonds and land grants, the Union Pacific, notwithstanding the policy of the Southern Pacific to favor the southern route, as stated by the supreme court decision, has refrained thus far from taking any part in the litigation between the government and the Southern Pacific. But we have been apprehensive that in case the supreme court should decide in favor of the Southern Pacific, it would yield to the temptation to route even more of this San Francisco and central California traffic in favor of its long haul and via the longer route through El Paso against the short, direct route through Ogden, which affords it a smaller division of the through rate.

"This apprehension has been very greatly increased by the tentative consolidation plan promulgated by the interstate commerce commission, which, while leaving the Central Pacific with the Southern Pacific,"

KIRKWOOD IS VICTOR IN VOTE RECOUNT

HERMON LEWIS ROBBED OF 315 BALLOTS.

Unofficial Count Made by The Oregonian at Time of Election Is Vindicated.

Crepe may be removed from the front door of the political domicile of R. J. Kirkwood, counted out by the official figures announced by the county clerk's office last Tuesday on the recent primaries, and red, white and blue bunting substituted—for a re-check yesterday robbed Hermon A. Lewis of 315 votes which had been credited him officially, putting him out of the running and re-establishing Kirkwood on the republican legislative ticket.

Incidentally, the unofficial count made by The Oregonian at the time of the election has been vindicated. The former official announcement showed wide divergence from the newspaper figures, for the latter gave Lewis 15,832 votes, whereas the official proclamation had given him 17,197. Discovery of the error yesterday makes the official count for Lewis 15,837, a discrepancy of but 15 votes from the unofficial figures.

The re-check gave Herbert Gordon one more vote than he has been credited with before and makes him secure in the next to last place on the ticket. No change is made in the count registered for Kirkwood of 17,187, but the drop in the Lewis column definitely re-establishes Kirkwood among the winners.

HUSBAND ATTACKS WIFE

J. M. Dillery Hits Spouse With Hammer, Drinks Poison.

J. M. Dillery, 44, was arrested last night by the police on a charge of beating his wife, Mary, 38, on the head with a hammer. Dillery drank an antiseptic poison after the attempt to kill his wife, the police said. Mrs. Dillery and her husband were taken to the emergency hospital. The husband's condition was not considered serious, but the extent of the wife's injuries had not been determined at an early hour today.

The police declared that the trouble was due to a drunken party at the Dillery home, 234 Harrison street. Dillery left a note to his mother, directing her how to dispose of his property.

Catholic Structure at Gervais Lost but Will Be Rebuilt.

GERVAIS, Or., June 10.—(Special.)—The Gervais Catholic church was completely destroyed by fire this morning at 1 o'clock. The origin of the fire is unknown, but it is supposed that the cause was defective wiring. The loss is $10,000 with part in the litigation between the government and the Southern Pacific. The church will be rebuilt at once. Church will be held in the school building temporarily.

REPUBLICANS FOR POLL TAX REPEAL

Washington Convention Protects Primary.

PARTY LEADERS ARE UNITED

Plan for Revival of Nominating Body Rejected.

MR. HARDING IS LAUDED

Senator Poindexter's Message Reciting Achievements of Administration Cheered.

BY JAMES WOOD.

PUGET SOUND BUREAU, Chehalis, Wash., June 10.—(Special.)—It was a good convention, a big convention and a generally harmonious convention that the republicans of the state of Washington held in this city today. With 824 delegates distributed to the various counties there were but few absentees. The highest vote cast during the day, that on the poll tax controversy, show 805 in attendance, and they stuck to the job until the chairman's gavel fell for the last time.

The convention declared for the repeal of the poll tax and refused to sanction any resolution looking to the repeal of the direct primary. These two matters and the quickly finished fight for the temporary chairmanship were the only points of contest in the whole proceedings. As to everything else the convention worked together as one man.

Leaders Shift Plans.

Leaders in the effort for the repeal of radical amendment of the direct primary law lost any chance they might have had with the convention by a shift from their original plans. With the platform committee majority determined against them it was at first proposed that the convention be asked to adopt a plank for revival of the nominating convention for congressional, state and county officers with the right dates on petition and the whole list to be submitted to party primary vote. In convention today, however, T. P. Flek of Cowitts offered a plank briefly pledging the party to repeal the direct primary law. Jay Thomas of King offered a substitute calling upon the next legislature to pass an act repealing the primary with a referendum to vote of the people. Mr. Flek accepted the substitute.

Two hours of debate that ranged through the history of Washington territorial days disclosed considerable sentiment against the primary but an unwillingness to go as far as Messrs. Flek and Thomas urged. The noisiest demonstration of the convention broke out when Mr. Flek, in leading the republicanism of Cowitts petition, retorted to the interruption of a Seattle delegate by saying that in Cowitts it would never be possible to elect a radical socialist as mayor or to any other office. The reference was to the election of Dr. Edwin J. Brown. But when it came to final test on the roll call of the counties the vote stood 150 for repeal of the primary and 227 against it.

Declarations Law Favored.

The commendation of the platform committee which was sustained by this vote favors the law passed by the last legislature to compel declaration of party affiliations at the time of registration. This law has been withheld from operation so far by referendum. It will be voted on in November. The only other big demonstration of the day followed the reading of a long telegram from Senator Poindexter.

Senator Poindexter's Message Reciting Achievements of Administration Cheered.

AMUNDSEN TO TRY FLIGHT OVER POLE

UNKNOWN NORTH REGIONS TO BE EXPLORED.

Adventure to Start From Barrow With Cape Columbia as Destination.

LONDON, June 10.—Captain Roald Amundsen, the explorer, who is about to begin a five-year expedition in Arctic regions, said in a message to the Times that the plan was for his ship Maud, which sailed from Seattle, Wash., recently for Nome, to drift across the polar ocean, while short reconnaissance trips would be made in small planes. Developments, however, had caused considerable change in the flying plans and should conditions allow he would start with Lieutenant Omdal, his pilot, from Point Barrow, flying across unknown regions of the Polar basin, across the north pole and thence to Cape Columbia (Grantland), where a depot had already been established.

MISS HUGHES WED AT GALA SERVICE

High Officials, Diplomats Witness Ceremony.

BRIDE'S GOWN IS GORGEOUS

State Secretary's Daughter Bride of C. L. Waddell.

C., June 10.—In the beautiful Little Bethlehem chapel of the Episcopal cathedral of St. Peter and Paul and in the presence of most of official Washington and the diplomatic corps, including President and Mrs. Harding, Miss Catherine Hughes, daughter of the secretary of state and Mrs. Hughes, and Chauncey Lockheart Waddell of New York, were married late today. The little chapel was simply decorated with flowers on the altar and in the niches along the side walls. The marriage service was read by the Right Rev. Alfred Harding, bishop of Washington, assisted by the Rev. Dr. W. S. Abernethy, pastor of the Calvary Baptist church, which the secretary and Mrs. Hughes attend.

Hughes Family Assist.

The secretary of state escorted and gave his daughter's hand in marriage. Her two small nephews, Charles Evans Hughes III and Stuart Hughes, served as train bearers. The two matrons of honor were Mrs. Charles Evans Hughes Jr. and Mrs. Ralph Dunlap of Akron, Ohio, sister of the bridegroom. Miss Elizabeth Kirkland of Nashville, Tenn., served as maid of honor.

Gerald Fessenden-Beal of New York city, was best man for Mr. Waddell and the distinguished group of guests were seated by the following ushers: Charles Evans Hughes, Jr., of New York city; Ralph Dunlap of Akron, O.; James Alexander of Atlanta; Dr. Byron Blaisdell of Hartford, Conn.; Kenneth Gaston of New York city, and Ralph Bolland of New York city. Whitney Young of New York city assisted the ushers.

Gown Embroidered in Pearls.

The wedding gown was of white crepe basted satin, embroidered in pearls with Lanvin sleeves of silk net. It was attired in soft folds on either side of a low waist line and fell in a graceful line at the hem. The court train of satin was also embroidered in pearls with an over-panel of net reaching from the shoulders. The long veil of net hung from a coronet of pearls.

Reception in Held.

The bride's going-away gown was of blue and beige Canton crepe. Her hat was of soft beige straw, trimmed with flowers in a deeper tone. Mrs. Hughes, mother of the bride, wore a gown of beige georgette and lace with a shaded lavender girle and a lavender hat. After the ceremony the bridal party, followed by the guests, motored to the Pan-American union building for the reception. The great hall of the Americas, the scene of many diplomatic gatherings, was given the honor of housing its first bridal reception.

Mr. and Mrs. Waddell, after a wedding trip, will live in New York city.
