ROSES TO BEDECK CITY FOR FESTIVAL

Downtown District to Be Decorated This Week.

EVENTS WILL BE GALA

Queen Harriet and Princesses to Arrive on Barge on Morning of Opening Day.

With the opening day of the 15th annual Rose Festival now only a little more than one week distant, President Hauser and all members of the festival board of governors, together with the many scores of public-spirited men and women assisting in preliminary activities, are all working at high pressure.

Festival decorations, which will make a gaia pathway of pennants, streamers, featoons of greens and blooms and hanging baskets of ferns and roses for a distance of 90 blocks, are rapidly going up. The downtown section will take on a festive appearance by the end of this week.

appearance by the end of this week.

Tentative Programme Issued. A forecast of the main events on the programme is given in a tenta-tive schedule issued by the festival officials yesterday.

Tuesday morning, June 20, Queen Tuesday morning, June 20, Queen Harriet and the royal princesses of her retinue, escorted by a grand water pageant of decorated river craft, will arrive from her mythical domain "somewhere up the Willamette" on her royal barge. The royal party will disembark at the foot of Belmont street on the east side, where the Supple-Ballin and Jones docks will be elaborately decorated by the East Side Business Men's club. The royal party will be welclub. The royal party will be welcomed to the commonwearn, the etate and the city by Prime Minister Dundore of the Royal Rosarians, Governor Olcott and Mayor Baker, respectively, after which, under es-cort of the Royal Rosarians Queenelect Harriet and party will proceed to luncheon in the gold room of the Multnomah hotel.

Crowning to Be at 2:30.

At 2:30 P. M. Princess Harriet will be crowned Queen Harriet with elaborate coremonles at Laurelhurst park. This event will be followed by allegorical dancing by groups of children, and other features. At 4 P. M. Queen Harriet will officially P. M. Queen Harriet will officially open the rose show at the armory and at 5 P. M. will open the festival center in the south park blocks.

A leading event of Wednesday will be the festival regatts, which will be staged between the Burnaide and Hawthorne bridges on the Willamette. The programme includes motorboat, rowing and came races. Bishop of Pendleton will be admir

Formal Ball to Be Given Following the festival regatta a formal ball, known as the admiral's formal ball, known as the admiral's ball, will be given at the Hotel Multnomab. Visiting naval officers will be among the guests of honor.

Another event of Wednesday afternoon will be the mass meeting of Oregon women to be held at the auditorium at 3 P. M. in honor of Alice Robertson of Oklahoma, only woman member of congress, who will attend the festival as the personal representative of President

Thursday afternoon Clay S. Morse, featival director in charge of athletics, will offer a lengthy programe of track and field events, vaudeville and circus acts, drill-team contests and various other fea-tures, including a Hunt club drill and probably some thrilling airplane

Harding.

The event of Thursday evening will be the spectacular fireworks programme in charge of Fred W. German, festival director. In addi-tion to a lengthy schedule of daylight fireworks and brilliant spec tacular displays comprising many novel effects, there will be an at-tack by 500 Indians in war bonnets, paint and beaded costumes, upon an early immigrant train of covered wagons. The Redmen will also stage wagons. The Redmen will also stage an Indian war dance. A sham bat-tle, depicting an active sector in tle, depicting an active sector in France, with a detachment of Unit-ed States soldiers participating, and an aerial battle between two war planes will be other features. The frances display will be other features. The freworks display will be held at the gates of the town are thrown open Portland baseball park. Twenty-fourth and Vaughn streets. Thursday evening the annual Royal Rosarian ball will be held at Cotillion hall. Queen Harriet and her court will be guests of honor.

Parade to Be Big Event.

The grand floral parade, premier event of the festival, will take place Friday. It is being assembled in 16 comprehensive divisions by Percy G. Allen, festival director, with the assistance of acores of energetic mer and women workers Admiral Henry T. Mayo, formerly commander-in-chief of the Atlantic fleet, will be grand marshal of the floral pageant and will be assisted by his staff officers and 40 sides. A notable feature will be the rec ord-breaking number of entries from outside cities, floats being sent from Los Angeles, Pasadena, San Fran clesc, Vancouver and Victoria, B. C., and many other distant points. A total of $8000 in cash prizes and scores of beautiful cups and trophies will be awarded.

Ball to End Festival.

The concluding events of the festival will be the grand carnival ball to be held at the armory Friday night in charge of Directors Culnight in charge of Directors Cul-bertson, German and Slatky, and the Whitney Boys' chorus of 2000 voices at Multnomah field, in charge of W. C. Culbertson, festival director. A feature of the Whitney Boys' chorus will be the singing of Bobble Mur-ray, 12-year-old boy soprano. The rose show in the central hall of the armory and the sportsmen's vourist show, which will occurre.

CORONATION OF QUEEN HARRIETT OF ROSE FESTIVAL TO BE BEAUTIFUL AFFAIR.

Taught at Institute Lasting Ten Weeks.

to been completed. The work will last announced yesterday

WILD AND WOOLY ROUND-UP FEATURE ORGANIZED.

Big Annual Show at Pendleton
Will Be Under Direction of Efficient Staff.

Efficient Staff.

Secretary-treasurer. As arena director Philo Rounds will have charge of the programme.
Music for this will be in the hands of Bert Jerard, while H. J. Warner will have charge of the pageants. Gien Storie will have charge of the Januar Stock will arrange the scenery and handle the electrical effects. J. B. Welch will be chief of police in Happy Canyon.
In the dancehall for the second part of the big night show Lester Cronin will be master of ceremonies, with Dr. H. M. Hanavan as the gambling boss and John Murray

PENDLETON, Or., June 10 .- (Spe al.)-Reorganization of the personnel that will stage Happy Can-yon, the big night show of the Pendleton round-up, was achieved when the officers indorsed by the board of managers of the Pendle-board of managers of the Pendle-ton Commercial association, the real director of the corporation, met and laid preliminary plans.

Happy Canyon is held during round-up week, which is set this year for September 21, 22 and 25.
It is a reproduction of a will west town in all its wooliness and ine show proper is divided into two parts. The first part is a programme in the arena before the big grandstands, where the coming of the and the spectators are allowed enter the town and participate in ten weeks, closing August 23, it was ## secretary-treasurer. As arena director Philo Rounds will have charge CLUBHOUSE IN PROSPECT of the first part of the programme.

Roy T. Rishop, admiral of regatta for Rose Festival.

IRVINGTON CLUB TO DISCUSS PROJECT TUESDAY NIGHT.

Members Argue That New Build-

The summer day classes of the college preparatory school of the Y. M. C. A. will start next Thursday. Iminary plans provide for a billiard the faculty for the summer has The faculty for the summer has reading room, swimming pool and convertible dance and reception hall with a stage at one end in the pro-posed structure. The club would be

The complete staff follows: L. G. open seven days a week and would form a center for community enter-Nichols, director; Hugh Miller, registrar; R. P. Burkhead, dean of prise istrar; R. P. Burkhead, dean of academic schools; D. B. Worthington, principal; C. E. Lewis, mathematics; K. McMillan, English; G. W. Brace, chemistry; C. L. Gates, shorthand and typewriting; M. A. Albin, business; C. E. Lenon, history; F. C. Robinson, mathematics; F. W. Park, English.

New class-room equipment has been installed. The laboratories for chemistry and physics have new There is a strong gentiment among class.

Prises.

While the plans have not yet crystallized, it is suggested that the club property be bonded to raise funds to erect the clubhouse; that it be erected on the north end of the property; that the old clubhouse be torn down and the tennis court's extended over the present site, and that the club property be landscaped and beautified with trees, shrubs and flowers.

Fing day will be observed by Portland lodge of Elks at Multnomath field on the night of Wednesday. June 14, in a patriotic and While the plans have not yet crysbeen installed. The laboratories for chemistry and physics have new lighting and research equipment, which will be available for science students.

The night school, which will run until August 23, has arranged its programme to give students who have only one or two credits to make p an opportunits.

The night school, which will run of the club and the Versteeg brick until August 23, has arranged its programme to give students who have only one or two credits to make up an opportunity to work during the day and attend the night school.

The college preparatory school, said the announcement, is fully accredited by the University of Oregon, the Oregon Agricultural college, the state superintendent of instruction and by all colleges of higher learns. Steinmetz and E. M. Welch.

diploma from the preparatory school will receive the same recognition as high school diplomas.

THEIR BEST ROSES

Two Silver Trophies Are Offered to Winners.

COMMITTEES ARE NAMED

Certificates of Merit Are to Be Given to All Who Score More Than 70 Points.

Rose Show at the armory will be the district rose exhibits. Through the co-operation of the central library and the 15 branch libraries of the city committees have been appointed which will be ropresentative of the rose growers of Portland as a whole. The avhibit for each district will The exhibit for each district wi consist of one basket containing di least 25 roses, which can be either one variety or mixed as to variety one variety or mixed as to variety or color; two small vases each containing six roses, and a box exhibit containing 18 roses, each of a separate named variety.

To the district obtaining the high-

To the district obtaining the highest number of points in the three days a fandsome silver trophy, which has been donated for the purpose by The Oregonian, will be awarded. This trophy will become the permanent property of the district making the highest score and will be turned over to the branch librarys in that district for a permanent exhibit, evidencing the ability of the residents in that community to grow perfect roses.

Certificates to Be Given

Certificates to Be Given.

The second prize will be a handsome silver trophy awarded by the Portland Rose society. To other districts scoring more than 70 points will be awarded a suitably framed certificate of merit, which will be displayed in their branch library in recognition of their efforts.

H. H. Haynes of the Portland Rose society is chairman of the district rose exhibits; Miss Nellie Fox of the central library is serving as associate chairman, and Josephine H. Forney of the publicity department of the Chamber of Commerce is acting as appretary of the committee. The personnel of the entire district rose committee follows:

Ariets—Mary Henthorne; Mrs. Mary L. Pebbers, 4500 Secure Circut street South. Certificates to Be Given.

Arlets-Mary Henthorne; Mrs. Mary

Arleta—Mary Hentherne; Mrs. Mary LiPishburn, 4620 Seventy-first afreet Southeast; Mrs. P. S. Morton, 4308 Sixty-third street Southeast; Miss Eddin Steele, 6715
Porty-forth avenue Southeast.
Brooklyn—Mrs. Ethel Hoffman; Mrs.
Minnie Moore, 582 East Ninth street;
Mrs. O. C. Buchanan, 584 East Ninth street; Mrs. J. B. Kennedy, 584 East
Ninth-street;
East Portland—Helen McRaith; Mrs.
Benjamin Vitow, 1197 East Salmon street; Mrs. A. L. DuPuy, 1121 East
Burnside; Mrs. R. E. Bondurant, 339
East Thirty-fourth street,
Gresham—Norma Peck, Mrs. Fred
Honey, Miss Mabel Ingis, Mrs. Max
Schneider.

Greanam—Norma Peck. Mrs. Fred.
Honey, Miss Mabel Inglis, Mrs. Max
Schneider.

Lents-Mrs. Ruth Pierce: Mrs. Fred.
Geisler, 9515 Fifty-eighth avenue Southeast; Mrs. R. Alles, 9112 Fifty-sixth avenue; Mrs. Inc. Richardson, 5817
Eighty-eighth street Southeast.

Montavilla—Miss Ethelwyn Badger;
Mrs. Victor M. Tatt, 17 East Eightyfourth street; Mrs. J. H. Kiser, 1819 East
Morrison: Mrs. E. E. Burdick, 17 East
Eighty-first street.

North Portland—Ruth Crocker; Mrs.
H. H. Emmons, 1201 Missouri avenue;
Mrs. Clyde White, 249 View street; Dr.
I. N. Palmer, 1424; Killingsworth,
Peninsuls—Anne McClelland; Mrs. E.
E. Kelso, 1527 Oatman street; Mrs. H. M.
Gerks, 1571 Villard street; Mrs. Laura Taylor, 1548 Boston street.

Sellwood—Hasel White: Mrs. Theodore Noff, 1637 East Thirteenth street; Mrs.
Frank Lowe, 585 Tacoma street; Ollys
Keller, 636 Sherrett street.

South Portland—Miss Zerlina Loewenberg: Mrs. Ida H. Beyer, 230 Wood street; Mrs. P. E. Stowell, 534 Corbett sireet; Mrs. R. B. Poucher, 146 Gibbs street.

St. Johns—Miss Maud Covington; Mrs.
J. A. Manning, 414 South Edison street:

for the construction of a new building. They argue that a new clubhouse would be a great asset to the community, and assert that the present one is inadequate, lacking the facilities necessary for the full enjoyment of the members.

A number of additional activities

FLAG WILL BE HONORED

ELKS TO HOLD ANNUAL CERE-MONY NEXT WEDNESDAY.

the event.

Judge Walter H. Evans, chairman of the lodge's welfare committee, which has charge of the arrangewhich has charge of the arrangements, has announced that an excellent programme has been worked out and the Boy Scouts of Portland will take part in the exercises. It is expected that over 1000 members of the various Scouts' organizations will be present. Scout Leader Brockman has expressed great interest in the affair and has promised hearty co-operation.

Elks and Boy Scouts will assemble co-operation.

Elks and Boy Scouts will assemble at Elks' temple at 6:30 P.M. Wednes-

SUNNYSIDE CHAPTER, ORDER OF DE MOLAY, TO PRESENT FARCE COMEDY.

Miss Mary Rice Miss Irone Fournier

DE MOLAY TO GIVE PLAY PROCEEDS TO BE USED TO PURCHASE UNIFORMS.

Show Tomorrow Is to Be Followe by Ceremonial Wednesday at Auditorium.

"Charley's Aunt," a farcical com edy in three acts, will be presented under the auspices of the Sunnyside chapter, Order of De Molay for boys, at the auditorium tomorrow night at 8:15. This will be followed Wednesday night at the auditorium, by special ceremonials exemplifying the De Molay degrees before the grand lodge of Oregon, A. F. and A. M. At that time a class of 60 boys will be initiated into the Sunnyside De Molay chapter, and it is expected that other candidates will be fur-nished by other Oregon and Wash-ington lodges. Frank De Spaste Cronin wil be master of ceremonies, with Dr. H. M. Hanayan as the gambling boss and John Murray as chief bartender. Rudy Moliner and Jim Bowler will be the official bankers for the wild west town.

SUMMER TERM TO OPEN

Community Served.

St. Johns—Miss Maud Covington; Mrs. St. Late Indian street; Mrs. J. B. W. Bottom, 828 South Jersey street; Mrs. Hassel Engagel, 728 South Jersey street; Mrs. Hassel Engagel, 728 South Jersey street; Mrs. J. B. The community Served and Jim Bowler will be the official bankers for the wild west town.

Community Served.

Community Served.

Community Served.

Community Served.

St. Johns—Miss Maud Covington; Mrs. St. Late Indian street; Mrs. J. B. Community Served.

St. Johns—Miss Maud Covington; Mrs. St. Late Indian street; Mrs. J. B. Community Served.

Wis Johns—Miss Maud Covington; Mrs. St. Late Indian street; Mrs. J. B. Community Served.

Wis Johns—Miss Maud Covington; Mrs. St. Late Indian street; Mrs. J. B. Community Served.

Wis Johns—Miss Maud Covington; Mrs. St. Late Indian street; Mrs. J. B. Community Served.

Wis Johns—Miss Maud Covington; Mrs. St. Late Indian street; Mrs. J. B. Community Served.

Wis Johns—Miss Maud Covington; Mrs. St. Late Indian street; Mrs. J. B. Community Served.

Wis Johns—Miss Maud Covington; Mrs. St. Late Indian street; Mrs. J. B. Community Served.

Wis Johns—Miss Maud Covington; Mrs. St. Late Indian street; Mrs. J. B. Community Served.

Wis Johns—Miss Maud Covington; Mrs. St. Late Indian street; Mrs. J. B. Community Served.

Wis Johns—Miss Maud Covington; Mrs. St. Late Indian street; Mrs. J. B. Community Served.

St. Johns—Miss Maud Covington; Mrs. St. Late Indian street; Mrs. J. B. Community Served.

St. Johns—Miss Maud Covington; Mrs. St. Late Indian street; Mrs. J. B. Community Served.

St. Johns—Miss Maud Covington; Mrs. St. Late Indian street; Mrs. J. B. Community Served.

St. Johns—Miss Maud Covington; Mrs. St.

dates features of the ceremonial Wednesday night will include the receiving of Frank S. Baillie, most ing the Masons of Oregon, and Will-iam J. Kerr, district deputy of grand council Order of De Molay for boys.

LODGE MAN IS HONORED Oddfellows and Rebekahs Tender

L. E. Carter Reception. Members of the Oddfellows and Rebekah lodges of Portland and other cities of the state were pres-for the Festival Coulters, featured freedor. A coulter special contract that fire the fire point of the special contract that fire the fire point of the special contract that fire point of the special contr

"An American educator recently went to England. In conversation with an English educator concerning secondany education, the latter said that his country did not offer training free to all in their secondary schools giving as his reason ary schools, giving as his reason that they could not afford it. He further added, addressing the American: "You cannot afford it. either, in your country, but you don't know it." We, in America, disagree with this point of view. We believe that if our democracy is to endure we if our democracy is to endure we can afford it. In fact, we cannot

Child Is Chief Factor.

elementary schools

PUBLIC EDUCATION

HELD NEAR CRISIS

Funds to Rehabilitate City

Schools Only Salvation.

SITUATION FACES CHAOS

System Promises Collapse

for Lack of Money.

Unless the yoters of the district approve the $3,000,000 bond issue and the $1,000,000 tax levy for the rehabilitation of Portland schools at next Saturday's election, a chaotic condition must ensue. Such is the opinion of Assistant School Superintendent Rice, who declined to make a specific prophecy, but who admitted that failure of the two measures might mean the enforced

Voters Give Aid Whole

afford not to do it.

"It takes many factors to make a successful school system. The chief factor is the child. Without him schools would not be maintained. Portland is not lacknig here, as we Portland is not lacknig here, as we have 40,000 of the finest boys and girls to be found in any city in the nation. Another factor is the teacher. Here again our city stands at the forefront, with 1400 well-trained, conscientious and hardworking teachers. However, these factors alone will not make a school. We must have buildings and tools to work with and that is the handicap under which we are working now. Of 1272 school rooms at the present time, more than 200, or 16 orth Portland—Ruth Grocker.

In Trestrail, 1163 Moore street; Mra.

H. Emmona, 1201 Missouri avenue;

Clyde White, 249 View street; Dr.

S. Palmer, 1424 Killingsworth.

In proceeds will be used to purchase uniforms for the pairol and band of the Sunnyside De Molay organization.

The proceeds will be used to purchase uniforms for the pairol and band of the Sunnyside De Molay organization.

The proceeds will be used to purchase uniforms for the pairol and band of the Sunnyside De Molay organization.

The proceeds will be used to purchase uniforms for the pairol and band of the Sunnyside De Molay organization.

The proceeds will be used to purchase uniforms for the pairol and bands of the Sunnyside De Molay organization.

The proceeds will be used to purchase uniforms for the pairol and bands of the Sunnyside De Molay organization.

The proceeds will be used to purchase unished by other Oregon and Washington loaders.

The proceeds will be used to purchase unished by other Oregon and Washington loaders.

The proceeds will be used to purchase unished by other Oregon and Washington loaders.

The proceeds will be used to purchase unished by other Oregon and Washington loaders.

The proceeds will be used to purchase unished by other Oregon and Washington loaders.

The proceeds will be used to purchase unished by other Oregon and Washington loaders.

The proceeds will be used to purchase unished by other Oregon and Washington loaders.

The proceeds will be used to purchase unished by other Oregon and bands on the coast and it is the Intention to have the members properly decked out in uniforms. The both and the purchase unished by other Oregon and Washington loaders.

The proceeds will be used to purchase unswitched and the propers and the propers and the propers and the purchase unished by other Oregon and bands on the coast and it is the Intention to have the members properly decked out in uniforms.

The comedy is full of humorous broaders and it is the Intention to have the members and the purchase unished by other O present time, more than 200, or 16 per cent, are portables. Most of these were built during the war in the interests of economy, in order that the entire resources of the na-part in the production are all members of the De Molay organization.

More than 1500 reservations have had experience in giving plays.

The cast of characters includes the following:

Colonel Sir Francis Chesney Bart, late Indian service. Frank E. De Sasio to 28. the following:

Colonel Sir Francis Chesney Bart, late indian service, Frank E. De Spain:
Stephen Spettigue, solicitor, Oxford, Hyman Selko; Jack Chesney, Charles Wykeham, Lord Fancourt Babberley, undergraduates St. Oide's college, Oxford Walter Malcolm, Fred C, West, Joe A. Fraser: Brasset, a college, court, Paul Krausse; Donna Lucia D'Alvardorex, from Brazil, Miss Mary Rice; Kitty Verdon, Spettigue, Spettigue's ward, Miss Myric Anslow, Amy Spettigue, Spettigue's niece, Miss Irene Fournier; Ella Delahay, an orphan, Miss Floretta Lewit.

Synopsis.

Act I—Jack Chesney's room in college.

When plous frauds are dispensations."—
Hudibraus.

Act II—Garden outside Jack Chesney's Act II—Garden outside Jack Chesney's room in college.

"When plous frauds are dispensations."—
Hudibraus.

Act II—Garden outside Jack Chesney's Act II—Garden outside Jack Chesney's room in college.

"When plous frauds are dispensations."—
Hudibraus.

Act II—Garden outside Jack Chesney's tag there's hope."

Act II—Garden outside Jack Chesney's hope.

Act II—Garden outside Jack Chesney's hope."

Act II—Garden outside Jack Chesney's hope."

Act II—Garden outside Jack Chesney's hope.

Act II—Garden outside Jack C

My desired to find the first the secured that is the effect upon the city's automobile out the Columbia River also well.

Time—The present. Commemoration week, Oxford.

Besides the initiation of candidates features of the ceremonial dates features of the ceremonial dates features of the ceremonial dates features of the ceremonial its nine halls and large rooms and receiving of Frank S. Baillie, most worshipful grand master, representations.

To club privileges for visitors who desire to play golf or to be accorded the time that its the effect upon the city's and that is the effect upon the city's and that is the effect upon the city's future of maintaining a school system. We spend a great deal of effort and money every year in advention, but has also gained the promise of the Labor Temple with its nine halls and large rooms and the auditoriums of various churches about the city for the use of contact school system.

about the city for the use of convention gatherings. It is considered that ample provision has been made for the accommodation of all sessions, both general and special.

From the magnet the Account. From the moment the deputies arrive at the station it is the intention to have men and women welcome them and act as their guides and see that they are taken to the search of the school year, or half-day assions in some grades. A further elimination of activities may be necessary. see that they are taken to their hotels by auto. The official automobiles, a fleet of which has been obtained for the handling of convention visitors will be received.

obtained for the handling of convention visitors, will be marked with a purple cross, the official badge of the convention. At the sauditorium, the Multomah botel, School Board Asked to Employ the state were present. Friday night at the Oddfeilows' hall to attend a reception in honor of Le Carter, who was elected grand warden of the grand lodge of Oregon at the recent state convent. The affair was planned by Samaritan lodge No. 2, of which Mr. Carter has for many years been were the state were present state convention at Eugene. The affair was planned by Samaritan lodge No. 2, of which Mr. Carter has for many years been wentloned in the state were present state convention of the symphony or condition that the school board, before election, act favorably upon the report of the committee appointed by the city club to investigate this matter.

The state convention of the leading indorsed the $3.000,000 special tax levy for school district No. 1 upon the conductor of the symphony or condition that the school board, before election, act favorably upon the report of the committee appointed by the city club to investigate this matter.

The affair was planned by Samaritan lodge No. 2, of which Mr. Carter has for report to make the musical side of the convention of the symphony or the conductor of the symphony or the school board, before election, act favorably upon the report of the committee appointed by the city club to investigate this matter.

The state were present with a purple cross, the official backet to Employ Construction Engineer.

The Rotary club of Portland has indorsed the $1.000,000 special tax levy for school district No. 1 upon the conductor of the the state of the state of the symphony or the conductor of the symphony or the conductor of the symphony or the conductor of the symphony or the state of the symphony or the effect that if the bond issue and tax levy carry, the school board will conduct the expenditures in a busi-