the members of the Portland symphony orchestra will give to the guarantors and the subscribers of this organization Monday evening in appreciation of their patronage.

Many elaborate dinners will be given at the Multnomah hotel preceding the affair. Among those who are planning to entertain that evening are Mr. and Mrs. Henry L. Corbett, Mr. and Mrs. Kurt H. Koehler, Mr. and Mrs. William D. Wheelwright, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Webster Talbot, Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Strong, Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Berg, Mrs. Charles E. Curry and Mrs. John D. Coleman. A number of no-host parties will be given.

Mrs. Theodore B. Wilcox gave a bridge party and tea Tuesday afternoon at her summer place, Glenwood farm. The tea table was presided over by Mrs. William D. Wheelwright, Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett, Mrs. Holt C. Wilson and Mrs. Lucius Allen Lewis.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore B. Wilcox Jr. will spend two months abroad. They departed last week-end on the White Star liner Homeric.

Announcing engagements from Europe in cablegrams seem to be the latest idea in vogue among the society folk of Portland.

Last week the news of the engagement of Miss Jean Meier, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Julius L. Meier, to Daryl Klein was contained in a cablegram.

Miss Meier, who has been traveling abroad with her family, recently arrived in Paris, after traveling in Japan, China and England. She is a great social favorite in Portland, as well as in New York.

Miss Meier attended Miss Catlin's school in Portland and later was graduated from Mrs. Merrill's school at Manhattan, New York.

Mr. Klein is in the exporting and importing business, with headquarters at Kobe, Japan. He is known also as an author of several books. Mr. Klein and Miss Meier first became interested in each other through their mutual love of literature.

No definite plans have been made for the wedding.

Mrs. Robert Noble was the inspiration for a charmingly appointed tea on Friday afternoon at which Mrs. Philip Buehner and Mrs. Charles Thornton Ladd were hostesses at Mrs. Buehner's home on Hawthorne avenue. Presiding at the tea table were Mrs. William M. Ladd, Mrs. John Forrest Dickson, Mrs. Helen R. Corbett, Mrs. Wells Gilbert, Mrs. Donald Munro and Mrs. Carl Wernicke. Miss Jane Talbot and Miss Anna Warren assisted about the dining room.

Mrs. John S. Parke entertained on Thursday afternoon at an informal tea.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Sharp were hosts Thursday evening at a dinner honoring their house guests, Mrs. Edward A. Howard and Miss Jane Howard of San Francisco. Mr. and Mrs. Sharp and their guests will pass the week-end at Seaside.

Mrs. Charles T. Whitney was hostess Thursday afternoon at a luncheon at the Waverley Country club honoring her sisters, the Misses Matilda and Mary Barron and several other California visitors. Mrs. Joseph K. Clark of Los Angeles, who is visiting Mrs. A. E. Rockey, Mrs. Jane Howard, Mrs. Harry Sharp's guest.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Penton will be hosts tomorrow evening at a dinner party in honor of Miss Miriam Reed and her fiancée, James Forrest Cobb Jr. Covers will be placed for Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Reed, the ered one of the best in the army and was chosen to play before many no-tables when in France.

Regimental parades scheduled on Tuesdays, mounted battalion; Wednesdays, rifle battalion; and Fridays, the complete regiment, are also well attended by spectators. The parade ground is in excellent condition and the troops make a fine showing after their winter's training.

A group of prominent young men will give a no-host dance at the Automobile club next Friday night. A number of dinners will be given preceding the dance. Mrs. D. W. L. MacGregor will preside at a dinner and Mrs. A. K. Murphy will entertain with a similar affair.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Ahern of New York city were the week-end guests of Lieutenant and Mrs. C. H. Eccles. Mr. Ahern is assistant treasurer of the Mutual Life Insurance company. Lieutenant Hazel-tine is his nephew.

Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Densmore of Piedmont, Cal., are visiting their daughter, Mrs. William McG. Chapman, wife of Captain Chapman, at Vancouver barracks.

Mrs. Dom J. Zan is visiting in Seattle as the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur E. Coman.

An interesting lecture was given Friday night under the auspices of the Trinity Mission Guild at the parish house, when William D. Wheelwright spoke, his topic being "From San Francisco to India and Home by the Way of Japan."

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Millard have been the guests of Mrs. Millard's mother, Mrs. Parker F. Morey. Mr. and Mrs. Millard are planning to leave soon for a year's visit in Europe.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Livingstone are visiting at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Ernest F. Tucker. They recently sold their ranch in Yakima valley.

Last Monday the Arts and Crafts society participated in the first of its series of garden expeditions. After visiting many beautiful gardens at Riverdale the club members enjoyed luncheon in Judge and Mrs. Charles H. Carey's garden. Later they inspected various gardens on Palestine hill and had tea at the home of Mrs. William M. Ladd. Their next visit will be postponed from tomorrow until a week from Monday.

Miss Dorothy Sanford has chosen July 9 as the date of her wedding to Leonard Dale Wilson of eastern Oregon. The marriage will take place at the home of Miss Sanford's parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. C. Sanford, and will be witnessed only by relatives and intimate friends. During the next few weeks Miss Sanford will be the inspiration for many attractive affairs.

Mrs. James B. Kerr and her daughter Katherine have gone to Eugene to attend the commencement exercises at the University of Oregon. They will return with Miss Betty Kerr, who is a student there.

An announcement of much interest was the engagement of Miss Margaret Nickerson to Roscoe G. Ashley, which was made known yesterday. Miss Nickerson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Garry C. Nickerson. She is an attractive girl and an accomplished musician. She graduated from the Portland academy.

Mr. Ashley is the son of Mr. and Mrs. M. A. M. Ashley. He was graduated from the Portland academy and Yale. He is a prominent club man. During the war he served overseas.

The wedding will take place next Saturday.

Mrs. Spencer Scott arrived last week from her home in New York to be the guest of her mother, Mrs. C. Mininger, for the summer.

Mrs. Colin Livingstone has as her house guests Miss Jean Romero and her sister, Miss Dolores Romero, of New York city. Monday night Mrs. Colin Livingstone presided at dinner in their honor.

Thursday afternoon Mrs. Vincent Cook was hostess with a delightful luncheon on the highway in honor of Mrs. George Maxwell.

Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Crumpacker of Hammond, Ind., arrived last week to be the house guests of Mr. and Mrs.

Maurice E. Crumpacker. A number of affairs are being given for them. Dr. and Mrs. William S. Knox entertained last night with a dinner party on the highway. This evening Mrs. Dennison Clark will give a supper party in their honor at her country home.

Mrs. John Ker was the inspiration for several smart social affairs last week. Mrs. Donald Green gave a bridge tea for her Wednesday afternoon and Friday Mrs. Alan Green honored Mrs. Ker at an informal party.

Honoring Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Kerry, Dr. and Mrs. George Parrish were dinner hosts Monday evening.

Mrs. Harold Dekum Gill entertained Monday afternoon, complimenting Miss Mary Warrack, popular bride-elect, with a tea and handkerchief shower.

Miss Harriet Griffith, who will soon reign supreme over the city as queen of the Rose Festival, was honored Wednesday afternoon with a luncheon at the University club, at which Miss Dorothy Metchan was hostess. Miss Metchan will be remembered as last year's queen. Covers were placed for Miss Margaret Cook, Miss Janet House, Miss Doris Henningsen, Miss Suzanne Caswell, Miss Janice Parke, Miss Elizabeth Martin, Miss Charlotte Jones, Miss Amelia Montgomery, Miss Catherine Woodard, Miss Alice Wittenberg, Miss Helen West, Miss Stella Riggs and Miss Margaret Foster.

Mrs. Harry Sharp was a charming hostess at a tea Monday afternoon when she honored her two house guests, Mrs. Edward A. Howard and Miss Jane Howard of San Francisco. The rooms were attractively decorated with Japanese iris and delphinium. Those in charge of the tea table were Mrs. Charles F. Beebe, Mrs. Henry T. Mayo and Mrs. Donald Hemmings. Assisting about the rooms were Mrs. George Mayo, Mrs. Henry Hughes, Mrs. John Shuler, Mrs. Ralph H. Schneelock, Mrs. Kenneth Beebe, Miss Helen Page and Miss Frances Page.

Prominent among Stanford university students are Miss Vivian Umphrey and Charles S. King of Portland, who were married Saturday, June 17, in Memorial chapel.

Miss Polly Gerts of Chicago entertained by prominent Portlanders

Misses Miriam Reed, Marian West, Nancy Holt, Louise Corbin and Doris Fiebert of Seattle, and Messrs. Forrest Cobb Jr., Harold Groom, Robert Kendall, Sidney Tupper and the hosts, Mrs. Penton's mother, Mrs. F. M. Studley of Seattle, also will be present at the affair.

Mrs. Thomas S. Barnes presided at an informal dinner Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. George Rebec entertained at a dinner party last night.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jennings of Coronado, Cal., are the house guests of Mrs. Nellie Glutch and Miss Gertrude Druck Glutch of Laurelhurst.

Mrs. William Calk will give a series of bridge parties, the first of which will be next Wednesday afternoon at the Nortonia hotel. The honor guests will be Mrs. V. Richards and Mrs. James Clark Norton.

Mrs. A. M. Oakes, who will be remembered by many old Portland friends, has returned to this city after five years in Honolulu. She is visiting friends here and is being extensively entertained. She arrived Sunday via Victoria. B. C. Mrs. Oakes will remain in Portland until fall and then is planning a trip to China.

Ronald Honeyman, son of Mr. and Mrs. James D. Honeyman, will leave soon for an extended trip in Europe. He will be a member of a party of fraternity men of Delta Kappa Epsilon.

Mrs. Vincent Cook honored Mrs. George Maxwell at a luncheon on the highway Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Della Hahn Guerin will give an informal tea tomorrow afternoon, complimenting Mrs. Howard Charlton, who has just returned from her wedding trip.
