

SOCIETY

Mrs. A.E. Campbell (Miss Elizabeth Pinkerton) Recent Bride.

Mrs. Robert Weinheimer Who Was Miss Bertha Muller.

Mrs. G.A. Bentley (Miss Estie Stump) A June Bride.

Willis will be hostesses for the women of the Elks' card party, Mrs. H. D. Green, Mrs. F. Verblake, Mrs. H. Brown, Mrs. Nelson Gay, Mrs. W. G. Hogge and Mrs. R. K. Coster held high scores last week. The club will continue its parties through the summer months every Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. De Lilla Perry Winters entertained Wednesday afternoon in honor of Mrs. James Bond, who is leaving soon for southern California. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. H. H. East. The tea table was prettily decorated with pink and white roses. Those enjoying the afternoon were Mesdames James Mutch, George Woods, Carl Swallow, John Houghton, James Bond, H. H. East, L. M. Cox, E. V. Langens, J. W. Jensen, H. A. Seely, A. J. Michaud, W. B. Pattison, J. H. Cox, W. Pattison and H. Johnson.

H. Harold Bromberg entertained at a luncheon Tuesday afternoon honoring Mrs. Meier Kolmitz, who is visiting here from Seattle. Covers were placed for Mrs. A. R. Kolmitz, Mrs. Phillip Harris, Mrs. Alfred Krause, Mrs. William Kran and Mrs. Max Sommer.

The residence of Mr. and Mrs. Louis G. Apperson was the scene of a pretty children's party Tuesday for their little son Bobbie. A dainty color scheme of pink and blue added charm to the garden and table, where covers were laid for the little folks. Favors in keeping with the color scheme were given and games were played. The guest list included Mrs. Dorothy Simmons, Betty Jane Phelps, Charles Cleveland, Mary Gould, Albert Simmons, Bettie Clayton, Edward Irwin, Patricia Neal, Elizabeth Thomson, Royl Cornish, Douglas Skorg, Jane Chaplin, Leona Nilson, Guy Nealy, Barbara Neinstein, Norman Hadley, Junior Robinson, Virginia Gray, Billy Boyer, Robert Hadley, Florence Boyer and Bobbie Apperson. Assisting about the table were Mrs. Charles Bean, Mrs. Edgar M. Phelps, Miss Helen Mulkey, Mrs. H. G. Apperson, Mrs. William H. Boyer and the hostess, Mrs. Louis G. Apperson.

COMING EVENTS.

The Wisconsin State society will meet June 21 at the Turn Verein hall, Thirteenth and Main streets. The new president desires a large attendance to hear the reports on the new federation of the state societies. There will be cards, dancing and luncheon will be served. All Wisconsinites and friends are invited.

WEDDINGS.

Redding-Shiel.
The marriage of Miss Edna M. Shiel and Ray L. Redding was solemnized at the church of Portland, 129 Fourth street, Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock, June 7, in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives. Bishop John C. St. Clair of Chicago officiated. The bride was beautifully gowned in white lace over broadened satin, crowned with a wreath of orange blossoms and bridal veil. She carried a bouquet of white roses. The bridesmaid was Miss Emma Brown, dressed in cream satin, trimmed in pink. She carried pink roses. The wedding march was played by Mrs. Knight at the piano and Mr. Beul, violin. Little Lillian Mode, dressed in pink, was the ring-bearer. Miss Mary Booth was dressed in white over pink, carrying a basket of pink roses. Miss Evelyn Simmons, dressed in white, carried a basket of white roses. A reception followed at the home of the bride's parents.

Robinson-Lamoreaux.
Miss Carrie Lamoreaux and W. T. Robinson were married Sunday evening at 7 o'clock at 1125 Gladstone avenue, the home of the bride's parents, in the presence of immediate relatives of the principals. A supper party followed the wedding ceremony. After a few days the young couple will be in their new home in Yamhill. The bride has taught in the Yamhill schools for the past two years and has a large circle of friends.

Solhom-Busbee.
The wedding of Miss Ethel Busbee and David Solhom was solemnized quietly Wednesday evening, June 7, in the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. C. L. Busbee, in the presence of a few relatives and friends by Rev. L. K. Grimes. Miss Agnes Scott was maid of honor and Will Busbee, best man. The house was beautifully decorated in pink and white roses and evergreens.

Taylor-Eby.
The wedding of Rev. John T. Taylor of Los Angeles and Mrs. Vera S. Eby of 1198 Cleveland avenue was held Thursday night at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride, Rev. F. L. Burns of the Alberta Free Methodist church performed the ceremony. The bridegroom was assisted in a missionary work in India for 20 years as a minister in the Free Methodist church. He is to get a pastorate in Oregon. The bride is a sister of W. B. Skinner of this city. She has made her home here for the last two years.

MONMOUTH, Or., June 17.—(Special.)—A pretty wedding took place at the Christian church of this city Saturday afternoon, June 16, at 3 o'clock, when Miss Neta Waller became the bride of Hugh C. Olds of Camas, Wash. Rev. H. E. Hossell, pastor of the church, read the ring service. Preceding the ceremony Miss Bess Clancy of Camas sang "Oh Promise Me." Mrs. Belle Beckley of Monmouth played the wedding march from "Lohengrin." The attendants were Miss Mildred Force of Monmouth and Dale Olds of Camas. Miss Mildred Kennedy of Camas was flower girl, and Bessie Kennedy, ring-bearer. Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lorin W. Waller of this city. She is a graduate of the Oregon normal school and has taught for the past two years in the schools of Camas. Mr. Olds is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Olds of Gladstone. The couple will spend their honeymoon in Victoria and Powell River, British Columbia, and will make their home in Camas after July 1.

Moore-Emmel.
The marriage of Miss Minnetta Emmel, popular school teacher of Portland, and Ray Moore took place Friday morning at 8 o'clock at the First Presbyterian church, Dr. Harold L. Bowman officiating. The bride was dressed in white crepe de chine with wedding veil and orange blossoms and carried a bouquet of roses. She was attended by Willa Hurt as maid of honor, and Teresa and Bernice Hurt. Earl McNaught was best man. Heading the procession was little John Callier, acting as ring-bearer, followed by four little flower girls, Jean Forbes, Ruth Hurt, Ruth Emmel and Jane Callier.

Mrs. Margaret Emmel, mother of the bride, sang "Love's Old Sweet Song" and Mrs. Getis "I Love You Truly." Following the marriage ceremony a reception and wedding breakfast was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hurt, 284 Wheeler street.

Mills-Lundquist.
The marriage of Miss Olivetta Mills, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse A. Mills, to Carl Matthew Lundquist took place last Wednesday evening at a home wedding, Dr. Villers, pastor of the First Baptist church, performed the ceremony in the presence of relatives and friends.

The rooms were decorated with palms, ferns and peonies. Preceding the ceremony Miss Alice Johnson sang "At Dawning." Miss Gladys Johnson, violinist, accompanied by Miss Jean Harper, played the wedding march. The bride, coming in on the arm of her father, wore a beaded gown of satin crepe. Her tulle veil was bound with a circlet of orange blossoms and her bouquet was a shower of Ophelia roses and sweet peas. She was attended by her cousin, Miss Edith Davis, who wore a gown of pink georgette crepe and a picture hat. Nathan Sundberg acted as best man. About 75 guests were present.

Stachle-Amacher.
A very pretty June wedding occurred last Wednesday afternoon, June 14, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Trachsel, at Redville, Or., when their sister, Miss Irene Stachle, daughter of Mrs. M. Stachle of Hillsboro was united in marriage to Fred

Vacation—Leisure—Books

The leisure of vacation days affords opportunity for getting at some of the books you have been wanting to read.

So we are featuring in all our windows this week recreational reading in variety.

FICTION for those who seek diversion merely.

TRAVEL, POETRY, HISTORY, SCIENCE and BIOGRAPHY for those who desire heavier reading.

For those who desire to pursue a definite course of reading a sort of MENTAL BALANCED RATION will be outlined upon request.

N. B.—And the boys and girls want vacation reading, too.

See Our Special Windows.

The J. K. Gill Company

Third and Alder Streets

Amacher of Linnton. Rev. Scheid of Phillips officiated, using the beautiful ring ceremony. The bride, who is an unusually beautiful girl, was handsomely gowned in richly beaded white georgette over white satin. She wore a bridal veil and carried a huge shower bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley. Miss Elsie Stachle, attractive sister of the bride, was daintily gowned in pink organdy with bouquet of pink rosebuds and acted as bridesmaid, while Albert Linder, a cousin, attended the groom. About 40 guests enjoyed the banquet served on the lawn, the tables being under a magnificent Japanese chestnut tree. The bride is a graduate of Hillsboro high school and has been a very successful teacher the past four years. The groom is a prosperous merchant of Linnton, where he has a beautiful home awaiting his charming bride after their return from a trip to Seaside and other points.

Young-Andersen.
The residence of Mr. and Mrs. William Jacobs, 1694 Peninsula avenue, was the scene of a pretty home wedding Thursday evening, when Earl D. Young and Miss Minnie Agnes Andersen were married. The ceremony was performed within an attractive bower of roses. Rev. John D. Rice officiating. The bride was attired in Canton crepe, heavily trimmed with pearl beads, and her bridesmaid, Miss Reulah Fleuf, wore peach organdie and hat to match. The bridal party included Constance Bougher and Bertha Andersen as flower girls and little Geraldine Case of Tillamook as ring bearer. The bridegroom was attended by Carl Negstad.

The bride is the daughter of John Andersen of Orchard, Wash., and the bridegroom the son of Mrs. William Young of Portland. After a brief honeymoon trip in eastern Oregon they will return to the city, where Mr. Young is established in business.

Crader-Barrett.
The marriage of Mrs. Georgia Barrett and John A. Crader took place in Seattle, Wash., Saturday, June 10, with Rev. Russell Thrapp officiating. After a brief honeymoon in Canada Mr. and Mrs. Crader will make their home in Portland.

Gross-Gingrich.
The marriage of Miss Helen Ann Gingrich, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Gingrich, and Edward G. Gross, son of Mrs. E. S. Gross, took place Monday night, June 12, at the Glouce Baptist church in the presence

(Concluded on Page 7.)

H-LIEBES & CO.

Furs and Individual Style Shops Broadway at Morrison

500 CRISP, NEW TUB FROCKS

in a super-sale—Monday—

at 7.95 & 11.95

500 frocks—all new—almost as many smart styles as frocks! Apart from the really extraordinary values—without doubt the most alluring collection of summer dresses ever assembled in Portland!

Selected just as carefully as though it were of silk—each simple frock has an air of its own. You will realize—at sight—that it was meant to sell for much more!

Frocks for informal summer affairs—porch frocks—sports frocks—street frocks. All sizes!

The styles—
Frilled, bouffant affairs—for flappers; chemise frocks—straightline models for large figures—frocks with aprons and loose flowing panels. Jumper frocks—and strictly sports types—tailored with exquisite care!

The fabrics—
Checked or plaided ginghams (many imported). Printed voiles—in lovely foulard patterns. Delicate handkerchief or the stouter linens. Ratines—plaided eponge frocks—and a smart group in the natural pongee. Much fine organdie and voile are used in combinations!

The colorings—
Rose, Nattier blue, orchid, tangerine, pistache, brown, navy, black. Ginghams in checks of orchid, tomato, Nile, blue, canary, brown. Every lovely summer coloring is here!

The values—
Many will sell for less than regular wholesale cost—all were bought at very great price concessions. There is charm, utility and smartness in every frock!

Additional salespeople to serve you promptly!

H. Liebes & Co

ESTABLISHED 1864

H-LIEBES & CO.

Furs and Individual Style Shops Broadway at Morrison

A very special event:
SMART WHITE HATS
5.00 7.50 10.00

Banded leghorns, summer felts and soft, draped turbans or larger hats of snowy silks—in white, the smartest of the new tones!

Truly an unusual offering of really exceptional hats—that you may wear with suit, frock or sweater—all quite new and smart.

Fur storage—
a matter of economy

You purchase the maximum protection at the minimum cost—when you store your furs in our refrigerated vaults. They're safe from moths—from fire and theft. They return to you with added luster—greater beauty—prepared for longer service!

Phone Marshall 785

Fur remodeling
at lowered rates

Before you discard your fur as passe—bring it to us for appraisal. It is almost a daily occurrence for our designers to refashion a supposed "hopeless" fur into a garment of smartness and distinction.

Lowered summer rates are now effective on this expert service.

H. Liebes & Co

ESTABLISHED 1864

Save Your Hair

Make it abundant—give it new life and luster—if gray or faded restores it to its natural youthful color and beauty.

Prevent Dandruff
prevent falling hair and itching scalp.

"O-K-B"
HAIR TONIC

Not a dye, but a harmless and scientific preparation.

Prescription by Dr. J. K. B. of the "O-K-B" Hair Tonic, Paris, recipient of gold, silver and bronze medals.

Manufactured by the O-K-B MANUFACTURING CO.

For sale in Portland by the Owl Drug Co., Rosenthal, Sisters with Lippman, Wolfe & Co.; Meter & Frank Co.; Frank New Drug Co.; Woodard-Clark Drug Co.; Lewis & Stenger Barber Supply Co.