

HAT will probably be one of the most important closing events of the season of the Portland Symphony orchestra is a concert of high-class, lighter music which will take place in the rotunda of the Multnomah hotel at 8:30 o'clock tomorrow night, June 19. A large number of invitations has been issued and the event is being looked forward to with eager in-

Mrs. Mildred Anderson Hult

The programme:

Overture, "Ramond" (Thomas); suite,
"Egyptian Ballet," allegro non troppo, allegreto, andante sostenuto, andante expressive, allegro non troppo (Luigini);
"Fraumera"—atrings (Schumann); Pizsicato, "Sylvin" (Delibes); wallz, "Espona" (Waidieufel), "Ballet of the Plowers, 'tolott, illy of the valley, dar fodils, marguerites, jasmine, neather' (Hadley); "Hungarian Dances," of minor and D major (Brahms); overture, "The Lrum of the Guard" (Title), league in the Little theater to the fund for furnishing the United States government hospital for disabled soldiers.

Johnson, Katherine Glen, Cathenka
Lee-Thompson, L. W. Lewis, C. M.
Mattingly, H. E. Mills, Dent Mowrey,
H. B. Murtagh, June McMillen Ordway, Dr. Parvin, Francis Richter,
M. L. Robinson, L. G. Schoenberg

PIONEERS APPLAUD SINGERS.

One of the interesting musical numbers rendered at the Oregon ploneers' reunion last Wednesday night in the public auditorium was a fine chorus of women's voices under the direction of Mrs. Rose under the direction of three last season compositions by Oregon composers have been frequently found on project the direction of three last on students' programmes. The under the direction of Mrs. Rose grammes by visiting and local soloCoursen-Reed. A group of three numbers was sung, with splendid ensemble work—"Believe Me, If All Those Endearing Young Charms,
"OP' Car'lina" and "Greetings to Spring," the latter arranged from the "Blue Danube" waitzes. Mrs.

The "Blue Danube" waitzes. Mrs.

The "Blue Danube" waitzes Mrs. H. Hansen, Mrs. Tracy R. Grove, Mrs. Fred Jewett, Miss Clinta Nunal teacher of the Dunning system, who has recently returned from ton, Mrs. Raymond McKalson, Mrs. Helen Frommer-Schedier, Mrs. E. M. Robinson, Miss Mary Ellen Mullan, Mrs. Emmet Drake, Mrs. E. M. Ringer, Mrs. Percey Will.

[Additional Revenue of Mr. Petr's advanced students, gave a farewell recital for Mr. Launer at his Oregon Clivy ranch. Mr. Launer will also withdraw from his work in Oregon Clivy and Canby. He had a large setting forth the purposes and modes of this system, which she represents in her tours throughout the country.

[Additional Revenue of Mr. Petr's advanced students, gave a farewell recital for Mr. Launer at his Oregon Clivy ranch. Mr. Launer will also withdraw from his work in Oregon Clivy and Canby. He had a large garet Bernley, Beth Wheeler, Dorothy Mettler, Marson Egbert, Elizabeth Leary, Miller Hicks and Colleen Cathey.

[Additional Revenue of Mr. Petr's advanced students, gave a farewell recital for Mr. Launer at his Oregon Clivy ranch. Mr. Launer will also withdraw from his work in Oregon Clivy and Canby. He had a large garet Bernley, Beth Wheeler, Dorothy Mettler, Marson Egbert, Elizabeth Leary, Miller Hicks and Colleen Cathey.

[Additional Revenue of Mr. Petr's advanced students, gave a farewell recital for Mr. Launer at his Oregon Clivy ranch. Mr. Launer will also with draw from his work in Oregon Clivy and Canby. He had a large clive, and Canby the had a large clive.

[Additional Revenue of Mr. Petr's advanced students, gave a farewell recital for Mr. Launer at his Oregon Clivy ranch. Mr. Launer at his Oregon Clivy ranch. Mr. Launer will also with draw from his work in Oregon Clivy and Canby. He had a large clive, and Canby the country and Canby. He had a large clive clive clive and Canby. He had a large clive Helen Fromme-Scheder, Mrs. R. M. represents in her tours throughout the country. Mrs. Emmet Drake, Mrs. E. M. Ringer, Mrs. Percy Willis, Mrs. F. M. have been most gratified to find that all over the United States given by the department of public speaking in the extension course of the hest the University of Oregon. The pro-

Becker, Irvington, last Monday night. The house was profusely decorated with flowers and a decorated wi lightful programme of vocal and in-strumental music was much enjoyed.

Their programme was printed in Mrs. I. N. Lipman, Mr. and Mrs. Strated.

George Black, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil M. Hall, Dr. and Mrs. De Witt Connell, Mr. and Mrs. B. Kister, Mr. and Mrs. Catherine Dahm, Katherine James Mrs. L. A. Hassler, Jayne Bowerman, Loi Mrs. Clara Summers, Miss Agnes Black, Miss Winnifred Crowther, Miss Agnes Crowther, Delos D. Avelldi, Ed Haak and James A. Bam-

TOUR WILL BOOM HOME MUSIC. Dr. Emil Enna plans to leave or a five weeks' concert tour next through Oregen and California, going as far south as Los An-geles. The trip is being made by automobile and in the party besides Mrs. Enna and Miss Eilen Enna, will Mr. C. Carlson and Miss Ruby

This tour is made to a great exgon Composers, Many of their works will be presented on these programmes. Dr. Enna is endeavoring to get in touch with composers through the state, in order to com-plete his history of the Oregon com-posers and also the completion of the collection of music by Oregon composers at the state and city libraries. Following is the list at present in these libraries of com-posers represented: Carrie B. Adams, Amelia Amacher, C. M. Arundel, Lucien E. Becker, G. Berry, D. B. Bevans, Evelene Calbreath, A. H. Bevans, Evelene Calbreath, A. H.
Carman, Lena W. Chambers, De
Moss, Tom Dobson, Emil Enna,
Frederick W. Goodrich, Alexander
Hull, V. E. Isham, Katherine L.

Davies.

—Davies.

—Davies.

—Bushnell.

—Javies.

—Bushnell.

—Bushnell.

—Bushnell.

—Bushnell.

—Bushnell.

—Bushnell.

—Javies.

—Bushnell.

—Javies.

—Bushnell.

—Bushn

TWO MUSICAL PEOPLE ACTIVE IN CURRENT EVENTS.

Mildred Anderson Hult of Colton, Or., colorature soprano, will be presented in recital by Mrs. Rose Coursen Reed, Mult-nomah hotel bailroom, June 30. Paul Petri, baritone, directed the recent concert given by the Progressive Women's league in the Little theater to way, Dr. Parvin, Francis Richter, M. L. Robinson, L. G. Schoenberg, Esther Slisby, R. S. Sorensen, E. O. Spitzner, Waedenschwiler, Annabelle Wagstaff, Daniel H. Wilson and E.

Miss Mae Silcocks, Mrs.
Yeilding Miss Frances Tattype, Its relation to general decises Jo Torrey and Mrs. Roy velopment is recognized, for in one man, Miss Jo Torrey and Mrs. Roy of my New York audiences the head of the department for music in-struction in one of the most exclu-Another opening recital and dedication of the new pipe organ brought a host of musical friends to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lucien E. Becker, Irvington, last Mark.

strumental music was much enjoyed, ensemble, of which there were several numbers, showed that their Frederick T. Crowther, baritone: Frederick T. Crowther, baritone: training had been a true joy to Miss Margaret Notz, pianist, and Mr. Becker, organist, shared honors and applause. Both singers were in of transposition into any key, major plandid weige and several many asked for by the angience. plendid voice and sang with fine or minor, asked for by the audience, was a revelation to all present. To see a 7-year-old modulate from The Oregonian of last Sunday. It any key and show a thorough was a quiet recital of culture and knowledge of scales and chords good taste and was much appresent were: wonderful. Rhythm, cadences, meclated. Among those present were: wonderful. Rhythm, cadences, me-Mr. and Mrs. John H. Haak, Mr. and lodic dictation and chords were Mrs. I. N. Lipman, Mr. and Mrs. among the other subjects demon-garet Gadsby, Hilda Fries, Nancy Northrup, George Anne Hodder, Gladys Chambers, Juanita Wilkin-son, Barbara Payne, Marjorte Soule, Florine Sevier, Ruby Peterson, Francis Nylund, Eleanor Thurston, Ruth Steimle, Bobby Swiger and Clarence Parsons.

Miss Marjorle Trotter will present Miss Elizabeth O'Brien in piano re-cital at 8:15 o'clock tomorrow night at 409-412 Tilford building.

Elizabeth E. Johnson will present a number of her plano students in recital at 8:30 o'clock Thursday night in Lincoln high school audi-

Mrs. Nellie H. Thornton presented er plano students in recital at her home last Tuesday night. Dance numbers were daintily given by Elste Sundborn and Winiford Schoonmaker. The following musical stu-dents took part in the finely ren-dered programme: Winiford Schoon-maker, Harry Witzel, Dorothy Dibble. Billy Vrooman, Josephine and Eleanor Dammasch, Ann Kinzer, Jean George and Bobby Thornton.

Mrs. Ruth Carpenter Whalen, planist, of Helena, Mont. is taking special work in plano with David Campbell of the Ellison-White con-

Mrs. Ethel Hicks presented her students in plano recital at her home June 9 and 10, and those taking part were: Helen Cornell, Melba Hartzell, Helen Binford, Edmund Montieth, Cora Montieth, Sue McKenzie, Louise McCurdy, Lois Standard, City ranch, Mr. Launer will also consider the course of the c Weber, Mrs. Joseph L. Stafford, most fitting setting for the tiny Mrs. Thomas Robolt, Mrs. J. E. Bon-children, who looked like little bright, Mrs. R. W. Humer, Mrs. L. H. Hansen, Mrs. Tracy R. Grove, Mrs. Laura Jones Rawlinson, nor-> speaking in the extension course of the University of Oregon. The programme was presented last Tues-day in Turnverein hall, when Miss Cummins played compositions from Ksrganoff, Debussy and Dent Mowone of Dent Mowrey's professional

> An enjoyable musical programme Park. Students who are coaching with Mrs. Mills played plano solos and duets from master composers and received much praise for memory work and careful performance At the conclusion of the recital Miss Caroline Schott sang with good effect "Out of the Shadows" and for an encore "The Lilac Tree." Mrs. A. L. Taylor played two violin solos chicago, Ill., where she will attend the Effa Ellis Perfield summer school of music, which opened June or Gentry, Margaret Noble, while school of Margaret Noble, School of Margaret Noble, School of Margaret Noble, Nellis school of music, which opened June 15 and will be closed July 25. While in Chicago Mrs. Clifford will take advanced plane work with a prominent plane instructor. Mrs. Clifford will take advanced plane work with a prominent plane instructor. Mrs. Clifford will see that the contributed groups of soics. Of special inent piano instructor. Mrs. Clif-ford will be a guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Stiles, long residents of Portland, who now live in Berwyn, Ill., a suburb of Chicago, Mrs. Stiles was prominent in Eastern Star cir-cles in Oregon. While in the east Mrs. Clifford will visit relatives in Gary, Ind., and Buchanan, Mich. Mrs. Clifford will return about

Mrs. September 1. A chorus of 20 students of Joseph A. Finley, assisted by the Richmond women's chorus of 15 voices, gave an enjoyable programme at Kenton United Presbyterian church last Wednesday. Those singing solos were Misses Nellie Munger and Mar-tha Hagberg, sopranos; H. E. Ve-ness, V. T. Shafer, Ernest Mershon. tenors; Mrs. O. W. Reif, contralto, and Harold Moore, basso cantante, One mixed quartet—Mrs. J. A. Finley, soprano; Miss Helen Matthews, contralto; H. E. Veness, tenor, and Harold Moore, basso—sang "Lord God Almighty" (Verdi). Another quartet—Mrs. Finley. soprano. Miss Esther Caudy, contralto. Joseph A. Finley, tenor, and H. W. Moore, basso—sang Donizetti's "Italia, Be-loved." The Richmond women's chorus sang two double numbers and the student chorus three num-dy and Miss Maysie Foster were the accompanists, and Joseph A. Finley conducted both choruses. There is a prospect of a similar concert in Gresham next week and one in Gresham next week and one in Wichita the following week. Mrs. Willia Eades Honska, one of Mowrey's professional stu-presented a fine programme e Dalles last Wednesday night. Mrs. Honska played the same programme she gave in Portland two Jean Harper, who has been presented in individual recital by Beatrice Eichenlaub, made a decided impression by her playing of the "Rhapsody No. 6" (Liszt) at the commencement of Franklin high school. Miss Harper is one of Portland's younger professional planists.

Violin students of Mary Dodge gave a pleasing recital last Tuesday night in the assembly hall of Irving-ton school. An additional feature of the recital programme was an orchestra of 50, composed of present and former students of Mrs. Dodge, who played several selections under her direction. There were 20 selections in all played by Violin students of Franck Elchenlaub were much in evidence through their activities the last week. Last Sunday at the final popular concert in the public auditorium Mignon Hawkes delighted a large audience. Thursday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Robert W. Wilson Hazel Matthews gave several selections, and last Friday night Beulah Blackwell was soloist at the commencement exercises of Benson Polytechnic.

Tonight and next Sunday night will be the last two Sundays of Joseph A. Finley's choirmastership at the First Congregational church, and special music will be enjoyed. Tonight Gounod's "Send Out Thy Light," "My Shepherd Is the Living God" (Thayer) and "Gloria," from "Tweift Mass" (Donizett), will be rendered with a chorus of 30. Four numbers will be sung next Sunday by a further augmented chorus, probably 35 in number.

A pleasant, sociable, friendly plano recital by students of Lena Wheeler Chambers took place in the Bush & Lane company building last Thursday night, and the numbers played reflected credit on all con-cerned. Students who participated were: Kathryn Rossman, Genevieve Broughton, Silvia Troch, Olga Nord-strum and Mary Edna Rice. Four students played finely in a quartet, Martha Reynolds presented the cent successful recital in Lincoln high school auditorium: Mildred Cooper, Eva Miriam Zavin, Marie Kirkley, June Clancy, Kenneth Peterson, Rose Applestone, Esther Schulman, Frances Schlesbare Peterson, Rose Applestone, Esther Schulman, France's Schlossberg, Fannie Brownstein, Blanche Stabler, Helen Holt, Dorothy Wedemeyer, Herman Miller, Mollie Krichowsky, Edith Schafer, Marian Miller, Gladys Leonards, Anna Schwartz, and Frances Mendel.

Ray Goodman, planist, has returned from Chicago, where he has been a student of Alexander Raab, Hungarian planist and coach of the Chicago Musical college. Mr. Goodman will remain in Portland during the summer and will leave in Scattering for Europe to resume his lin and plano recitals to be given by their students for the season in the Lincoln high school auditorium Wednesday night June 21. Those appearing are: William Schweitzer, Audrey Tregaskis, Hazel Olsson, Frances Schneiderjost, Max Ohm, Mignon Hawkes, Beulah Blackwell, Velta Lyon, Joy Glese, Frances Westhoff, Helen Robertson, Grace Westhoff, Helen Robertson, Grace Oliver and Elmer Sneed. Mr. and Mrs. Eichenlauh ask the presence of those interested.

Mabel Underwood, Edith Wadley, Esther Sahli and Arthur Anderson.

"The Singer and His Art." contains a recommendation by 12 Italian sing-ers of the Metropolitan Opera company, among them Pasquale Amato They declare that the book gives "most logical ideas and practical professional theories for the singer"; that it "describes as nearly as possible the good and bad in tonerey. She also gave a programme at bad and apply the good." So much the anniversary tea in the Alber- for the first part of the book, "The tina Kerr home. Miss Cummins is Voice." As for the remainder, "the production and helps to discard the parts on mimicry and the art of makeup represent a most serious work in this line and their value to the professional world is beyond es-timation." A perusal bears out this was recently given in the home of timation." A perusal bears out this Mrs. Arthur G. Mills, Rose City high praise. This volume, of great value and interest to the singer was received last week at the pub lie library.

Stanley Bertrand O'Connor pre sented seven intermediate students in piano recital, assisted by Mary Rufina Kieffer, lyric soprano, and Elsie Ray Worden, cellist, at 1601 A. L. Taylor played two violin solos westanns. Willamette boulevard, which were cordially applauded. Tea June 8. Nearly all of the student numbers were played from memory Mrs. Nita Briggs Clifford, planist, Poldini, Paderewski, Clementi, Lock, left Portland early last week for Schumann, Offerbach, Elgar, Costa.

merit was the group played by Waneita Noble, who plays entirely Waneita Noble, who pla-with the left hand alone.

Lucile Cummins will present a number of students in recital in the Bush & Lane company salons Tues-day night. day night.

Walter A. Bacon will present a large number of violin students in solo and ensemble numbers in Lincoln high school auditorium at 8 P. M. Saturday, June 24. Otto Wedemeyer, baritone, and Dr. Emil Enna, pianist, were the soloists at the commencement exer-

Wednesday. cises at Hill Military academy last Mary Ellen Mullan presents seven

Mary Ellen Mullan presents seven students in vocal recital Tuesday night, June 20, in Clay-street Evan-gelical church, Tenth and Clay streets, Miss Hazel Matthews and William Brice, viglinists, will assist. Miss Kathleen Jordan, a talented young violinist with a promising Dorothy Shapiro, 13 years old, was recently presented in plano recital by Miss Marjorle Trotter.

cerned. Students who participated were: Kathryn Rossman, Genevieve Reed, Ruth Robinson, Jack Holt, Dorothy Reed, Jean Macqueen, Lena Wheeler, Lauretta Wheeler, Viretta Broughton, Silva Troeb, Olea Nord-Broughton, Silva Troeb, Olea Nord-

Advanced students of Abby Whiteside appearing in public recital to-Franck and Beatrice Eichenlaub September for Europe to resume his announce the last of a series of viowho has been granted a year's leave of absence from the college.

Dorothea Anderson presented a second group of students in plano recital before their parents at her home, June 11. All of the selections were played from memory and were pleasing for their finished rendition Those presented were Dorothy Cas-

Mrs. H. A. Hampton and Lawrens Lawson were presented in violin Dunne, Jack Kinzel, Donald Mack-recital by Henry L. Bettman in lin, James Morgan and Arnold War-Christensen's hall, last Monday ing. Mary Holder Williamson as-night. Both violin students show sisted at the plano. good talent and played solos in a manner that reflected credit on all cessfully conducted the high school concerned, the composers represented being Godard. De Beriot, David, Mendelssohn, Elman, Rehfeld, Brahms, Joachim, Schubert, Wil-helmj and Hubay. Edgar E. Cour-sen was the accompanist and played with fine ability.

Friends of Miss Inex M. Chambers, alented violinist of this city, will be interested to know that Miss Cham bers has just completed a Chautau-qua tour with the Visocchi Florentine Concert company, and is now in Chicago, where she will remain un-til the opening of the summer Chau-tauqua season, July 15, when she won great success with her violin, due to her clever ability and pleasearly part of September to reside

Mrs. Ella B. Jones gave recent concerts in the Mann home and Pat-ton home for the aged, assisted by students and friends; Mrs. Gretchen Kraus, vocalist; Helen Becker, violin; Doris Brown, mandolin: Miss Evelyn Keyt, reader; Miss G. Keyt, accompanist; E. F. Zimmer-man, reader; Francis Zimmerman, character songs; Rosie Sicilia, plan-ist; Winifred Myers, Jack Miller, Jack Tedron, Charlotte Carswell, Jennie and Bertha Braasch. little girls passed candy, pansies and roses to the members of the homes and were cordially received and invited by the matrons to return soon.

A party of 25, consisting of mem-bers of the Musicians club and in-vited guests, were the guests of Commissioner Ralph W Hoyt at his beautiful country placon Everglade avenue, several miles out of the city, June 10. The party inspected the estate and engaged in inspected the estate and engaged in games till lunch was served under the trees at 7 P. M. Then, after more games, the party scattered about 8 P. M. to attend evening engagements. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Denton, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Eichenlaub, Dr. and Mrs. Enna and a guest. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Louis Barron, Miss Ida May Cook, George Hotchkiss Street, Mr. and Mrs. George Jeffery, Dr. and Mrs. Clifford Moore, Mr. Hoyt is an admirable host, guests said.

Harold Hurlbut, the New York tenor, recently sang a programme in Lewiston, Idaho, with great success. A Lewiston correspondent writes: "Mr. Huribut's vocal facility is remarkable." Last week's issue of the New York Musical America and Musical Courier contained cordinally expressed reviews of a recent appearance of Mr. Hurlbut. The Courier said in part: "In the Aria from "C" Roj d' Ya," the three high B flats were sung with great facility, his diminuendo revealing the remarkable control of his upper voice. The audience heartily applauded the rollicking 'La donna e mobile' (Rigoletto), with its caldenza and finale on high B natural. The high spot of the performance and Musical Courier contained corSave on a Piano

Month-End Sale

Pianos and Player Pianos

Among these are highly desirable pianos and player pianos and phonographs of the many well-known makes. Any one of these is a real investment, which cannot be judged according to the remarkably low prices. All are exceptional bargains and will probably be chosen very quickly.

Grand Pianos Here from $695 up

Player Pianos Here from $395 up

Upright Pianos Here from $195 up

Low-priced Sonora Models for Summertime

UPRIGHT MODELS AT

150 and 165 Just what you want for beach, cottage or bungalow.

PORTABLE SONORA-New Model

For picnic, camp, seashore, canoe and auto. Weighs only 16 pounds. Carries its own records. Plays perfectly all makes and sizes of disc records.

SONORA $100 Lipman Wolfe & Co.
"Merchandise of Merit Only"

was a number from Lohengrin sung in German. His recital ended in an impromptu reception that lasted a half hour, during which the tenor received the personal tributes of his auditors. He will make his third were cordially received.

| Winter Company Comp New York concert appearance this fail." Mr. Huribut plans to arrive in Portland the last of July for his August and September classes.

Imperial $150 SONORA

After a rest of several months Mrs. Robert Corruccini, contraito, has again resumed her vocal work. She sang recently in compliment to Spring" the latter arranged from the "Blue Danube" waltzes. Mrs. A W. Stone proved an efficient against Pollowing are the names of General W. Stone proved an women who sang: Mrs. A W. Stone proved an expensive of the Blue Danube" waltzes. Mrs. A W. Stone proved an expensive of the Blue Danube" waltzes. Mrs. A W. Stone proved an expensive of the Blue Danube" waltzes. Mrs. A W. Stone proved an expensive of the Blue Danube" waltzes. Mrs. A W. Stone proved an expensive of the Blue Danube" waltzes. Mrs. A W. Stone proved an expensive of the Blue Danube" waltzes. Mrs. A W. Stone proved an expensive of the Blue Danube" waltzes. Mrs. A W. Stone proved an expensive of the Blue Danube" waltzes. Mrs. A W. Stone proved an expensive of the Blue Danube" waltzes. Mrs. A W. Stone proved an expensive of the Blue Danube" waltzes. Mrs. A W. Stone proved an expensive of the Blue Danube" waltzes. Mrs. A W. Stone proved an expensive of the Blue Danube" waltzes. Mrs. A W. Stone proved an expensive of the Blue Danube" waltzes. Mrs. Belle Mrs. B. C. Reed, Miss. C. Reed, Mrs. B. C. Reed, Mrs. B. C. Reed, Mrs. B. C. Reed, Mrs. Belle Willis-Sherman, Gertrude Porter, Miss Aberian Gertrude Porter, Miss Aberian Gertrude Porter, Miss Aberian Gertrude Horeoke, Mrs. Donald Lawrens of Mrs. Belle Willis-Sherman, Mrs. Abelle Willis-Sherman, Mrs. C. M. Brink, Mrs. Donald Lawrens of Gender Willis and Mrs. C. M. Brink, Mrs. Donald Lawrens of Gender Willis and Mrs. C. M. Brink, Mrs. Donald Lawrens of Gender Willis and Mrs. C. M. Brink, Mrs. Donald Lawrens of Gender Willis and Mrs. Lawren Britannia Control of the Dunning system of improved the provision of the Dunning system of improved the Cliff of the Mrs. C. M. Brink, Mrs. H. A Hampton and Lawrens of Gertrude Hoebee, Mrs. Donald Lawrens of Students In ordination of the Cliff of the Mrs. Elizabeth Mall, Ardis Ulrich, David students also will be presented.

Mrs. Mildred Anderson - Hult Colton, Or., is to make her debut filled the assembly hall, which was June 30 in the Multnomah hotel beautifully decorated. Those takball room under the direction of ing part showed a sympathetic un-Miss Rose Coursen-Reed. Mrs. Hult derstanding as well as real mu-has a delightful coloratura soprano sicianship. The poise of the junior Cour-and voice and will sing Ardit's "Il Bacio" for one of her numbers. Miss Oveta voice and will sing Ardit's "Il Bacio" for one of her numbers. Miss Oveta Weber, another debutante, will sing the aria "Un Bel Di," from "Madame Butterfly," also "Roses After Rain" and, Mozart, Chopin, Schumann.

Mrs. Rose Coursen-Reed is pre paring her students in Astoria fo their annual concert, which wil take place in the high school audi-torium. On this occasion the Treble Clef club of Astoria and eight stuwill tour the central states. She has well tour the central states. She has won great success with her violin, Swart, Mrs. J. H. Shaner, Miss Gayle due to her clever ability and pleasing personality. Miss Chambers Helga Benson of Cathlamet, Miss expects to return to Portland the Adeline Olson, Miss Thelma Borkman and Miss Gertrude Kearney.

The music salon of the Portland hotel was comfortably filled last Thursday night on the occasion of a pleasant rectal, in which Miss Marie Collins Madden, soprano, was presented by Miss Phyllis Wolfe. Assisting in the recital were: Miss Gladys Johnson, violinist: Miss Mary Bullock accompanist, and a quartet of women's voices consisting of Miss Alice Johnson, Miss Morita Howard, Miss Nina Herman and Mrs. Arthu Osborn. Miss Madden has a highly set, pure, pretty soprano voice, which was heard to splendid advantage in vocal solos from works of Deems-Taylor, Purcell, Rotali, Mey-erbeer, Sanderson, Speaks, Hewitt and Woodman. Miss Johnson is a violinist of fine ability and plays with a pure, singing, clear tone. Her best solo was a number com-

Miss Kathleen Jordan, violinist, re-cently was presented in recital in Irvington public school.

She sang recently in compliment to the graduates of Benson Polytechnic school for boys. Her most admired number was "Voce di donna od angelo" from "La Gioconda."

Helene Horrocks presented 20 of Benson Polytechnic school for boys. Her most admired number was "Voce di donna od angelo" from "La Gioconda."

Helene Horrocks presented 20 of Benson Polytechnic school for boys. Her most admired prime from the same of Katherine A. Glen songs in compliment to the complex school auditorium last Tuesday night. Some of the new ways of demonstrated, including sight readsongs in compliment to the complex school auditorium last Tuesday night. Some of the new ways of demonstrated, including sight readsongs in compliment to the complex school auditorium last Tuesday night. Some of the new ways of demonstrated, including sight readsongs in compliment to the complex school auditorium last Tuesday night. Some of the new ways of demonstrated, including sight readsongs in compliment to the complex school auditorium last Tuesday night. Some of the new ways of demonstrated, including sight readsongs in compliment to the complex school auditorium last Tuesday night. Some of the new ways of demonstrated, including sight readsongs in compliment to the complex school auditorium last Tuesday night. Some of the new ways of demonstrated, including sight readsongs in compliment to the complex school auditorium last Tuesday night. Some of the new ways of demonstrated, including sight readsongs in compliment to the complex school auditorium last Tuesday night. Some of the new ways of demonstrated, including sight readsongs in compliment to the complex school auditorium last Tuesday night. Some of the new ways of demonstrated, including sight readsongs in complex school auditorium last Tuesday night. Some of the new ways of demonstrated, including sight readsongs in complex school auditorium last Tuesday night. Some of the new ways of demonstrated, including sight readsongs in complex school auditorium last Tuesday night. Some of the new ways of

Mrs. Elizabeth R. Tressier presented her intermediate, junior and advanced students in piano recital in the Portland hotel last Wednesday night An appreciative audience ing part showed a sympathetic un-Parlow, MacDowell, Paul Zilcher

Miss Elsie M. Lewis announces a wiolin recital to be given by her students in Lincoln high school auditorium Friday night, June 30,

Mrs. Mitylene Fraker Stites, contraito, with May Van Dyke Hardwick, pianist, will be heard in complimentary recital. 8:15 o'clock of Seattle. Together they will give bert will return to Portland in the early fall. The 24th annual recitals of Dr. Enna's piano students took place June 10, 12 and 13 in the Portland hotel in the presence of large audi-ences. Last Wednesday noon Dr. Emil Enna gave a luncheon for his graduation class, where instructor's certificates were presented to Mrs. Mabel Ryder Williams, Miss Bernice Simmons and Miss Pobe Carless Simmons and Miss Ruby Carlson who all have taken an examination

Studio for Summer or longer

Attractively equipped studio (music or dramatic art), complete with grand piano, etc., for rent, short term or longer. See Bldg. Supt., 2d floor. Eilers Music Bldg.

A Normal Training Class for Teachers in the

DUNNING SYSTEM of Improved Music Study will be given by MRS. JEAN WARREN CARRICK, Normal Teacher, beginning June 19 A large class has registered.

Louis Victor Saar DISTINGUISHED COMPOSER-PIANIST.

of theory department Chicag-Musical College. SUMMER MASTER CLASS. PIANO, HARMONY, COMPOSITION, ORCHESTRATION IN PORTLAND, OREGON, JULY 17-AUGUST 26.

TWO FREE SCHOLARSHIPS.

(a) One for plane.

(b) One for composition. For information address Miss Edu-rotter, 402 Tilford bldg., or ask for irculars at music stores.

JAZZ Plano beginners' $15
Popular songs three lessons or money refunded. Amateur players taught professional style. Now is the time. Open evenings. Practice rooms. Phone for appointment. Broadway 5639.

PARKER PIANO SCHOOL

Planos and Player Planos Talking Machines Prices reasonable for expert work. Sherman, Clay & Go

REPAIR DIRECTORY

TUNING AND REPAIRING

PHONOGRAPHS REPAIRED Seiberling-Lucas Music Co.