Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett, Charming Wife of Japanese Consul

Mrs. Elliot Hubersham gave a Large Tea for Boston Visitor.

(Continued from First Page) satin set off by a Spanish comb in her coiffure was most attractive to Miss Elizabeth Halley. Miss Catherine Honey wore velvet in crushed rose tones. Miss Louise Linthicum was dressed in black satin ornamented with touches of jade green. White tulle trimmed with turquoise blue and pink ribbon was Miss Beatrice Locky's dress. Miss Miriam Holcomb wore geranium pink silk dotted net over gray silk. Black jet ornamented Miss Eleanor Killham's black gown. Miss Annalee Miller was attractive in crushed raspberry satin. Miss Gladys Dunne wore an unusual frock of black and white satin with a black velvet band and silver leaves in her coiffure. Miss Jeanette Dentler's dress was of orange silk net, and she wore a circlet of silver leaves in her hair. Midnight blue with touches of silver was the color scheme of Miss Gladys Bowen's costume. Mrs. Robert Morton wore coral silk embroidered in heavy silk of the same hue. Miss Dorothy Sanford is one of the most popular brides-to-be of the season. A large number of affairs have been given in her honor and are planned for next week. Miss Sally Sabine gave an informal luncheon for her Friday at the Portland hotel. Yesterday she shared honors with Miss Constance Piper and Miss Helen Stover at a tea given by Mrs. Wallace Caulfield. Miss Sanford's marriage to Leonard Dale Wilson will take place July 8 in the First Unitarian church instead of at her home, as was originally planned. Rev. W. G. Elliot, Jr., will perform the ceremony. Mrs. Harold Sanford will be matron of honor, and York Wilson of Boise will act as best man. The flower girl will be little Virginia Gault, and the ring bearer, Tom Coffey.

News of the betrothal is of special interest at this time, because Miss Henningsen is one of the Rose Festival princesses. She was graduated from St. Helena hall and Bralcliffe manor in New York. Mr. Harkson, who is the son of Henry Harkson, Danish vice-consul, and Mrs. Harkson, is a graduate of the University of Nebraska. The wedding will be an event of July 15. Mrs. George Maxwell was complimented at dinner last evening by Mrs. Eric V. Whitney, who entertained a group of society folk. The Catholic ladies of the city will give a moving picture and social on the lawn of the archbishop's residence, Sixteenth and Myrtle streets, Portland Heights, on Thursday evening. "The Bride's Play" is to be shown at 8:30 o'clock through the courtesy of Mr. Jensen of the Liberty theater. Frederick Goodrich will have charge of the musical programme. Sponsoring it are F. J. Cronin, chairman, Mrs. Edward Boise, Mrs. F. J. Flynn, Mrs. A. D. McDougall, Miss Margaret Burke, Mrs. W. P. Sinnott, Mrs. M. Baldwin, Mrs. E. F. Smith, Mrs. J. A. Maloney, Mrs. J. A. Mrs. Henry Rothchild has charge of the candy booth. The publicity is being handled by Mrs. B. Giltner and Mrs. J. P. O'Brien. Rev. Harold Leonard Bowman read the vows of marriage to Miss Miriam Reed and James Forrest Cobb Jr. Wednesday night, at the First Presbyterian church. A large number of relatives and friends witnessed the ceremony. Mrs. Blanche Williams Segersten sang "Tranquility" and "Call Me Thine Own." The wedding march was played by Edgar E. Coursen, who also accompanied the singer. The bride was stunning in soft white satin crepe with pearl trimming. A coronet of rose point lace held her filmy veil in place. Miss Gretchen Smith, maid of honor, wore pink chiffon, and the bridesmaids, Miss Nancy Holt and Miss Marion West, were gowned in lavender and orchid chiffon, respectively. Harl Cobb, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. The ushers were Kenneth Samuel Reed, Everett Penton, Sidney Tupper and Harold Groom. A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Millard Reed. Assisting about the rooms were Mrs. Kenneth S. Reed, Mrs. C. E. Schaeffer of Vancouver, Wash., and Mrs. E. C. Lough of Minneapolis, Minn. Mrs. Jay Smith and Mrs. E. E. Shaw poured and Mrs. A. S. Fattullo and Mrs. C. F. Williams cut ice. Assisting in the dining room were Mrs. George Allen Lawrence, Mrs. John Mortimer Bruhn, Mrs. Wilson Coffey and Miss Marvel Tenure. The punch bowl was presided over by Mrs. Addison Knapp and Mrs. Harold D. Gill. Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. James Forrest Cobb, parents of the bridegroom of Berkeley, Cal., and their sons, Harl, Murphy and Richard Cobb; Miss Apphia Jackson of Atlanta, Ga.; Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Williams of Jacksonville, Fla. Mrs. Cobb is a charming and very worth-while girl. She attended the Oregon Agricultural college where she belonged to Kappa Alpha Theta sorority. Mr. Cobb is a University of California graduate. Mrs. Lee Hoffman entertained with a dinner on Friday evening at

for Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Dooley, Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Eric Whitney, Mrs. Ralph Reynolds (Patsy Stewart), Seaton Taylor and the hostess. Mrs. Macormic Snow honored Miss Katherine Wilkeson, bride-elect, with a picnic Tuesday evening. Mrs. Vincent Cook was hostess at a luncheon at the Hotel Portland Tuesday, honoring Mrs. Joseph Clark of Los Angeles, the house guest of Mrs. A. E. Rockey. Covers were placed for Mrs. Clark, Mrs. Rockey, Mrs. Alexander A. Morrison and the hostess. Miss Jane Howard, the house guest of Mrs. Harry Sharp, was the inspiration for an informal dance at which Miss Marion Bowles entertained. A group of the younger set enjoyed the hospitality of Miss Bowles. An announcement of interest to his many friends in Portland is the engagement of Leiland Leslie Smith to Miss Gilberte Garros of Paris. This news was received last week by Mr. Smith's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter V. Smith. Mademoiselle Garros is the daughter of Colonel and Madame Lehalle. She is an accomplished pianist, having taken first prize in piano at the conservatory of the late of dainty pink material. Roland Garros, the famous French ace who was killed during the latter part of the war. Mr. Smith served overseas as a lieutenant in the liaison service, and following the armistice as a military observer in Roumania and the Ukraine. He was decorated with the French legion of honor and also with the Roumanian war cross. Following his release from the army he took the consular examinations and was assigned to Saigon. The wedding will be an event of late fall. Appropriate flags decorated the grand ballroom of the Multnomah hotel Wednesday evening, when hundreds of society folk assembled at the admiral's ball. The guests were received at the door by Roy Bishop, admiral of the rescue, and a long line of naval officers. Honored guests were the naval and military men and the queen with her royal party. Beautiful, indeed, were the gowns of the women. Miss Alice M. Robertson, President and Mrs. Hardig's representative to the festival, was stately in a gown of black satin and lace. Mrs. George L. Baker was dressed in a black beaded creation. Mrs. Eric V. Hauser wore black tulle. Mrs. Mayo, wife of Admiral Mayo, was noticeable in black ornamented with sequins. Mrs. Franklin T. Griffith, mother of the queen, wore a pattern frock of dainty pink material. Mrs. Frank McCallis, who has con-
