

THOUSANDS VIEW THE CORONATION OF QUEEN UNDER HUGE TREES

Beautiful Laurelhurst Park, Scenic Gem, Furnishes Setting for Regal Ceremonies Formally Ushering in Ruler of All Rosaria When Jewel-Studded Crown Is Placed Upon Harriet, the Gracious Queen.

1—Mayor Baker congratulates fair ruler. 2—Woodland nymphs dance and frolic under stately trees of Laurelhurst park. 3—Queen Harriet, accompanied by J. H. Dundore, prime minister of Royal Rosarians, left, and Eric V. Hauser, president Rose Festival association, right, makes first entry to city on rose-petaled carpet. 4—Queen Harriet's flower girls in picturesque dance. 5—Dainty tots of 4 dance for Queen Harriet. 6—Jane Lyon and Helen Walter, pages to her royal majesty, the queen. 7—Beautiful entry of the United States engineers' corps in river pageant. 8—Royal Rosarians are interested spectators at coronation dance. 9—Nimble dancers before Queen Harriet's throne.