

Society

Miss Frances Prudhomme who assisted at Evening Affairs Under direction Mayme Helen Flynn

Mrs. John Martin Groschupf (Dorothea Koerber) who was married Wednesday Evening

Mrs. E.A. Howard of San Francisco who is the guest of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Harry Sharp

Miss Katherine Miller who entertained for Miss Lurline Brown

(Continued from First Page.)
 oldest pioneer families of Oregon. Her grandfather, Joseph Gardner Wilson, was a justice in the state supreme court and a member of congress from this state.
 The bride-elect attended the University of California, where she was a member of Delta Delta Delta society.
 Mr. Flood is associated with the F. F. Goodrich company of Seattle. He attended the University of Oregon, where he was a member of Beta Theta Pi fraternity.
 Miss Peters is a sister of Mrs. Hallett W. Maxwell of Portland and Mrs. Willard O. Wilson of New York city and Mrs. Edwin Binney Jr. of Sound Beach, Conn.
 Miss Peters has a host of friends in this city and will be the inspiration for many social affairs. The wedding will be an event of early fall.

Miss Flora Marx of San Francisco house-guest of Miss Edith O'Brienheimer

A number of teas and summer porch parties are being planned by many prominent women to swell the fund for the entertainment of the women delegates to the Episcopal convention in September. Among those who are planning these summer entertainments are Mrs. Walter Taylor Sumner, Mrs. Thomas Honeyman, Mrs. W. B. Ayer, Mrs. E. E. Miller, Mrs. Arthur King, Mrs. J. M. Knight, the women of St. Stephen's pro-cathedral, Mrs. C. N. Higgins, Mrs. William H. Powell, Mrs. A. J. Peel of St. Helens, Or.; the women of St. Mark's parish, Mrs. George W. Perrine, Mrs. Roger Hastings, Mrs. J. A. Cleland of Oregon City and Mrs. Joseph Jones. Mrs. Jones is making arrangements for a porch tea at her home, 692 Montgomery drive, tomorrow at 3 o'clock. An invitation is extended to all church people and their friends.

Thursday Mrs. Jay Coffey will give a supper party in honor of Miss Dorothy Sanford, and her fiancé, Leonard D. Wilson, at the attractive Coffey home on the Clackamas. A group of friends will call later to dance.
 Several affairs of interest were given for the popular bride-elect this week. Misses Jane and Anne O'Reilly entertained Thursday afternoon. Miss Gladys Bowen was a luncheon hostess at the University club yesterday.
 Miss Sanford's wedding will take place Saturday at 3:30 o'clock at the First Unitarian church, with Rev. W. G. Elliot Jr. officiating.

Miss Deris Henningsen, fiancée of Severin Harkson, is the motif for many affairs of social prominence. Monday Miss Suzanne Caswell gave a tea in her honor. Tuesday Miss Edith Marshall entertained at a shower. She shared honors with Miss Elizabeth Boshke Wednesday afternoon. A tea given by Miss Janet House, Miss Frances Baker was hostess at luncheon yesterday for her.
 Miss Henningsen, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Henningsen, will be married July 15 at St. David's Episcopal church with Rev. Thomas Jenkins officiating. A reception at the home of her parents will follow. She has chosen as her attendants Miss Edith Marshall, maid of honor; Miss Suzanne Caswell, Miss Frances Baker, Miss Mary Helen Spaulding and Miss Harriet Griffith as bridesmaids. The two little flower girls will be Marjorie Walker and Tokia Harkson.

Mrs. J. Curtis Simmons gave a luncheon last Tuesday afternoon at the Malbury hotel, honoring Mrs. A. S. Kerry, who will depart soon to make her home in Seattle.
 A number of visiting officers, including Commander L. M. McNear, Lieutenant H. Reifel, Captain J. Payne, Lieutenant William Kuricher

Dr. and Mrs. William S. Knox entertained last Tuesday evening with an informal musicale at their home on Portland Heights.
 Mrs. Earle C. Latourette honored a number of the visiting navy officers at a party at her home last Friday evening.
 William H. Kendall, son of Mrs. H. F. Kendall and nephew of Colonel William H. Jordan, a student at West Point, is home on a furlough. Mr. Kendall stopped on his way west in San Antonio, Tex., to visit his grandmother, Mrs. E. F. Dane.
 Miss Elise Phillips of San Francisco, the house guest of Miss Elise Fishner, was the inspiration for a dinner dance on Tuesday evening at Forest hall, at which Mr. and Mrs. William Heller Ehrman entertained.
 Mrs. Jordan Zan complimented Mrs. George Maxwell at a luncheon at the Waverley Country club last Monday afternoon.
 Mrs. Joseph N. Teal has received word from her sister, Mrs. Norman Murray Smith (Genevieve Thompson) that Mrs. Smith's one-act play, "The Rage Breaker," has been successfully produced at the Colonial

The citizens of Portland will have an opportunity to meet and pay tribute to the nurses who served overseas during the late war when these will be honored at a large reception this evening from 8 to 10 o'clock at the Ex-Service Men's club. Miss Helen Stover, a charming soprano from New York, will sing, accompanied by Miss Constance Piper. Goldie Peterson Wessler will give vocal selections, with Miss Mayme Helen Flynn as accompanist. Mrs. Flynn was chairman of music for the general war work council during the late war.
 Mayor Baker, Mrs. Frank Rigler and a number of other prominent citizens will be in the receiving line.
 Mrs. Harold Dodge and Mrs. George Maxwell were the inspiration for a tea Tuesday afternoon, at which Miss Isabella's hospital presided.
 Mrs. Alfred Smith presided at a luncheon last Monday at the Waverley Country club, honoring Mrs. Della Hahn Guerin, who will depart soon for an extended visit in Europe.

Miss Ruth Bruere, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Gustave Bruere, returned from New York city last Saturday, accompanied by her mother and sister, Miss Alice Buere. She was graduated this year from Knox school in New York and recently was an attendant at a classmate's wedding in Kansas City.
 Miss Arline Cameron, an attractive Irvington girl, made her debut at a large tea Thursday afternoon

Baby's First Clothes
 Plan now for the Fall and Winter baby.
The Rose Baby Shop
 388 Morrison
 Near Tenth Street

WEDDING
 and Visiting Cards.
W. G. S. SMITH & CO.
 311 Morgan Building.

when she and her mother, Mrs. J. E. Cameron, entertained 200 guests. The Cameron home at 753 Thompson street was beautifully decorated in opulent roses with ferns. Miss Cameron wore a stunning gown of white satin crepe with a corsage of sweet peas. Her mother was dressed in light blue crepe with Cecil Brunner roses as her corsage. Mrs. J. T. Stonerod and Mrs. George Fichtner were in charge of the tea table and a group of young girls assisted about the rooms.

Dr. and Mrs. William S. Knox entertained last Tuesday evening with an informal musicale at their home on Portland Heights.

Mrs. Earle C. Latourette honored a number of the visiting navy officers at a party at her home last Friday evening.

William H. Kendall, son of Mrs. H. F. Kendall and nephew of Colonel William H. Jordan, a student at West Point, is home on a furlough. Mr. Kendall stopped on his way west in San Antonio, Tex., to visit his grandmother, Mrs. E. F. Dane.

Miss Elise Phillips of San Francisco, the house guest of Miss Elise Fishner, was the inspiration for a dinner dance on Tuesday evening at Forest hall, at which Mr. and Mrs. William Heller Ehrman entertained.

Mrs. Jordan Zan complimented Mrs. George Maxwell at a luncheon at the Waverley Country club last Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Joseph N. Teal has received word from her sister, Mrs. Norman Murray Smith (Genevieve Thompson) that Mrs. Smith's one-act play, "The Rage Breaker," has been successfully produced at the Colonial

The citizens of Portland will have an opportunity to meet and pay tribute to the nurses who served overseas during the late war when these will be honored at a large reception this evening from 8 to 10 o'clock at the Ex-Service Men's club.

Mayor Baker, Mrs. Frank Rigler and a number of other prominent citizens will be in the receiving line.

Mrs. Harold Dodge and Mrs. George Maxwell were the inspiration for a tea Tuesday afternoon, at which Miss Isabella's hospital presided.

Mrs. Alfred Smith presided at a luncheon last Monday at the Waverley Country club, honoring Mrs. Della Hahn Guerin, who will depart soon for an extended visit in Europe.

Miss Ruth Bruere, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Gustave Bruere, returned from New York city last Saturday, accompanied by her mother and sister, Miss Alice Buere. She was graduated this year from Knox school in New York and recently was an attendant at a classmate's wedding in Kansas City.

HUDSON Bay Fur Co.
 Largest Exclusive Furriers in the West
 West Park and Morrison

theater in San Diego, Cal. The play was first put on at the Little theater here by the Portland Drama league players. Mrs. Smith's many Portland friends will be glad to know that she is convalescing from her recent illness.
 Mrs. A. S. Kerry was the inspiration for a beautifully appointed dinner Wednesday night, at which Mr. and Mrs. William MacMaster were hosts at their country home, Ard-Bur.

Miss Katherine Holbrook has as her house guests for several days Miss Marian Butterworth and Miss Marion Howe at her summer home in Tokeland.

Mr. and Mrs. William Dinsmore of Piedmont, Cal., who are visiting their son-in-law and daughter, Captain and Mrs. Chapman, have been the guests of honor at a number of dinner parties. Monday evening

Major and Mrs. J. E. Fickel have gone to Washington, D. C., where Major Fickel will be stationed indefinitely. Their many friends regret their departure.

Mr. and Mrs. James Cranston were hosts Monday night at a delightful dinner party. Twenty-two guests enjoyed the affair.

Miss May Louise Feldenheimer is being welcomed in Portland, after passing the winter in New York.

Women of Vancouver post attended the tea given by Mrs. C. E. Dentler and Miss Dentler last Wednesday, honoring Mrs. R. M. Blatchford and Mrs. H. T. Mayo.

A number of army people enjoyed a picnic last week at the government rifle range. Those attending were Captain and Mrs. W. Chapman, in a few days. They will make the trip by motor, planning to make the long distance by easy stages. Captain Stroth will report at Camp Benning, Ga., for duty.

Mrs. Henry Chaney presided at a dinner preceding Mrs. Gordon Forbes' dance Friday night. Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. C. Hunt Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. David T. Honeyman, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Johnson, and Mr. and Mrs. Chaney. Mrs. Kenneth Beebe also was hostess at a dinner.

Portland society folk who expect to spend the Fourth of July on the Matolus river are Mr. and Mrs. Erskine Wood, Mr. and Mrs. David T. Honeyman and Mr. and Mrs. Lewis H. Mills.

The Waverley Country club entertainment planned for July 4 promises to be of special interest in society circles. In the morning a flag golf tournament will be held. A baseball game, canoe and swimming arrived yesterday, together with twenty-nine others, and they were all priced

for a Monday sale! The dresses are so smart and the values are so good that they'll all sell Monday, too! Buy yours early.

Portland's Oldest Specialty Shop
Bartholomew's
 Washington at Tenth
 Navy Tailored Suits
 Regularly priced to $75
$39.50
 Tweed Suits
 Regularly to $49.50
$19.50
 All Capes Reduced
 All Dresses Reduced
M. PATT LADIES' TAILOR
 Suite 512-13 Bush & Lane Bldg. BROADWAY AND ALDER

The New SUMMER FROCK
 you want for the 4th

arrived yesterday, together with twenty-nine others, and they were all priced

$7.50

for a Monday sale! The dresses are so smart and the values are so good that they'll all sell Monday, too! Buy yours early.

Jersey Jackets
 Soft, firm weaves in navy, black, brown, red and green are unusual values at $5.50

White Baronet
 fashions the most popular of all.

Sports Skirts
 We have them in all sizes up to 38 waist measure, and their price is only $9.50

Miss Portland
 will find the loveliest frocks in Portland at the Eastern $19.50
 It is impossible to even hint at their sheer daintiness here. See them.

Wash Dresses
 for Misses 6 to 14, 4th of July Special $2.95

A Sale
 Nationally Famous
Silk Stockings
$2.25
 Or 3 Pairs for $6.50
 Onyx, Eiffel and Medalia makes. Splendid, full fashioned silks in every color tone you may wish for. Many women will buy three pairs.

Bathing Suits for All the Family
 Above the Age of Ten
 Oregon made. Exceptionally well made! Regulation knit in all the popular colors and combinations. Prices, you'll find, are lower here!

Thousands of Oregonians find convenience and satisfaction in our "Credit Gladly" plan. Ask about it.

Eastern Outfitting Co.
 Washington at Tenth Street