Temperance Union Announces That Funds for First Units Have Been Donated.

The first two units of the which eventually will care for 150 homeless and dependent children will be started early in July and will be completed, it is hoped, before the end of September. Each of the started will be seen and the started will be seen as the started will b will be put into use as soon as it is completed.

The complete financing arrange ments have been put into the hands for a four-family flat on East Six- of a committee of business men, and teenth, between East Taylor and the entire plan will be worked out by them on a business basis. The ministerial association of Portland has also appointed a special com-mittee to aid the union in establishing the home.

The home is primarily for Protes-tant orphans and dependent children without means of support. The farm on which it will be built was purchased several months ago for the children's farm home at a cost of $49,000. It consists of 245 acres and is three and one-half miles northeast of Corvallis.

It is the intention of the Wom en's Christian Temperance union to put up the unit cottages as fast as funds can be obtained for their con-struction. Sufficient funds have al-ready been donated for the first two cettages, but it is pointed out that these will not nearly satisfy the present needs of such a home as is planned, and that construction of more units must necessarily go forward as fast as possible."
