

70,000 ARE ASKED FOR BUYERS' WEEK

Invitations Have Been Sent Throughout 14 States.

LARGE CROWD EXPECTED

Portland Manufacturers, Jobbers and Merchants Lay Extensive Plans for Annual Event.

Seventy thousand invitations have been sent throughout the 14 western states, British Columbia and Alaska by Portland manufacturers, jobbers and wholesalers.

Already acceptances are being received at Buyers' week headquarters, and indications are that attendance will be in excess of that of last year, when 1600 visiting buyers registered.

Public Auditorium Engaged. The executive committee is making elaborate preparations for a record-breaking attendance.

Portland's wholesale and jobbing houses and manufacturers are planning to hold open house during the week.

Ball Fare Refund Planned. As an inducement to stimulate buying, the executive committee has decided to follow the custom established in former years and refund one round-trip railroad fare to each firm which purchases through the display room.

Arrangements have been made with the officials of the local automobile club to extend courtesies to visiting buyers who come by automobile and who desire to remain in the camp during their stay in Portland.
