

ALUMNI NOT PAID ATTORNEY IN JAIL

Milo C. King Imprisoned on Contempt Charge.

POVERTY PLEA IGNORED

Judge Gatens Not Moved by Statement That Attorney Is Without Funds for ex-Wife.

Milo C. King, Gresham attorney, was thrown in the county jail for contempt of court in failing to pay $50 toward alimony due his wife, who obtained a default divorce from him last December.

Indications are that the attorney will remain in jail for the statutory 10 days and leave by subscribing to the paper's costs unless he finds a legal way to combat the court order.

Statement Is Made. In a statement filed with the county clerk yesterday, King claims that he is not guilty of contempt of court because he has appealed to the supreme court from the divorce decree and because his wife has admitted that she did not want anything from him but her freedom and maiden name.

He avers that he has not had, has not now and may not have a dollar of his own or un-borrowed money with which to pay this alimony. He avers the statement with the assertion that he is not cowardly, lawless nor contemptuous enough to borrow or steal money for the plaintiff or her attorney in this freak result, wherein they are the actors.

PEOPLE OF UNIVERSITY PARK DISTRICT TRIUMPH IN PLAN FOR PUBLIC LIBRARY

Public Spirit Long Dormant and Community Co-operation Combine to Give Splendid Institution to Residents and Open Up Other Channels of Important Civic Development and Usefulness.

LIVE COMMUNITY RAISES MONEY FOR BUILDING PROJECT THROUGH PRIVATE SUBSCRIPTIONS AND ENTERTAINMENTS AND WILL PROVIDE LIBRARY FOR USE OF ALL.

THERE is plenty of public spirit lying dormant in every small community and waiting to be stirred into action, as shown by the experience of the University park district, which is looking forward to the early completion of its new library at Lombard and Hereford streets.

This indebtedness has stimulated effort on the part of the community to raise the money for the building itself. The community club, the University park school, the University park church, the University park women's club, the University park Y. M. C. A., the University park Y. W. C. A., the University park athletic club, the University park golf club, the University park tennis club, the University park swimming club, the University park chess club, the University park bridge club, the University park chess club, the University park bridge club, the University park chess club, the University park bridge club.

W. Stephens, W. H. Dean, Mrs. Emma Rayley and Mrs. Dora McPherson, directors. "Our experience has convinced us that we have followed the best course, that of self-reliance and self-reliance, in working for this fine community asset, the library," said Rev. Mr. Rice, who has been instrumental in organizing the community club and the community association for the library.

Maximum results at a minimum cost. The financial burden considerably. The committee retained an experienced builder to supervise the work, and it was favored generously in the purchase of materials, several important items being covered by outright donations.

JOYFUL FAMILY REUNION

"Two of my brothers, a sister, as well as myself, have been chronic sufferers from gas in the stomach, indigestion, pain in right side near appendix and liver trouble for many years. My sister tried May's Wonderful Remedy with such good results that we all took a course of it and it helped in each case. Last Sunday we had a family reunion in celebration of our recovery, and what we all had in common was a simple, harmless preparation that removed the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. For sale at all druggists.—Adv.
