PERFECT DAY ENJOYED Chicagoan Avoids Downtown Resorts and Misses Spotlight by Living in Small Hotel.

BY FLOYD GIBBONS. (Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service, Copyright, 1922, by the Chicago Tribune.) PARIS, July 22.—Harold F. McCormick of Chicago and Madame Ganna Walska motored in the cool Bois de Boulogne this evening after having dinner together in one of the rustic little restaurants among the trees.

It was the end of a perfect day to all appearances. At 6 o'clock Madame Walska's magnificent motor drew up before her beautiful home in the Rue Lubeck, which she received pending a divorce settlement with Alexander Smith Cochran, her second husband.

Spotlight is Avoided. Mr. McCormick has made himself almost incognito in Paris, avoiding the fashionable downtown hotels and taking refuge from the spotlight in a small hotel near the Arc de Triomphe.

Mr. McCormick was finally located at Madame Walska's home, but reporters could not get a glimpse at him until he came out for a motor ride. Mr. McCormick seemed pale and less vigorous than ordinary, but this was probably due to his recent operation. Madame Walska stepped jauntily into the car. They returned before 10 o'clock and refused to answer the telephone.

LONDON, July 22.—After deliberating for four hours, the jury disagreed on the Russell divorce case this afternoon. A new trial is not expected before next year, owing to the glutted condition of the calendar in the divorce court.

The jury was reported to have split over the conversation between John Hugo Russell, the petitioner, and his brother-in-law, Mr. Welford, who was called to the stand by the respondent. The petitioner introduced a copy of a letter written by the father, which asserted that he did not recall any intimacy with his wife during December preceding the birth of the child of which his wife declared him to be the father.

The petitioner denied he was the father of the child, named a common name, and named several risks affairs in which he said his wife had taken part. During the summing up of the case by the judge, the chairman of the jury interrupted, saying: "Porgive me for asking a question, but I really am concerned over not calling Mr. Welford as a witness."

"You children must finish your dinner!" One of the first and most marked effects of Yeast Foam Tablets is to increase the appetite.

"If a growing child has no desire to eat, there is something serious the matter with him," says a noted specialist in the care and feeding of children. "A frequent and increasing cause of this failing or finicky appetite is lack of B vitamin."

This vitamin is found in greatest abundance in yeast; and Yeast Foam Tablets are made entirely of pure, whole concentrated yeast. Give your child Yeast Foam Tablets. Watch him improve. Note how his appetite returns; how he will grow, put on normal weight and increase his strength and endurance!

Why many foods are deficient Many raw foods which originally contained vitamin lose this element through "preparing processes" such as milling of wheat and other grains; refining of sugar; heating foods to high temperatures; discarding of water in which food is boiled, etc. The vitamin B thus lost can be quickly replaced by the addition to the diet of Yeast Foam Tablets.

Build up your child If your child seems thin, under weight, delicate, irritable and always tired out, give him Yeast Foam Tablets. They are a simple, pleasant and notably efficient corrective—a food, not a medicine.

The Quick and Easy Way To Make Blackberry Jam

Makes Two-Thirds More Jam From Same Amount of Fruit, and Never Fails

Uses Ripe Fruit, Takes Only One Minute's Boiling and Saves All the Flavor and Color

Everyone who likes fresh blackberry pie will love good blackberry jam. Particularly when all the flavor of fresh ripe blackberries is preserved in the jam. Such blackberry jam is now possible in every home.

A new and never-failing method has now been discovered with which anyone can make the best quality jam quickly and very economically. With the Certo Process, full-ripe blackberries are used—no unripe blackberries, no necessary by the old method. The Certo Process retains all the rich flavor of the ripe fruit because it requires only one minute's boiling—no 30 or 40 minutes required by the old method. This long boiling down destroys juice and flavor and particularly kills the real blackberry taste. With Certo, therefore, the result is a far superior fruit flavor and two-thirds more jam from the same amount of fruit, because no juice is boiled away. It also banishes all guesswork or worry, as perfect results are certain.

The new Certo process for making blackberry jam is very simple. Crush well in single layers about 2 quarts ripe berries, using wooden masher, crushing each berry and discarding all green parts. Add juice of 1 lemon. Measure 4 level cups (2 lbs.) crushed berries, including lemon juice, into large kettle. Add 7½ leveled cups (3¾ lbs.) sugar and mix well. Stir hard and constantly and bring to a vigorous boil over the hottest fire. Boil hard for one full minute with continual stirring. Remove from fire and add ½ bottle (scant half cup) Certo, stirring it in well. From the time jam is taken off fire allow to stand 5 minutes only, by the clock, before pouring. In the meantime skim and stir occasionally to cool slightly. Then pour quickly. Makes 10 half-pint glasses of jam. To make Certo blackberry jelly, see Certo Book of Recipes.

Certo is a pure fruit product—contains no gelatin or preservatives. It positively saves time, fruit, flavor of ripe fruit, and guesswork. It makes all kinds of jams and jellies with fresh or canned fruit—some you have never made before. It is highly indorsed by all cooking experts who have used it. Every woman who tries it recommends it to her friends and says she'll never be without it. And Certo jams and jellies keep as well as any other brand. Get a bottle of Certo and recipe book from your grocer or druggist at once. For extra free copies of Certo Book of Recipes write Pectin Sales Co., Inc., Rochester, N. Y.

Start the new—the sure, quick, economical way of making jams and jellies. You'll never return to the old "hit-or-miss" method.
