PILLETTE DEFEATS NEW YORK 2 TO 0

Detroit Youngster Wins Pitching Duel.

SHAWKEY IS DEFEATED

Babe Ruth's Misjudgment of Woodall's Drive Lets In Both Runs.

NEW YORK, July 22.—Herman Pillette, Detroit's brilliant young pitcher, today defeated New York for the second time in the series, beating Shawkey in a pitchers' battle, 2 to 0. Only two hits were made off Pillette, one a bunt by Witt. Shawkey was hit harder, but usually settled down in the pinches. Detroit's two runs came as a result of Ruth's misjudgment of Woodall's liner, which went over his head for a triple. Meusel's single in the first inning gave him seven consecutive hits in as many times up. Score:

SHUTOUT GOAL IS NEAR

Walter Johnson, "Smokeball" King, Hitting Stride.

Walter Johnson, "smokeball" king of the Washington Senators, will have no difficulty reaching the goal of 100 shutouts for his big-league career at the pace he now is maintaining. The veteran twirling star registered his third straight shutout of the season and the 97th of his 16 years' service in the majors when he blanked the Yankees recently, 1 to 0, in a thrilling duel with his youthful rival, Waite Hoyt.

Johnson had perfect control, and added to his record as the strikeout king of all time by whiffing nine of the New York team.

HOPPE STILL IS FACTOR

BALKLINE BILLIARD PLAYER DOES NOT RETIRE.

Fight Will Be Made for Championship Lost Last Year to Jake Schaefer.

Willie Hoppe has not retired. In fact, he will almost certainly make a fight this fall for the 18.2 balkline billiard championship which he lost to Jake Schaefer last year after supremacy for a decade and a half. This was the statement recently of Welker Cochran, San Franciscan, who holds the high-run record for tournament balkline play.

Hoppe retired, says Cochran, under the impression that he would not be able to get another crack at Jake Schaefer for two long years. Such, indeed, until this summer was the rule governing challenge matches. It has been amended, however, so that Hoppe will get his chance for the title in November.

Here's Cochran's explanation of the retirement of the billiard king emeritus:

"When beaten by Schaefer in their special challenge match Hoppe was to be compelled to wait until every other one of the seven competitors in the national tourney had made a stab at the title. As Schaefer would be required to accept only three challenges each year, Hoppe's turn would arrive some time in 1924.

"The billiard authorities, however, had the sense to change their rule. They decided that, beginning in 1923, only the second and third highest in the national tourney would be eligible to challenge, and that a round-robin tournament should be held every autumn. Even this failed to dispose of the challenge issued by Roger Conti, the Frenchman, who placed fourth at Chicago last November. Conti's withdrawal of his challenge to Schaefer, however, removed the last obstacle to a tourney this fall.

"Hoppe is anxious to get back his title. He watched my match with Schaefer at Chicago last May and, at the time, explained his 'retirement.' He simply figured that matches with anyone but the champion weren't worth staying in the game for, and that two years was too long to wait for a return match.

"Billiard fans all over the country looked on Hoppe's retirement as a blot on his reputation. Many thought he had quit, lost confidence in his ability to win back the crown and was unwilling to risk further defeats at the hands of Schaefer.

"Such is not the case. There is no truer sportsman than Willie Hoppe. His attitude has been misunderstood, but, in my opinion, was fully justified by the conditions existing at the time.

"Hoppe wants to beat Schaefer. I am sure he will be among the first to sign an entry blank for the national tournament, which starts at the Astor hotel, in New York, November 3."

The new rule limiting challengers to runner-up and third man should prove a decided improvement, according to Cochran. Matches between the champion and the fourth, fifth, sixth and seventh finishers never were popular, says Cochran. And, he asks, if they can't draw a crowd, what's the use of having them?

SALT LAKE CITY, July 22.—(Special.)—The Beavers made it three out of five today with the aid of good pitching, good breaks and a late inning shower, which resulted in the calling of the game at the end of the seventh. The figure was 4 to 2.

At that the Bees have no complaint, as they had ample opportunity to score as many as Portland. Crumpler and Gould opposed each other on the hillock and ended the game with heaving honors about even. Each outfit got eight hits.

Al Demaree joined the Beavers this forenoon. Regarding the former big league pitcher who has been mentioned as possible manager of the club, Manager Turner had nothing to say. Manager Lewis of the Bees announced the release of Pitcher Hencke, bought recently from Seattle at the waivers price.

Beavers Gain Start.

The Beavers made their usual effective start, Gressett hitting safe and scoring when Wolfer doubled. Then Poole singled. The three hits and one run were made off the first three balls pitched by Gould, which is almost a record in itself.

With two away, Wolfer and Poole pulled a double steal, the former scoring. After sundry pleasantries back and forth, in which nothing happened, the Bees tied the count in the sixth with one out. Siglin singled and took third on Strand's double to left-center. Both counted when Lewis hit to center. Schick was hit by a pitched ball and Jenkins intentionally passed. Duffy was out on a quick attempt at stealing home.

Bees Lose Chance.

This would have been a nice place to stop, but the rain held off long enough for Portland to get two more. Gressett walked and Wolfer beat out a short infield hit. Poole scored Gressett with a smash to right and High busted one in the same spot, scoring Wolfer.

The Bees had an excellent chance to do something in their half with runners on second and third and no outs. A flyout, strikeout and pick-off of a base runner closed the inning. Score:
