

Society

Miss Frances Hillman of Napa California, who is enjoying a visit here.

Mrs. L. D. Bell (Miss Lowen Dunn)
who was a charming bride.
Bushnell photo.

Mrs. George A. Bentlow
(Miss Mildred Fisher)
a recent bride from San Francisco

Mrs. George Maxfield Alexander of Mosier, who was Miss Lorenna Hepner.

ture by the bright summer frocks of the 300 guests. A splendid orchestra played throughout the meal. Vocal solos were given by Mrs. Harold E. Wheeler, Mrs. W. H. Chat-ten and Mrs. Richard Hill of New York, accompanied by Mrs. F. W. Youney. Miss Gertrude Hoerber played the violin.

The visiting guests were invited to participate in a golf driving con-test and silver prizes were awarded the winners.

E. C. Sammons, general chairman of entertainment, was assisted by J. W. Leary, in charge of this af-fair. Women on the committee were Mrs. E. E. Cable, Mrs. S. L. Eddy, Mrs. Floyd C. Warren, Mrs. Tom West of The Dalles, Mrs. Frank L. Freeman, Mrs. Fred L. Weber, Mrs. Frances Lounsbury, Miss Edith Peel and Miss Flora Clark.

Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Lytle of Salem, who were the guests of Mrs. Robert N. Stanfield, left Tuesday for a motor trip to British Columbia. Mrs. Dan West of Portland accompanied them.

Parish Williams, who is to leave next week for a two years' trip, will be honor guest at an informal reception today from 3 to 7 o'clock when Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Williams will be hosts. Mr. Williams will sail next week for New York, from whence he will leave August 10 for Norway.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Robinson are guests of Rev. and Mrs. John Bryan McCormick. They are parents of Mrs. McCormick and are staying three weeks in Portland, being entertained by their many friends.

Mrs. Gilbert Durham has returned from Tokeland, where she has been spending several weeks.

Mrs. Jack White, who has been the house guest of Miss Katherine Hart at North Beach, returned Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Clark Burgard, who have been visiting Mr. Burgard's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Burgard, left Thursday for San Francisco, where they will make their home. During their visit in Portland they were honored at many attractive affairs.

Mrs. Jeannette Kennedy was hostess yesterday at an informal luncheon given for Mrs. Christopher

C. Chenery of New York, who is a visitor in Portland. The affair was given at the Anne Davenport tea-house. Covers were placed for Mrs. Chenery, George Ainslee, Miss Jocelyn Betts, Miss Margaret Bates and the hostess.

Mrs. William Porter of New York city and Mrs. Frank O'Neill of Spokane, the attractive house guests of Mrs. Andrew Porter and her daughter, Mrs. Van Rensselaer Sternberg, departed Monday evening. They were entertained at a number of smart affairs during their visit here.

Mrs. W. C. Dunaway and her young son, Billy, are spending a fortnight at Seaview, Wash. Miss Dorothy Dunaway, who has been touring Glacier and Yellowstone parks, will return to Portland this week.

The many friends of Mrs. Varnel D. C. Beach, who underwent an operation recently, will be glad to know that she is well on the road to recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Letter have returned from a trip in the orient. They left Tuesday for San Francisco, where they will visit for several weeks.

Miss Marion Bowles, Miss Barbara Stanfield and Miss Marcia Knight will be the guests of honor at a smart bridge tea at which Miss Leslie Kerns will entertain tomorrow afternoon. A number of guests have been invited to make up six tables of bridge, and additional guests have been asked in for tea. Miss Louise Hoyt will pour, and Miss Dorothy Shea will cut the ices. They will be assisted by Miss Georgiana Mears and Miss Louise Dorsey.

Mrs. F. O. Burekhardt, of Seattle, has been visiting her sister, Mrs. William Ingalls, wife of Major Ingalls, at Vancouver barracks.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry F. Chaney entertained Tuesday with a dinner party. Covers were laid for eight.

Mrs. Richard Koehler will entertain with a luncheon at the Waverley club on Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Margaret Burrell Biddle invited friends informally to dinner on Tuesday evening, honoring her house guest, Miss Marian Woolsey, wife of Santa Barbara. Among the

Portland's Oldest Specialty Shop

Bartholomew's

Washington at Tenth

Dissolution Sale

SEVEN more days to close out our entire stock.

Drastic reductions on all coats, suits, dresses, furs, and blouses. For tomorrow's extra special---

150
BLOUSES

Regularly Priced to $25.00

$5.00

violin and vocal numbers he was assisted by Miss Tosca Bergers violinist, and Miss Phyllis Wolfe, soprano.

The importance of the visit of these musicians cannot be overemphasized, for Mr. Saar has won international renown as a composer, and both Mr. and Mrs. Saar have distinguished themselves as teachers. They will remain in Portland until the latter part of August.

Colonel David Dunne left for his summer home at Seaside on Wednesday to join his family and, with Mrs. Dunne, celebrate their 40th wedding anniversary. Each summer the anniversary is marked by a celebration at the summer cottage where many friends of Colonel and Mrs. Dunne gather to wish the couple well. House guests of Colonel and Mrs. Dunne are H. C. Wortman of Portland and Lieutenant Harold B. Marr of Vancouver barracks. On Wednesday evening a "wedding supper with a real bride's cake" was served to a large number of friends as a fitting remembrance of July 19, 1876, when Miss Margaret Frawley, a charming society maid of San Francisco, became the bride of David M. Dunne.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl C. Jantzen entertained Miss Frances Hillman of Napa, Cal., at their home in Laurelhurst. Miss Hillman is motoring back to California with her mother and sister, after a delightful visit in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Blauvelt left Wednesday for Alaska, where they expect to be away about three weeks.

Mrs. C. J. Reed, who has made her home in San Diego for the past two years, arrived in Portland on Wednesday evening to be the guest of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Green Reed.

Mrs. William Washburn is planning to leave on Friday for the east, where she will sail August 5 for Europe to pass several months. While abroad she will join a party of friends and will also meet her sister, Mrs. Frank V. Dumond, who, with her children, sailed for Europe on Thursday. Mrs. Dumond will probably be in Europe all winter and is planning to place her children in school in Switzerland.

The wedding of Mrs. Ruth Schel Schweitzer and Henry Walter of New York city will be solemnized on Tuesday afternoon at the home of the bride. Rabbi Jonah B. Wise will perform the ceremony, which will be a quiet affair. Highways arrived in Portland yesterday and will take his bride to New York to make their home.

Major and Mrs. Richard Park were hosts at dinner Friday evening at the University club in compliment to Captain and Mrs. R. L. Burnell.

Mrs. J. N. Teal has as her house guest Mrs. Esther Pailson, a well-known singer of Los Angeles and a friend of Mrs. Teal since they were in Paris together some years ago. Mrs. Pailson is en route east, where she will spend the summer.

Mrs. Rhoda Felling, who has made her home in the east for many years, recently returned to Portland, and is with her mother, Mrs. Edward Felling.

Martin Biddle left on Friday for a ranch near Klamath Falls, where he will spend the summer. He is returning to southern Oregon with Philip Beck and spent a short time with his aunt, Mrs. Gordon Voorhies. He was accompanied to the ranch by his cousin, Charles Voorhies.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Victor Saar, noted musicians, who have come to Portland to conduct a master class, were honored at a reception in the Hotel Portland Friday evening. The affair, which was given by the former pupils of Mr. Saar, was attended by the majority of the prominent musicians of the city. The early part of the evening was given over to the reception proper. Mr. and Mrs. Saar, Miss Marie A. S. Soule, Miss Phyllis Wolfe and Miss Bessie Nye Grant were in the receiving line. Later the guests were favored with a concert of Mr. Saar's compositions, in which the master himself displayed his pianistic ability. In the

Mrs. H. C. Carr, Philip and Harriet Carr of Porterville, Cal.; Mr. and Mrs. Carol C. Seely of Parkdale and Miss Helen R. Menzies of Cashmere, Wash.

Swimming has been the main attraction at Rhododendron during the past week. The warm weather has drawn unusually large crowds to the swimming tank.

A large number of saddle and pack horses are now available at Rhododendron. With the use of these horses long excursions to scenic spots of interest may be taken. Special two-day trips during the buckberry season are now being planned. The one of most interest is a trip to Paradise park.

Many men are now making fast work of gravelling the road above and below Rhododendron. When this is completed, it is expected that the inn will have a late fall season. The guests at the inn this week were: Joseph G. Sammer, Mr. and Mrs. Sinclair Wilson, Miss Frances Wilson, O. J. Sherman, N. E. Imhoff, Miss Merle Wilson, Miss E. Cooney, Miss Dorothy C. Henry, Miss M. C. Mercer, O. G. Huggins, Don Bates, Mrs. A. C. Pantan, Miss Marjorie Carlock, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Bose, Raymond K. Delahunt of New York city, Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Delahunt, Dr. H. Boetche, Miss Irene Sweeney, Miss Catherine M. Sweeney, Miss Nellie M. Murnane, Miss Katherine M. Murnane, Mrs. A. F. Curtis and son, Frederic.

Among the 100 cottages at Rhododendron there are very few which are not occupied at the present time. Many guests have been entertained over the week-end and the majority of them are staying longer.

The Alpha Beta, Theta and Gamma Sigma societies of the Oregon State College of Chiropractic, Sixth and Oak streets, held an informal reception Thursday evening for the board of directors of the college. A beautifully framed picture of the 1922 graduating class was presented by Dr. M. M. Racheff, president of the alumni association, Dr. P. O. Riley, president of the college, responded. Several new students were initiated into the Boosters' club.

Wednesday afternoon Miss Edythe Dubach was hostess for an informal luncheon given in honor of Miss Kittie Short, soprano, who has been studying in Portland with Francis X. Arens. Covers were placed for Lancaster's Columbia Gorge camp was the destination of several prominent Portland families who motored over the Columbia river highway to Bonneville last week-end. Although construction work at the new camp being built by Samuel C. Lancaster, engineer of the Columbia river highway, is yet in progress, conditions are now suitable for the reception of guests, with promise that things will be in first-class shape within a week. About 20 completely furnished tents have been erected and the large log dining hall is nearly finished. Running water and electric lights have also been installed as additional conveniences to "camp" life.

Included in this week's guests were the following: E. E. MacNaughton, R. L. Sablin, Mrs. M. E. Henderson, Mrs. John M. Sinclair, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Thatcher and daughters Virginia and Evelyn, H. H. Haynes, Doris M. Haynes, Louise M. Leonard, S. W. Leonard, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar J. Bryan, Miss Florence D. Bergeron, John Y. Bergeron, A. T. Bergeron and Mrs. W. S. W. Chamberlain, all of Portland; Mr. and

Our Dress Buyer Rushed
From New York—

A Wonderfully Advantageous Purchase of

45 Advance Fall Silk Frocks

—Two Price Groups That Are
Revelations in Value!

$29⁵⁰ and $39⁵⁰

A remarkable "pickup" of NEW AUTUMN FROCKS—rushed them to us by express—just in time for Monday's selling!

Exquisite frocks, that you would expect to be price-tagged at many, many dollars more!

All the important little new fashion foibles are represented! Every detail tells a story of quality and superiority!

Augmenting these two groups are late summer models carefully selected from our own stocks!

Such Lovely
Fabrics
as Crepe romaine
Crepe-back satin
Heavy cantons
Graceful crepe de chines

Sketched at the Emporium

Hosiery Super-Specials

Kayser "Rolettes"
Holeproof "Scotties"

Formerly $2.25—$3.45

EXTRA SPECIAL!

$1.95

The "already rolled" hose—that stay snugly up about the knee—with detachable garter tops—

All newest shades
— white, beige,
gray, sand, black.

EXTRAOR-DINARY
SPECIAL AT

$1.95

THE VOGUE RIGHT NOW IS FOR

Felt Hats

—and all our ready-to-trim summer felts are now one price—

$3⁰⁰

Shades of Jade, Orchid, Beige, Ivory

Miss Short, Miss Elsa Riehs, Mrs. J. Riehs, Mrs. Frances Fisher, Mrs. Dubach and Miss Dubach. During the afternoon a vocal programme was given by Miss Short and Miss Riehs who also has been studying with Mr. Arens, and Mrs. Fisher, soloist at the First Congregational church. Miss Dubach accompanied.

Miss Lucie Valaire is having a most enjoyable stay in Paris and is being entertained extensively.

Mrs. Alice Wright and Miss Vick Seighman entertained at their home Tuesday evening with a "500" party. Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Seymonde, Mr. and Mrs. Bruno Mauro, Mr. and Mrs. John P. Platt, Miss Robinson, Mrs. M. D. Lundahl, and Vilas Holbrook were present.

Mrs. John Lane entertained at a charming shower on Wednesday, honoring her sister, Miss Louise Irving, whose marriage to Carl Knudsen will take place today.

Miss Louise Irving, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Irving, will become the bride of Carl Knudsen, son of Mr. and Mrs. George O. Knudsen, this afternoon at the home of her parents. Rev. Thomas Jenkins of St. David's church will officiate in the presence of members of the family. Miss Dorothy McKee will be maid of honor, and Roland Irving will be best man. Miss Irving attended the University of Oregon.

(Continued on Page 4)

"Going Away Goods"

Kodak!

All the great out-of-doors invites you to preserve its beauty for all time through the medium of the kodak. We have every kodak necessity and PHOTO PHIL will gladly explain to you just how to get the best pictures. Consult him before you leave on your outing and bring him your work when you return.

Paper Towels
A real vacation necessity.
Roll35¢
Flat50¢

White Paper Plates
"Good enough to use freely; cheap enough to throw away."
3 inches, dozen.....10¢
4 1/2 inches, dozen.....15¢
6 inches, dozen.....25¢

Kodak Albums
You will need one of these fine books to preserve your summer's kodak prints in permanent security.

Boston Bags
Hand-Boarded, Cowhide, black and tan, fills the bill for every possible outing. Very special at$2.98

Lily Paper
Package of 50.....5¢
Package of 100.....50¢
Package of 100.....75¢

Drinking Cups

Two Unusual Specials

No. 1 Cabinet Stationery, No. 2 Genuine Leather Hand Shara Linen; 48 sheets, 48 en- Bags; all black Pin Seal, Seal envelopes; assorted col- Grain, Morocco. Odds 98c ors. In boxes. Each.. 48c and ends. Special at..

"VACATION SPECIALISTS"

J. K. Gill Co.

THIRD AND ALDER STREETS

620-621 Morgan Bldg.

Oriental System Beauty Culture

DR. TREINIES
BEAUTY SPECIALIST
Main 4454

Face and Scalp Treatments, Medical Shampoo, Marcelling and Hair Dressing.

PLEATING SPECIALS

Cut, seam, hem, machine pleat skirts read to sew on band.

75¢
Hemstitching
Embroidering
Buttons

EASTERN NOVELTY MFG. CO.

854 5th St.
Mail Orders Promptly Filled

Baby's First Clothes

Plan now for the Fall and Winter baby.

The Rose Baby Shop

388 Morrison
Near Tenth Street

THE POWDER PUFF

ANNOUNCES the acquisition of a '22 model Fredericks Permanent Wave Machine, using oil pad, non-injurious method, under supervision of an expert operator.

Try Our New "I-Gro" Shampoo
637 MORGAN BUILDING

$7.75

REST CURE OXFORDS

"BUILT-IN ARCH"

"They Keep Your Feet Feeling Their Best"

The Mode Art

SHOE SHOP
MORRISON AT PARK STREET

Stephan's

Pittcock Block
Embroidery and Hemstitching.

Plaitings, Buttons and All Kinds of Dress Finishing.