casual was to bid good-bye to their son, Parrish Williams, who will leave soon for Europe. The guests called between the hours of 4 and 7 o'clock. During the afternoon Mr. Williams sang several groups of songs. He will give concerts in Norway and Sweden and study with Ludwig Wulmer. Later he plans to study tenor roles with Jean de Reszke in Paris. Presiding at the tea table were: Mrs. H. C. Wortman, Mrs. J. C. Corbin, Mrs. John A. Keating of San Francisco, and Mrs. William B. Fleibig. Assisting about the rooms were: Mrs. John D. Coleman, Mrs. Edward Valentine, Mrs. Chesley Roberts of Berkeley, Cal.; Miss Hazel Handy, Miss Erma Keithley, Miss Jean Buswell, and the Misses Kathryn and Louise Corbin.

Mrs. E. E. Miller and Mrs. James Muckle will give a silver tea in behalf of the Episcopal convention, Thursday, August 2, from 3 to 5 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Miller, 647 Ladd avenue. Those who will assist the hostesses are Mrs. Wilson Johnston, Mrs. Thomas Jenkins, Mrs. Paul Cowgill, Mrs. J. A. Gibson and Mrs. S. E. Joseph.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Baker of Piedmont have as their house guests, Mrs. Baker's sister-in-law, Mrs. W. J. Ellis and her son Howard of Stratford, Ontario. The party motored to Seaside on Wednesday to spend a few days at the Woodcock cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Baker were hosts on Sunday at a christening breakfast for their granddaughter, Christel Lee Baker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Baker. White sweet peas and gypsophila were used as table decorations and dainty corsages of heliotrope and gypsophila were placed for the guests who numbered nine. Rev. C. H. Bernhard of Grace Lutheran church performed the ceremony. Mrs. George Baker who was before her marriage Christel Lee Nichols, is a member of an old southern family and a direct descendant of General Lee.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Kaufman have had for the past fortnight as their house guests, Mrs. J. F. Stevens of Lincoln, Neb., and Miss Lena Bromer of Omaha, Neb. Mrs. Stevens will leave early in the week for a trip to Alaska, before departing for home. DRESS SALE

VALUES UP TO $65

Mr. Frost just returned from the eastern market Thursday and had shipped by express on same train 150 dresses in Poiret Twills, satin-faced Canton, Roshanara Crepe, Canton Crepe, in all the late models, values up to $65.00, which are going to be placed on sale Monday for $29.50.

These are the biggest values ever shown in Portland. Why? Because on this trip The Famous opened up its New York office in the Pennsylvania Terminal building, which is in the heart of the Fashion Center, under the supervision of Mr. A. J. Collins, a judge of national reputation, and through his purchasing organization we were fortunate enough to buy these dresses from manufacturers who had gone into the hands of receivers at practically 50 cents on the dollar, and we are going to give the women of Portland and vicinity the advantage of this buying power.
