

Society

Mrs. William H. Haggard, who is visiting here.

Mrs. James A. Lyons, who is visiting here.

Mrs. Helen M. Mendenhall, who is visiting here.

Mrs. Helen M. Mendenhall, who is visiting here.

(Continued from Page 3.)

great success. More parties are planned among the young folk. Although the dance hall is the attraction in the evening, the swimming tank is still holding its sway in the afternoon.

Among the guests at the inn this week were: Mrs. Carrie B. Kent, E. H. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Linn E. Jones of Oregon City, Miss Edna Burns and Miss Katherine Burns of Dallas, Tex., J. W. Osborne, Mr. and Mrs. A. Clark, Miss Ruth Clark, Miss Gladys Bowen at the University club Tuesday. The guests included Mrs. Margaret Burrell Biddle, Mrs. Harry Bell Torrey, Mrs. W. H. C. Bowen, Miss Margaret Biddle, Miss Gretchen Colton, Miss Mary Louise Feldenheimer and the hostess.

Madam Ester Palliser, a well-known singer of Los Angeles, who has been the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph N. Teal, and has been extensively entertained during her visit here at many smart affairs, left Friday for the east where she will pass the remainder of the summer.

John Atwood and John Young of New York are the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Guy W. Talbot, and Miss Sara Jane Talbot this week-end.

Miss Vella Winner has returned from a four months' absence in Pasadena, where she was called by the illness of her father, and has resumed her position as woman's club editor of the Oregon Journal.

Mrs. Sam Anderson gave a dinner party Thursday evening in honor of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Lawrence and daughters enjoyed a few days at the "Rock Pile."

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Lawrence and family spent the week-end at Nesbrook cottage.

G. W. Hawn spent the week and with his family and Tamie in Hawn's home.

The announcement of the engagement of Miss Margaret Huddleston to Hal M. Nicolai came as a complete surprise to their mutual friends. The news was told at a tea Saturday, June 22, at which Mrs. Edward A. Morgan was hostess.

The color scheme of lavender and pink was carried out with sweet peas and ribbons in pastel shades. Little Jane Shephard gave cards to the guests to tell of the betrothal.

Miss Huddleston is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Barlowe Huddleston of this city. Mr. Nicolai is the son of Mrs. Ernest C. Duncan of San Francisco and the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Huddleston. He is connected with the Nicolai Deer Manufacturing company.

No definite date has been set for the wedding, but it is planned for the fall.

Monday's guests from Portland registered at Paradise inn, Rainier National park, included: Miss Grace R. Seaborn, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. D. Ford, Miss Emma E. Bazette, Miss Frances Meyers, Miss Eugenia Moore, Miss Charlotte S. Gustafson, Miss Grace J. Burton, Miss B. Rosenthal, Ben C. Wing, Miss N. E. Lambert and Miss Constance Cole.

Mr. and Mrs. Wells Gilbert were hosts at a dinner Wednesday night in honor of Mr. Gilbert's mother, Mrs. Page Morris of Pasadena.

Covers were placed for Mrs. Morris, Mr. and Mrs. William MacMaster, Mr. and Mrs. Victor A. Johnson, C. F. Adams and the hosts.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Talbot entertained informally at dinner Wednesday night in honor of Dean Witter, and George Leif of San Francisco. Covers were laid for eight.

Miss Sara Jane Talbot gave a dinner last night at the Waverley country club. Covers were placed for a group of the younger set, John Atwood and John Young of New York were the honor guests.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Shevlin presided over a dinner at the Waverley club last night.

Mrs. Hartwell Chapman of New Haven, Conn., was the inspiration for a luncheon given by Miss Gladys Bowen at the University club Tuesday. The guests included Mrs. Margaret Burrell Biddle, Mrs. Harry Bell Torrey, Mrs. W. H. C. Bowen, Miss Margaret Biddle, Miss Gretchen Colton, Miss Mary Louise Feldenheimer and the hostess.

Madam Ester Palliser, a well-known singer of Los Angeles, who has been the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph N. Teal, and has been extensively entertained during her visit here at many smart affairs, left Friday for the east where she will pass the remainder of the summer.

John Atwood and John Young of New York are the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Guy W. Talbot, and Miss Sara Jane Talbot this week-end.

Miss Vella Winner has returned from a four months' absence in Pasadena, where she was called by the illness of her father, and has resumed her position as woman's club editor of the Oregon Journal.

Mrs. Sam Anderson gave a dinner party Thursday evening in honor of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Lawrence and daughters enjoyed a few days at the "Rock Pile."

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Lawrence and

Stark to Henry Rosette was made known by Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Stark. Miss Stark is a graduate of Lincoln high school and attended Reed college. Mr. Rosette is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Rosette of this city, and after graduating from Lincoln high served two and one-half years overseas. The wedding will take place this fall.

The many friends of Miss Gertrude Hargreaves were surprised to receive news of her marriage to Frank N. Twoby of Damascus, Or. The couple departed a month ago for a motor trip through Yellowstone park, Rainier park and British Columbia. They will be at home to their friends in Clackamas about August 15.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

One of the most enjoyable events of the early week was the outdoor luncheon tendered the east and chorus of the Armstrong Revue Tuesday by John F. Cordray, manager of The Oaks. As soon as the matinee performance was over the festivities began on the park grounds and included a baseball game, speeches by members of the east and the park staff and an elaborate picnic repast. The revels continued almost to the first call for the evening curtain. Forty-five attended the affair.

Ninety-six candles were on the birthday cake of Mrs. M. C. Willis when she celebrated her anniversary at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. J. Simpson, 721 Division street, July 20. Mrs. Willis was born in Schuyler county, Illinois, July 20, 1826, and crossed the plains in 1847. She lived near Abraham Lincoln and was acquainted with the Lincoln family. "Grandma" Willis, as she is affectionately known, has seven living children, 13 grandchildren, 68 great-grandchildren and seven great-great-grandchildren. Her home is in Cottage Grove with her daughter, Mrs. S. E. Hubbard.

Refreshments, a musical programme and games were features of the evening's entertainment. "Grandma" Willis was presented with many gifts and greetings. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Simpson, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Best, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Shue, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Hubbard, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Thompson, Mrs. Ellen B. Jones, Mrs. S. E. Hubbard, Mrs. Georgia Neville, Miss Olive Willard, Miss Vinnie Shue, Miss Ethel Bristow, Miss Mildred Benito, Miss Josephine Best, Dale Hubbard, Buntia Thompson and Phyllis Thompson.

Mrs. Dr. C. D. Clark and Mrs. F. Neubauer will act as hostesses for the ladies of the Elks party on Thursday afternoon at the Elks temple. Winners of the prizes last week were Mrs. Jack Law, Mrs. D. A. Fellows, Mrs. R. L. Adams, Mrs. D. W. Campbell, Mrs. Hugh Knipe and Mrs. H. Brown. Mrs. Harry Green, president of the club, who has been enjoying a vacation in the mountains, will be back this week.

The fourth annual reunion of the descendants of Henry and Elizabeth Hewitt, pioneers of 1842, was held at the old family home in Yamhill county, July 22 and 23. There were 75 relatives present, including six of the sons—Judge H. H. Hewitt, W. Hewitt, J. Hewitt, I. C. Hewitt, Dr. J. L. Hewitt, Dr. L. L. Hewitt, M. C. Hewitt of Roseville, Cal., and H. W. Hewitt of La Grande could not be present.

Mrs. Sam Anderson gave a dinner party Thursday evening in honor of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Lawrence and

LINN COUNTY PIONEERS CELEBRATE THEIR 56TH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY.

Hamon Shelton and Ollie Holman, early settlers of Linn county. Two Linn county pioneers, Hamon Shelton, aged 78, and his wife, Ollie Holman, aged 80, celebrated their 56th wedding anniversary, Sunday, July 23. Over 500 friends and relatives of the couple gathered in the grove opposite the Shelton home and took part in the event. Among other Linn county pioneers present were: Evelyn Shelton, aged 55; Mary Hannah, aged 80; Jane Shelton, aged 55, and Nancy Blyou, aged 83.

Mr. Hamon crossed the plains in 1847, while his wife made the overland journey in 1844. They were married at Providence, Linn county, July 22, 1866, and have lived on their original donation land claim ever since.

The event promises to be an annual affair for the pioneers of Linn county.

And Mrs. J. Bryhl, of Lund, Sweden, who are making their fourth trip to America. Mr. Bryhl is a retired capitalist and is visiting his son and daughter-in-law here. Mr. and Mrs. Bryhl left for California on their way back to Europe. Mr. and Mrs. Sam Anderson accompanied them south.

An attractive dinner party was given Thursday evening, when Miss Evelyn Trayne entertained in honor of Miss Mary Reese of San Francisco, who is the house guest of Shirley Anne Trueblood. Those bidden to meet Miss Reese were Miss Alice Satterly, Miss Call King, Nina Wilson, Miss Florence Dillon, Miss Ruth Eldridge, Mrs. Vane Barker and Messrs. Frank Zan, P. H. Harris, Arthur Sprout, Kent McCalman, John Scott, Carl Engelman, Bayard White and Curtis Bailey.

A very pleasant gathering of relatives and friends was held Sunday, July 15, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Walker, five miles south of Portland. It was the occasion of Mr. Walker's 85th birthday. Mr. and Mrs. Walker are early pioneers, Mr. Walker having crossed the Jake Kreiger of Molloy, Mr. and Mrs. John Kaiser of Peerson of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. Sherry Ford of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Case and son Floyd of Lad Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Day and two sons, Gene and Jimmy, of Molloy, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kiser of Lad Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Salzer and children, Sadie, Thelma, Melvin, Genie, Lenard and Harold of Wilsonville.

Sunday, July 23, an all-day picnic was held at Washington park by such members of the Carmine family as reside in or near Portland, with some present from points in Washington and California. After a most delicious basket luncheon the older members related many interesting civil war tales, reminiscences of early days in the middle west and early days in Oregon, some having crossed the plains in 1874 and '75.

Those present were: James M. Carmine, Lydia Carmine-Patterson and Charles P. Patterson of Salem; Richard S. Carmine, Grays Harbor, Wash.; Levi T. Carmine and Elizabeth Carmine, Long Beach, Cal.; Lulu Carmine-Wells, Marie Wells, Marie Wells and Shirley Rae Wells, Vancouver, Wash.; Mrs. T. M. Morgan, Seattle, Wash.; Mrs. Jennie Moffatt, Oregon City; William A. Lank, Maxine Lank, Mrs. J. P. Hargerty, Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Gray, Miss Anna Gray, Raymond E. Carmine, Bertha E. Carmine, Roland R. Carmine and Max N. Carmine of Portland.

COMING EVENTS.

The Knights of Columbus have chartered the Swan for an excursion on the evening of August 3. The boat will leave the east end of Morrison bridge at 8:15 P. M.

The annual picnic of the Portland Health club will be held Monday, August 7, at Peninsula park. A basket dinner will be served at 7 P. M. All members and friends are invited. The regular exercises and lecture, followed by dancing, will be held in the gymnasium. Bring cups and spoons.

The Ladies' auxiliary of the Oregon Greeters will give a dance on the Swan Monday night, July 31. The boat leaves the east approach of Morrison-street bridge at 8:30 o'clock.

WEDDINGS.

Gamble-Holland.

The wedding of Miss Elizabeth Gamble and Captain B. Holland took place last Tuesday at All Saints' church. Rev. William Cowin officiated. Preceding the ceremony Miss Nina Dressel sang "Because" and the "Ave Maria." Miss Elsie Mayer, a friend of the bride, played the wedding march.

The bride's gown was white crepe de chine, with long tulle veil, and she carried a bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley. Mrs. James B. Drennan was matron of honor and wore a frock of lavender with hat to match and carried sweet peas. Miss Florence J. Brady was bridesmaid and wore a pale pink frock and hat to match.

J. B. Drennan acted as best man, and the ushers were Walter Roberts and Vincent Collins.

A wedding breakfast was served

Berg's Remodeling Sale Continues

With Every Department—Blouses—Sweaters—Hosiery, Gloves, Umbrellas, Etc., Offering

Remarkable Bargains

Carpenters are making good progress, but it looks now as if they will be with us another week. Sorry we haven't any windows in which to display these bargains—

LACE hose that, fine, soft imported stockings that have the appearance of high-priced silk hose are included in the sale at 45c. They've been $1.50. And odds and ends of good lisle hose are only 25c. Black, white and brown; values ordinarily to 60c. Do you wear hosiery? You can buy famous brands these Remodeling Days—pure silk hosiery in delightful colors for $1.50. Ordinarily they're to $3.25. And full-fashioned pure silk chiffron hose with lisle reinforcements are too unusual at $1.45 to require further space. Broken lines of children's hose originally to 65c are now priced 15c. Wonderful opportunity to supply kiddies' needs.

THE loveliest costume blouses that we have seen at their regular prices of $9.85 to $10.85 are ticketed $7.45! Lovely heavy Crepe de Chine with charming embroidery—red and blue cross-stitching in Russian design. Some beaded in similar effects. Fine Georgettes with real Irish lace yokes or fillet lace vests and edging. And some decidedly unusual colored blouses. Only one of a kind of most of them. Early shopping is urged, because they are indeed remarkable!

SKIRTS that have been to $19.85 are going for $5.95. Not many of them to be sure—but lovely novelty silks and fine woolen skirts are so unusual at the price, the lot will soon disappear.

SLEEVELESS COATS ordinarily to $10.85 are going for $4.45. This includes Krepe knit and tricotette coats. Colors and sizes are broken—but if you find the right color and size—here's a wonderful bargain!

GLOVES in 16-button length—two of the best-known fabric brands—black or white are going for $1.09 instead of their regular price of $1.65. And 16-button length silk gloves—"irregulars" of a famous maker's $1.75 and $2 grades are being eagerly purchased at $1.09. Two-clasp fabric gloves in light shades have been reduced to 39c, and here's a bargain you won't be able to resist! White chamousette gloves of fine quality, with black embroidery, selling regularly for 85c, are in the sale at 19c. Sizes 5½ and 6 only. Odds and ends of fine kid, glace and leather gloves have been reduced to 95c.

UMBRELLAS at 65c for men and women are mighty attractive bargains—especially if you're in the habit of "leaving umbrellas." And when women's pure silk umbrellas with Prince of Wales crook handles are marked $5.85 instead of $7.85, it's a pretty good way to save $2! They're in red, brown, taupe and black, with full wood stick, of pure silk with tape and hem-finished edges.

HOSTS of bargains that we can't describe for want of space, but they'll offer a practical way of saving money. Please come and see them for yourself.

PLEATING SPECIALS

Cut, seam, hem, machine pleat skirts read to sew on band, 75c

Hemstitching Embroidering Buttons

EASTERN NOVELTY MFG. CO.

85½ 5th St. Mail Orders Promptly Filled

No C. O. D.s, approvals, credits or exchanges

Charles F. Berg Formerly known as Lennan's

Many unadvertised specials in the sale

Coming and Going RIGHT ALONG

The new "Sweet Sixteen" models now appearing are scarcely displayed before they begin to disappear. Their beauty is marvelous!

In variety they are equaled only by their value; in vogue equaled only by their value.

And Yet in the Face of This They Are Sold for Only ..

$16

WITH NO COMPETITION

New Suits
New Coats
New Dresses
New Wraps

With a tendency to the New Fall Fashions; not seeking to "slip" to you styles of the past on the pretext that a so-called reduced price will compensate for accepting the undesirable model.

It's just like "Sweet Sixteen" to be jauntily stepping to the fore, commanding attention wherever appearing.

FURS

Women everywhere have learned that Furs priced the "Sweet Sixteen" way are not so expensive as to make their ownership impossible to most women. We guarantee any fur we sell.

145-147 BROADWAY