

Society

Mrs. John A. Keating, A Prominent Visitor From San Francisco

Miss May Wallace Who Entertained Members Of The Sub-Debutante Set At Tea

Mrs. Spencer S. Scott (Edna Minsinger) Who Is Spending The Summer Here

Mrs. John R. Bailey Who Gave A Charming Tea For Her Guest

Mrs. Frederick Warren Farrington Of Seattle, Visiting Mrs. J. C. Elliott King

(Continued From First Page.)

Edward Clark III, and her granddaughter, Miss Louise Dolph, have returned from the beach. Mr. Clark left the end of the week for his home in Philadelphia, but Mrs. Clark will remain in Portland another month.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Young of San Francisco, who are the house guests of Mrs. Young's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Whitmer, are spending two weeks at the beach.

Mrs. Benjamin Tillman of South Carolina and her sister, Mrs. Charles Sumner Moore of Atlantic City, are the house guests of Mrs. Tillman's daughter, Mrs. Henry Hughes. Last Wednesday Mrs. Hughes honored her house guests at an attractive bridge tea.

Friday night Mrs. Harry Sharp complimented Mrs. Tillman and Mrs. Moore at a delightful dinner party. Covers were placed for 12. Tuesday afternoon they were the inspiration for a tea, when Mrs. Donald Hemmaway entertained.

Mrs. Simon Winch and her little daughter Nella have returned from the beach, where they passed three weeks as the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Mortimer Hartwell.

Mrs. Frank Jay Cobbs and her two sons are spending a short time at Seaside.

Miss Isabel Clark left Saturday for San Francisco, where she will visit for two weeks.

Miss Lois Nitchy was hostess at an attractive bridge tea on Monday afternoon complimenting her house guest, Miss Edna Pollman. The tea table was decorated with midsommar flowers. Mrs. C. D. Brunn, Mrs. Walter Cook and Mrs. Franklin T. Griffith presided over the tea table. They were assisted by a bevy of popular maids including Mrs. Harriet Griffith, Miss Barbara Stanfield, Miss Marcella Knight, Miss Suzanne Caswell and Mrs. Severin Harkson.

Mrs. Mary Scarborough is being welcomed in Portland after an extended visit in the east.

Attractive in her gown of cream ivory lace was Miss Elizabeth Bruere, who became the bride of Dr. Harry Goldstein Wednesday night. Her dress was made in simple lines with loops of heavy white lace draped at the side. A flowing lace veil was held in place by a circlet of pearls and a shower bouquet completed her costume.

The bride was given in marriage by her father Dr. Gustave E. Bruere and the ceremony was performed at the family home, which was decorated with gladioli and larkspur. The fireplace, before which the service was read, was banked with masses of gorgeous flowers. Rev. William S. Gilbert of Astoria officiated and Dr. Edward Barnett attended the bridegroom.

Miss Ruth Bruere, as maid of honor, was attractive in a yellow chiffon dress. Little Jean Bruere was a dainty flower girl.

A stringed orchestra played the wedding march and furnished music throughout the evening.

Dr. and Mrs. Bruere, parents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Goldstein, parents of the bridegroom, received with them as did Dave Lewis of Spokane and the rest of the bridal party.

Presiding at the supper tables were Mrs. William Wallace, Mrs. Howard Oakleaf and Mrs. O. Miller. Mrs. Addison Knapp and Miss Elizabeth Ducey were stationed at the punch bowl.

The eight girls who formed a human aisle down which the bridal party proceeded, assisted in serving. They were Misses Virginia

Wilson, Alice Bruere, Harriet and Janet Griffith, Margaret Cook, Margaret Foster, Suzanne Caswell and May Wallace.

After a trip to British Columbia Dr. and Mrs. Goldstein will make their home in Spokane.

Next Thursday evening has been chosen by Miss Nellie Hemmaway as the date of her marriage to Earl Carl Price. Dr. Nelson of Los Angeles will read the wedding service at 8:30 o'clock at the home of the bride-elect's aunt, Mrs. Roscoe B. Giltner. An informal reception will follow.

News of the engagement, which was announced informally, came as a surprise to the many friends of the young couple. Miss Hemmaway who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Hemmaway of Cottage Grove, has been making her home in Portland with her aunt, Mrs. Giltner. She was a member of Chi Omega at the University of Oregon.

Mr. Price has been in the city but a short time, being a former resident of Texas. The young couple plan to make their home in this city.

Miss Dorothy Van Way entertained at an attractive supper party Friday of last week in honor of her brother, Cadet Charles Van Way, who is home on furlough from West Point. The rooms of the Van Way residence at Vancouver post were decorated with the West Point colors. Her guests included Cadet Van Way, Colonel and Mrs. Van Way, Major and Mrs. E. C. Rose, Miss Tina Johnson, Miss Jeanette Dentler, Miss Adeline Kendall, Miss Irene Kennedy, Lieutenant and Mrs. Arthur H. Wolf, Cadet William Kennedy, Lieutenant C. G. Farnbaugh, Mr. McGoldrick and Mr. and Mrs. Mark Hawes of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Webster Talbot are passing the remainder of the summer at the beach.

Miss Margaret Stacy, who has been the house guest of Miss Jane Talbot, and Miss Merrill Jones, who has been visiting Miss Louise Hoyt, have returned to their homes in to Herbert Wilmoth Allen Jr. of Fresno, Cal., at a beautifully appointed luncheon given by Miss Turnure, and Mrs. Maurice Mann, for Miss Janet Peters, bride-elect.

Miss Turnure is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Turnure. She is a popular and attractive girl, a graduate of the University of Washington, and a member of the Pi Beta Phi sorority. Mr. Allen is the son of Dr. H. W. Allen of Fresno. He is also a graduate of the University of Washington, and a Psi Upsilon fraternity man. The wedding is planned for August 18. At the luncheon guests included Miss Janet Peters, Mrs. Edwin J. Binney Jr., Miss Dorothy McGuire, Mrs. Wilson B. Coffey, Mrs. Victor Storde, Mrs. Thomas Bailey, Mrs. Catlin Wolfard, Mrs. Forrest Cobb, Mrs. Lynn Davis, Miss Elizabeth Higgins, Mrs. John Mortimer Bruhn, Mrs. Robert Morrison, Mrs. Richard Ransom.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip L. Jackson complimented Miss Lorraine Goodrich at a Sunday night supper. Covers were placed for ten. Mrs. Jackson, Miss Katherine Hoyt and Miss Goodrich of Milwaukee, Wis., Miss Hoyt's guest, are enjoying a visit at Neah-kah-nie.

Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett is the house guest of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ladd Corbett, at their summer home on the Metolius.

Mrs. F. C. Malpas and her daughter, Mrs. John Leonard Riddell, with Mrs. Riddell's two children, are passing this summer in Victoria, B. C., and will not return to Portland until September.

At an informal gathering last Thursday afternoon at Seven Hills, the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Waite, on North Deer creek, the announcement of the engagement of their daughter, Miss Katherine D. Waite, and Walter M. Bain of Camas, Wash., was made.

Miss Waite is the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Waite and the granddaughter of the late General Joseph Lane. She is a graduate of the Oregon Agricultural college, and has a host of friends throughout the state. Since her graduation she has been an instructor of chemistry at Oregon Agricultural college and at the Gresham high school.

Mr. Bain, who is also a graduate of the Oregon Agricultural college, is a chemist at the Camas paper mills.

No definite time has been set for the wedding, but it probably will be an event of the coming year.

Among the out-of-town guests who enjoyed Mrs. Waite's hospitality were Mrs. George Child of San Francisco, Miss Annie Blanch Sheld.

THE LADIES OF Portland are cordially invited to visit the first EXCLUSIVE upstairs fur factory in the city. You will save money on every garment you buy from

H. G. Kreiss
167 Park Street, Suite 5.
"Finest Quality."
Remodeling and Repairs at Lowest Prices.

SPECIAL OFFER
In Advance Fall Styles
Suits, Coats, Dresses
from $35.00 up
J. K. STERN LADIES' TAILOR
447 Alder and 410 1/2 Washington

25 HOT HOUSES: BIRD MAIN 7709
We Grow Our Own Flowers
Created Varieties
Finest Quality
Always Fresh

by of Portland, a cousin of Mrs. Waite, and Miss Hortense Smith of Corvallis.

Miss Emmy Lou Roeser left for her home in Seattle after a visit of two weeks with Mrs. John Risley. Miss Roeser was complimented at several affairs, among them being a tea given by her hostess, and a musicale given by Mrs. H. E. Streight of Oregon City.

Mrs. J. G. Gillingham, Mrs. Lee Pearson, Mrs. A. B. Stiles and Mrs. E. F. Newton were guests at an out-of-doors luncheon given by Mrs. D. L. E. Russell, in honor of Mrs. A. L. Fluke and daughter Anna of Chicago. Mrs. Fluke and daughter are the house-guests of Commodore and Mrs. Stiles.

Many prominent families of Portland are opening their homes for the entertainment of bishops and many distinguished persons who are coming to the general convention of the Episcopal church in September. Mr. and Mrs. William D. Wheelwright will entertain Bishop and Mrs. Lawrence of Massachusetts. Bishop and Mrs. Edwin S. Lines of Newark, N. J., will be the guests of Rodney L. Gilman, Bishop and Mrs. D. T. Huntington of Anking, China, will be entertained by Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Strong. Bishop Wells of Tacoma by Mrs. Rogers Tracy, Dr. and Mrs. Mann of Boston by Roderick Macleay, Rev. and Mrs. J. C. McKim and five children, on their way back to Japan.

By Mrs. William R. Powell; Bishop L. H. Roots of Hankow, China, by Mrs. D. A. Shindler; Rev. H. H. Powell of San Francisco by Judge and Mrs. Walter H. Evans; Bishop and Mrs. Frank Mosher of Manila by Mrs. James Muckle; Bishop A. W. Moulton of Salt Lake by Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Creath; Bishop Edward W. Osborn and secretary of San Diego by Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Burness; Bishop and Mrs. Frank H. Tournet of Idaho by Mr. and Mrs. George F. Nevins; Bishop and Mrs. N. S. Thomas of Wyoming by Dr. and Mrs. Charles E. Sears; Bishop J. W. Atwood of Arizona by Colonel and Mrs. J. S. Parke.

The housing committee consists of Mrs. J. J. Pantan, chairman; Mrs. R. P. Foster, Mrs. Harry Sharp, Mrs. A. Littlehales, Mrs. George Ger-linger, Mrs. John S. Parke, Mrs. Thomas G. Halley, Mrs. W. B. Buffum, Mrs. George N. West, Mrs. Gabriel, Mrs. A. J. Browning, Mrs. J. E. Anderson, Mrs. J. R. Dickson, Mrs. Minnie B. Haworth, Mrs. Warren Keeler, Mrs. F. H. Crosby, Mrs. William Whitfield, Lella Moore and Miss Virginia Wilson.

An attractive bridge tea was given Wednesday afternoon by Miss Jeanette Sewall, when she entertained in honor of Miss Janet Peters, the popular bride-elect. Miss Doris Desendorf presided at the tea table.

A group of girls were entertained at luncheon last Wednesday afternoon at the Waterley country club, when Miss Suzanne Caswell was hostess, honoring Miss Edna Pollman, the house guest of Miss Lois Nitchy. Her guests were Miss Pollman, Miss Nitchy, Miss Elizabeth Boehke, Miss Janet House, Miss Helen Hawkins, the Misses Harriet and Janet Griffith, Miss Ruth Bruere, the Misses Edith and Helen Marshall and Mrs. Severin Harkson.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar B. Piper and Miss Constance Piper and her house guest, Miss Helen Stover of New York city, returned Wednesday from a motor trip to Seattle.

Mrs. Frederick A. Jacobs and her daughter, Mrs. William Reginald Jackson, the Misses Suzanne and Nadine Caswell, Miss Marie Stone of Kansas City, Frederick Jacobs and Reed Ellsworth, passed the week end at Rhododendron Inn.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry William Metz-

Actual sketches

New Fall Stocks Are Here

For Larger Size Women

Youthful models for larger size women—with as much style distinction as the younger girl enjoys—and why not? It is just a matter of knowing what styles best become the large woman and buying only merchandise from manufacturers who specialize in pleasing the larger woman.

A complete new Fall showing of larger size dresses, suits and coats awaits you here at our store. Regardless of your size requirement, we can fit you properly.

Suits	Dresses	Coats
$35.00 to $79.50	$35.00 to $75.00	$45.00 to $100

Are Fall's Styles
Becoming to You?

You won't know how well you look in the new season's styles until you try them on. Drop into our store. We'll gladly show you scores of the early arrivals. All are priced exceptionally low this year.

Washington At Tenth St.

Young's
One-Thirty Tenth Street

Final clearance sale
of Wash Dresses,
Veils, Dotted Swiss
and Organdies—
Specially Priced
$10.00 to $16.50

Special lot of Silk
Dresses, at $15 and $25

Silk Ratine and Flannel Skirts, at
$10.75 to $18.50

PLEATING SPECIALS
Cut, seam, hem, machine pleat skirts ready to sew on band 75c

Hemstitching
Embroidering
Buttons

EASTERN NOVELTY MFG. CO.
85 1/2 5th St.
Mail Orders Promptly Filled

M. PATT LADIES' TAILOR
Suite 512-13 Bush & Lane Bldg.
BROADWAY AND ALDER

We Emboss
LETTERHEADS and ENVELOPES
From Engraved Steel Dies.

W. G. SMITH & CO.
Wedding and Visiting Cards.
ENGRAVERS
811 Morgan Building.