Tennis tournament week is an annual feature in Tacoma and members of the Tacoma Lawn Tennis club are rallying to make it an event of unusual social brilliancy. Players will be entertained by Corydon Wagner, Minor Davis and Henry Hewitt, the committee in charge of hospitality.

Plans already made for outside entertainment include luncheons and at least one yachting party with W. W. Kluworth. The tennis ball is being planned for the Tacoma hotel.

Miss Kershaw, president, has announced that the hostesses for the annual bridge tea at the clubhouse Wednesday, August 9, will be: Mrs. Paul Savidge, Mrs. D. J. Young, Mrs. Willard Morse, Mrs. George F. Heard and Mrs. P. A. Hall.

The courts of the Tacoma club are placed delightfully and the wide verandas offer shade for those who watch the play from above. Tea will be served every afternoon during the meet.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Church and son Jack have returned to the city after a month's visit with Mr. Church's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Fremont Church of Pasadena. They made the trip by motor car, passing a week in San Francisco and visiting many points of interest in Southern California. Mrs. Church and son expect to pass the month of August at the beach.

The George H. Kelly residence will be the scene of an informal dance next Saturday evening when members of Eta Alpha chapter of Chi Omega will entertain. The guest list will include a group of girls who plan to enter Oregon Agricultural college.

Mrs. Raymond E. Watkins of 1174 Hawthorne avenue gave a very delightful tea from 2 until 5 in honor of her house guest, Mrs. J. A. Rutledge of Los Angeles, Cal. Assisting the hostess were Mrs. C. Stewart art Menzies, Mrs. Richard Wellington and Misses Dorothy and Katherine Short. Presiding at the tea table were Mrs. C. C. Newcastle Sr. and Mrs. J. Coulson Hare.

A wedding of much interest to the college folk was that of Miss Ethel Langley and Bowland Parker, which took place at the White temple Thursday afternoon. Dr. O. C. Wright officiated.

The ceremony was performed before an improvised altar of pink gladiolus, ferns and pink sweet peas.

Miss Lucille Murton played the wedding march and also played softly during the ceremony.

The bride, who entered on the arm of her father, wore a dainty frock of white. Mrs. Parker is a former student of the Oregon agricultural college, where she was a member of the Delta Delta Delta sorority.

After a short wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Parker will make their home in Albany, where Mr. Parker is engaged in business.
