

HOME ECONOMISTS
CLOSE CONVENTION

Delegates Leave Corvallis
Campus After Sessions.

FINAL MEETINGS HELD

Many Visitors Will Make Round of Oregon Resorts and View Scenery Before Departing.

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COL-LEGE.—Corvallis, Aug. 5.—(Special.) Representatives from 15 states, Japan and Canada, numbering 700 persons, to the fifteenth annual convention of the American Home Economics association were departing for their homes and as expected that by night the majority will have left the campus. The 1923 convention will be held in Chicago and Dr. Alice Blood, newly elected president, will preside.

Many delegates are expected to take short vacations at Oregon beach and mountain resorts. Others will visit the scenic wonders of the Oregon country.

California delegates have started a campaign for the return of the economists to the coast in 1925, using the Portland exposition as a drawing card.

Final Discussions Held.

In the institutional economics section the following topics were discussed: "Women in Hotel Work," by Miss Margaret Proctor, national board, Young Women's Christian Association, Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company's "Employee Cafeteria," by E. C. Charlton, supervisor dining service. Round table discussion was held on "High School Dormitories," "College Dormitories" and "The Rooming House."

Many Conventions Held.

Round table discussion was carried on by Florence Ward and Dr.
Caroline Hedger, child specialists Chicago. Maude Wilson and Madge Reese carried on discussion from the committee on requirements in the training of home demonstration workers.

KISS SEEKER ARRESTED

OFFER OF $30 AND BUSS TO WAITRESS RESENTED.

Walter S. Brown in Jail Pending Investigation of Request for Restaurant Help.

The operations of Walter S.
Brown, who has gone to some trouble for the past three weeks to find a suitable waitress to work in a restaurant that he says he is going to open, came to an abrupt halt when he was arrested by Patrolman Scott after offering Miss Alma Armstrong $30 and a kiss as a retainer.

Brown had been placing orders for waitresses with Winnifred Thomas of the Squares Deal Employment agency, and after six or eight first-class waitresses had been sent to him and obtained no job, the employer turned to the agency suspecting. Hacking the suspicious were peculiar rumors about what happened when the girls had applied for the position.

Consequently when Brown made a rendezvous of Sixth and Yamhill streets to interview Miss Armstrong, the agency sent two women along to see what would happen. Brown and Miss Armstrong strolled to First and Market streets, talking about the restaurant he proposed to open. When they got past First street and no one was in sight, Miss Armstrong says Brown suggested the $30 retainer and the kiss.

The girl was frightened momentarily and made a dash for two women sleuths, who immediately called the police. Motorcycle Patrolman Scott hurried to the scene and apprehended the culprit, arresting him on a tentative charge of disorderly conduct, pending an investigation.

STREET WILL BE OPENED

Connection With Pacific Highway at Cottage Grove Planned.

COTTAGE GROVE, Or., Aug. 5.— (Special.)—Next Friday is the day set for opening Fifth street to Pacific highway travel. This new stretch of pavement from Quincy avenue to Washington avenue, will be cured sufficiently by the time Ninth-street paving, completed July 21, will be open on August 23.

With the completion of the Ninth-street pavement all highway construction work in progress in the vicinity of Cottage Grove is finished. There remains but a stretch of about three-quarters of a mile, at the entrance to the city from the north, which is not paved. Work on this section and the bridge over the coast fork was begun but discontinued when the Lane county court decided that it could not be built out of market roads money as allowed in the county budget.

NEW ARRESTS AWAITED

No New Developments Reported in Medford Klan Investigation.

MEDFORD, Or., Aug. 5.—(Special.)—There were no new developments today as a result of the special grand jury investigation into the night-riding activities in Jackson county, the chief public interest centering in the John Doe indictments, the identity of those indicted the charges against them. Judge Calkins, of the circuit court, will leave the first of the week on his annual vacation and there will be no court business for two weeks.

NEW PRESIDENT OF HOME ECONOMICS ASSOCIATION.

DR. ALICE BLOOD.

SCHOOL CHANGE MADE

CHRISTIAN BROTHERS TO BECOME AQUINO HIGH.

Dominican Fathers to Take Over Institution Because of Shortage of Teachers.

That the Christian Brothers' college on Grand avenue and Clackamas street will hereafter be known as the Aquino high school and will be operated in the future by the Dominican Fathers of the Catholic church, rather than by the Brothers of the Christian schools, as in the past, was the announcement made yesterday.

Lack of teachers is reported to have obliged the former operators to withdraw from the management of the institution and through the invitation of Archbishop Christie, co-operating with the city pastors, the Dominican Fathers have taken over their direction.

The new name Aquino high school has been selected as a tribute to the patron of Catholic schools, St.
Thomas Aquinas. The Dominican Fathers have had as one of the chief objects of their order the teaching of the youth, and it is said that this may mean the beginning of the movement to place many of the institutions on the Pacific coast under their direction as has been done in other parts of the United States.

The opening date for the high school has been set as Tuesday, September 5, and the registration of the prospective pupils has already begun. The four years' high school course and a commercial course will be offered, according to the new directors.

SCAPPOOSE MILL GUTTED

FIRE PRACTICALLY WIPES
OUT ENTIRE PROPERTY.

Loss Is Total, But Company Plans to Continue Logging of Large Body of High-Grade Fir.

SCAPPOOSE, Or., Aug. 5.—(Special.)—A fire gutted the sawmill of the Scappoose Lumber company last night. The origin is unknown. The night watchman and S. G. Lapham, manager, were on duty about 9 o'clock when suddenly flames shot up in the center of the mill and in a few minutes were beyond control.
The day crew were about a mile from the mill fighting a fire that had started in the timber near where about 1,000,000 feet of fallen timber lay ready for the mill. This timber probably will be saved.
A new $12,000 donkey engine that set about 80 feet from the mill was saved by heroic work of the crew.
The bunkhouses also were all saved, but nothing else. J. A. Watts, D. W.
Price and S. G. Lapham were the heaviest losers.

No definite plans have been made yet but the company probably will continue logging operations, as it is working in a large body of fine fir timber and can handle the logs to the river near Scappoose. The mill is a total loss and it is understood there is no insurance.

PASTOR'S DEATH SHOCK

MANY MOURN LOSS OF REV.
C. S. MORRISON.

Seattle Minister, Victim of Poison Taken by Mistake, Was Well Known in Northwest.

PUGET SOUND BUREAU, Seattle, Wash., Aug. 5.—The tragic death Thursday of Rev. Cameron S. Morrison, pastor of the Church of the Epiphany, was a shock to members of the Episcopal church in Seattle and throughout the diocese of Olympia. Before coming to Seattle, Mr.
Morrison was rector of St. John's church, Olympia, for a number of years and probably no clergyman in the northwest had a larger number of personal friends.

Mr. Morrison took a heavy dose of a virulent poison in the belief that it was an innocuous salt prescribed to prepare his stomach for an X-ray examination. He had been told to take barium sulphate. What the drug clerk gave him and what he took was barium sulphide. The coroner's jury, after brief testimony, gave a verdict sharply criticizing the doctor who gave the prescription orally; the drug clerk, who delivered the poison without asking any question as to the intended use, and the state drug inspector for permitting such a poison to be sold

PRIMARIES IN IDAHO
LINE UP BIG ISSUES

C. C. Moore, for Governor, Is Leading Republican Race.

DEMOCRATS ARE DIVIDED

Statewide Primary Law Stalks as Disquieting Spectre in Ranks of All Parties.

BOISE, Idaho, Aug. 5.—(Special.) —The county primaries are history in Idaho now and the representatives of the republican, democratic and progressive parties are preparing for their respective county conventions to be held Tuesday, August 14, when delegates to the state conventions will be held.

The state conventions in turn will place in nomination the judicial, congressional and state tickets and the general election campaign thereafter will be in full swing.

The county primary elections brought out some very important political facts with regard to all directing parties. While the vote was light there was unusual interest taken, especially in the republican contest.

Moore Gathers Strength.

A canvass of the delegates elected in the various counties to the county conventions makes it quite certain that the candidacy of C. C.
Moore for governor on the republican ticket is more definite now than it ever has been. Moore will have a majority of the delegates elected at the county conventions to the state convention.

It is equally as certain that there is going to be somewhat of an interesting contest in the democratic state convention, for delegates favorable to both Moses Alexander and William M. Morgan, who have announced they will accept the nomination for governor if the convention so decides, have been elected to the county conventions and will strive in every way possible to have delegates sent to the state convention who are favorable to their preference for the governmental nomination.

Morgan Forces Aggressive.

This is said to be particularly true of the southeastern part of the state.
The Morgan forces have been organizing there, according to reports, and will be in a position to go into the state convention with considerable strength. Alexander and Morgan are both aggressive
to have delegates sent to the state convention who are favorable to
their preference for the governmental nomination.

DAMAGES CLAIMED FROM
TAXICAB COMPANY.

O. W. Nesbitt, Traveling Salesman, Asserts He Has Lost Job, Friends and Reputation.

Because he was turned over to the police as a hold-up suspect by the driver of a taxicab he had hired, O. W. Nesbitt, recently released from the city jail after serving part of a 30-day sentence, filed suit in the federal court yesterday, asking $20,000 from the Portland Taxicab company. Loss of position and reputation, humiliation and the enforced association with criminals are worth this sum, Nesbitt contends in his petition.

Primary Issue Is Vital.

It is conceded that both the democratic and progressive parties will go on record unequivocally for reenactment by the next legislature of the state-wide primary law. It is not at all certain that the republican state convention will go that far, for the advocates of the state convention to nominate congressional and state candidates are determined to hold onto the present divided primary law, which confines the nomination of candidates to the county level and prohibits the state-wide primary.

The primary will be an issue because the primary in Ada county, the largest in the state, of which Boise is the county seat, swept the county at the primary election and gave control of the county convention.

Pledged Delegation Assured.

This is taken to mean that the 20 delegates to which this county is entitled in the state convention will be selected as pledged convention men and will be instructed to use every honorable means to have the state convention incorporate a statewide primary plank in the state platform and to make a strong fight on the floor of the convention for the adoption of the primary principle.

The present plan is to select 20 of the most representative republicans and the strongest men in the county to go to Wallace, where the state convention will be held, and present the primary instructions. This county will have the largest single delegation in the convention and its influence will be felt.

Two Steel Bridges to Be Built.

WHITE SALMON, Wash., Aug. 5.— (Special.)—The steel truss work for the new Rattlesnake creek bridge at Husum has arrived there for assembling on the concrete pier.
When this bridge is completed work will be started on a new steel bridge over the White Salmon river a few hundred yards from the Rattlesnake bridge.

Output of Boxes 5000 Daily.

(Special.)—The Central Box company of Bingen, Wash., is turning out 5000 boxes daily to handle the apple and pear crop in this district.
There has been a shortage in pine lumber, which necessitates hauling from the Laurel and Klickitat mills.
