

Society

Mrs. Colin Livingstone, a Charming Young Matron, and Her Son Dixon Baker.

Mrs. C. D. Bowles, Who Has Gone Abroad for an Interesting Trip.

Mrs. Wallace McCamant, Who Will Entertain for Mrs. Calvin Coolidge.

Mrs. Elton Watkins Who is Hostess at Many Attractive Affairs.

down the stairway on the arm of the bridegroom and met Rev. Mr. Gallagher in front of the fireplace, which was banked with gorgeous lilies, delphinium and gladioli.

The bridegroom was of white satin made with long panels of Irish crochet lace. The bride's veil was cap-shaped, and her flowers were huge lilies, yellow roses and ferns.

A reception followed, when Mrs. Roscoe R. Giltner and Mrs. Hemenway received with the principals. They wore handsome gowns of black lace.

Misses Harriet and Florence Leach gave a group of songs. Supper was served, and presiding were Mrs. Russell E. Sewall, Mrs. G. B. McLeod, Mrs. W. J. Baker and Mrs. G. W. Simpson. A group of young girls assisted.

The bride, who is a popular girl, is a graduate of the University of Oregon and a member of Chi Omega. Mr. Price is in business in Portland.

Of interest to Portland society folk are the orders received by Colonel William H. Jordan. He will report to Fort Douglas, Utah, where he will be chief of staff.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Branch Riley have returned from a tour of several weeks, in Glacier and Yellowstone national park.

Colonel Anderson of the 7th Infantry at Camp Lewis was a visitor at the post Wednesday.

A luncheon Thursday was presided over by the Misses Clara and Ella Strauss of New York, who are summering in Portland, guests of their brother, Nathan Strauss, at Hotel Portland. The Misses Strauss, who will leave the post in the near future, are well known here and are being entertained by members of the social contingent. At the luncheon covers were placed for Mrs. Henry William Metzger, Mrs. Strowgen, Miss Catherine Hirsch, Miss May Hirsch and the hostesses.

Miss Carol Montague and Miss Ruth Montgomery of Eugene, who recently joined the list of engaged girls, were honor guests at a luncheon given Friday at Hotel Portland by Mrs. Frazer Cameron and Miss Donna Spencer. Covers were placed for Miss Montague, Miss Montgomery, Miss Helen Manning, Miss Geraldine Pilkington, Mrs. Hollis Johnston, Miss Dorothy Herffeld and the hostesses.

Mrs. Annie Byrne entertained Saturday night at a bridge dinner in honor of Mrs. Hickox, Mrs. Delaplaine and Mrs. Rose.

Mrs. Horace K. Heath and Mrs. William F. Rehm will entertain at bridge Tuesday afternoon.

Lieutenant and Mrs. Travis returned this week after a six months' absence from the post spent in California and New York.

Mrs. William P. Currier left Saturday for San Francisco on account of the illness of her sister.

Mrs. William M. Inglis entertained Wednesday at a bridge luncheon in honor of Mrs. Delaplaine and Mrs. Alfred Asa Hickox. A number of guests from Portland were present. Major and Mrs. Hickox will leave shortly for Camp Benning, Georgia.

VANCOUVER, Wash., Aug. 12.—(Special.)—Many social events were given this week for wives of officers who will leave the post in the near future. Foremost was the reception entertained yesterday afternoon by Mrs.

Fenton, to Dudley Handolph Clarke, Miss Fenton is a charming and popular Portland girl. She attended Brunot hall in Spokane and graduated from the University of Oregon in 1918. She is a member of the Kappa Alpha Theta sorority and during her years in college took part in many campus activities. Miss Fenton was alumni secretary for four years at the University of Oregon following her graduation. At present she is acting as the private secretary to the dean of the college of commerce at the University of California.

Mr. Clarke is the son of Mrs. L. Z. Clarke of Berkeley, Cal., formerly of Portland. He has many friends here, where he lived for a number of years and graduated from the Portland academy. He is a member of the Kappa Sigma fraternity and several honor societies. He also graduated from the University of Oregon, where he distinguished himself as being one of Oregon's greatest football and baseball stars. During the war he served in Italy and was decorated with the Cross of Savois, which carries with it the title of Cavalier of the Crown of Italy.

He is a member of the Olympic club in San Francisco, which is connected with the McCormick Steamship line.

Miss Fenton announced her engagement to a number of friends in Berkeley at a tea which she gave in honor of Mrs. Roland McLeod Miller (Miss Ensel Barker) of Eugene, a recent bride. Their wedding will be an event of the fall in Portland.

Yesterday at noon Miss Janet Peters was married to Leonard Melville Flean of Seattle at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Trimble Peters, in Irvington. Rev. Oswald W. Taylor read the services. The wedding was a simple affair, only relatives being present. The bride wore a beautiful wedding gown of white satin over white lace and carried a shower bouquet of orchids and lilies of the valley. Mrs. Edwina Binney Jr., the sister of the bride, was her matron of honor. She wore an attractive gown of fawn-colored lace and a corsage of midsummer flowers. A wedding breakfast followed the ceremony. After a wedding trip in British Columbia Mr. and Mrs. Flean will reside at 1323 Terry avenue, Seattle. Mrs. Flean is a popular Portland society girl and since the announcement of her engagement has been the motif for many smart affairs.

Miss Helen Gregg has returned from an enjoyable visit in Seattle. She will leave today for Gearhart, where she will participate in the golf tournament.

One of the many convention teas being given for the women's expense fund for the coming triennial in September will be that which Mrs. George W. Ferriss is giving jointly with Mrs. William R. Powell next Wednesday afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock. It will be held at the home of the former, 714 East Seventy-second street North, and can be reached by the Rose City car to Seventy-second street. No special invitation is required, all interested persons being invited.

Miss Janet Peters, whose wedding was an event of last evening, was the inspiration for a picnic and launch party on the river last Sunday, for which the Misses Vera and Frances O'Brien were hostesses. Twenty young folks enjoyed the affair.

Tuesday Miss Harriet Griffith entertained with a luncheon at the Waverly Country club, complimenting Miss Edna Pollman of Baker, the house guest of Miss Lois Nitchy.

Saturday afternoon Miss Janet House gave an attractive bridge party. Miss Katherine Phillips, the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. James Malarkey, was the guest of honor.

Miss Irene Kennedy was hostess at a buffet supper party followed by bridge last evening, when she honored Colonel and Mrs. Channing E. Delaplaine and Major and Mrs. A. A. Hickox.

Mrs. Mark D. Hayes will entertain Tuesday at tea in compliment to Miss Dorothy Van Way.

Miss Nellie Hemenway and Carl Edward Price were married Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Roscoe R. Giltner in Irvington. About 100 guests witnessed the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. T. H. Gallagher. The couple was unattended. The bride came

New Fall Coats

for Sport or Dress

$25.00

Half the delight in having the new Fall clothes is wearing them early in the season. Gratify this desire and select your new coat or wrap now from our most complete stock.

Distinctive changes in styles have taken place this year. Come try on the new models and see how reasonably you may buy the smart new modes.

The Fall Suits

$35 to $75

To the strictly-tailored type Fashion has decreed longer coats and skirts in the new Fall styles. The younger Miss, whose youth and vivacity counts greatly in her appearance, may choose the novelty styles, different from last season's and very smart. A splendid assortment, priced from

The Fall Frocks

Long skirts drape effect, bell sleeves are the most noticeable changes in the new Fall dresses. But even here, Milady is allowed much leeway in selecting for the foremost designers have not gone to extreme in any of the really smart frocks. You'll enjoy seeing our collection. The price is much less than you'll expect to pay.

$29.50 and up

Use Your Credit

Of course Fall clothes mean an expenditure of more than usual. Why not open an account here, make arrangements for payments to suit your individual needs.

Eastern Outfitting Co.
WASHINGTON AT TENTH ST.

(Continued From First Page.)

face, to end of road; turn to left to Kings heights to car track, follow car track to Arlington heights to Tickner avenue and turn to right to Washington park; through the park to Park avenue and over Ford street bridge to Vista avenue to Montgomery drive, and follow Fairmount boulevard sign, crossing over on Hillboro road to Capitol highway, to Terwilliger boulevard, to Sixth street, to Madison, and over Hawthorne bridge and out Hawthorne avenue to East Sixtieth street, to entrance to Mount Tabor park, through park and back to Sixtieth street, to Stark, to East Forty-first, to Oak, to Thirty-ninth, to Wasco, and over viaduct at Thirty-seventh, to Broadway, to Twenty-fourth, to Knott, to Thirteenth, to Broadway, and over Broadway bridge to the business district.

Mrs. Henry F. Chaney has been the house guest of Mrs. David T. Honeyman at her summer home in Gearhart.

Mrs. Alan Green and her daughter are visiting Mrs. Green's mother, Mrs. J. Wesley Ladd, at North Beach.

A group of the younger set were entertained at a luncheon at the Waverly Country club, Tuesday afternoon, given by Miss Harriet Griffith, when she complimented Miss Edna Pollman, the house guest of Miss Lois Nitchy. Covers were placed for Mrs. Severin Harkson, Miss Janet House, Miss Margaret Cook, Miss Kathryn Phillips, Miss Ruth Bruce, Miss Helen West, Miss Elizabeth Hoochke, Miss Susanne Caswell, Miss Helen Marshall, Miss Edith Marshall, Miss Lee Tevis, Miss Hena Pollman and Miss Griffith.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar B. Piper, Miss Constance Piper and her house guest, Miss Helen Stover of New York, motored to Seaside last Wednesday.

A large number of society girls have expressed their willingness to act as pages at the triennial meeting of the women at the Episcopal church convention in September.

We Emboss
LETTERHEADS and ENVELOPES
From Engraved Steel Dies.
W. G. SMITH & CO.
Wedding and Visiting Cards.
ENGRAVERS
311 Morgan Building.

F. W. PATT & CO.
Ladies' Tailors and Dressmakers.
504-7 Broadway Building.
Phone Atwater 6455.

They also will usher at the men's gatherings and one of the pleasantest features of the convention will be the tea planned by the page committee for the visiting girls who may be as members of the families of bishops and other church people. Mrs. Thompson Jenkins is chairman of the page committee, Mrs. Charles Cropper is vice-chairman and Miss Elizabeth Bailey is secretary. Among the many who will serve are Louise Lindholm, Nadine and Susanne Caswell, Helen and Frances Page, Mary Helen and Francis Spalding, Janet House, Margaret Johnston, Rhoda Burpee, Ruth and Marion Jenkins, Susan Taylor, Louise Thompson, Mignon Elliot, Mrs. Robert Morrison, Mrs. Wilson B. Coffey, Mary Gill, Georgianna Gerlinger, Marjorie Peterson, Jean McLeod, Doris Hiningson Harkson, Anna and Katharine Wheeler, Mrs. Harold Gill, Oswalds Bowen, Frances White, Eleanor Admit, Adeline Kendall, Anna E. Barker, Louise Dorsey, Susannah Platt, Katharine Forbes, Margaret Biddis, Mrs. G. A. Kingsley, Virginia Mears, Mrs. Henry Clay Judd and Barbara Stanfield.

Mrs. Wilson B. Coffey and Mrs. John Mortimer Bruhn complimented Miss Marvel Turnure with a linen shower Friday afternoon.

Miss Marvel Turnure, the popular bride-elect, was the inspiration for an attractive bridge tea, Thursday afternoon, when Mrs. Forrest Cobb was hostess.

Miss Edna Pollman was the motif for a luncheon given at the Meier & Frank tea room Wednesday afternoon, at which Miss Edith Marshall entertained.

Miss Nadine and Susanne Caswell.

Announcing Elsie's Return From
New York
First Fall Showing
500
Exclusive Pattern Hats
Elsie's personal selection of ORIGINAL PARIS and NEW YORK models, moderately priced, $15 and up. Visit our showrooms early.

ELSIE'S
Portland's Largest Exclusive Millinery, Second Floor, Artisan's Bldg., Northwest corner Broadway and 6th St., New Hotel Reunion, on Broadway.

SPECIAL OFFER
In Advance Fall Styles
Suits, Coats, Dresses
from $35.00 up

J. K. STERN LADIES' TAILOR
447 Alder and 419 1/2 Washington

M. PATT LADIES' TAILOR
Suite 512-13 Bush & Lane Bldg.
BROADWAY AND ALDER

Announcement

I want to thank personally the many friends of Bartholomew's for their generous response to our Dissolution Sale necessitated by the retirement of Mr. W. H. Thomas from the firm.

In introducing Mr. H. H. Wolfer, my new associate in the business, I can assure the women of Portland that our every effort will be toward making The Wolfer-Bartholomew Co. a shop worth while.

A most cordial invitation is extended you to visit us and see the new fall models arriving daily. You have a rare treat before you.

E. J. Bartholomew