Richard M. Blatchford for Mrs. Channing E. Delaplaine, Mrs. William M. Ingles and Miss May Trotter toured. Assisting were Mrs. Bryant E. Moore, Mrs. William F. Rohm, Mrs. Horace K. Heath, Mrs. Klieb B. Wise, Miss Jeanette Dentler and Mrs. William P. Currier. One hundred and fifty guests from the east and from Portland called between 4 and 6 o'clock. Lieutenant-Colonel and Mrs. Delaplaine will leave August 15 by motor for Camp Benning, Georgia, stopping at Washington, D. C. for a visit with Mrs. Delaplaine's parents.

Honoring Mrs. Delaplaine, Mrs. Nickox entertained at dinner Tuesday evening. Wednesday evening Major and Mrs. Nickox gave a bridge dinner in honor of Lieutenant Walter D. Hale who will leave in the near future for the Philippines.

Thursday afternoon Mrs. Bryant E. Moore entertained at bridge in honor of Mrs. Edward C. Rose, Major and Mrs. Rose will go West Point shortly, where Major Rose has been detailed as an instructor.

Practically all ardent horse lovers of the Pacific coast are expected to gather at Vancouver, B. C. toward the end of next week for the annual horse show held in connection with the Vancouver exhibition, both exhibition and horse show being similar and the nearest rival in size of Portland's shows.

All of the big stables in the northwest will be shown in the Vancouver show ring during the week of August 19 to 26, and an even dozen of the finest horses owned in Portland will be sent to compete for ribbons, cups and premiums. These include the stables of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley C. E. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Martin, Harry M. Kerson, Mrs. Robert Schmeer and Miss Jean Ekens.

Among those going to Vancouver for the horse show from Portland will be Mr. and Mrs. Stanley C. E.

Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Natt McElhoughall, ex-Governor and Mrs. Oswald West, Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Harry M. Kerson, Dr. and Mrs. Albert Mathieu, Miss Jean Ekens, Miss Elizabeth Bacon, Harvey Dick and Richard Haller.

A large contingent of Seattle horse lovers will also go to Vancouver, some of them being Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Farrell and Miss Helen Farrell, Mr. and Mrs. George Emwick and Mr. and Mrs. George A. Lauer.

Members of Eta Alpha chapter of Chi Omega entertained at a charming dance last evening in the Portland hotel. The honor guests were a group of girls who plan to enter the Oregon Agricultural college.

The engagement of Miss Caroline Content Montague to George Beggs Judson was announced at a luncheon Saturday, when Miss Montague entertained in honor of her house guest, Miss Ruth Montgomery of Eugene. Miss Montague is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard W. Montague. She is a graduate of the University of Oregon and a member of the Kappa Alpha Theta sorority.

Mr. Beggs also was graduated from the University of Oregon, where he was a member of the Beta Theta Pi fraternity. During the war he was in the service. The wedding will be an event of September 7.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Smithson, the Misses Geffert and their guest, Rev. A. Wynken of Long Beach, Cal., returned Thursday after spending a week with friends at Albany and Brettenbush Hot Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Hamburger, their daughter Florence and sons Arthur and Howard, of Los Angeles, Cal., are registered at Hotel Portland. They are on their way to New York by motor, and will depart for a year's trip abroad, leaving October 1. Miss Florence will enter a finishing school in Paris in the fall, and Arthur will go to school in England. Master Howard, in company with his governess, will go with his parents on an extensive tour of the continent. The Hamburgers are prominent in Los Angeles social circles.

Captain and Mrs. Maylon E. Scott and son Maylon Jr. are at the Warrack cottage in Seaside for the month of August. Visiting them are Misses Clara, Eva and Lucile Scott.

Mrs. John Latta, Mrs. John Eben Young and her daughter, Miss Elsie Young, have returned from an enjoyable trip to Victoria.

Mrs. F. E. Judd and Mrs. J. R. Dickson have been the guests of Mrs. James D. Hart at North beach.

Mrs. Margaret Barnard and George L. Dunn of Chicago were married last Thursday. The service was read at the Presbyterian church by Rev. Norman K. Tully at noon. The bride was attired in a dark blue tailored traveling suit with a hat of blue and tan duvetyne and carriage of orchids. She was attended by Miss Margaret Malloy of Oakland, Cal., who also wore a tailored suit and blue hat. A. L. Tetu was best man. A luncheon for the bridal party was given at the Benson hotel, following which Mr. and Mrs. Dunn left for Canada. After an extended trip, they will make their home in Chicago, where Mr. Dunn is a prominent business man.

To visit her daughter, Mrs. A. D. Struble (Hazel Ralston), Mrs. L. O. Ralston left for Annapolis, Md., where she will spend a month. Lieutenant Struble is an instructor at Annapolis academy.

Miss Jane Sells presided at a beautifully appointed dinner Saturday evening. The Misses Edith and Marlon Brill of New York, who are the house guests of Miss Jeanette Meier, and Miss Flora Marx of San Francisco, were the inspirations for the affair. These out-of-town visitors were also honored at a tea Saturday afternoon given by Mrs. Henry Feldman.

Mrs. Kate Kelly was hostess at dinner last Saturday complimenting values to show you.
