

Society

Miss Delphine Solomon, whose engagement has been announced.

Miss Irene Koeber, who graduated from College and is here for the summer.

Mrs. Carl T. Pope (Dorothy) Chambers, who will attend the University of California.

Miss Bertha Rosenberg, who will attend the University of California.

ago she had been employed in the state insurance department for several years. She is popular among the younger set. Prior to the wedding Miss Belle will be the guest of honor at a number of social events to be given by her friends here.

Mr. Thompson has resided in Salem for nearly two years. He previously was located in Portland.

Edna Murphy Smith, sister of Mrs. W. P. Shinnott of Irvington, is visiting Nona Lawler (Mrs. Mackie) in Seattle.

Mrs. Walter E. Jackson returned to the city from Seaside, where she opened her cottage in June to entertain her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Longnecker and daughter of Centerville, Ia., and later Mr. and Mrs. Harry Koeper of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Heath (Louise Stearns) are being congratulated upon the arrival of a daughter, born August 15.

Dr. and Mrs. W. Paul Daniels are spending the month of August at Cannon Beach.

Many friends are congratulating Mrs. Christensen on the news received from New York that her son, Victor Christensen, has been appointed by the American National Association, Masters of Dancing, to teach for a two weeks' course at the western division of dancing teachers in Salt Lake beginning August 20. Mr. Christensen has been in New York the entire summer attending the normal school and convention. Mrs. Christensen will join him in Salt Lake for the course, returning in September to open their school here.

Miss Florence Hartman has as her house guest Miss Vernona Dyer of Astoria. Both attended the University of Oregon and are members of Gamma Phi Beta sorority. They intend to motor to the coast soon for a short stay.

Mrs. W. A. Jones returned this week from a two weeks' stay at Rockaway. While there she entertained as house guests Mrs. Backus of Halsey, Mrs. Powers of Concord and Mrs. Brookings of Silver Springs Station; also Mrs. Emma Jones, Mrs. H. K. Dunham, Miss Holloway and Mr. Jones as weekend guests.

Members of Alpha Xi Delta from the University of Washington, University of Oregon, the Oregon Agricultural college and alumnae, enjoyed a dinner at the University club last Wednesday.

Among those returning home from Europe within the last few days are Mrs. L. D. Daniels, 422 Montgomery drive, and John Q. A. Daniels, Jr., who arrived at New York on the White Star liner Adriatic from Liverpool last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl T. Pope (Dorothy Chambers), whose wedding was a recent event in Salem, will make their home in Portland. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Chambers, and is a graduate of Oregon Agricultural college, where she belonged to Alpha Chi Omega. Mr. Pope was graduated from the Willamette university. At the wedding ceremony, August 8, the bride was crowned in her mother's wedding dress, and a veil of Venetian lace worn by her grandmother.

Portland society was interested in the announcement of the engagement of Miss Jean Porter of Spokane, which was announced last week at a luncheon. Miss Porter is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Porter of Spokane and a sister of Mrs. Kenneth Hauser of Portland. She is also a niece of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Porter of this city. She is an attractive and popular girl, a graduate of Dana hall. Miss Porter frequently visits in Portland, where she has many friends. The wedding will be an event of the fall.

Mrs. Ralph W. Wilbur has invited guests to a musicale and tea Monday.

Monday afternoon Mrs. John Latta will entertain with a luncheon, complimenting Miss Wright and Mrs. Halstead. Mrs. Edward L. Geary has invited guests to enjoy several

MR. AND MRS. B. F. MCKEE, WHO CELEBRATED THEIR 66TH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. McKee

WOODBURN, Or., Aug. 19.—(Special).—Mr. and Mrs. B. F. McKee of this city quietly celebrated their 66th wedding anniversary August 14. Mr. McKee, an Indian war veteran, was born in Franklin county, Missouri, March 2, 1837, and crossed the plains to Oregon in 1859. Mrs. McKee was born at Booneville, Mo., August 8, 1840, and came to Oregon in 1862. They were married near McKee, Or., August 14, 1856.

Tables of bridge on Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. George T. Willett will preside at an informal luncheon in their honor Wednesday afternoon.

A number of dinners were given last week honoring Vice-President and Mrs. Calvin Coolidge and Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Stearns of Boston. Monday night Mr. and Mrs. Coolidge were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest W. Hardy at dinner and Mr. and Mrs. Stearns were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William M. Ladd. Mr. Coolidge and Mr. Hardy were classmates at Amherst and Mr. Stearns and Mr. Ladd enjoyed the same pleasure. Tuesday night Mr. Coolidge and Mr. Stearns were guests at dinner at the Oregon Bar association, while Mrs. Coolidge and her sons and Mrs. Stearns were dinner guests of Mrs. Wallace McCamant.

Mrs. Walter P. Dickey entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Miller are receiving congratulations upon the arrival of a son, who has been named Leslie after his mother.

tained with a bridge luncheon at a new tearoom on the highway. The Sound of the Bow-Bell, in honor of Mrs. J. M. McDaniel of Chicago. Additional guests were Mrs. C. O. Clarkson and Mrs. J. S. Campbell.

Miss Martha E. Wright and Mrs. Samuel Halstead of Riverside, Cal., who arrived Monday to be the guests of Mrs. Halstead's mother, Mrs. William McMaster, for the remainder of the summer, are being cordially welcomed. Wednesday afternoon they were the motif for a charming luncheon when Mrs. A. L. Maxwell entertained.

Nathan Strauss gave a beautifully appointed dinner Thursday night at the blue room of the Portland hotel. The Misses Ella and Clara Strauss of New York, who are spending the summer in Portland as the guests of their brother, Mr. Strauss, were honored guests. Covers were placed for Mrs. Solomon Hirsch, Mr. and Mrs. Henry William Metzger, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Hermann, Miss E. Fleischer, Miss Clementine Hirsch, Miss Mae Hirsch, M. Fleischer, I. N. Fleischer, Sanford Hirsch and the host.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Aulen were hosts Friday night at a delightful dinner dance, honoring Mr. and Mrs. D. Mickle of Chicago. Their guests included Mr. and Mrs. Otto Kattenbach, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Baker, Dr. and Mrs. S. H. Shelden, Mr. and Mrs. Rupert Hauser, Mr. and Mrs. Z. K. Carson, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph W. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Chris Brunn, Mr. and Mrs. William Boyd, Mr. and Mrs. George Mickle.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Miller are receiving congratulations upon the arrival of a son, who has been named Leslie after his mother.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

Oregon Rose camp, Royal Neighbors of America, entertained with a picnic in the community house at Peninsula park, Thursday, over 100 members and their children attending. Races for the children and grownups created much amusement. A bounteous lunch was enjoyed by every one. The committee included Mrs. N. Macdonald, Mrs. A. Hysmith and Mrs. E. Townsend.

Mr. and Mrs. P. N. Lathrop had a reunion at their home at 1173 Greeley street August 6 in honor of their 50 years of married life. They were married at Galesburg, Ill. Mrs. Lathrop's maiden name was Catherine Bradley. To this union were born four daughters and three sons. Mr. Lathrop, a well-known business man, born at Princeton, Ill., October 30, 1848, is a veteran of the civil war and a member of the Grand Army of the Republic. Mrs. Lathrop was born at Circleville, O., May 14, 1853. She is a member of the Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic. There are five grandchildren. The couple received many presents from friends and neighbors.

A surprise party was given last Thursday evening for Mr. and Mrs. H. Donnerberg, it being Mrs. Donnerberg's birthday. The evening was spent playing 500, the prizes falling to Mr. and Mrs. F. Schade, T. Healy and Mrs. H. Donnerberg. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. D. Lutz, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Elledge, Mrs. L. Schade, Edward Schade, P. Hutton, Mr. and Mrs. P. Becker, Mr. and Mrs. J. Healy, Mr. and Mrs. F. Schade, H. F. Donnerberg, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Donnerberg, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Kindred, Donald Mullen, Evelyn Becker, Donald Lutz and Ruth Byme.

Last Thursday evening a shower was given Mrs. Sadie Alsop by her sister Mrs. Fred Sagaret. Miss Alsop is soon to become the bride of Kenneth Markel. Many beautiful gifts were presented to the bride-elect. The dining room was decorated with a color scheme of pink and white. The time was spent with music and games. A supper was served. Miss Clara Luehl and Miss Melba Byrom served the punch. Those attending were: Mrs. P. Luehl, Miss Clara Luehl, Mrs. L. Sagaret, Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. A. H. Reimers, Mrs. J. Byrom, Miss Melba (Continued on Page 4.)

We Tell It With VALUES

So Much Smartness Is Present in All the New Fall Sweet Sixteen GARMENTS

that we are reluctant to spare any in bringing to the attention of the women of Portland and the Northwest what we think the smartest among them.

APPEALING TO ALL FANCIES

ON the hundreds of different models in the thousands of Coats, Suits, Dresses and Wraps of exclusively fall and winter vogue, there is a constant conflict of opinion as to which of all the Beauties should be approved as the style leaders.

TO fit most women of Fashion culture for this judgment and to enable them more readily to make decision resting upon the personality they carry we show a surprisingly large collection at

MAN-TAILED Here's what we think one of the smartest of the new Fall Suits—strictly man-tailored with hand-made button-holes. Absolutely true to the vogue of Fall-tailored Suits. In extra heavy serge and velours, and silk lined..... $16

$16

WITH NO COMPETITION

CATERING TO ALL PURSES

AT Sixteen Dollars these "Sweet Sixteen" themes are accepted as the greatest values in America. This is rendered possible because the tremendous sale of these garments succeeds on an almost unbelievably small profit.

IN working out so satisfactorily as to garments selling at Sixteen Dollars, we have also found that the higher grade garments built on the youthful "Sweet Sixteen" lines are equally appreciated when priced the "Sweet Sixteen" way at from $25 to $375.

FUR COATS

Through "Sweet Sixteen" many a woman is today wearing her Fur Coat that she might have been longing for had it not been priced the "Sweet Sixteen" way.

"SWEET SIXTEEN" LENDS BUOYANCY OF SPIRIT TO WOMEN OF ALL AGES—IN ALL SIZES, 16 TO 44

145-147 BROADWAY Also New York—San Francisco—Seattle—Los Angeles

The Frocks the Thing for Fall!

Our Windows Mirror the Newest Fashions!

A presentation of advance models as sponsored by the leaders of Fashion!

FROCKS travel new ways this Fall! Brown, black and dark blue dresses—here but a few days from New York—and all so gloriously different—so unlike anything women have worn for months past—that the first to wear them will call forth admiring glances wherever they go!

Skirts are longer—but you'll like them. You'll like their gracefully draped simplicity—their uneven hemlines.

Street Frocks

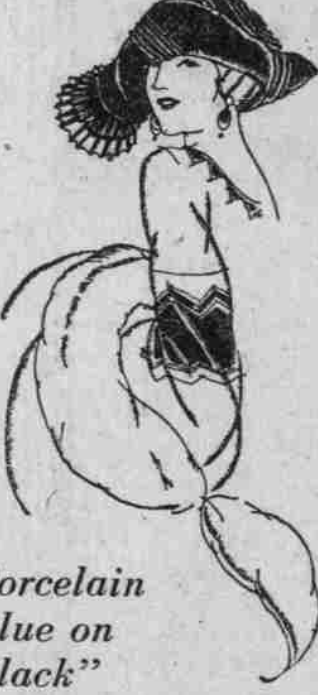

of poret twills and tricotines are not so tailored as in seasons past—cleverly manipulated draperies produce the effective cross-wise drape.

$19.50, $25.00 to $59.50

Silk Frocks

are very beguiling with their soft draperies and decorative wide-sweeping panels—and when they employ the newest silks—which are crinkly, blistered and lustrously rich, they are most attractive!

$25.00 to $69.50

"Porcelain Blue on Black"

An exquisite color combination!

"Porcelain Blue"—a vivid, comet-like shade—combines most effectively with lustrous black velvet.

A color combination that is particularly flattering to young persons in their twenties—although it may be worn with distinction by matrons who stay young.

$10 and upward

Untrimmed Sand Color Felts

$2.85

These popular little tricks keep us busy these days meeting the demand. Also

Trimmed Felts

Black, Brown, Sand, Fuschia, Cin-namon. $4.85 to $9.85

Interesting new fabrics
Satin Canton Crepe Renee
Crepe Back Satin
Crepe Grenada Satin Duvet
Kashmir Crepe
Crepe Mastic Satin Oriole