

FAIR BOOSTERS PLEAS TO START

11 Eastern Oregon Cities to Be Visited.

MANY SIGN FOR JAUNT

Objects of Exposition Will Be Explained and People Urged to Vote for Measure.

All details in connection with the "1925 Special," which will leave Portland tomorrow night for a visit to eastern Oregon cities, were worked out yesterday. The itinerary, program of entertainments and the schedule in general were completed and nothing now remains but to close up the registration lists, assign apartments on the train and distribute the tickets. The train will leave promptly at midnight and it will be one of the finest and most elaborately equipped specials that the Union Pacific ever has sent out of Portland...

BAKER TO GREET SPECIAL

Reception to Include Auto Trips Over City and Dance. BAKER, Or., Sept. 16.—(Special.)—A reception 100 per cent strong by Baker residents will be tendered the 1925 special upon its arrival in Baker next Tuesday afternoon. Details of the reception are complete. The entertainment includes automobile trips about the city and surrounding community. The message of the 1925 exposition boosters from Portland will be conveyed to the Baker people at the Baker theater in the evening. Later there will be a dance at the municipal natatorium.

EMBROIDERY ON EXHIBIT

CHURCH ARTICLES ARE ON DISPLAY AT MUSEUM.

Collection of Pictures and Weaving Brought to City Through Efforts of Bishop Sumner. One of the finest collections in the country of ecclesiastical embroidery, painting and architecture is now on exhibition at the Portland art museum, due to the presence in the city of the Episcopal bishops, clergy and laymen, and brought here through the influence of Bishop Walter Taylor Sumner of Oregon.

CHURCH SCORES DRINK

LACK OF MODESTY ALSO IS DEPLORED IN RESOLUTION.

United Brethren's Oregon Conference Prays That Young May Be Saved. Resolutions condemning the apparent growth of intemperance throughout the world, and "deploring the lack of modesty and refinement by both men and women in this day, in the parks, on the beaches, in places of amusement and summer outings," were passed by the attending delegates to the 69th annual session of the Oregon conference at their business meeting yesterday.

FASHION SHOW TO OPEN

Meier & Frank Company to Display Latest Styles.

The latest style influences of fashion authorities of Paris and New York will be illustrated in the Meier and Frank company's fall fashion show, which will open at the store tomorrow morning. The window display of the fashion show will be ready for inspection today at 3 1/2 large windows dressed in gala attire for the opening of the week's display of fashions. The main floor of the store has been carefully decorated for the week. Suits, coats, gowns, hats, shoes and allied lines will be featured.

TRUCK STRIKES DOWN GIRL

Lillian McNeill, aged 7, 729 East Fifth street north, was brought to the emergency hospital yesterday afternoon suffering from numerous bruises on the body, face and limbs sustained when she was struck down by a heavy truck driven by William C. Porter, Esq., of Canada. Front and Stark streets were blocked off behind machines parked at the curb into the path of the truck. Her mother was with her at the time.

SUSPECTED THIEF HAS OPIUM IN JAIL

Large Quantity of Drug Is Taken From Prisoner. $3500 IN GEMS HELD

HARRY OBERKIRK BELIEVED LEADER OF GANG OF CROOKS OPERATING ALONG COAST.

Diamonds, steel blue and coldly material, and opium, seductive with its enchantment of dreams, continued to occupy the limelight at inspectors' headquarters last night. The snappers are endeavoring to unravel secrets of the underworld partly revealed with the arrest Friday night of Harry Oberkirk and Myrtle Clark in an exclusive apartment house—exclusive to those of moderate finance—in the vicinity of Trinity Place and Washington street.

VISION NEED STRESSED

Bishop Brent Delivers Message to Civic League.

The need for world-wide vision on the part of people of commonwealth was stressed by Bishop Charles H. Brent of western New York, ex-chaplain-general of the American expeditionary forces, in a speech at the luncheon of the Civic League at the Benson hotel yesterday.

JACKSON FAIR IS LIKED

Chamber Manager Views Fine Displays at Medford.

W. F. R. Dodson, manager of the Chamber of Commerce, returned yesterday from Medford, much impressed with the excellent displays held by Jackson county people at the state fair. He said it ranks next to the state fair, in all probability, and this year, for the first time, the Jackson county people have been able to present their attractions on a big scale, with new buildings and grounds provided for the fair. The exhibits, it was said, were splendid in all divisions.

CATHOLICS WILL MEET

Civic Rights Association to Give Program Tonight.

Under the auspices of the Catholic Civic Rights association of Oregon, a program will be given tomorrow night in the Lincoln high school, to commemorate the adoption of the United States constitution by the convention of 1787. The speaker will be Bishop Irving P. Johnson of Denver, who is in Portland in attendance at the Episcopalian convention, Judge John P. Kavanaugh will preside.

RAILWAY EXTENSION REPORTED

WHITE SALMON, Wash., Sept. 16.—(Special.)—The Klackit northern railroad will be extended into the Clewiston country, according to persistent rumors of progress afloat here. Whether it is to be extended toward Laurel, or directly north to Clewiston, has not been reported. The fact that the Milton Co. company, operating a mill near Glenwood, has closed down to begin work on a large mill is regarded as significant. The railroad extension also would serve to haul supplies for the Horse Heaven irrigator district, intake and ditch northeast of Glenwood.

CHAS. F. WALKER, PRES. OF NORTHWESTERN SCHOOL OF COMMERCE

"It matters not what your product is—if it is of better value, it is always in demand at its own price. The truth cannot be better exemplified than by the demand of exactness and quality for a better trained graduate than the average man has been able to fill. Ambitious young people find herein the surest, quickest way to the very best employment opportunity. They reap the direct benefits of our policies of greater efficiency. Through personal instruction, a limited enrollment, modern facilities, an inspirational environment."

WHITE CAFETERIA BANKRUPT.

Liabilities of $19,298, with assets of but $234, were filed in federal court yesterday by the White cafeteria, 145 Third street, in voluntary bankruptcy proceedings having been instituted recently by local creditors. Principal creditors of the failed concern are the Alder market, Oregon Creamery and U. S. Bakery, aggregate claims being $5500, and claims of Henry Winters, a stockholder, are for $980.

BOOTLEGGERS SENTENCED.

Morris Silverman, jeweler, who handled bootlegging as a side line in his store at Sixth and Glisan streets, a charge on which he was convicted in the municipal court Wednesday, was yesterday sentenced by Judge Ekwall to 40 days in jail and fined $400. M. E. Brecher, an associate, was fined $150.

CHAS. F. WALKER, PRES. OF NORTHWESTERN SCHOOL OF COMMERCE

"My Dear Mr. Walker: I did want a little talk with you before I left, and I feel that I have been one of the many to receive your kind advice, in the way of the University of Oregon."

CHAS. F. WALKER, PRES. OF NORTHWESTERN SCHOOL OF COMMERCE

"We put business into you; Then, you into business." Entire Fifth Floor, Tifford Bldg., Morrison at Tenth, Bldg., 5083.
