Mrs. John Shull of California, who is visiting here.

Miss Leslie Reins who will attend the Finch School in New York City.

Mrs. E. N. Allen of Los Angeles who has been visiting Mrs. Lloyd R. Smith.

Mrs. Theron Fall, a prominent Nelson who entertained recently with a smart tea.

SOCIETY promises to be quiet this week, as the Episcopal general convention has come to an end after three weeks of enjoyable affairs and interesting events. The visitors are departing daily for their homes in various parts of the country.

Many teas, luncheons and dinners were given this week. Monday afternoon the Waverly Country club was the scene of a charming affair, when Mrs. Everett Babcock honored her house guest, Mrs. Bayard Dominick of New York city, with a bridge tea.

A throng of society folk attended the pageant drama, "The Sinner Beloved," Tuesday night, and a number of dinner parties were given preceding the performance.

One of the largest dinners was that which Bishop and Mrs. Walter Taylor Sumner presided over.

Mrs. Joseph Nathan Teal entertained the visitors with a tea Thursday afternoon, and one of the most attractive dinners of the week was given for the visitors by Mr. and Mrs. William C. Alvord Friday night.

Portland society is greatly interested in the announcement of the engagement of Captain David Loring Jr. and Miss Lorna Chitty of Washington, D. C. Captain Loring formerly lived in Portland. During the war he served overseas, where he made an excellent record.

A number of Portland society folk attended the Bishop-Broughton wedding Wednesday afternoon at Dayton, Wash. This was a notable event as this marriage united two prominent pioneer families.

The engagement of Captain David Loring Jr. to Miss Lorna Chitty has been announced, formally, in Washington, D. C. at a large reception given by Mrs. W. T. Chitty, mother of the bride-elect. Miss Chitty is the daughter of Colonel and Mrs. Chitty, a popular society belle of Washington, D. C.

Captain Loring is the son of Mr. and Mrs. David Loring, prominent Portlanders. He attended the Portland academy and Milton Preparatory school in Massachusetts. He graduated from Harvard university in 1916, where he was editor of the Lampon. Captain Loring has remained in the army since the war. Recently he has been stationed at Camp Benning, Georgia. As yet there are no definite plans for the wedding.

A large reception was given Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Jackson. The affair was given in honor of Bishop Daniel S. Tuttle, his sister, Mrs. S. K. White, Bishop L. H. Wells, Dean Charles N. Lathrop, Dean and Mrs. William McCormack of Los Angeles and Miss Ida Boyd and Mrs. Norman Berkeley of Pendleton. The honor guests were asked especially to meet Mrs. John Halley, also of Pendleton, who at one time was a pupil of Bishop Tuttle's school at St. Lake and also attended St. Paul's school at Walla Walla under Mrs. White's regime. Among the guests who called were a number of the pupils who had attended the St. Helens hall many years ago.

In the dining room the attractive table was in charge of Mrs. Thomas G. Halley, Mrs. Frederick E. Judd, Mrs. Jocelyn Foulk and Mrs. N. E. DeSpain. Assisting about the rooms were the Misses Mildred Berkeley and Ida K. Womack.

The marriage of Miss Harriet Broughton of Dayton, Wash., and Clarence Bishop of Portland was solemnized Wednesday afternoon at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Charles Julius Broughton. The ceremony was read by Rev. W. C. Gilmore of the Congregational church in the presence of the families and most intimate friends. A large reception followed the ceremony which was enjoyed by about 300 guests. C. R. Bishop of Pendleton, the brother of Mr. Bishop, acted as best man.

The bride was a beautiful picture, attired in a robe of white satin, made on long graceful lines, with a court train and a veil charmingly arranged with orange blossoms. She was given in marriage by her brother, Charles Broughton. Her attendants were her sisters, the Misses Helen and Frances Broughton, who were most attractive in their smart frocks of rose and yellow taffeta, and carried arms of sunset roses. Master Larry Kenworthy, clad in white satin, carried the bride's train. Sunset shades of rose, yellow and orange were the predominating colors used in the rooms. Large ivory baskets contained gladiolus, sinias and roses.

Before the wedding march was played, Miss Cora Gerken sang "At Dawning," and throughout the service soft music was played. Out-of-town guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Bishop, parents of the bridegroom, of Salem, Or.; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas D. Honeyman, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Spencer and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Guernsey of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Hubbard Kleinsteck of Kalamazoo, Mich.; Dr. and Mrs. Floyd Croup of Fort Bayard, N. M.; Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Bishop and sons, Robert and Charles Bishop, of Pendleton.

The bride is a member of one of the foremost pioneer families of Dayton, a graduate of Annie Wright seminary and Smith college. Mr. Bishop is a native of Oregon, a graduate of the University of Oregon, and received his technical training in Philadelphia. He is at the head of the Pendleton Woolen Mills company. He is a Sigma Nu fraternity man, and a member of several well-known clubs in this city. Mr. and Mrs. Bishop will reside in Portland after the first of November at the Ambassador apartments.

Miss Dorothy Leadbetter will return to Radcliffe this fall, and Mr. and Mrs. Frederick W. Leadbetter will pass the winter in Santa Barbara.

Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett presided at a beautifully appointed dinner Friday night for the convention visitors.

The Pipes, Hutchinson, Conrad trio announces a series of three concerts for the coming winter, the first to be given the evening of Saturday, October 28. The second will follow November 18, and the third December 9. All three concerts will be held in the new Portland Women's Club building on Taylor street.

Chamber music of quality is so rare nowadays that music lovers are looking forward with keen anticipation to the concerts of three such well-known musicians.

One of the most interesting affairs of the week was the constitution meeting and tea of the Multnomah chapter of the American Revolution, which took place Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Fletcher Linn.

During the afternoon Bishop Arthur Moulton of Utah presented a flag to Mrs. James B. Montgomery for the chapter. Mrs. Montgomery is the organizing regent of the Multnomah chapter. Mrs. W. G.

Oberteuffer gave a short speech in regard to the presentation. Bishop Brent, who was the chaplain-general of the American overseas forces during the war, also delivered an address. In the receiving line with the members of the chapter were Mrs. Walter Taylor Sumner and Miss Anne Lang, state regent at The Dalles.

One of the most attractive teas of the week was given Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. Charles Elias Preston at her home in Irvington, when she honored Mrs. Francis Douglas Cohan and announced the engagement of Miss Helen Gregg to John Ross Dickson Jr. Miss Gregg is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Cloud Gregg, formerly of Walla Walla, but who have resided in Portland for number of years. She is an attractive and popular girl. She attended the St. Paul's school and Pearson's academy in Walla Walla. Mr. Dickson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Ross Dickson. He is a graduate of the University of Oregon and a member of the Kappa Sigma fraternity. He resides in Pendleton, where he is the manager for the eastern Oregon territory of Whitcomb, Whitfield & Co. During the war he served in the navy. The wedding will be an event of October.

In the receiving line with the hostess were Mrs. Herbert Cloud Gregg, Mrs. John Ross Dickson, Miss Helen Gregg and Mrs. Francis Douglas Cohan. Presiding in the dining room were Mrs. Alexander Clark, Mrs. E. A. Keller, Mrs. Charles B. Malarkey and Mrs. Paul J. Sullivan. They were assisted by the Misses LaVelle Florence, Mary Therklesen and Agnes McBride. Mrs. Thomas C. Warner and Mrs. David Atkinson assisted about the rooms.

During the afternoon Miss Katherine Phillips, the house guest of Mrs. James A. Malarkey, sang several songs. She was accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Vernon A. Cartwright. Leone Barry danced several numbers.

Mrs. Pensiope Gehr recently returned from Grants Pass, where she spent a few days with Miss Gretchen Clemens. She will leave this week for Eugene, where she is going to school.

Mrs. Robert Robertson and Mrs. N. Christian Olson, who is visiting here from Fresno, Cal., entertained at tea last Tuesday, honoring the women of the San Joaquin delegation to the Episcopal convention. Mrs. George W. Hazen and Mrs. George Hieb poured, and were assisted in serving by the Misses Ora Richardson, Marian Howers and Ruth Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Robertson were hosts at dinner last Friday, honoring Dean and Mrs. MacDonald of Fresno, Cal. Covers were placed for six.

Rose Jeanette Bruce, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Bruce, was christened Sunday at the home of her parents by the Right Rev. Daniel Sylvester Tuttle. The hour and the day marked the celebration of the marriage ceremony of the child's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles May, which had been performed by the bishop 52 years ago at Taylor's Ferry, Idaho. Following the christening, Mr. and Mrs. May were hosts at dinner for the bishop and his party, which included Mrs. E. H. White, Rev. Geornton, Mrs. Rabbean and 18 other guests.

Mrs. Dorsey Smith honored her mother, Mrs. Von Behren, and Mrs. David Munro, who is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Donald Munro, at a tea on Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Von Behren will return to her home in Evansville, Ind., next week.

Mrs. John Kett Leander, a recent bride from Chicago, who will make her home in Portland, and Mrs. John McPherson were the motifs for a smart tea on Saturday, when Mrs. Harry G. Thompson was hostess. Mrs. Cliff Lamping, Mrs. Ralph Meyer and Mrs. George Dickey presided at the tea table.

Mrs. Daniel Dalton Madden of San Francisco, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Rumelin, has recently returned to her home in San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest F. Swigert have returned from a motor trip through the northwest. A large portion of their time was spent in Montana.

Miss Marian Farrell has left for the east, where she will attend school in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Webster Talbot have returned from a motor trip through California. Miss Jane Talbot will leave soon for the east, where she will attend school.
