Miss Elsie Smith of Pittsburgh who is visiting Miss J. Jones Dugan.

Miss M. Conner who has returned from her wedding trip.

Mrs. Sherman A. Warren (nee Thompson) who was recently married.

The best man was T. J. Piercy, brother of the bridegroom. Little Virginia Jekson was flower girl.

The bridal party proceeded to the archway to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, played by Miss Priscilla Allen of Portland. Rev. Mr. Smith of the Rockwood Methodist church officiated, the double ring ceremony being used. Preceding the ceremony Mrs. V. W. McCormack sang "At Dawning," and little 4-year-old Janet Callwell sang "I Love You Truly."

Following the ceremony a reception was held, after which the young couple left for a short honeymoon at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Piercy will make their home at Seattle, where Mr. Piercy has charge of the McCord Publishing company's branch office.

About 30 young people were present Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Arthur J. Abegg in Halsey street at a "shower" arranged by Mrs. Abegg and Mrs. Polly Perkins for Miss Lena Bauer Ball, who soon is to be married to Jacob A. Webber. The presents were many and of a most thoughtful and sensible nature and the refreshments were superb.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Steuenberg of Idaho visited for two days last week at the residence of their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Van Wyngarden, 1159 Mallory avenue, Piedmont, while passing through Portland to Walla Walla, where they will make their home for some time.

Mrs. F. D. Mumford and her sister, Mrs. G. L. Crookham, who have been visiting with their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Van Wyngarden of 1159 Mallory avenue, Piedmont, left on Monday for their home in Caldwell, Idaho.

On the shores of Crystal Springs lake, circled about a flickering bonfire, members of the Reed college community last night were guests of the college co-eds. Following a dinner on the Reed commons and an address by Dr. Samuel L. Joshi of Baroda college, India, earlier in the evening, students and instructors alike mingled in the happy throng which adjourned to the lakeside where the bonfire party was held. Singers, ukulele artists and yarn spinners who had taken up especially for the occasion provided no end of merriment. Harmony specialists brought forth "Rosy O'Grady" and other old favorites and vied with the jokers for the attention of the gathering. Refreshments and toasted marshmallows were served. Miss Florence Follier of Portland supervised arrangements for the bonfire. She was assisted by a number of freshmen under the direction of William Brewster, who provided fuel for the fire.

Miss Catherine Switzer and Miss Irma Austin recently returned from a fortnight's tour during which they visited Yellowstone National park, Salt Lake City, Lake Tahoe and San Francisco. At the latter place they were extensively entertained by relatives and friends.

Miss Helen and Pauline Herner were hostesses for the first Beaux Arts society tea of the season, which was given at their home Saturday week at 321 East Twenty-third street. The afternoon was student activities on the campus. She was a member of the woman's varsity debate team and affiliated with Zeta Kappa Psi, national forensic fraternity. She was also president of the Nu, honor society for women, and a member of the Y. W. C. A. cabinet. Mr. Doeneka is employed in the local office of the Standard Oil company. Mr. and Mrs. Doeneka are at home to their friends at 845 Dunkley street.

Events of the week. Myra circles had a very enjoyable time at their meeting Wednesday at Arleta Woodmen of the World hall. Arrangements were made for a membership campaign, to run until January 3, 1923, starting with the next meeting. A progressive 500 party will be given Wednesday. Besides the prizes for that night two season prizes will be offered.

Miss Charlotte Kramer entertained at the Orpheum palace last Monday, honoring Miss Honor Youngson, who left Sunday night to attend a French school in New York.

Alpha Delta Pi sorority was hostesses at a large formal tea at the C. O. Pick residence on Mount Tabor last Saturday afternoon. Invitations were issued to 100 girls who leave soon to attend the University of Oregon. The drawing room was artistically arranged with a profusion of choice flowers, and a massive basket of roses, asters and other cut flowers formed the centerpiece in

Miss Esther Halvorsen. The wedding music was played by Miss Florence Wiedrick. The church was decorated with gladiolas and white clematis. Following the services an informal reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. Mrs. Doeneka was graduated from the University of Oregon in the class of 1921 and was prominent in

The wedding of Miss Jennie F. Maguire, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Maguire, and Joseph E. Doeneka, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Doeneka, was solemnized Wednesday night at the Highland Congregational church. The service was read by Rev. E. P. Bollinger of Vancouver, Wash., assisted by Rev. Edward Constant of the Highland Congregational church.

The bride was attended by Miss Alice Bollinger and Calvin A. Slinger served as best man. The bride was given in marriage by her father. She was attired in a gown of white tulle and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses. "I Love You Truly" was sung as a processional by Miss Florence Hill, Mrs. Max Reher, Miss Vernita Moody, Miss Verna Smith, Miss Ruth Halvorsen and the dining room. Receiving were the Misses Betty Tillson, Moretta Howard, Beatrice Crowdon and Grace Pick. Mrs. Lucy Perkins of Carlton, Ore., poured, while Mrs. Le Roy Swanson cut the loaves. Assisting about the rooms were the Misses Helen Harper and Eloise McPherson.

About 200 maids and matrons called during Friday afternoon at a beautifully appointed tea given in honor of Miss Elicena Greene at the home of Mrs. Fred O. Jennings, in Irvington. Mrs. Frank Heitkemper and Mrs. A. J. Farmer poured and Mrs. C. J. Cook and Mrs. Victor Jorgensen cut loaves. Miss Marie Briscoil, Miss M. Kennedy, Miss Mildred Lauderdale and Miss Schaefer-green assisted.

Alpha Lambda chapter of Alpha Delta Pi honored a number of girls about to enter college with a prettily appointed luncheon in the Tyrol room of the Benson hotel. Dainty coverages of gladiolus and lavender asters marked the places for the guests and a large table piece of asters in corresponding shades formed the decorations.

Misses Helen and Jean Harper were hostesses for a dinner party Monday night at their home, honoring members of the Tye club. Dinner was served on the lawn, after which dancing was enjoyed. Courses were laid for the Misses Dorothy Dodge, Beulah Kimery, Elizabeth Rauch, Gladys Onstad, Geraldine and Edna May Root, Carrie Lorenson, Alice Seely, Martha Billiger, Catherine Palmer, Margaret Kennedy, Louise Douglas, Maxine Wheeler and the hostess.

A most enjoyable affair took place a few days ago at the Masonic and Eastern Star home at Forest Grove when Rose City Chapter No. 86, Order of Eastern Star, gave a programme for the guests at the home. Those who contributed to the evening's entertainment were Mrs. Fred Olson, Miss Ruff, Miss Dorothea Anderson, Miss Gladys Johnson, Miss Rose Brown, Lieutenant Cane and R. D. Walsh. This was the first appearance of Miss Olson since her return to this city after an absence of three months in Chicago and the last appearance of Miss Anderson, who has opened studios in Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Rauch celebrated their 52d wedding anniversary and the 14th birthday of Mr. Rauch yesterday with a party.

COMING EVENTS.

The drill corps of Oregon Commandery No. 1 will give a series of dancing parties during the fall and winter seasons. The dances will be held at Christensen's hall, Eleventh and Yamhill streets. The first dance will be given Monday, October 2. The Knights Templar dances are always looked forward to and are among the great social events of the season.

The first of a series of 500 parties to be given by Over-the-Top auxiliary to post No. 81, Veterans of Foreign Wars, will commence tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock in room 325 courthouse. Mrs. Flora Libby, Kathryn Craigie and Alice Duhamel compose the committee. Hand-made prizes have been selected. Refreshments will be served. The public is invited.

A harvest festival will be held on the grounds of St. Mary's institute at Beaverton September 30 and October 1. An interesting and diversified programme has been arranged, of which the orphan children in the institute will have a prominent part with their drills, recitations and songs. The Knights of Columbus band will be heard in

of rich simplicity

COATS in the longer lines affect the uneven hem—with many loose side panels, their huge sleeves extending to the waistline. Fashion is lavish in her use of furs this season—and you are assured that only the finest of these trim coats are chosen for our Coat Shop! Coats intended for almost unlimited service—in fine fabrics with rich furs and sturdy crepe linings—priced

FROCKS of the coat type bring added height and slenderness—favor navy tail over all other fabrics—add gay touches of color, jeweled discs, embroideries—or content themselves with fine tailoring and exquisite textures! Many coat frocks adopt the bloused back so good in coats—and all have the long, rolled surplice—so exceptionally good if one is short. A host of youthful or dignified tulle frocks—
