

RECTOR'S WIDOW DENIES JEALOUSY

Mrs. Hall Issues Statement on Double Murder.

Discussion of Reasons for Not Offering Reward for Capture of Slayer Evaded.

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., Sept. 23.—(By the Associated Press.)—For the first time since the discovery of the bodies of her husband, the Rev. Edward Wheeler Hall, and his choir leader, Mrs. Eleanor Randall Mills, a week ago, Mrs. Hall, the rector's widow, today consented to give an interview to representatives of the press. They had previously tried unsuccessfully to obtain some expression of opinion from her as to the mystery of what the authorities had decided was a double murder committed probably on the night of September 14.

Jealousy Is Denied.

"Did you feel jealous toward Mr. Mills or anybody else about the night of Thursday, September 14, just before he left his home for the last time, she said she did not know who called him."

"Do you have any suspicion of anybody who might have committed the murder?" was another question, to which she replied "no."

Reward Discussion Taboo.

"When Mrs. Hall was asked in a reward for the capture of her husband's slayer or employ private detectives, she evaded the inquiry by saying 'I have no statement to make on that.'"

Home Left at 7:30.

"Mr. Hall went out about 7:30, telling me that he was going over to the Mills' to explain something that Mr. Mills did not quite understand in the doctor's bill."

Woman Held as Accomplice.

YANCOVER, Wash., Sept. 23.—(Special.)—Mrs. Anna May Calloway of Minneapolis was arrested last night by sheriff's deputies on a charge of aiding her husband, D. V. Calloway, to commit a felony. Calloway is charged with the robbery of the Little Falls State bank of Vander Lugt, Nov. 19, 1921. Calloway is alleged to have helped dispose of the loot from the bank's safe deposit vaults. Both husband and wife are being held in the county jail here awaiting the arrival of the Lewis county authorities, who will take them to Chehalis for arraignment.

Smugglers' Game No Longer What It Used to Be.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Sept. 23.—Smuggling and bootlegging are not what they used to be. One regulation after another has been added by the Canadian and United States governments until it is really no longer safe to peddle a carload or boatload of Canadian liquor along the border of Canada and the United States. The price of contraband, too, is at a low level, and the big profits of former days are no longer in sight to tempt men to risk heavy fines and the loss of an automobile or a boat for the sake of making one dash across the line.

Ex-Doughboys Expected to Seek Revenge on Representatives in Congress.

BY ROBERT T. SMALL.
(Copyright, 1922, by The Oregonian.)
WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 23.—Congress has gone home to "face the music." It has gone home to face the first test of that bugaboo, the soldier vote. For while congress bravely passed the bonus bill, while the house even went so far as to override the presidential veto, the measure was killed in the senate.

Friend of Lars Anderson Returns Home and Reports Case to Police, Who Investigate.

Police have begun searching for Lars Anderson, 52, Norwegian logger and mill worker, who disappeared from his houseboat in the Willamette river opposite the end of Swan island two years ago. A fellow countryman returning from a two-year visit to his homeland found the houseboat and all of Anderson's belongings, including clothing, receipts for $300 in Liberty bonds in the Ladd & Tilton bank, and even watch and keys in the possession of Ommand Jacobsen, owner of a nearby water dwelling.

While the present congress is expected to be judged almost wholly by the tariff law signed on Thursday by the president, and while that tariff is being proclaimed today as the great achievement of the session, which began in April, 1921, and is just now ended, there really was no plank in the republican platform regarding the tariff. It is admitted that most of these districts will go back to "normalcy" November 7, and therefore many republican faces will be missing when the next congress assembles.

ALDRICH—a piano of very modest price, made to our own carefully drawn specifications—is a piano well worth investigating.

The Aldrich comes in four styles: two uprights, a small grand and an upright player. The upright models start as low as $435. All models may be had on very liberal terms.

Not price alone, but price and quality combined, should be kept in mind when buying a piano. On this basis the Aldrich is one of the most exceptional values in the entire piano world.

The Store for DIAMONDS

In justice to yourself you should see my stock and compare prices before you purchase.

For over 20 years I have specialized in the better grade of diamonds, which, owing to my purchasing connections, I have been able to sell for less than others.

I realize this is a broad statement, but I can prove it, quality for quality, price for price, my diamonds are lowest.

That's why my store has become justly famous for diamonds.
