

Society

Miss Katherine Ainsworth, who was honored at a large luncheon.

Mrs. Pat H. Allen, who was honored at a large luncheon.

Miss Evelyn Versteeg, who has announced her engagement.

Mrs. Robert S. Farrell who recently left for a visit in the East.

A NUMBER of interesting luncheons, teas and bridge parties have been given this week, with visiting guests as the inspirations for the affairs. A luncheon was given by Mrs. Richard M. Blatchford on Tuesday afternoon at her home in Vancouver barracks, complimenting her house guest, Mrs. C. A. T. Cardine. Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Frank Jay Cobbe's beautiful home was the scene of an attractive bridge tea, when she honored Mrs. Bayard Dominick. Mrs. Katherine Ainsworth gave a prettily appointed luncheon also on Wednesday, when she honored the Misses Alice and Louise Effinger, visitors here. Thursday afternoon Mrs. J. Guy Strohm entertained a large group of society maids and matrons with a tea. Mrs. Samuel T. Halsted was the motif for a smart tea on Friday afternoon, when Mrs. Joseph Nathan Teal entertained.

The junior league girls have now begun their work for the coming year, and a number of them give up several days during the week for the clinic and social service work. Each year they give some brilliant social affairs to raise money for their welfare work, but as yet there are no definite plans for this year, though there are some very interesting rumors.

Several weddings are planned for this month. One of the largest is the double wedding of the sisters, Miss Katherine Sells, who will marry Lawrence Dickson, of San Francisco, and Miss Jane Sells, who will wed Allen E. Meier. This wedding will take place on October 12 at the Temple Beth Israel. The attendants will be Miss Jeannette Meier and Miss Suzanne Sells, maids of honor, and Miss Flora Marx of San Francisco. Miss Edith Ottenheimer, Miss Judith Lipitt and Miss Ruth Lowengart are bridesmaids. Little Sally Ann Lowengart will be the flower girl and Sanford Lowengart Jr. will act as ringbearer. A large reception will follow at the Multnomah hotel.

The marriage of Miss Helen Gregg and John Ross Dickson Jr. will take place on the morning of Wednesday, October 11, in Trinity chapel. This will be a small affair, with only a few relatives and friends present.

Wednesday evening, October 11, Miss Helen Haller has chosen for her marriage to Harvey Nicol Black. This will take place at the Westminster Presbyterian church. A large reception will be given following the ceremony at the Haller residence.

Portland society is interested in the wedding of Miss Edith Fredericks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Fredericks, and Durham

Jones, which will be solemnized in Boston Saturday, October 7. Mr. Jones is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Estebrook Jones and the grandson of the late Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Durham. Mrs. Jones is a former Portlander, and her brother, Gilbert H. Durham, with Mrs. Durham, will attend the wedding. Mr. and Mrs. George C. Mason will also be among the Portland guests at the wedding.

Miss Loretta Brady and Miss Loretta Hyde were the inspirations for a beautifully appointed dinner given Wednesday night by Mr. and Mrs. Pierre Rossiter Hines. Twelve guests enjoyed the affair.

Miss Katherine Miller has returned from Seattle, where she was the house guest of Miss Lorraine. Major and Mrs. Philip Carroll and children, Patsy and Philip Jr., will arrive in Portland very soon. They will be the house guests of Major Carroll's mother, Mrs. Emma B. Carroll, and Mrs. Carroll's mother, Mrs. H. A. Nelson, for a short time. Later they will go to their ranch in Hood River. Major Carroll, with Walter N. Brown, represented the relief administration at the Riggs conference which brought about the relief work in August, 1931.

Mrs. Ray L. Burnell, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. James F. McIndoe, left Tuesday for her home in Fort Sil, Oklahoma, where her husband, Captain Burnell, is stationed. Mrs. McIndoe's son, James McIndoe, has gone east with his uncle, Colonel J. B. Cavanaugh, and will enter the Massachusetts Institute of Technology at Boston. Colonel Cavanaugh will pass the winter in Duluth, where he has business interests.

The announcement of the engagement of Miss Mary Stewart to John Walter Scammell was made informally in notes which Miss Stewart sent to her friends. Miss Stewart is the daughter of Mrs. Mabel E. Stewart of Oakland, Cal., and the niece of Mrs. Frederick R. Strong of this city, whom she is visiting. The bride-elect is the sister of Mrs. Ralph Whitney Reynolds, who will be remembered as Patsy Stewart. Mr. Scammell is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Scammell of Piedmont, Cal. No definite plans have been made for the wedding.

Miss Suzanne Platt and her sister, Miss Mary Louise Platt, accompanied by their father, F. E. Platt, left this week for California, where Miss Mary Louise Platt will enter school in Santa Barbara.

Miss Grace Burke of San Francisco is the house guest of Mrs. Charles T. Whitney.

Captain and Mrs. George Sheppard Clarke are visiting in Portland and are the house guests of Mrs. Clarke's mother, Mrs. W. H. Grindstaff.

Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Edward A. Valentine complimented Miss Lorraine Goodrich with a tea. Her guests included 30 of the younger maids and matrons.

The Misses Alice and Louise Effinger were the motifs for a luncheon last Wednesday, when Miss Katherine Ainsworth was hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Alice Lewis and their daughter, Miss Lorraine Goodrich, have departed for the east where Miss Lewis will enter a school at Farmington, Conn.

Monday afternoon, Mrs. George I. Wilson, president of the Y. W. C. A., entertained the board of directors and members of the bazaar committee at her home, 143 North Nineteenth street.

Mrs. Ralph Hoyt, Miss Katherine Hoyt, accompanied by her house guest Miss Lorraine Goodrich and Miss Mabel Withycombe, returned Monday from a motor trip in California. Miss Goodrich left last Wednesday for her home in the east.

Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Watsek of Iowa were guests of their sons, John and Aubrey Watsek, during the Episcopal convention to which Mrs. Watsek was a delegate. They left last week for San Francisco, whence they will depart for a trip around the world.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ladd Corbett, John G. Edwards and Mr. and Mrs. Philip L. Jackson were among the Portland visitors at the Pendleton round-up.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Judd have returned to Portland after passing a few weeks in Pendleton.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Kerr entertained about 30 guests at a supper dance, Saturday evening week, at the Frederick L. Warren residence.

Miss Sally Hart is visiting Miss Genevieve Halley in San Francisco. Miss Halley, who has distinguished herself as an artist, is at present doing sketches of the campus of Stanford university.

Portland society is greatly anticipating the concert of Miss Harriet Leach, when she will be presented October 19, at the public auditorium.

Mrs. L. L. Blodgett was hostess recently for Miss C. B. Henderson of San Diego, Miss Margaret Engleland of Evanston, Ill., Bishop Harding of Washington, D. C., and his daughter, Miss Charlotte Harding.

Miss Margaret Biddle entertained a party of five guests recently.

Mrs. Ralph Hoyt had as her guests recently Miss Mabel Withycomb, Miss E. Lorraine Goodrich and Miss Kathryn Hoyt.

Major and Mrs. William McInglis of Vancouver barracks, had as their house guests for the week end, Mrs. Rose Courson Reed.

Mrs. Dwight Edwards had as her guests for luncheon last Tuesday, Mrs. Franklin Griffith, Mrs. Harry Thompson, Mrs. C. D. Bruun, Mrs. George C. Dickey and Mrs. Helen Ellsworth.

Mrs. Henry Waldo Coe entertained recently, having as her guests Messames John C. Boyer, Herman Blasening and Fred W. Weber.

Miss Jean Leonard entertained recently for Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Leonard.

Mrs. Wallace McCamant was hostess recently for Mrs. Frederick H. Strong and daughter, Betty, and Mrs. Thomas McCamant.

Mrs. W. E. Wiggins and daughter, Elizabeth, had as their guest recently, Mrs. J. A. Wiggins of Toppenish, Wash., and Mrs. Lynn Davis.

A tea was given last Tuesday afternoon for Miss Jeannette Sewall by Miss Berenice Burke, at her home, 750 Brazee street. Presiding at the urns were Mrs. Victor W. Strode, Mrs. Lynn Davis and Mrs. Robert Pelous. They were assisted by Miss Vera O'Brien, Miss Doris Dezendorf and Miss Elizabeth Kirby.

Charming in its simplicity was the wedding of Miss Mildred Lauderdale and Floyd Maxwell, last Monday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Dr. and Mrs. C. F. Lauderdale, in Laurelhurst, in the presence of a few friends and relatives. Rev. E. H. Pence read the service, and V. C. Allen Jr. of Seattle was the best man. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of dark blue georgette crepe, elaborated with beads, and a large picture hat. She wore a corsage of Ophelia roses and lilies of the valley.

Miss Katherine Lauderdale, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor, and wore tan canton crepe, adorned with beads, and a brown hat. Her bouquet was of Columbia roses.

The wedding march was played by Mrs. F. Reed McBride, sister of the bride, and preceding the ceremony, Miss Nina Dressell sang "The Cause" and "I Love You Truly." A reception followed the ceremony. Receiving with the bride party was Mrs. C. F. Lauderdale. Her costume was of brown lace trimmed in tan velvet. Presiding in the dining room were Mrs. William Cavanaugh and Mrs. H. E. Lounsbury. They were assisted by the Misses Lucille McClung, Carmel Shearsgreen, Arnes Kennedy, Frances Lounsbury and Clara Wheelhouse.

Mrs. Maxwell is a graduate of Washington high school and the University of Oregon, and is a member of the Chi Omega sorority. Mr. Maxwell is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Maxwell of Union, Or. He is a graduate of the University of Oregon, where he was editor of the Oregon Daily Emerald, and is president of the Intercollegiate Press association. He is a member of the Sigma Chi, Sigma Delta Chi and the Friar club, a senior honorary society.

After a two weeks' trip, Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell will reside in Portland at 155 East Fifteenth street.

Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Bayard Dominick and Mrs. A. G. Carter, the guests of Mrs. Everett Babcock, were the motifs for a bridge tea at which Mrs. Frank Jay Cobbe entertained at her home on Portland heights. Presiding at the table were Mrs. Fred S. Belcher and Mrs. Leroy Fields. They were assisted by Miss Beulah Belcher and Mrs. Nancy Yas Scott.

Miss Lorraine Goodrich, who passed the summer as the house guest of Miss Katherine Hoyt, left Wednesday for her home in Milwaukee.

Miss Helen Haller, whose engagement to Harvey N. Black recently was announced, shared honors with Miss Margaret Bronough, a bride-elect, at a bridge party last Thursday afternoon, when Mrs. James Meace entertained.

Miss Dorothy Shea and Miss Leslie Kerns departed last Tuesday for New York, where Miss Shea will enter a school at Briarcliff Manor. Miss Kerns will attend a school in New York city.

Miss Helen Haller, bride-elect, was the inspiration for a dinner given on Monday night, by Miss Patricia Smith.

Mrs. Richard M. Blatchford gave a luncheon last Tuesday for her house guest, Mrs. C. A. T. Cardine. A number of matrons motored over to the Vancouver barracks for the occasion. The guests included Mrs. William MacMaster, Mrs. Joseph Nathan Teal, Mrs. George T. Willett, Mrs. Frederick C. Malpas, Mrs. John L. Hiddell, Mrs. H. T. Mayo, Mrs. Samuel T. Halsted, Miss Martha E. Wright and Mrs. William N. Ingles.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Branch Riley, who were in eastern Oregon with the George Palmer Putman party, returned to Portland last Tuesday.

Miss Cornelia Cook, who is in New York city, has been the motif for a number of social affairs there. She expects to return to Portland about November 1.

Dr. and Mrs. Derwin L. Palmer and son Derwin have returned from a three weeks' motor trip through California. While in Los Angeles Dr. Palmer attended the American Roentgen ray meeting, which was held at the Ambassador hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. William Matteson of South Beach, Or., are being congratulated upon the birth of a son September 25, who is to be named Richard William. Richard has the distinction of being the first baby to be born in the new camp of the Manary Logging company.

Mrs. John Norman Matschek and Mrs. Vernon Wayne Burke were hostesses at an attractive tea last

(Continued on Page 2)