

News of World AS SEEN BY CAMERA

THE ordnance proving grounds at Aberdeen, Md., is the home of many new mammoth improved bombs, some of the largest of which weigh 4000 pounds and more, which are to be used by the United States army.

A. L. Vuillemot of Washington has been handcuffed to a wheelbarrow by Senator Joseph Ransdell of Louisiana. To win a wager which has been made by him he will push the vehicle from Washington to San Francisco, to return by next June.

The five children of Lee Sing Nom are declared to be the most beautiful family of Chinese children in Washington. Harrison is 2 years old, Virginia 3, Alice 10, Wilson 8 and Marion 6.

Peter B. Kyne chose Miss Kay Parker, name and all, and put her into his newest book, weaving around her the sweet romance of young love.

A new portrait study of the new quartermaster-general of the United States, General William H. Hart, has just been completed.

Major G. Bell-Murray of Kirkpatrick, England, is the proud possessor of that country's only kennel of pure Afghan hounds. Manee is one of the finest that the major owns.

Sergeant Samuel Woodfill is the man whom General Pershing has chosen as the greatest single hero of the war. Sergeant Woodfill, gaining nothing from mere distinction, is working as a carpenter on the Ohio river dam at Silver Gray, Ky.

Will Push Wheelbarrow From Washington To Coast © Underwood & Underwood, N.Y.

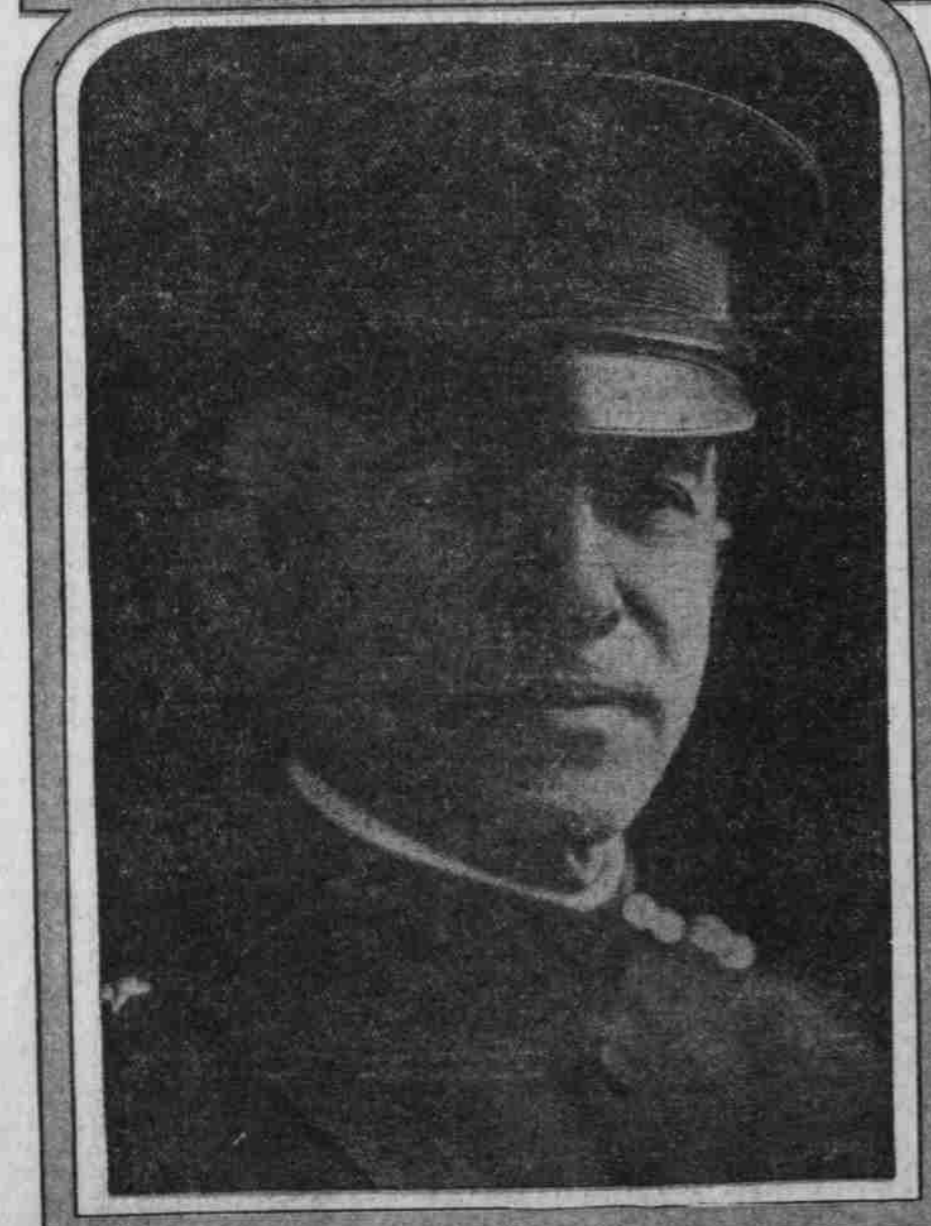

Uncle Sam Insures Peace © Underwood & Underwood, N.Y.

Declared Most Beautiful Chinese Children In Capitol © Underwood & Underwood, N.Y.

Author And His Inspiration For Novel © Underwood & Underwood, N.Y.

Army's Quartermaster General © Underwood & Underwood, N.Y.

Rare Afghan Hound © Underwood & Underwood, N.Y.

Woodfill Wars Greatest Hero Works To Meet Payments On Home © Underwood & Underwood, N.Y.