PACIFISM CONSTANT MENACE

National Preparedness Declared

Only Bulwark Against War

OLYMPIA, Wash., Oct. 6.—(To the Editor.)—Let me congratulate the Oregonian upon its recent editorial on "Back to Unpreparedness."

Never was a sounder article written for any newspaper. Unfortunately our failure to prepare against war time of peace has been much too long behind it.

In my propaganda for patriotism and preparedness (I am a life member of the National Security League) I have made constant use of the fact that the element and can well testify to its true character.

One type of pacifist, however, deserves respect. He is one who understands its failure in concrete cases. The same is true of a "non-resistance" pacifist.

In Washington from 1914 to 1918 the danger of our country was so flagrantly shown, as you have often pointed out. They illustrated a radical fault in our form of government.

Our greatest need as a nation is a reawakened sense of national and local commercial spirit. Better still, more of the former and less of the latter than we have heretofore had.

It is in the coming score or more of years there will be an enormous expansion of commerce outward from this continent.

When Ford, the father of Edsel, the slacker and draft dodger, at the call of President Wilson went into both the republican and democratic

AMERICAN FILES PROTEST

Innuendoes About Opponents of Education Bill Resented.

PORTLAND, Oct. 6.—(To the Editor.)—Please enter my protest against the insinuation of H. A. Jones that all the opponents of the proposed school measure are aliens and the like.

Those forefathers who fought so valiantly under Washington never knew a public school not under the control of the church.

It is still harder to understand why this same class consider that all they do and say is 100 per cent American, while at the primary election it was a crime and un-American for a democrat to vote for a republican.

Both these candidates have cant an insult upon the party that honored them with the nomination at the primary election.

At the time of the Spanish-American war, back in Minnesota, the Indians, knowing that most all soldiers in the army had the measles, the war department rushed a small detachment of recruits out there.

WHY CRITICISE JOHN BULL?

Anglo-Saxon Unity Will Solve Troubles, Says Writer.

PORTLAND, Or., Oct. 7.—(To the Editor.)—We in this country are very prone to criticize and condemn American parents as such should rise up in defense of his inalienable right.

What else could she do with the lukewarmness of this country so aptly shown in the Armenian case? It is not so much the fault of the people, for at heart we always have been for the same.

There is nothing in the bill at all that would prevent the parochial schools, Lutheran schools, St. Helen's Hall, the Greek army and other schools from continuing to exist.

With all nations furnishing their quotas for a police force under the United States flag, it is not surprising that some of our citizens should be so prejudiced.

EDUCATION BILL DEFENDED

Misrepresentation Campaign Is Declared in Progress.

PORTLAND, Oct. 6.—(To the Editor.)—The effect of the compulsory education bill, if passed, is being grossly misrepresented by some of the papers and in a mob spirit.

There is nothing in the bill at all that would prevent the parochial schools, Lutheran schools, St. Helen's Hall, the Greek army and other schools from continuing to exist.

PRIVATE SCHOOLS DEFENDED

Danger of Drifting Back to Dark Ages Feared by Writer.

PORTLAND, Oct. 7.—(To the Editor.)—Whether we are drifting? We read of a demand in some states for laws to control the teaching of the Bible in the public schools.

This proposed measure is hostile to the rights of every American citizen, and is not in accord with the constitutional guarantees of civil and religious liberty.

The state has a right to require all its citizens to receive a certain amount of education.

CLAN LEADERS REPUDIATED

Member Offers Fatherly Advice to Other Members.

PORTLAND, Oct. 6.—(To the Editor.)—KYG! In the Mlook, also Kotop! As one of the initiated, but one who is not willing to follow the lead of the clan leaders.

In the first place let me say that I joined the clan because I believed in the fundamental principles of good citizenship.

DEATH REPORTS DEMANDED

Correspondent Would Fix Responsibility of Physicians.

ASTORIA, Or., Oct. 6.—(To the Editor.)—The news item relative to the public coroner's attitude toward the public health is a startling and fearful condition in his failure to report deaths occurring in doctors' offices.

The question was asked a Portland doctor by the writer who went there to be operated upon.

The coroner's reason for shirking the doctor was "commercial," the doctor replied.
