

Societies

Esther Allen Jones The Daughter of Mrs. Allen B. Jones

Joyce Sidney Bell Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Bell

Betty Hayden Daughter of Mrs. Margaret Ayer Hayden

(Continued from First Page.)
 lowest: Mrs. H. C. Wortman, president; Mrs. Hugh Henry, first vice-president; Mrs. F. E. Smith, second vice-president; Mrs. William F. Fiedbig, third vice-president; Mrs. S. E. Stewart, secretary; Mrs. John D. Coleman, treasurer; Mrs. George H. Marsh, librarian.

The executive committee includes: Mesdames J. C. E. King, chairman, Edwin Caswell, A. C. Emmons, Frank Kerr and F. J. Raley.
 This class had its origin nearly 25 years ago when it was formed by a small group of women prominent in Portland. In its present enrollment there are 50 members. The class meets each Wednesday morning at the Museum of Art. Those who are interested or wish to join are invited to do so.

Mrs. Carrie Louise Dunning, who was expecting to return to Portland in October, will depart for England to spend October and November, returning to Portland for the holidays. While in England Mrs. Dunning will spend some time with her friends, Sir Arthur and Lady Steele Maitland at Sauchieburn.

The marriage of Emily Eastman Olin and Harold Dickson March Sunday night at the home of the bridegroom's cousin, Miss Ethel Grubbs of Irvington, came as a happy surprise to their many friends. Rev. Robert Aillingham of the Alameda Community Congregational church performed the ceremony.

The bride is from an old New England family, and is well known in Portland, having made her home here for several years. She is a member of the Matrimonial club, the Mazama, the Women's Advertising club, and a University of Oregon student.

The bridegroom is the nephew of Mrs. Seneca Smith, and was born in Portland. He is an architect, having graduated from the Oregon Agricultural college and the Boston Tech.

A brilliant social event of November 24 will be the wedding of Miss Jeanette Meier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Abe Meier, to Walter D. Heiler of San Francisco. The marriage will be solemnized at the home of the bride on Portland Heights.

Mrs. Helen Lee Cobett and Mrs. Theodore E. Wilcox were week-end visitors at the Columbia Gorge hotel.

An informal bridge party was given on Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. James C. Zan.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Maurice Dooley are now domiciled in their new residence on Portland Heights.

The many friends of Mrs. Thomas Kerr (Marian Smith), who recently underwent an operation, will be glad to know that she is convalescing at the Good Samaritan hospital.

Miss Jane Sellar and Miss Katherine Sell will be the inspiration for a dinner tomorrow night, when Miss Judith Jappit will entertain. Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Lowengart will honor their at a dinner party Wednesday night.

A throng of society folk will attend the concert of Miss Harriet Leach, when she will be presented at the auditorium on Thursday evening, October 12. The patronesses for this affair will include Governor and Mrs. Ben Olcott, Mayor and Mrs. George L. Baker, Mr. and Mrs. James D. Honeyman, Mr. and Mrs. William M. Ladd, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Colt, Mr. and Mrs. Warren E. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. David T. Honeyman, Mr. and Mrs. Don J. Bell, Dr. and Mrs. William House, Mr. and Mrs. M. Donald Spencer, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Branch Riley, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Bushong, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Jaeger, Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Linn, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Sewall, Mr. and Mrs. Irving Holman, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur C. Emmons, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Porter, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Tetu, Mr. and Mrs. Nat McDougall, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. O'Brien, Mr. and Mrs. Osa A. McKenna, Mrs. Rose Courson Reed, Mr. and Mrs. George H. Street, Mrs. R. B. Giltner, Mrs. May Dearburn Schwab, Mrs. Coleman Wheeler, Mrs. C. B. Simmons, Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Pler, Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Boyer, Mr. and Mrs. Walter E. Bliss, Dr.

Marjorie Anne McLynn Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Foster McLynn

Edward A. O'Neill Jr. Son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. O'Neill

and Mrs. Frank Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Davidson, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Purdum.

Miss Frances Castner was hostess on Friday evening at an informal shower complimenting Miss Florence Holmes. Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Lynn Davis honored Miss Holmes with a bridge party.

Mrs. C. S. Jackson has gone to Virginia to join her husband.

Miss Isabella Gaud has returned from a short visit in San Francisco.

Miss Helen Greig, popular bride-elect, was the motif for a prettily appointed tea Thursday afternoon. Given by Mrs. Elton Watkins. Seventy-five society maids and matrons called during the afternoon. At the tea table were Mrs. John Hoke Dickson and Mrs. Samuel Deak.

Miss Florence Holmes, popular bride-elect, will be the inspiration for an attractive tea this afternoon when Miss Adaline Kendall will entertain. Miss Carl D. Lewis of Seattle will preside at the tea table. She will be assisted by Miss Janet House, Miss Polly Kerr and Miss Helen Manning.

Friday night Mrs. Eugene Roockey gave an informal buffet supper in compliment to her husband, who will leave soon for an extended trip in the east. Dr. Roockey will attend the American Legion convention and will also be present at a number of medical meetings. Sixteen guests enjoyed the affair.

Mrs. Brockwell Statler is planning to entertain Monday night for Miss Florence Holmes, whose marriage to Walter Gerke will be solemnized October 17 in Trinity Episcopal church. Miss Holmes will have as her matron of honor her sister, Miss Mary Vincent Holmes; Kenneth Goodall will be best man and the ushers will be six cadet officers of Hill Military academy. A reception at Daniels hall will follow the ceremony.

The grill room of Hotel Portland, which has been closed the past month for elaborate re-decoration, will be opened the early part of the week, when the supper dances, which are such popular affairs with Portland society, will be resumed in that room. The walls have been done in soft shades of gray, while

We Emboss LETTER HEADS AND ENVELOPES
 From Engraved Steel Dies.
W. G. SMITH & CO.
 Wedding and Visiting Cards.
ENGRAVERS
 311 Morgan Building.

H. J. KREISS
 167 Park Street, Suite 5
 Entrance
 Bet. Morrison and Yamhill Sts.

Young's
 One-Thirty Tenth Street
 A Most Superb Collection of Wraps, Suits, Gowns and Dresses
IN THE LARGER SIZES
 reflecting in richness of fabric and exclusiveness of design the Highest Traditions of Costume ART.
 We Cordially Invite You to Visit Our Shop

DRESS TRIMMINGS
 Before you decide upon your Fall and Winter garments call and see our samples of EMBROIDERY—BEADING BRAIDING—PLEATING HEMSTITCHING—ETC.
Stephan's
 Third Floor Pittock Block Broadway 1699
SPECIAL OFFER
 In Advance Fall Styles Suits, Coats, Dresses from $35.00 up
J. K. STERN LADIES TAILOR
 447 Alder and 410 1/2 Washington

rich drapes and rugs of old rose, with rose-shaded lights, added to the exquisite architecture, make it one of the handsomest grill rooms of the Pacific northwest.

Mrs. Annette Ions Malboeuf of Chicago and Judge Arthur Langruth were married on Friday. Mrs. Malboeuf is the widow of the late Frederick A. Malboeuf, brother of C. A. Malboeuf. After a wedding trip to California they will reside in Rose City Park.

Mrs. William B. Streeter gave an informal dinner Monday night for Miss Holmes.

An event at Laurelhurst club will be the Japanese tea and card party next Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Bridge and 600 will be played. A feature of the tea-hour will be dances in costume by well-known little dancers, pupils of Alice Mac Brown, Anita Austin, Maxine Rankin and Eleanor Poorman, accompanied by a real Japanese artist, Yoni Shimomura. An atmosphere of things Japanese will pervade the clubhouse. Decorations amid soft lights will make the afternoon enjoyable. It is hoped, for the many friends of the club, to whom an invitation is extended.

Miss Helen Haller, whose wedding will be a smart event of this week, was the inspiration for an attractive bridge party Tuesday, when Mrs. Wilbur Pelton held entertained at her home, Reid bungalow. Guests were invited to make up four tables of bridge and an additional called for tea.

The Waverley Country club will be the scene of a Halloween party Saturday evening, October 28. Attractive decorations will be used, and many dinners and no-host parties will be given.

The marriage of Miss Eleanor Ewing and Ralph L. Sharkey was solemnized yesterday at noon at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Roland Ewing, in Irvington. Father Kinney officiated. Only a few relatives and friends were present. A wedding breakfast followed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Sharkey left for a short wedding trip. They will be at home to their friends after the first of the month. Mrs. M. W. Rosencrans sang preceding the ceremony and Mrs. Richard Shepard played the wedding march.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Brower will leave soon for a three month's tour of the orient. They will sail from Seattle on the steamer President Madison. They have had as their house guests Mrs. Arthur L. Harris and Mrs. E. A. Brower, who will remain in Portland until their departure.

Mrs. Abe Tichener entertained Tuesday with a beautifully appointed luncheon.

Miss Jessie M. Beckwith and Lyle F. Brown were married Saturday at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Beckwith, in Irvington, in the presence of the immediate families. Dr. E. H. Pence performed the ceremony.

The bride was attired in a tailored suit of navy blue, tricolored, and a large black velvet hat. A corsage of orchids completed her costume. She was attended by her sister, Mrs. H. F. Chapin, and J. A. Beckwith acted as best man. A wedding breakfast followed the service. Mrs. Brown is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Brown. He is a graduate of the University of Oregon and Harvard university. The wedding comes as a surprise to their many friends. After a short wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Brown will be at home at No. 7 St. Helens courts, on Portland Heights.

Yesterday afternoon the American Association of University Women (collegiate alumnae) enjoyed a luncheon at the Multnomah hotel. An especially interesting feature of the affair was the presence of 11 of the ex-presidents of this association. Dr. Edward G. Elson of Reed college addressed the assembly on "Education and Citizenship." The guests included: Mrs. Robert Donald, Mrs. Ralph Wilbur, Mrs. George H. Marsh, Mrs. J. C. Elliott King, Mrs. James H. Kerr, Mrs. William Finley, Mrs. E. T. Targert, Miss Emma Oribel, Mrs. Forrest Fisher, Mrs. William Henry Thomas and Mrs. Norman Coleman.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Miller was the scene of a charming wedding last Saturday evening when Miss Mildred Miller became the bride of Fred Mathies, Dr. Parker reading the marriage vows. Preceding the ceremony Miss Eileen Yeres sang "At Dawning."

The bride was attired in a gown of brocaded satin, trimmed with panels of real lace. Her veil was held in place with a coronet of real

The End of the Trail

There's a wealth of satisfaction in finding "just exactly what you want" and finding it at the price you wish to pay, or maybe a wee bit less, isn't there?

We take much pride in the fact that so many, many women say, every day: "That's exactly what I wanted, and I'm happy to find it so quickly."

We've every reason to be proud of the New Things for Fall which our buyers have assembled for you.

Luxuriously Styled— Attractively Priced—

Coats & Wraps

$59.50

While many of them are trimmed with fur, a goodly number depend entirely on the unusualness of design and the richness of their material for individuality and charm.

Normandies—Suedine Velours—Navy—Brown—Reindeer await your approval and selection.

Slip-On Sweaters for every woman who wants one, and that means almost every woman who has not already one or two. Many are of Fine Mohairs

Tan—Jade Gold—Brown Sand—Black

Many have colorful bandings or designs. $2.75 to $11.50

Women of Larger Proportions will find their wishes easily filled here, for we specialize in Gowns Wraps Suits Blouses Petticoats Hosiery in extra sizes.

Eastern Outfitting Co.
 Washington at Tenth

Just received HOSIERY
 Wools Silk Fibers to sell for $1—3 prs. $2.75
 Big values! All colors

Buy the new things you want most now, and arrange to pay for them at your convenience, if you wish.