

SOCIETY

Mrs. Hugh A. Jarkis, Coquise Wedding Was A Large Event.

lace and she carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses. She was attended by Mrs. Gillis Kellner, who wore a gown of rose lace over Georgette crepe and carried Ophelia roses.

reception followed the ceremony. Receiving with the bride couple were the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Miller. Presiding in the dining room were Mrs. Alden Graham and Miss Nell Lambert. Assisting in serving were Mrs. Ernest Richison, Mrs. Clarence Wright, Miss Gretchen Colton, Miss Jean Woodward and Miss Beatrice Lewton. Mr. and Mrs. Mathis will be at home to their friends at the Malcolm apartments after a motor trip to the beaches.

Fred Kirach was host on Tuesday night at a dinner and bridge party at his Irvington home in honor of William E. Hampton of Los Angeles. Those invited were: William M. Kapus, Robert W. Neighbor, Stanley C. E. Smith, Charles L. Boss, Ralph L. Brackett, Charles T. Whitney, Fred Crowther, J. Roy Ellison, William C. McBride, Charles E. Cochran and William E. Hampton.

Miss Lois Cowgill became the bride of Anthony Jaureguy Wednesday evening at a beautiful wedding in St. David's Episcopal church. Rev. E. Bowen officiated and preceding the ceremony Miss Gertrude Young sang "Oh, Perfect Love." Nicholas Jaureguy acted as best man. The altar was banked with Easter lilies, and the church was decorated in autumn flowers. The bride's gown was of ivory crepe satin, elaborated with tiny French roses. She wore a necklace of pearls and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses.

Mrs. Dean Vincent, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a creation of taffeta adorned with crystal trimmings. Silver leaves were worn on her hair, and her costume was completed with silver slippers. She carried Ophelia roses.

The bride-maids were Miss Estelle Jaureguy, Miss M. K. Wood and Miss Eunice Cowgill. Their frocks were of changeable taffeta in pastel shades and their flowers fashioned bouquets in corresponding colors.

Nancy Hunt and June Porter were the flower girls. They wore white taffeta and carried baskets of flowers. David Logren was the ring-bearer.

The ushers were Alexander Brown, Earl Gardner, Dean Vincent and Stephen Mathieu.

Mrs. Jaureguy is a graduate of the Oregon normal by Mrs. W. F. Jaureguy was graduated from the University of Oregon and Harvard university. He is an Alpha Kappa Phi fraternity man.

Twelve guests were entertained at luncheon Wednesday by Mrs. John C. Boyer at the Mallory hotel.

Mrs. Etna Ransom has gone to California to pass several months.

Mrs. Cyril D. Brownell has returned from a visit to Seattle.

Mr. and Mrs. James Lemon entertained a group of friends at the Hotel Portland Saturday night supper-dance.

Next Friday evening the Irvington club will give its first formal dance. Mrs. Edwina Robison has charge of the social committee, and will act as hostess. She will be assisted by Mrs. Sidney Raamussen, Mrs. Elmer Maxon and Mrs. William S. Nash. The second dance of the season is planned for October 25.

Mrs. George Brandenburg entertained at a bridge luncheon Wednesday, honors going to Mrs. W. F. McKenney, Mrs. James Neace and Mrs. F. J. Curran. Other guests were: Mrs. Nelson Gay, Mrs. E. L. Dimmitt, Mrs. R. Tauscher and Mrs. R. Nichols.

Portland members of Mu Phi Epsilon, national musical society, were entertained Monday night at the home of Mrs. E. H. Barendrick. A musical programme of unusual enjoyment was given in the solo and ensemble work of Mrs. Barendrick, voice; Miss Helen Harper, vi-

Miss Isabelle Jercd Whose Engagement Has Been Announced.

Mrs. Theodore Langton a Recent Bride.

ohn, and Mrs. Ross Giger, piano. Special welcome was given Mrs. Chester Greer, a recent arrival in Portland. Others present were Mrs. V. L. O. Chittick, Mrs. Frank Caruth, Mrs. Broderick O'Farrell, Miss Edna Messinger, Mrs. Harold Willard Turner, Miss Ethel Brown and Miss Dorothy Bennett.

A pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. D. George, 829 East Stark street, Saturday night, September 30, when their niece, Miss Gladys W. Harrington, became the bride of William C. Davey. Only relatives of the family were present.

After the ceremony refreshments were served in the dining room, which was decorated with roses and autumn flowers. The bride, who is a charming brunette, formerly resided at Watertown, Dakota, where Mr. Davey also resided. The young couple will make their home in Portland.

Mrs. S. K. Willett, who recently returned from Salt Lake City, entertained a number of friends with a "500" party Wednesday night at her home, Waverleigh Heights. Guests were the Mesdames F. Metcarn, K. Kitts, E. L. Dimmitt, E. T. Lewis, James Neace, George Brandenburg, R. Nichols, E. S. Shaw, Hugh Knipe, R. Tauscher, F. E. LaPoint and Nelson Gay. Honors were won by Mrs. Dimmitt, Mrs. Brandenburg and Mrs. Kitts.

Mrs. E. L. Dimmitt was hostess to a luncheon at her home in Rose City Park Friday. Covers were laid for Mrs. S. K. Willett, Mrs. W. F. McKenney, Mrs. R. Tauscher, Mrs. R. E. Shaw, Mrs. James Neace and Mrs. R. Nichols. Cards were the diversion of the afternoon. Prize-winners were Mrs. Willett, Mrs. Shaw and Mrs. Neace.

An enjoyable party was given in honor of Mrs. Nina G. Connor at her home on Portland Heights, the occasion being her 52d birthday. About 30 guests attended. They were: Mesdames M. E. Jones, A. Karnopp, B. Earl Parker, J. H. James, C. D. Ninton, H. B. Miller, J. L. Karnopp, G. C. Osborn, S. El. Wolcott, E. T. Johnson, A. G. Atwood, E. A. Young, E. T. Mulquin, J. L. Bryan, A. M. Linn, L. M.

Mrs. C. S. Loveland, formerly of this city but now of Los Angeles, is being welcomed by her many friends during a visit here, Tuesday. Mrs. Otto Klein was hostess at a luncheon and a theater party complementing Mrs. Loveland.

The Misses Virginia Peck, Helene Oates and Thelma Sandstrom will be hostesses at a large Halloween party to be given at Laurelhurst club house October 23.

Honoring the birthday anniversary of their daughter, Edith Anderson, Mrs. J. W. Wilkins, F. W. Tallmadge, James D. Ogden, J. E. Hamilton, A. N. Fisher, J. M. Andrus, Walter Bowles, E. Witter, James Mackenzie, Clyde Hannawalt, J. J.

Mrs. D. L. Rich entertained Thursday with a smart luncheon in her attractive Laurelhurst home, honoring her sister, Mrs. N. Giles, who is leaving for a visit to California, and Mrs. C. Mooney, who has just returned from a visit to Denver, Colo. The decorations were in a riot of autumn colorings.

Covers were laid for Mesdames C. Mooney, N. Giles, N. U. Carpenter, J. P. Morrell, W. A. Mullen, Frank Hodson, Clifford Rogers, C. Orde-man, Perry Abbott, J. Morrell Jr., Arthur Brocha, Hugh Platt, Harold Rogers, W. McEachren, L. E. Tidball, V. Guthrie, Charles E. Bradin and the hostess.

Mrs. William E. Driscoll (Libera Green) an Attractive Bride.

Mrs. William E. Driscoll (Libera Green) an Attractive Bride.

erson Force, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Anderson, gave a surprise luncheon at their home, 695 East Forty-sixth street, Tuesday. Covers were laid for eight.

Mrs. D. L. Rich entertained Thursday with a smart luncheon in her attractive Laurelhurst home, honoring her sister, Mrs. N. Giles, who is leaving for a visit to California, and Mrs. C. Mooney, who has just returned from a visit to Denver, Colo. The decorations were in a riot of autumn colorings.

Covers were laid for Mesdames C. Mooney, N. Giles, N. U. Carpenter, J. P. Morrell, W. A. Mullen, Frank Hodson, Clifford Rogers, C. Orde-man, Perry Abbott, J. Morrell Jr., Arthur Brocha, Hugh Platt, Harold Rogers, W. McEachren, L. E. Tidball, V. Guthrie, Charles E. Bradin and the hostess.

Formal announcement of the engagement of Miss Maurine Ballard to Walter G. Elliott, formerly of Indianapolis, Ind., was made by Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Ballard at a supper party given at their home on East Thirtieth street Wednesday evening. The table was decorated in shades of yellow. Covers were laid for Mrs. Paul Fleming, Mrs. Richard Howell, Mrs. Robert Smith and the Misses Mildred Howard, Isabelle MacQueen, Margaret Givlen, Lu Desza Richmond, Fern Hall, Ruby Lloyd, Esther Thompson and Helen and Maurine Ballard.

No definite date has been set for the wedding, but it will probably take place in the near future.

The Thursday night card party for members at Laurelhurst club will meet with Mr. and Mrs. George Welles as hosts.

An enjoyable party was given in honor of Mrs. Nina G. Connor at her home on Portland Heights, the occasion being her 52d birthday. About 30 guests attended. They were: Mesdames M. E. Jones, A. Karnopp, B. Earl Parker, J. H. James, C. D. Ninton, H. B. Miller, J. L. Karnopp, G. C. Osborn, S. El. Wolcott, E. T. Johnson, A. G. Atwood, E. A. Young, E. T. Mulquin, J. L. Bryan, A. M. Linn, L. M.

Mrs. C. S. Loveland, formerly of this city but now of Los Angeles, is being welcomed by her many friends during a visit here, Tuesday. Mrs. Otto Klein was hostess at a luncheon and a theater party complementing Mrs. Loveland.

The Misses Virginia Peck, Helene Oates and Thelma Sandstrom will be hostesses at a large Halloween party to be given at Laurelhurst club house October 23.

Honoring the birthday anniversary of their daughter, Edith Anderson, Mrs. J. W. Wilkins, F. W. Tallmadge, James D. Ogden, J. E. Hamilton, A. N. Fisher, J. M. Andrus, Walter Bowles, E. Witter, James Mackenzie, Clyde Hannawalt, J. J.

Mrs. D. L. Rich entertained Thursday with a smart luncheon in her attractive Laurelhurst home, honoring her sister, Mrs. N. Giles, who is leaving for a visit to California, and Mrs. C. Mooney, who has just returned from a visit to Denver, Colo. The decorations were in a riot of autumn colorings.

Covers were laid for Mesdames C. Mooney, N. Giles, N. U. Carpenter, J. P. Morrell, W. A. Mullen, Frank Hodson, Clifford Rogers, C. Orde-man, Perry Abbott, J. Morrell Jr., Arthur Brocha, Hugh Platt, Harold Rogers, W. McEachren, L. E. Tidball, V. Guthrie, Charles E. Bradin and the hostess.

Formal announcement of the engagement of Miss Maurine Ballard to Walter G. Elliott, formerly of Indianapolis, Ind., was made by Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Ballard at a supper party given at their home on East Thirtieth street Wednesday evening. The table was decorated in shades of yellow. Covers were laid for Mrs. Paul Fleming, Mrs. Richard Howell, Mrs. Robert Smith and the Misses Mildred Howard, Isabelle MacQueen, Margaret Givlen, Lu Desza Richmond, Fern Hall, Ruby Lloyd, Esther Thompson and Helen and Maurine Ballard.

No definite date has been set for the wedding, but it will probably take place in the near future.

The Thursday night card party for members at Laurelhurst club will meet with Mr. and Mrs. George Welles as hosts.

An enjoyable party was given in honor of Mrs. Nina G. Connor at her home on Portland Heights, the occasion being her 52d birthday. About 30 guests attended. They were: Mesdames M. E. Jones, A. Karnopp, B. Earl Parker, J. H. James, C. D. Ninton, H. B. Miller, J. L. Karnopp, G. C. Osborn, S. El. Wolcott, E. T. Johnson, A. G. Atwood, E. A. Young, E. T. Mulquin, J. L. Bryan, A. M. Linn, L. M.

Mrs. C. S. Loveland, formerly of this city but now of Los Angeles, is being welcomed by her many friends during a visit here, Tuesday. Mrs. Otto Klein was hostess at a luncheon and a theater party complementing Mrs. Loveland.

The Misses Virginia Peck, Helene Oates and Thelma Sandstrom will be hostesses at a large Halloween party to be given at Laurelhurst club house October 23.

Mrs. William E. Driscoll (Libera Green) an Attractive Bride.

Mrs. William E. Driscoll (Libera Green) an Attractive Bride.

erson Force, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Anderson, gave a surprise luncheon at their home, 695 East Forty-sixth street, Tuesday. Covers were laid for eight.

Mrs. D. L. Rich entertained Thursday with a smart luncheon in her attractive Laurelhurst home, honoring her sister, Mrs. N. Giles, who is leaving for a visit to California, and Mrs. C. Mooney, who has just returned from a visit to Denver, Colo. The decorations were in a riot of autumn colorings.

Covers were laid for Mesdames C. Mooney, N. Giles, N. U. Carpenter, J. P. Morrell, W. A. Mullen, Frank Hodson, Clifford Rogers, C. Orde-man, Perry Abbott, J. Morrell Jr., Arthur Brocha, Hugh Platt, Harold Rogers, W. McEachren, L. E. Tidball, V. Guthrie, Charles E. Bradin and the hostess.

Formal announcement of the engagement of Miss Maurine Ballard to Walter G. Elliott, formerly of Indianapolis, Ind., was made by Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Ballard at a supper party given at their home on East Thirtieth street Wednesday evening. The table was decorated in shades of yellow. Covers were laid for Mrs. Paul Fleming, Mrs. Richard Howell, Mrs. Robert Smith and the Misses Mildred Howard, Isabelle MacQueen, Margaret Givlen, Lu Desza Richmond, Fern Hall, Ruby Lloyd, Esther Thompson and Helen and Maurine Ballard.

No definite date has been set for the wedding, but it will probably take place in the near future.

The Thursday night card party for members at Laurelhurst club will meet with Mr. and Mrs. George Welles as hosts.

An enjoyable party was given in honor of Mrs. Nina G. Connor at her home on Portland Heights, the occasion being her 52d birthday. About 30 guests attended. They were: Mesdames M. E. Jones, A. Karnopp, B. Earl Parker, J. H. James, C. D. Ninton, H. B. Miller, J. L. Karnopp, G. C. Osborn, S. El. Wolcott, E. T. Johnson, A. G. Atwood, E. A. Young, E. T. Mulquin, J. L. Bryan, A. M. Linn, L. M.

Mrs. C. S. Loveland, formerly of this city but now of Los Angeles, is being welcomed by her many friends during a visit here, Tuesday. Mrs. Otto Klein was hostess at a luncheon and a theater party complementing Mrs. Loveland.

The Misses Virginia Peck, Helene Oates and Thelma Sandstrom will be hostesses at a large Halloween party to be given at Laurelhurst club house October 23.

Honoring the birthday anniversary of their daughter, Edith Anderson, Mrs. J. W. Wilkins, F. W. Tallmadge, James D. Ogden, J. E. Hamilton, A. N. Fisher, J. M. Andrus, Walter Bowles, E. Witter, James Mackenzie, Clyde Hannawalt, J. J.

Mrs. D. L. Rich entertained Thursday with a smart luncheon in her attractive Laurelhurst home, honoring her sister, Mrs. N. Giles, who is leaving for a visit to California, and Mrs. C. Mooney, who has just returned from a visit to Denver, Colo. The decorations were in a riot of autumn colorings.

Covers were laid for Mesdames C. Mooney, N. Giles, N. U. Carpenter, J. P. Morrell, W. A. Mullen, Frank Hodson, Clifford Rogers, C. Orde-man, Perry Abbott, J. Morrell Jr., Arthur Brocha, Hugh Platt, Harold Rogers, W. McEachren, L. E. Tidball, V. Guthrie, Charles E. Bradin and the hostess.

Formal announcement of the engagement of Miss Maurine Ballard to Walter G. Elliott, formerly of Indianapolis, Ind., was made by Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Ballard at a supper party given at their home on East Thirtieth street Wednesday evening. The table was decorated in shades of yellow. Covers were laid for Mrs. Paul Fleming, Mrs. Richard Howell, Mrs. Robert Smith and the Misses Mildred Howard, Isabelle MacQueen, Margaret Givlen, Lu Desza Richmond, Fern Hall, Ruby Lloyd, Esther Thompson and Helen and Maurine Ballard.

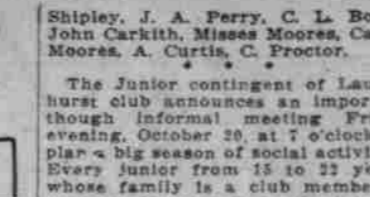

No definite date has been set for the wedding, but it will probably take place in the near future.

The Thursday night card party for members at Laurelhurst club will meet with Mr. and Mrs. George Welles as hosts.

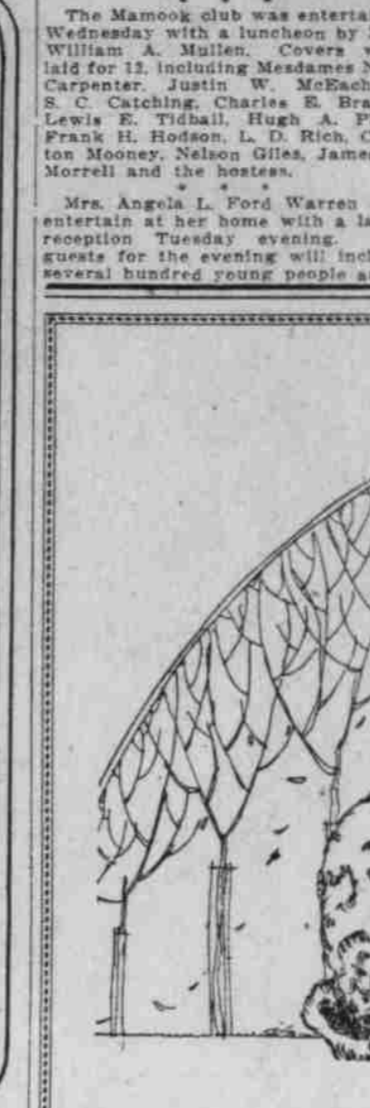

An enjoyable party was given in honor of Mrs. Nina G. Connor at her home on Portland Heights, the occasion being her 52d birthday. About 30 guests attended. They were: Mesdames M. E. Jones, A. Karnopp, B. Earl Parker, J. H. James, C. D. Ninton, H. B. Miller, J. L. Karnopp, G. C. Osborn, S. El. Wolcott, E. T. Johnson, A. G. Atwood, E. A. Young, E. T. Mulquin, J. L. Bryan, A. M. Linn, L. M.

Mrs. C. S. Loveland, formerly of this city but now of Los Angeles, is being welcomed by her many friends during a visit here, Tuesday. Mrs. Otto Klein was hostess at a luncheon and a theater party complementing Mrs. Loveland.

The Misses Virginia Peck, Helene Oates and Thelma Sandstrom will be hostesses at a large Halloween party to be given at Laurelhurst club house October 23.

Mrs. William E. Driscoll (Libera Green) an Attractive Bride.

Mrs. William E. Driscoll (Libera Green) an Attractive Bride.

erson Force, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Anderson, gave a surprise luncheon at their home, 695 East Forty-sixth street, Tuesday. Covers were laid for eight.

Mrs. D. L. Rich entertained Thursday with a smart luncheon in her attractive Laurelhurst home, honoring her sister, Mrs. N. Giles, who is leaving for a visit to California, and Mrs. C. Mooney, who has just returned from a visit to Denver, Colo. The decorations were in a riot of autumn colorings.

Covers were laid for Mesdames C. Mooney, N. Giles, N. U. Carpenter, J. P. Morrell, W. A. Mullen, Frank Hodson, Clifford Rogers, C. Orde-man, Perry Abbott, J. Morrell Jr., Arthur Brocha, Hugh Platt, Harold Rogers, W. McEachren, L. E. Tidball, V. Guthrie, Charles E. Bradin and the hostess.

Formal announcement of the engagement of Miss Maurine Ballard to Walter G. Elliott, formerly of Indianapolis, Ind., was made by Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Ballard at a supper party given at their home on East Thirtieth street Wednesday evening. The table was decorated in shades of yellow. Covers were laid for Mrs. Paul Fleming, Mrs. Richard Howell, Mrs. Robert Smith and the Misses Mildred Howard, Isabelle MacQueen, Margaret Givlen, Lu Desza Richmond, Fern Hall, Ruby Lloyd, Esther Thompson and Helen and Maurine Ballard.

No definite date has been set for the wedding, but it will probably take place in the near future.

The Thursday night card party for members at Laurelhurst club will meet with Mr. and Mrs. George Welles as hosts.

An enjoyable party was given in honor of Mrs. Nina G. Connor at her home on Portland Heights, the occasion being her 52d birthday. About 30 guests attended. They were: Mesdames M. E. Jones, A. Karnopp, B. Earl Parker, J. H. James, C. D. Ninton, H. B. Miller, J. L. Karnopp, G. C. Osborn, S. El. Wolcott, E. T. Johnson, A. G. Atwood, E. A. Young, E. T. Mulquin, J. L. Bryan, A. M. Linn, L. M.

Mrs. C. S. Loveland, formerly of this city but now of Los Angeles, is being welcomed by her many friends during a visit here, Tuesday. Mrs. Otto Klein was hostess at a luncheon and a theater party complementing Mrs. Loveland.

The Misses Virginia Peck, Helene Oates and Thelma Sandstrom will be hostesses at a large Halloween party to be given at Laurelhurst club house October 23.

Honoring the birthday anniversary of their daughter, Edith Anderson, Mrs. J. W. Wilkins, F. W. Tallmadge, James D. Ogden, J. E. Hamilton, A. N. Fisher, J. M. Andrus, Walter Bowles, E. Witter, James Mackenzie, Clyde Hannawalt, J. J.

Mrs. D. L. Rich entertained Thursday with a smart luncheon in her attractive Laurelhurst home, honoring her sister, Mrs. N. Giles, who is leaving for a visit to California, and Mrs. C. Mooney, who has just returned from a visit to Denver, Colo. The decorations were in a riot of autumn colorings.

Covers were laid for Mesdames C. Mooney, N. Giles, N. U. Carpenter, J. P. Morrell, W. A. Mullen, Frank Hodson, Clifford Rogers, C. Orde-man, Perry Abbott, J. Morrell Jr., Arthur Brocha, Hugh Platt, Harold Rogers, W. McEachren, L. E. Tidball, V. Guthrie, Charles E. Bradin and the hostess.

Formal announcement of the engagement of Miss Maurine Ballard to Walter G. Elliott, formerly of Indianapolis, Ind., was made by Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Ballard at a supper party given at their home on East Thirtieth street Wednesday evening. The table was decorated in shades of yellow. Covers were laid for Mrs. Paul Fleming, Mrs. Richard Howell, Mrs. Robert Smith and the Misses Mildred Howard, Isabelle MacQueen, Margaret Givlen, Lu Desza Richmond, Fern Hall, Ruby Lloyd, Esther Thompson and Helen and Maurine Ballard.

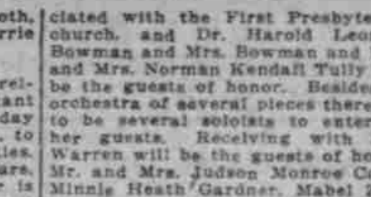

No definite date has been set for the wedding, but it will probably take place in the near future.

The Thursday night card party for members at Laurelhurst club will meet with Mr. and Mrs. George Welles as hosts.

An enjoyable party was given in honor of Mrs. Nina G. Connor at her home on Portland Heights, the occasion being her 52d birthday. About 30 guests attended. They were: Mesdames M. E. Jones, A. Karnopp, B. Earl Parker, J. H. James, C. D. Ninton, H. B. Miller, J. L. Karnopp, G. C. Osborn, S. El. Wolcott, E. T. Johnson, A. G. Atwood, E. A. Young, E. T. Mulquin, J. L. Bryan, A. M. Linn, L. M.

Mrs. C. S. Loveland, formerly of this city but now of Los Angeles, is being welcomed by her many friends during a visit here, Tuesday. Mrs. Otto Klein was hostess at a luncheon and a theater party complementing Mrs. Loveland.

The Misses Virginia Peck, Helene Oates and Thelma Sandstrom will be hostesses at a large Halloween party to be given at Laurelhurst club house October 23.

Mrs. William E. Driscoll (Libera Green) an Attractive Bride.

Mrs. William E. Driscoll (Libera Green) an Attractive Bride.

erson Force, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Anderson, gave a surprise luncheon at their home, 695 East Forty-sixth street, Tuesday. Covers were laid for eight.

Mrs. D. L. Rich entertained Thursday with a smart luncheon in her attractive Laurelhurst home, honoring her sister, Mrs. N. Giles, who is leaving for a visit to California, and Mrs. C. Mooney, who has just returned from a visit to Denver, Colo. The decorations were in a riot of autumn colorings.

Covers were laid for Mesdames C. Mooney, N. Giles, N. U. Carpenter, J. P. Morrell, W. A. Mullen, Frank Hodson, Clifford Rogers, C. Orde-man, Perry Abbott, J. Morrell Jr., Arthur Brocha, Hugh Platt, Harold Rogers, W. McEachren, L. E. Tidball, V. Guthrie, Charles E. Bradin and the hostess.

Formal announcement of the engagement of Miss Maurine Ballard to Walter G. Elliott, formerly of Indianapolis, Ind., was made by Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Ballard at a supper party given at their home on East Thirtieth street Wednesday evening. The table was decorated in shades of yellow. Covers were laid for Mrs. Paul Fleming, Mrs. Richard Howell, Mrs. Robert Smith and the Misses Mildred Howard, Isabelle MacQueen, Margaret Givlen, Lu Desza Richmond, Fern Hall, Ruby Lloyd, Esther Thompson and Helen and Maurine Ballard.

No definite date has been set for the wedding, but it will probably take place in the near future.

The Thursday night card party for members at Laurelhurst club will meet with Mr. and Mrs. George Welles as hosts.

An enjoyable party was given in honor of Mrs. Nina G. Connor at her home on Portland Heights, the occasion being her 52d birthday. About 30 guests attended. They were: Mesdames M. E. Jones, A. Karnopp, B. Earl Parker, J. H. James, C. D. Ninton, H. B. Miller, J. L. Karnopp, G. C. Osborn, S. El. Wolcott, E. T. Johnson, A. G. Atwood, E. A. Young, E. T. Mulquin, J. L. Bryan, A. M. Linn, L. M.

Mrs. C. S. Loveland, formerly of this city but now of Los Angeles, is being welcomed by her many friends during a visit here, Tuesday. Mrs. Otto Klein was hostess at a luncheon and a theater party complementing Mrs. Loveland.

The Misses Virginia Peck, Helene Oates and Thelma Sandstrom will be hostesses at a large Halloween party to be given at Laurelhurst club house October 23.

Honoring the birthday anniversary of their daughter, Edith Anderson, Mrs. J. W. Wilkins, F. W. Tallmadge, James D. Ogden, J. E. Hamilton, A. N. Fisher, J. M. Andrus, Walter Bowles, E. Witter, James Mackenzie, Clyde Hannawalt, J. J.

Mrs. D. L. Rich entertained Thursday with a smart luncheon in her attractive Laurelhurst home, honoring her sister, Mrs. N. Giles, who is leaving for a visit to California, and Mrs. C. Mooney, who has just returned from a visit to Denver, Colo. The decorations were in a riot of autumn colorings.

Covers were laid for Mesdames C. Mooney, N. Giles, N. U. Carpenter, J. P. Morrell, W. A. Mullen, Frank Hodson, Clifford Rogers, C. Orde-man, Perry Abbott, J. Morrell Jr., Arthur Brocha, Hugh Platt, Harold Rogers, W. McEachren, L. E. Tidball, V. Guthrie, Charles E. Bradin and the hostess.

Formal announcement of the engagement of Miss Maurine Ballard to Walter G. Elliott, formerly of Indianapolis, Ind., was made by Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Ballard at a supper party given at their home on East Thirtieth street Wednesday evening. The table was decorated in shades of yellow. Covers were laid for Mrs. Paul Fleming, Mrs. Richard Howell, Mrs. Robert Smith and the Misses Mildred Howard, Isabelle MacQueen, Margaret Givlen, Lu Desza Richmond, Fern Hall, Ruby Lloyd, Esther Thompson and Helen and Maurine Ballard.

No definite date has been set for the wedding, but it will probably take place in the near future.

The Thursday night card party for members at Laurelhurst club will meet with Mr. and Mrs. George Welles as hosts.

An enjoyable party was given in honor of Mrs. Nina G. Connor at her home on Portland Heights, the occasion being her 52d birthday. About 30 guests attended. They were: Mesdames M. E. Jones, A. Karnopp, B. Earl Parker, J. H. James, C. D. Ninton, H. B. Miller, J. L. Karnopp, G. C. Osborn, S. El. Wolcott, E. T. Johnson, A. G. Atwood, E. A. Young, E. T. Mulquin, J. L. Bryan, A. M. Linn, L. M.

Mrs. C. S. Loveland, formerly of this city but now of Los Angeles, is being welcomed by her many friends during a visit here, Tuesday. Mrs. Otto Klein was hostess at a luncheon and a theater party complementing Mrs. Loveland.

The Misses Virginia Peck, Helene Oates and Thelma Sandstrom will be hostesses at a large Halloween party to be given at Laurelhurst club house October 23.

Mrs. William E. Driscoll (Libera Green) an Attractive Bride.

Mrs. William E. Driscoll (Libera Green) an Attractive Bride.

erson Force, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Anderson, gave a surprise luncheon at their home, 695 East Forty-sixth street, Tuesday. Covers were laid for eight.

Mrs. D. L. Rich entertained Thursday with a smart luncheon in her attractive Laurelhurst home, honoring her sister, Mrs. N. Giles, who is leaving for a visit to California, and Mrs. C. Mooney, who has just returned from a visit to Denver, Colo. The decorations were in a riot of autumn colorings.

Covers were laid for Mesdames C. Mooney, N. Giles, N. U. Carpenter, J. P. Morrell, W. A. Mullen, Frank Hodson, Clifford Rogers, C. Orde-man, Perry Abbott, J. Morrell Jr., Arthur Brocha, Hugh Platt, Harold Rogers, W. McEachren, L. E. Tidball, V. Guthrie, Charles E. Bradin and the hostess.

Formal announcement of the engagement of Miss Maurine Ballard to Walter G. Elliott, formerly of Indianapolis, Ind., was made by Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Ballard at a supper party given at their home on East Thirtieth street Wednesday evening. The table was decorated in shades of yellow. Covers were laid for Mrs. Paul Fleming, Mrs. Richard Howell, Mrs. Robert Smith and the Misses Mildred Howard, Isabelle MacQueen, Margaret Givlen, Lu Desza Richmond, Fern Hall, Ruby Lloyd, Esther Thompson and Helen and Maurine Ballard.

No definite date has been set for the wedding, but it will probably take place in the near future.

The Thursday night card party for members at Laurelhurst club will meet with Mr. and Mrs. George Welles as hosts.

An enjoyable party was given in honor of Mrs. Nina G. Connor at her home on Portland Heights, the occasion being her 52d birthday. About 30 guests attended. They were: Mesdames M. E. Jones, A. Karnopp, B. Earl Parker, J. H. James, C. D. Ninton, H. B. Miller, J. L. Karnopp, G. C. Osborn, S. El. Wolcott, E. T. Johnson, A. G. Atwood, E. A. Young, E. T. Mulquin, J. L. Bryan, A. M. Linn, L. M.

Mrs. C. S. Loveland, formerly of this city but now of Los Angeles, is being welcomed by her many friends during a visit here, Tuesday. Mrs. Otto Klein was hostess at a luncheon and a theater party complementing Mrs. Loveland.

The Misses Virginia Peck, Helene Oates and Thelma Sandstrom will be hostesses at a large Halloween party to be given at Laurelhurst club house October 23.

Honoring the birthday anniversary of their daughter, Edith Anderson, Mrs. J. W. Wilkins, F. W. Tallmadge, James D. Ogden, J. E. Hamilton, A. N. Fisher, J. M. Andrus, Walter Bowles, E. Witter, James Mackenzie, Clyde Hannawalt, J. J.

Mrs. D. L. Rich entertained Thursday