

RADIO PROGRAMME FOR WEEK IS GOOD

Andy Gump Speaks to Fans Wednesday Night.

3 CONCERTS ARRANGED

Dance Music Friday to Finish Work of Old Broadcasting Station Here.

FINE RADIO PROGRAMMES ARRANGED FOR WEEK.

Monday night, 7:30 to 8:30—Miss Phyllis Wolfe, soprano; Miss Dorothy Davis, soprano; Miss Mary Bullock, pianist; Miss Alice Johnson, soprano; Mrs. Arthur Osborne, contralto; George Snyder, basso, and R. T. Laveré, tenor.

Wednesday night, 8 to 9—Andy Gump, candidate for congress, in campaign speech; W. S. Robertson, baritone; George Baldwin, soprano; Mrs. Alvina E. Knowlton, pianist, and Miss Inez M. Chambers, violinist.

Friday night, 8 to 9—Last concert from old station; George Olsen and his orchestra from the Portland hotel.

Andy Gump, delivering a campaign speech, will be the big feature of the last week of broadcasting from The Oregonian tower before the old station is dismantled and installation of the new one begins. Andy will make his only public appearance in the radio broadcasting room of The Oregonian building, and will speak on the planks in his platform to the radio audience for about five minutes.

The concert next Friday night will be the last to be broadcast through the apparatus which has been in use since last spring, when The Oregonian started its radio service. No further entertainment will be given until the installation of the super-broadcasting Western Electric station purchased by The Oregonian is completed early in November and the system of entertainment entirely reorganized.

Three fine concerts have been arranged for the last week and they will be broadcast on Monday, Wednesday and Friday nights at the usual hours.

The concert for tomorrow night has been arranged by Miss Phyllis Wolfe, soprano and vocal teacher, who will introduce Miss Dorothy Davis, 16-year-old soprano, who won the prize at Miss Wolfe's contest for the most promising vocal voice recently held in Washington high school. Six other artists will also take part in the crowded hour of radio entertainment. These are Miss Wolfe, Miss Mary Bullock, pianist; Miss Alice Johnson, soprano, and Mrs. Arthur Osborne, contralto, who will sing some Tascas folk songs in duet; George Snyder, basso, and R. T. Laveré, tenor. This concert will be broadcast between 7:30 and 8:30 o'clock.

Andy Speaks Wednesday. It will be on Wednesday night that Andy Gump, candidate for congress, will broadcast a campaign speech. Mr. Gump will arrive in Portland late Wednesday afternoon. He will travel incognito, if possible, although he is so widely known that he will probably be recognized, and will leave Portland immediately after the radio program.

A splendid musical programme will also be broadcast in the same hour. This has been arranged by Mrs. Alvina E. Knowlton, teacher of piano, who will play piano solos and some accompaniments. Others to take part in the programme are Miss George Baldwin, soprano; W. S. Robertson, baritone, and Miss Inez M. Chambers, violinist.

Orchestra Plays Friday. The last concert from the old station will be the regular weekly feast of dance music provided every Friday night by George Olsen and his orchestra from the Portland hotel. After it there will be no radio entertainment from The Oregonian tower for a space of probably three weeks, until the new station is ready for use.

LOST SETTER IS FOUND

Dog Missing for Year Recognizes Voice of Real Mistress.

Became a lawfully setter, after a year's interval, recognized the voice of its old mistress through floor and partition walls. Mrs. Nellie E. Johnson, 499 East Ninth street North, yesterday recovered the family bird dog, which had been gone from home nearly 12 months. Friends had told Mrs. Johnson they believed they had seen the setter on the premises at 1067 East Seventh street North. To investigate the matter Mrs. Johnson obtained a search warrant and, accompanied by Deputy Sheriff Schirmer, visited the residence at this number, occupied by L. Olds.

According to Deputy Sheriff Schirmer's report, Mrs. Olds answered inquiry for the dog by stating that her husband had taken it on a hunting trip. The visitors entered the house, however, and a moment later, the dog, having heard and recognized Mr. Johnson's voice, began barking in the basement. When released from the basement the setter was overjoyed at sight of its mistress. The dog was taken home by Mrs. Johnson.

BOY, 15, LEAVES HOME

William Alfred Smelcer Believed to Have Gone Toward Salem.

Police have been asked to search for William Alfred Smelcer, aged 15, who disappeared from the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Cutter, 294 North Ninth street, Thursday night. The lad's parents have been divorced and the custody of the boy was given to the grandparents.

Young Smelcer was reported seen in the Burnside street district with a one-armed man named C. Smith, a transient worker, and it was thought likely he had induced the boy to leave town with him. Smelcer is 5 feet 5 inches in height, weighs about 140 pounds, has brown hair, blue eyes and a clear complexion. He was wearing blue overalls, a blue work shirt, dark gray coat and light checked cap when last seen. It is surmised that the pair went in the direction of Salem and anyone who can give information in regard to the boy is asked to telephone his grandparents at Broadway 1209, or inform the police.

COLUMBUS IS HONORED

MINNESOTA STATE SOCIETY EXALTS EXPLORER.

Literary Programme and Social Dance Feature Enjoyable Gathering of Celebrants.

Among Portland organizations that paid honor to the memory of Columbus during the last week, in observance of the annual holiday, was the Minnesota state society, which held an appropriate literary programme and social dance in Turn Verein hall Wednesday night. Four hundred ex-residents of Minnesota participated in the observance of Columbus day, with John R. Murphy as the orator of the occasion. He paid high tribute to the character and achievements of Columbus and portrayed his fearlessness and determination to overcome all obstacles. Also on the programme was an interpretation of Schubert's March Militaire in a dance number by Helen Walter and a humorous character sketch by Mrs. Mary R. Robinson. During his address Mr. Murphy said:

With what gratitude should we who share in the blessings for liberty and happiness which are our lot in this great land, whose permanent dedication to civilization was made possible at so early a date because of his lofty purpose, honor the memory of Christopher Columbus, the discoverer of America. It is fitting that after centuries recognition should be given—sincerely, if tardily

—of his great services to humanity, and given the more cheerfully because he was in every way worthy of the portion of anything same that is his. It is the appreciation of his noble character and his great works that is instrumental in an effort to make Columbus day a national holiday throughout our whole land.
