Hurricanes and Tornadoes Take Greatest Toll of Human Life in Last Fiscal Year.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 14.—Seventy-two disasters in which 674 persons were reported killed and 531 injured, called for emergency relief measures and the expenditure of more than $1,441,000 by the American Red Cross during the fiscal year ended June 30. According to a statement based upon the forthcoming annual report of the Red Cross, these disasters caused property damage estimated at more than $10,000,000 and rendered more than 145,000 persons homeless or otherwise in need of assistance. In one section alone, the report states, on the Louisiana-Mississippi border, the Red Cross fed daily for weeks more than 35,000 flood refugees.

The greatest toll of life was taken by hurricanes and tornado, while the overflowing of rivers, the breaking of dams and the occasional rain storms drove the greatest number of people from their homes. Fire also played an important part in the chain of disasters which made incessant demands for Red Cross relief workers.

Year's Disasters Reported. The year's disasters reported included 24 floods, 19 tornadoes or storms, 15 fires, four epidemics, two theater collapses, two shipwrecks, one of which was the wreck of the United States airship Roma, a bridge collapse, mine explosion, railway collision and a drought.

Of the floods that at San Antonio, Tex., caused the greatest property loss, $6,000,000, and the heaviest fatalities, 100, among the unusual disasters was that reported from China, where, last May, the American Red Cross chapter at Peking went to the relief of non-combatants wounded during the fighting at Chang Hsin Tien.

In the year's record of aid rendered overseas by the American Red Cross are two fires in the Philippine Islands, one in Manila which destroyed 1000 homes with a loss of $1,500,000 and 3000 persons rendered homeless, the first disaster of its kind in this country to call for Red Cross relief. The suddenness of the accident tested the readiness of the organization and of the chapter at Hampton, Va., but the response was immediate.

Relief Measures Perfected. A hurricane in San Domingo and a flood in San Salvador also tried the Red Cross resources, but refugees were effectively cared for and much dire distress relieved.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 14.—Because of the illness of Mrs. Harding the usual winter social functions at the White House, including the diplomatic, army and navy, judiciary and legislative receptions, have been canceled.

Foulkes Return Home VISIT IN WALES ONE ROUND OF SOCIAL PLEASURE.

Fame of Portland Couple Among Seafarers for Hospitality Is Key to Cordial Welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Foulkes and their daughter, Miss Lucy Foulkes, returned yesterday from a four months' trip to Great Britain, the greater part spent in Wales. Mr. Foulkes was born in Denbig, which also was the birthplace of Henry M. Stanley, and Mrs. Foulkes is a native of Bangor, and the weeks were one continuous round of welcome in both places.

They went east by the Canadian Pacific and Mr. Foulkes likes to tell of that trip. For companions they had numbers of red-fazed visitors returning and every 50 or so miles some one learned the way to Portland and asked, "Say, do you know George Baker?" His repeated replies would elicit the mayor to anything short of president.

Fifty years ago Mr. and Mrs. Foulkes and the baby left Wales and came straight through to Oregon by way of San Francisco, settling in Polk county, where Mr. Foulkes worked on the weekly papers of that day. Thirty-five years ago they moved to Portland and he has been employed on The Oregonian since.

When the Turks and Christians clashed in Macedonia was inevitable, and it is curious that the French papers ignore this truth taught by long experience. Added to this is the Russian danger, for the soviets, like the Kemalists and Germans, have territory to reconquer to efface the peace which they never have recognized. The Paris and Mudania agreements have prepared some far tomorrow for us.

CASH BAIL IS INVALID

Vancouver Court Rules Sheriff Has No Right to Take Money.

VANCOUVER, Wash., Oct. 14.—(Special)—The sheriff of any county in this state cannot legally accept cash in lieu of a bail bond, though he may turn the money over to the county clerk. This was learned today when Judge Simpson of the superior court gave a memorandum decision in the case of the state against R. E. Gore, who disappeared. Motion was made that the cash bail be forfeited.

Attorneys for L. A. Miller, who put up the $500 to release Gore one Saturday night, protested that the sheriff, or his agents, have no legal right to accept cash for bail, though he may accept a bail bond.

Though the prisoner has fled and the state had the $500, a bail for him, this amount will be returned to Miller.

Court Decision Misconstrued. Report that Judge Belt in the Polk county circuit court had dismissed the case of the Pacific Cooperative Poultry Producers versus J. A. Hanson is said by officers of the poultrymen's organization to have been incorrect.

FLOYD GLOTZBACH REFUSES ACTION FOR DIVORCE.

Order Granted in San Francisco Requiring Matzenauer to Make Deposition in Case.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 14.—Floyd Glotzbach, Delmonte chauffeur and husband of Madam Margaret Matzenauer, the opera singer, today refused an action for divorce in the superior court here. Glotzbach recently withdrew the suit, his attorney announcing that further action would await the arrival of Madam Matzenauer here. She is expected Monday.

Glotzbach was granted an order directing his wife to appear before a notary public Tuesday and make a deposition in the case. In today's complaint Glotzbach reiterated his former charges that Madam Matzenauer attempted to seduce him as a "personal maid" and told him that she picked him from a lowly position.

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, Oct. 14.—Madam Marguerite Matzenauer, the opera singer, left for San Francisco at noon today following a concert engagement here last night. She did not know at the time of her departure that her husband, Floyd Glotzbach, had refiled action for divorce. However, she discussed her domestic difficulties earlier in the day and referred to the "morbid tendency of some newspapers to proclaim her troubles to the public." "If they get any satisfaction or happiness out of it, let them do it," was her comment.

ROAD WORK COMPLETED

Lewis County 1922 Programme Includes Important Jobs.

CHEHALIS, Wash., Oct. 14.—(Special)—The 1922 road programme for eastern Lewis county, directed by County Commissioner Birley, is about completed. The road over the hill between Rifle and Morton has been widened and the sharp turns cut away, so that most of the danger has been removed, and it is expected that it will be passable during the entire winter, owing to better surfacing conditions.

Above handle, near John Purdue's place, a grade has been built above the winter freshet mark so that the serious inconvenience that has been occasioned by high water will not be again soon.

The Persian "Caravan" News Is Spreading

Many of those who, during the last two weeks, have secured some of the wonderful values in Oriental Rugs that arrived via our large Persian "Caravan," have brought their friends to witness our exhibition of these treasures from the Orient.

Sumptuousness can be attained only through rich Oriental floor coverings.

Many of the enthusiastic purchasers have urged their friends also to take advantage of this unusual opportunity to acquire Oriental floor coverings for homes, apartments, artistic shops and offices.

Others have come from out of town to make purchases here and quite a number have sent in their orders by mail. Any who have not witnessed our exhibition are invited to do so during the coming week—There are many surprises here for those who always have held the erroneous opinion that Oriental rugs are beyond their reach. Note the following prices:
