

COUNCIL OF CHURCHES TO MEET OCTOBER 20

Various Co-operating Institutions to Send Delegates to Session, at Which Reports of Ten Departments Will Be Made and Election of Officers for the Year Held in First Presbyterian Building at 7:45 P. M.

THE third annual meeting of the Portland Council of Churches will be held Friday night, October 20, at 7:45 in the First Presbyterian building...

The Council of Churches was organized June 23, 1919, and at the beginning had seven departments. The work was gradually widened until ten departments were necessary to carry on the varied united activities of the Protestant churches...

The co-operative programme of the council has met with increasing favor and opened the door for greater achievements than could possibly be attained by the churches individually...

It is expected that there will be a large attendance at the annual meeting and an interesting programme is being arranged.

A programme for the placement of the cornerstone for the new Baptist church of the Aloha community was given last Saturday afternoon.

The twenty-second annual convention of the Columbia district Luther league, comprising leagues from Oregon and Washington, will meet from October 20 to 23, inclusive, in The Dalles.

Several other papers dealing with different phases of the topic will also be read. The program also on district and local work will be held Saturday afternoon.

Monday at the First Congregational church groups of Congregational churches in this part of the state will meet to confer with the new state superintendent, Dr. C. H. Harrison, at 10 o'clock.
