

I. W. W. INVASION IS FLAT FAILURE

Police Continue Drive Against Radicals.

SIXTY ARRESTED IN RAID

Municipal Judge Reverses Stand in Campaign.

16 REDS TURNED LOOSE

Jurist Declares That Experience Has Changed Sympathies to Some Extent.

With the threatened I. W. W. invasion of Portland a complete and miserable failure, police officials again turned their attention to local members of the outlaw organization yesterday and in a wholesale raid on the I. W. W. hall, 109 1/2 Second street, arrested 60 self-proclaimed radicals.

The 60, all of whom had been before the municipal court and who had been released by Municipal Judge Ekwall, were locked up on charges of vagrancy. Orders issued yesterday by Police Chief Jenkins definitely closed the I. W. W. headquarters and further attempt to hold meetings there will result in more wholesale raids.

The day was a quiet one as far as the longshoremen's strike was concerned. Picket lines were reduced, according to police reports. No violence was attempted. Non-union men went to and from their work without molestation.

Radicals Held Covered. The prompt and decisive action by the city's mayor and chief of police has evidently thoroughly cowed the radicals. Despite appeals for "loose pickets to march on Portland," circulated among all I. W. W. of the northwest, none have responded to the call. Even the ordinary hobnob map itineraries that do not include this city, though police squads searched all incoming freight trains yesterday they were able to find but one hobo—and that hobo was simply a runaway 17-year-old boy.

Friction between the police and the municipal court, though, has given courage to the I. W. W. who claim Portland as their temporary home. Sixteen members of the order who faced Judge Ekwall yesterday were released. Some had been arrested in the wholesale raids of Wednesday night. The court showed a slight irritation at the action of the magistrate. Judge Ekwall frankly admitted that his association with the radicals had made him a bit of a radical himself. It happened during the examination of a foreigner who had been caught in the dragnet. The court asked the prisoner if he was an I. W. W.

Judge Changes Views. "No, I wasn't, until I was put in jail last night. Now I am one, though," the defendant answered. "Well, I was made some of a radical myself, yesterday," the jurist answered.

Despite the apparent change of attitude on the part of the municipal court, the police continued their campaign against the undesirable. No deportation parties were held yesterday due to the lack of material furnished by the court.

Between midnight Friday and 6 o'clock last night, 55 persons, 40 of whom were avowed I. W. W., were arrested. Twenty-five were picked up in the I. W. W. hall and about the streets. Eighteen were released after examination by the police.

Literature Is Seized. Copies of I. W. W. and radical papers of other cities, now in the hands of police officials, show that the leaders of the organization are making desperate attempts to flood the city with pickets. Reliable information is being furnished to the police.

MILLIONS OF EGGS DELUGING CHICAGO

SPECULATORS ARE CAUGHT IN BEAR MARKET.

27 Cents Asked for Fresh Product, While San Francisco Quotation Is 67 1/2 c.

CHICAGO, Oct. 21.—Egg speculators in Chicago and other produce centers are being caught beneath surplus supplies of millions of dozens of eggs. Lower prices are largely due, egg men said today, to the greatly increased activity of the hens. It was estimated that of Chicago's approximately 3,000,000 inhabitants would have to eat an egg a day until January 1 to wipe out the surplus that is being increased by arrivals of 300,000 dozens weekly. Speculators were said to have been holding eggs at a loss of three cents a dozen with 19,000,000 dozen more eggs in storage than at this time last year.

Storage eggs which last brought 35 cents a dozen by the case in the commission district today were selling for 28 cents. Fresh eggs at 55 cents last year were quoted today at 27 cents.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 21.—Just what fresh eggs in Chicago should be selling for 27 cents a dozen wholesale, while in San Francisco they are selling for 57 1/2 cents, with this city a scant hour away from Petaluma, which professes to be the egg capital of the universe, is puzzling students of marketing conditions here today. The dairy market was closed today but the quotation remained at 67 1/2 cents, with every indication that the quotation would hold for a few days at least.

FATHER IS SHOT BY SON

W. H. Bare Dies as Result of Hurt Suffered in Quarrel.

BURNS, Or., Oct. 21.—(Special.)—W. H. Bare of Calamity Creek, near Dréwys, Or., was shot and fatally wounded by his son late Thursday, according to a report to officials here. Mr. Bare died shortly after the shooting. The two men had quarreled, according to the report, and the father attacked the son with a pitchfork. D. O. Bare, the son, was quoted as saying that he drew his pistol in self-defense and that the weapon went off accidentally when his father hit him on the head with the fork. The bullet struck the man between the eyes and ranged downward.

REVOLT BLOCKED SAYS DAUGHTERY

Action in Strike Emergency Defended.

"CIVIL WAR" HELD EVADED

Campaign at Home Opened by Attorney-General.

FRAUD CASES DISCUSSED

Attacks on Department's Record in Prosecution Declared Made by Those Hit.

CANTON, O., Oct. 21.—(By the Associated Press.)—Attorney-General Daugherty, making his only campaign speech to the voters of his home state, tonight gave an accounting of his stewardship at Washington, defended his course in the Chicago injunction proceedings and in the prosecution of war frauds and declared that despite "accusation and calumny" the department of justice would proceed to perform its duties as it sees them under the constitution.

In the strike emergency, the attorney-general said, the federal government used the injunction as the least drastic means at hand for rescuing the country "from the grip of civil war." He ascribed some of the blame "to the radicalism and character" of prominent labor leaders and some of it to "hard-boiled" railway executives, and asserted that any attorney-general who would not have acted under the circumstances "should be impeached."

Tender Spot Declared Hit. Mr. Daugherty, declaring the real purpose of attacks on the department's record in war frauds investigation was to force the hand of the government and prematurely disclose important evidence, said such assaults had been inspired, not by the department's inactivity, but because tender spots had been touched by the suits already under way.

"We would have heard little criticism of the department of justice," he said, "had it not been discovered that a case like the chemical foundation, for instance (in which valuable patents were assigned by public officials to companies, which they themselves had organized) was under investigation, and the part played by those involved also was being scrutinized by government agents."

Trickery Is Charged. "And let me suggest here, without giving any intimation as to who the men were, that I have had the unique experience of sitting in the department of justice and listening to the story of a man formerly connected with the government and hearing patiently his pleas for certain fairly legitimate concessions, when, at the same time, in the city of New York, another ex-official, one of his associates, was busily engaged in getting contributions and making connections in order that the attacks upon the department of justice and the government might be increased, reinforced and successfully continued."

"I can give the names of these parties if ever they lift their voices to dispute this statement, but, unless I am authorized by them to do so, I should like to go through this investigation without prematurely mentioning names except in the orderly process of court proceedings. Their names, however, will be found in connection with certain litigation wherein some of the most important questions and some of the most questionable transactions and some of the most valuable properties in the world are in dispute, and the right and wrong of the transactions connected with the

CALL TO CONGRESS EXPECTED SHORTLY

SESSION OPENING ABOUT SEPTEMBER 20 FORECAST.

Kansas Representative Believes All Needed Legislation Can Be Effected by March 4.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 21.—Prediction that congress will be called in special session about November 20 was made by Representative Campbell, republican, Kansas, today after a conference with President Harding.

Mr. Campbell said if congress should convene about November 20 undoubtedly all the necessary appropriation bills and other legislation could be disposed of before the sixty-seventh congress ends next March 4. He indicated, however, that no call would be issued until after the elections.

The Kansas representative has been engaged in a speaking campaign through the east and planned to leave tonight to make additional campaign speeches in the Rocky mountain states. Upon his return, he said, as chairman of the house rules committee, he would take up with the president the legislative programme, adding that undoubtedly the first important measure to come before the house would be the merchant marine bill, this to be followed by the regular appropriation bills, the senate in the meantime considering the Dyer anti-lynching bill.

McADOO SCORES TARIFF

American Prosperity Wrecked, Says Former Secretary.

PEORIA, Ill., Oct. 21.—International co-operation to prevent war and a sound basis for agriculture are among the biggest problems confronting the country, William G. McAdoo, former secretary of the treasury, declared here tonight in a democratic campaign address. He charged that the republican administration had by a policy of deflation destroyed prosperity and attacked the Fordney-McCumber tariff bill.

"It is estimated that the cost of living to the American people will be increased by the Fordney-McCumber bill $4,000,000,000 per annum, of which only $400,000,000 will go into the federal treasury," he said.

INDUSTRIAL PEACE SEEN

America Is Said to Be on High Road to Prosperity.

ELIZABETH, N. J., Oct. 21.—Secretary of Labor Davis, speaking last night in the republican campaign, declared that America is nearer to industrial peace today than it has been for many years. "In spite of the great industrial conflict in three of our basic industries, affecting more than 1,000,000 workmen," Secretary Davis said, "the nation has brought itself back to the high road of prosperity. Production is on the increase and wages have been stabilized in many lines on the basis of pay which will provide more than a mere living for the workman and his family."

WARSHIPS IN NEAR EAST

United States Destroyers Due at Constantinople Today.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 21.—The flotilla of United States destroyers hurrying to new duties in the near east will arrive at Constantinople Sunday morning, the American embassy was notified today by wireless by the approaching vessels. At the entrance of the Bosphorus the flotilla will be reviewed by Rear-Admiral Mark L. Bristol, commander of the American naval forces in near eastern waters.

AWAY WITH SLINKER SKIRT, SAY DEANS

LATEST STYLE EDICT ROUSES EDUCATOR'S IRE.

Women's College Heads Would Banish High Heels, Ear Bobs, False Curly and "Rats."

(By Chicago Tribune Leased Wire.) CHICAGO, Oct. 21.—Long "slinker" skirts, with their attendant high-heeled shoes and ear bobs and false curls and "rats," were roundly denounced today by deans of women's colleges in Illinois, in session here. All deplored the departure of the short skirts and bobbed hair and low, comfortable shoes, which helped breed a healthy, vigorous race of girls.

The deans agreed that the new styles, in addition to being ungraceful, would result in poor health for the girls who follow them. The long skirts will hamper their movements and deprive them of grace. The narrow shoes with high heels will result in stilted, painful locomotion and the wearing of false hair will be injurious to their own hair, their scalps and their sight.

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—Skirts not at the knees, not on the ground, "just sensible lengths seven inches from her shoe soles" are recommended by members of the New York City Federation of Women's clubs. A resolution to this effect is to be voted upon at the federation meeting October 27.

Present vogues of long, sweeping, draped costumes drag the ground and carry germ-laden dirt into the home, the resolution says, and suggests that new garments, including draperies and panels, should be no nearer the ground than seven inches and cut in such fashion as to permit freedom of all parts of the body.

FATHER JOINS MATHILDE

Harold F. McCormick to Buy Estate in Switzerland.

LAUSANNE, Switzerland, Oct. 21.—(By the Associated Press.)—Harold F. McCormick of Chicago has rejoined his daughter, Mathilde, and her fiancé, Max Oser, the Swiss riding master of St. Peters Island in Lake Bienna. Mr. McCormick, the natives understand, intends to purchase a country estate in this part of Switzerland. The Oser-McCormick party will remain on the island until winter sets in and then they will go to Italy. The marriage will take place as soon as Mathilde attains the Swiss legal age. Mathilde has engaged Fraulein Settler, daughter of the manager of the island, as her companion. She and her fiancé often take long horseback excursions to neighboring towns and castles.

FRANCE CONTINUES WAR

Fight Against Profiteers Not to Be Discontinued.

PARIS, Oct. 21.—There will be no letup in the prosecution of French war profiteers. This was assured today when the senate quickly adopted measure already passed by the chamber of deputies continuing in operation the anti-profiteering law which would have expired next Monday. As continued the prosecutions are restricted to offenses prior to October 23 of this year. The senate abandoned its disposition to reframe the legislation when it was seen that such action would lead to all-night sessions of both houses and that even then there would probably not be enough time left to put the bill through before the law would expire.

LEAGUE BODY IN VIENNA

Association Conference Opens With 19 Countries Represented.

VIENNA, Oct. 21.—The League of Nations' association opened a conference here today with delegates seated from 19 countries. American was represented by Professor Jeremiah Jenks of New York university, Turkey and Ukraine had the largest delegations. Soviet Russia and the states formed out of the one-time Austro-Hungarian monarchy were not represented.

WETS, DRY FIGHT IN NEW JERSEY

Senate Election to Be Volstead Referendum.

RACE FOR GOVERNOR FADES

Frelinghuysen and Edwards Now Fill Arena.

POLITICAL WITS TESTED

Thirty, Resentful Voters and Prohibitionists to Forget Parties in Choice.

BY LLOYD LONERGAN. NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—(Special.)—According to the law, as set down in the statute books, the sovereign state of New Jersey will hold an election next month, to select a governor, a United States senator, 12 representatives in congress and various minor officials. What actually will happen is that the state of Jersey Justice and Applejack is to have a solemn referendum on the subject of prohibition.

Not that anybody expects that New Jersey will be able to set aside the volstead law. Not at all. But moderate and immoderate drinkers hope to make such a demonstration of force as will impress congress with the necessity of reforming the present unpopular one-half per cent limit. The standard bearers in the fight are United States Senator Frelinghuysen, republican, who hopes to be re-elected on a dry platform, and Edward L. Edwards, the present governor, who does very little drinking himself, but is as wet as a cloudburst. Edwards was elected governor of the state on the wet issue three years ago, and is making his present campaign along the same line.

In ordinary political battles it is the nominees for governor who hold the center of the stage. In New York, for example, Senator Calder and Dr. Royal S. Copeland, his opponent, are minor leaguers as compared with Governor Miller and ex-Governor "Al" Smith. But Jerseyans are not interested in the battle for chief executive. It is doubtful if a majority of the voters know who is running. It is a certainty that a majority does not care in the slightest. The one subject of interest, the one matter that is talked about is "Will Eddie trim Joe, or will Joe lick Eddie?"

EMMANUEL SAVES PARTY

Italian King Throws Rope to Occupants of Sailing Craft.

ROME, Oct. 21.—(By the Associated Press.)—King Victor Emmanuel is pictured in advice from San Rospo today in the role of a rescuer of an endangered pleasure party. While the king was out on a fishing expedition with the royal princesses at the mouth of the Arno, in Tuscany, he saw a sailboat being carried into danger by a strong current. The royal party hurried to the rescue and the king, with the aid of the princesses, threw a rope to the men on board the sailing craft and saved the boat with its occupants.

STUDENTS FOR UNIONIST

Lord Birkenhead Elected Rector of Glasgow University.

GLASGOW, Scotland, Oct. 21.—(By the Associated Press.)—The present political turmoil in Great Britain was reflected in the proceedings at the rectorial election at Glasgow university this afternoon when Lord Birkenhead, unionist, was elected with 1165 votes over Sir John Simon, liberal, who received 530 votes, and H. G. Wells, the novelist, as the labor candidate, who received 353 votes. In the course of the polling several free fights occurred among the students, in which flour, soot, rotten eggs and decayed fish were freely used. Several students were injured.

SPOKANE PROTESTS CUT

No Rate Reduction Wanted Unless Interior Benefits.

SPOKANE, Wash., Oct. 21.—Objections to a proposed 5-cent reduction in freight rates on rails and rail fastenings from steel mills at Midvale, Utah, to Pacific coast points, unless like reductions to interior points are granted, were voiced by Spokane hardware dealers at an interstate commerce commission hearing here today. The Oregon-Washington Railroad & Navigation company has proposed to cut the rate from 67 1/2 cents to 62 1/2 cents a hundred.

U. S. APOLOGY LIKELY FOR HIGH SEAS RAID

SEIZURE PAST 3-MILE LIMIT CALLS FOR EXPRESSION.

Formal Action Probably to Be Taken as Result of Overzealous Dry Agents.

(By Chicago Tribune Leased Wire.) WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 21.—Formal apology probably will be made by the state department to the British government for the action of overzealous prohibition enforcement officers in seizing the Canadian schooner Emerald, with a liquor cargo, beyond the three-mile limit of the New Jersey coast. It was learned today upon high authority.

A thorough investigation which has been conducted by the treasury department, it was stated, has established that the seizure of the Emerald calls for an official expression of regret by the American government. A report of the treasury department to Secretary of State Hughes will admit that the Emerald did not establish contact with the Jersey coast and that members of the crew did not land, facts which prove that the seizure was unwarranted.

The Emerald was "captured" by the "dry navy" chaser Hahn, about eight miles off the Jersey coast. The Hahn trained her guns on the Emerald and brought her into the port of New York. Officials of the prohibition enforcement bureau contended that the Emerald was planned to land liquor in the United States, but admitted that there was no evidence of smuggling.

The seizure of the Emerald was followed by protests from the British government through the embassy in Washington challenging the right of the United States to search or seize ships beyond the three-mile limit. The protest will now be answered with an expression of regret that the zealotry of the prohibition officers carried them too far.

ADMINISTRATION IS DEFENDED

He then launched into a vigorous defense of his administration.

"I have sought honestly, sincerely and within my dominant purpose to serve my native land to the best of my ability," said Mr. Lloyd George. "In the war the government did everything it could. I am told: You may have been a very good war minister, but you are no good in peace. War is not a bad test and I have done a few things in peace."

The speaker was greeted with loud applause. The hall seats 3000 persons and more than twice that number applied for admission.

STAND IS FOR PROGRESS

Those who were expecting a sensational announcement from the retiring premier were disappointed. There was no suggestion of the formation of a new party.

Mr. Lloyd George declared the whole bent of his mind was democratic and progressive and he ardently defended the coalition as an instrument by which the country had done its part in winning the war and through which reconstruction had been effected.

Further along in his speech Mr. Lloyd George said: "I promise the people of this country that whatever the future may bring forth I will do nothing mean or paltry. I will not play any part which is unworthy of the confidence that has been placed in me."

STAND IS FOR PROGRESS

"My whole bent of mind is democratic and progressive. They do not like it (he was referring to his political opponents), and they have got to like it less and less. I stand where I have always stood for the same sound progress."

Alluding to the United States, Mr. Lloyd George said: "The United States of America and ourselves march side by side on the path of peace and international good will."

Bonar Law's Position Likened to That of Horseman Holding on by Tail.

LEEDS, England, Oct. 21.—(By the Associated Press.)—David Lloyd George, the retiring prime minister, speaking at a great meeting of coalition liberals here this afternoon, declared the "banner of party strife" had been hoisted at the recent meeting of conservatives at the Carlton club, which voted against continuing the coalition.

"It is for the people of this country," he exclaimed, "to decide whether party comes first or the nation first. I stand for the people." Mr. Lloyd George asserted that the combination which had achieved the victory in the late war had been brought to an end, not because it had ceased to serve the nation, but because a party was not getting enough out of it.

Administration Is Defended. He then launched into a vigorous defense of his administration.
