The Beautiful New "Hepplewhite" Ivory Enamel Bedroom Suite

The outlines of the highly desirable Hepplewhite period have been followed with the utmost fidelity in the designing of this handsome new bedroom suite. The raised ornamentation standing out in old ivory tone shows that delicately modeled lightness and grace which impart such a charm to all genuine Hepplewhite designs.

The details are carried out to a high degree—the mouldings, fluted legs and standards and top edges are much better than usually found in such a moderately priced suite. There is ample drawer capacity. The hardware represents old oxidized silver plate. The suite may be chosen in a large variety of pieces.
