Announcing a New 5-Passenger Sedan

We are showing now the first of the five-passenger six-cylinder sedans to be built by the Nash Motor Company. A beautiful enclosed car, mounted on the famous 121-inch Nash six chassis.

For people who want the maximum of comfort and luxury without the many driving and parking inconveniences of a big car, this new sedan is ideal.

The new cowl ventilator will provide fresh, cool air in the front seat.

Sit behind the wheel and feel the natural, comfortable driving positions.

The brake leverage has been increased until the slightest pressure of the foot brings instant response on the rear wheels.

Just Arrived! The Newly Improved Nash

Come and See It!

It's here on our floor now. You'll find it a finer Nash and a more wonderful value than ever before.

Drop in on your way to town, or during the day, or phone us for a demonstration.

We want you to see the new touches here and there in design and equipment that, coupled with the greatly reduced price, make the Nash today's outstanding automobile buy.

Observe the new-type ventilator now introduced into the cowl.

And there's a big, husky bar across the front of the side members of the chassis that gives greater rigidity to the frame.

Beautiful disc wheels add a fresh distinction to the car's outward charm.

Note the oil kipp equipment. Just give them a push and oil is forced into the steering knuckles and steering tie rod.

We are proud of the new easy-acting clutch, "smooth as velvet," and of the excessive brake leverage. The slightest pressure will stop your car.

There's a device—exclusive to Nash—that permits you quickly to focus the new barrel headlights to any angle you like.

And there's a new steering mechanism to see. And other important features that will repay your visit.

Come in, and come prepared to make the down payment. For the car will "sell" you itself.

FOOTBALL KNEE DANGER

FANS ALWAYS APPREHENSIVE OF INJURY.

Cure is Only Effective in Three Months if Player Faithfully Cares for Himself.

Every athletic exercise has its special form of accident. For tennis players there is "tennis elbow," for horsemen, "riders' strain"; but the injury which gives rise to most anxiety among participants in any athletic organization is "football knee."

Some stalwart of the club, a trusted player in a difficult position, makes a sharp turn in his attempt to pass an opponent or shoots out his foot to trap the ball; he falls in evident pain; the trainer rushes on to the ground. A consultation is held and the man is carried off.

Subsequently the club's anxious supporters learn that the player has sustained a knee injury. The next week the side takes the field without him and the following Saturday sees him still out of the team. Weeks drag on, and all that the supporters see of their hero is his hobbling into the grandstand.

Football knee is caused by an outward twisting of the knee when the foot is fixed. The lower end of the thigh-bone rotates, in the knee joint, on the half-moon-shaped cartilages which cover the upper end of the bigger bone of the lower leg, one of the cartilages is torn up and becomes gripped between the two ends of the meeting bones.

The pain is severe, and when the patient is examined it is found that his knee is fixed in a half-bent position. On manipulation the cartilage may be persuaded to slip back into its original position.

To bring this about, the foot of the player should be held in one hand, the fingers of the other being placed on the inner and outer sides of the knee joint. Then gently bending the knee as far as it will go, the foot is turned slowly inward, and with a swift movement the leg is fully extended.

The injury, which the joint has sustained, will cause it to fill with fluid, and on awakening the next morning the player will find that his kneecap has disappeared in a white swelling.

The synovitis, which has been a result of the injury, will cure itself usually in about a fortnight, if the patient is kept in bed, but this is not the principal trouble. Lying between the two bones is the detached cartilage, ready on the SLIGHTEST SIDE MOVEMENT OF THE KNEE TO shift out of position again and set up another attack of synovitis.

In the happiest course of events the player will be out of his side for three months, and this period will only see a cure if he faithfully keeps his knee night and day in a hinged splint, and wears an elastic kneecap for at least another three months afterwards. If he neglects to follow the treatment as recommended by the surgeon he will have repeated attacks of knee locking.

PITCHER DISLIKES EAST

Walter Mails Wants to Return to Coast League.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 21.—Walter Mails, big Cleveland American southpaw pitcher, wants to come back to the Pacific Coast baseball league next year with San Francisco or Sacramento. Mails in 1920 was a Cleveland ace when the Indians won the American league pennant.

"I have permission to make a deal with any Coast league club that wants me," Mails said. "I had a chat with Charlie Graham, one of the owners of the San Francisco club, and he said he wanted me and would write to Tris Speaker, the Indian manager, to see if it can be fixed up."

"Oh, yes, my arm is as good as it ever was. I can win up in the majors, but I don't like the climate."

Bush League Notes

SEALS TO BE BUILT UP

MANAGER PROMISES GOOD TEAM NEXT YEAR.

Pennant Winners Declared to Intend to Preserve Record Established in 1922.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 21.—Chiefs of the San Francisco baseball club, which won the Pacific Coast league pennant this year, intend to give the fans as strong a team next year as they had this year, Jack Miller, manager of the Seals, declared recently.

"San Francisco is the greatest minor-league city in the land and, as such, deserves the greatest minor-league baseball team," Miller said. "I am making no predictions for 1923, but I can promise that the club will be a pennant contender if it's within the power of the owners and myself to do so."

Miller left recently for his home in Kearny, N. J., after having won the pennant during his first year as manager in the Coast league. He came west last March for his first year in minor-league baseball.

Two San Francisco stars, Willie Kamm and Jimmy O'Connell, go up to the majors next year for the highest prices ever paid for minor-league players. Kamm was sold to the Chicago White Sox for $100,000 and O'Connell to the New York Giants, champions of the world, for $75,000. In their places, however, San Francisco will have two youngsters, Gene Valla and Hal Rhyne, both of whom show great promise.

The pennant was the first won by San Francisco since 1917 and the first championship to be captured by the club under the ownership of Dr. C. H. Strub, Charles H. Graham, George A. Putnam and Tom Stephens.

BRITISH TENNIS BODY HIT

Players Move for Better Plans in International Matches.

LONDON, Oct. 21.—The Lawn Tennis association, which has virtually had autocratic control of all tennis affairs in this country for many years, is under fire from many prominent players and others interested in the sport. It is alleged that the executive body is unable to deal properly with present-day conditions, and to counteract this state of affairs a "reform committee" has been formed which will attempt to bring the association into line with present-day requirements. Well-known tennis players of the OXFORD AND CAMBRIDGE UNIVERSITY team, Lord Rooksavage, Max Woosnam, P. G. Lowe, Wallis Myers and others, are among the reformers who are anxious, among other things, to make better arrangements for the Davis cup competition and other international matches. Attempts also will be made to improve tournament conditions generally.

Young players will be encouraged, and it is hoped in this way to assemble a representative team capable of holding its own against the champions of any other country.

Santa Barbara Wants Harbor.

SANTA BARBARA, Cal., Oct. 21.—A move to provide a yacht harbor for Santa Barbara has been launched here. One of the features of the campaign was a cruise of a score of more yachts from southern California points to the channel islands, off Santa Barbara.

IDAHO HAS BIG RALLY

GRID COACH MAKES FIRST SPEECH TO STUDENTS.

School Declared to Be Trying to Establish Traditions and Live Up to Them.

UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO, Moscow, Oct. 21.—(Special.)—"University of Idaho football teams are trying to establish traditions," said Coach Mathews, Idaho grid mentor, at his first public appearance before university students at a rally Wednesday. Other speakers were Dean O. P. Cockerill, chairman of the athletic committee; Lynn Hersey, president of the student body, and President Upham of the university, but the students were all keyed up to hear from the coach who developed the team that almost beat Washington.

"First," said Mathews, "Idaho football teams are religiously trying to follow training rules and thus far have made good progress. Second, on the trips they are trying to conduct themselves as college men and in a manner which will reflect praise and favorable comment upon the institution they represent, and in this, too, they have made a good start."

"Third, Idaho teams may not always win, but they will never be whipped, and in this the team has also made a good start."

"Fourth, Idaho teams may lose every game, but they never will lose faith, and again good progress has been made."

"At Seattle, Idaho spirit was sold to 20,000 Washington students and Seattle people. That day at Seattle will go down in Idaho traditions and will long be remembered as one of the greatest days in Idaho history again, a team outweighing them 25 to 26 pounds to the man, the Idaho team did something never done before in football—they held seven consecutive times within the shadow of their goal posts."

Mathews cautioned students not to discuss probable outcomes with any of the football players and urged their co-operation in helping the team observe the traditions that have been started so well.

Catcher Sets New Record.

Catcher Si Perkins of the Athletics didn't have a single fielding chance in a recent game at Cleveland and, believe it or not, he went through the next tilt with nary an out or assist to his credit. This means that not a single Indian struck out or fouled to the catcher

IN EITHER GAME; THAT SI DID NOT throw a Tiger out, two of them stealing on him, and that he did not handle a ball in assisting in retiring a Cleveland player. Wonder if this ever happened to a catcher before in 17 innings of play?

GERMAN TITLE IS VACANT

Teuton Republic Lacks Welter Boxing Champ.

BERLIN, Oct. 21.—Only one boxing throne remains unoccupied in Germany's pugilistic world. The ownership title is that of welter-weight champion, and a holder is expected to develop for it during the coming winter. The other championships are:

Flyweight, Erich Kohler; bantam, Urban Grasz; feather, Kurt Sasse; light, Richard Naujocks; middle, Kurt Prenzel; light-heavy, Walter Bukasum; and heavy, Hans Brettensteiner.

"Phenomenon" Volkmer, a boxer who has passed his 40th year, is in training to contest the bantamweight title. Opponents for the latter two men have not yet been selected.

Golf Facts.

Q. In a four-ball match, can the players of one side insist that the player of the other side, whose ball is farther from the hole, put first?

A. No. A side has the option of playing the game in whatever order it sees fit on the putting green.

Q. With a ball lying in a deep trap close to a wall of same, is a player penalized, if in making a trial back swing, he touches the side of the wall with his club?

A. No.

Q. Under the stroke rule where two balls lie within six inches of each other, can the player whose ball is nearer the hole hit his ball, if he chooses, whether or not the other player wants it lifted?

A. Yes.

Q. If a player plays his tee shot out of bounds, is he entitled to move to another part of the teeing grounds and stroke across from one side to another to play his next stroke?

A. No. The rule says the next stroke must be played from as near as possible to where the preceding stroke was played.

GRID RULES UNFAMILIAR

INSIDE OF GAME LITTLE KNOWN TO MOST FANS.

However, Football Has so Many Appealing Virtues It Is Becoming Biggest Sport.

Football has so many appealing features that it is developing into America's biggest sport.

The gridiron game has its unique features also, and one of them was pointed out a few days ago by Ernie Quigley, National league umpire and one of the prominent gridiron referees.

"Less is known about football rules and the inside part of the game than any other big American sport. It is rather surprising to think sometimes that such immense crowds will turn out to see a game that the majority know so little about," Quigley said.

"Take baseball, for instance. The base runner is being run down between two bases. He evades one of the basemen and gets safely to the bag, but is called out by the umpire. Practically every spectator knows that he was out for running out of the line.

"Boxing rules are known to the letter by the youngest fan. When one contestant in the ring is disqualified the majority are able to tell the reason without a moment's thought.

"When the time comes that the football rules are familiar to the ordinary layman and when the fine points of the game are known, it will be impossible to accommodate less is known about football the crowds."
