

Pacific International Livestock Exposition

Largest Live Stock Show in America--10 acres under one roof

Saturday Is Opening Day—Bigger Than Ever

The Pacific International is the Pride of Oregon and of the Whole Pacific Slope. It was a great big show in 1920. In 1921 it rose to rank among the best in America. This year it stands first in magnitude and importance in almost every particular.

A wonderful showing of beef cattle. Dairy cattle from all parts of the United States—the pick of the best. The finest of sheep and goats, and a magnificent showing of hogs. The heavy horses will be out in numbers.

The Horse Show of the Pacific International is without a peer west of the Mississippi river. It will be larger and classier than ever. Tickets on sale at Sherman Clay's and Meier & Frank's.

The Western Winter Poultry, Rabbit and Pet Stock Show shows larger entries and promises to equal any show of its kind held in the west.

The Manufacturers' and Land Products Show in the Industrial Exhibits Section is a wonderland of beauty and utility. Don't miss it.

The Western Dairy Products Show is a vital feature of a vital industry, and stands for health and prosperity.

The International Milkmaids' Contest, auction sales, boys' and girls' club exhibits and judging teams, high school and college judging contests—every minute of the time and everywhere in the great Exposition building there will be education, entertainment and profit for all.
