Mielke, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Tetu, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Dundore, Dr. and Mrs. E. V. Morrow, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Bates, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Ellison, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Runyon, Mr. and Mrs. George L. Rauch, Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Lowenbart, Mr. and Mrs. Dow V. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. William M. Kopus, Mr. and Mrs. Phillip L. Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick W. Goodrich, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Eichenlaub, Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Berg, Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Gottschalk and Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Jaeger.

Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Katherine A. Daly was hostess at a delightful bridge tea.

The wedding of Miss Jeanette Meier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Abe Meier, and Walter Heller of San Francisco, will be an important event of November 14, at the home of the bride's parents. The ceremony will be performed at 7 o'clock and will be followed by a dinner. Miss Jean Meier will attend the bride as maid of honor and her only attendants will be Mrs. Allan E. Meier (Jane Seiler) and Miss Eisa Meier, bridesmaids. The bride, the small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Frank and Elizabeth Ehrman, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Heller Ehrman, will be flower girl. Richard Shumway of San Francisco, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, will act as Mr. Heller's best man, while the ushers will include William Heller Ehrman, Joseph Ehrman of San Francisco, Allan Meier and Lloyd Frank.

Last night Mr. and Mrs. George T. Gerlinger were hosts for a reception honoring Mr. and Mrs. A. Phinister Proctor, distinguished visitors in Portland. The guests included a number of the friends of Mr. and Mrs. Proctor.

An entirely unique and delightful luncheon was the "curry tiffin" at which Mrs. H. C. Wortman presided Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Folger Johnson, who recently returned from Europe, was the motif for the affair. Mrs. Carlos Close and Mrs. Dent Mowrey shared honors with her. The "curry tiffin" was prepared from a famous recipe given Mrs. Wortman by an Indian chef in Jalpur. The decorations and general scheme of serving were oriental. Twelve guests enjoyed the occasion.

Yesterday Mrs. Arthur M. Minott was hostess with a smart luncheon for Mrs. James Baird of Philadelphia, who is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Joseph A. Minott.

A charming luncheon was given by Mrs. Theodore B. Wilcox Thursday afternoon. Covers were placed for Mrs. William Dudgeon, Mrs. A. Phinister Proctor, Mrs. Holt C. Wilson, Mrs. Helen Laed Corbett, Mrs. Howard L. Mather, Mrs. Stewart B. Minichum, Mrs. L. Allen Lewis, Mrs. Elliott R. Corbett, Mrs. William MacMaster, Mrs. Burke Roche.

Hospitality was extended Friday afternoon between the hours of 4 and 6 o'clock by Mrs. Thomas H. Williams, who entertained at her home on Westover road with a large tea in the interests of the oriental women's college campaign, through which the women of Oregon are uniting to raise $10,000 toward the $200,000 endowment for seven colleges for women in China, Japan and India. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. William F. Flebig, Mrs. Ernest Willard, Mrs. J. D. Coleman and Mrs. Edward R. Harvey.

Mrs. H. C. Wortman and Mrs. A. E. Butterfield presided at the tea urns and assisting in the dining room were Mrs. Maurice Barnes, Mrs. Walter Shanks, Mrs. Henry Trowbridge, Mrs. Ernest Creighton, Mrs. Allan Noyes, Mrs. John C. Sturm and Mrs. Harry K. Sharp. The story of the colleges was attractively told by means of the little playlet "Lighting the Christmas Candles," enacted by eight young women in oriental costumes. There will be no solicitation of funds.

Mrs. Arthur S. Rosenfield and Mrs. Arthur A. Goldsmith are in California and will spend the winter with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gerson Goldsmith.

Prominent in today's social calendar is the evening of music which Miss Elizabeth Hoben has arranged for the residents of the Mann home for the aged. This will mark the first public appearance of "The Choristers," a vocal organization in which a number of the younger society maids are interested.

Mr. and Mrs. Van Rosendaal entertained a small group of friends at the Hotel Portland Monday night supper dance.

Miss Lillian Bennett entertained at a Halloween costume party Saturday evening at her home in Irvington. Eighteen couples enjoyed the evening dancing.

Mrs. M. D. Bowers, a charming and prominent society matron of Santa Barbara, arrived at the Hotel Portland during the week and will remain during the horse show. Mrs. Bowers is a famous equestrienne and will appear at all the ladies' classes during the horse show, riding her own horses, three of which have been brought from Santa Barbara for entries.

Thomas Mason, a professional rider of note, will ride Mrs. Bowers' horses in the open classes. Much informal entertaining is being planned by society folk for the Santa Barbara visitor during her stay here.

When Society Goes to Find Its Pleasure at the Horse Show

The smartest—the newest—the ultra-modish in appropriate apparel are to be observed on every side, proving that Portland is well up on the final word uttered in sporting circles.

Riding a Favorite Hobby

After one glimpse at the Horse Show, who can deny that the equestrienne's hobby is a most fascinating one? And not the least of its charm lies in the suitability with which one may don a riding outfit of homespun, herringbone, tweed, Oxford cloth or diagonal mixtures, cut with all the style that only a riding habit can acquire.

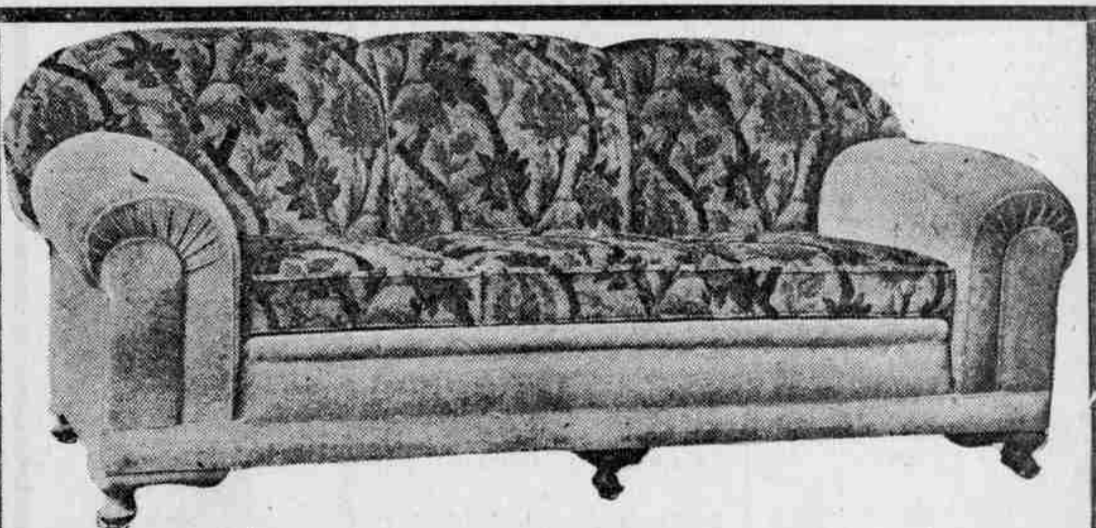

Or Is Your Hobby?—

Golfing Then will you enthuse over the many new sweaters which have been imported to the Sports Shop on the third floor. Sweaters that have met the test of European popularity and still hold first place by merit of their indisputable air of "being the thing." Colors, we think, are worthy of remark—they are marvelously soft, yet so clear in tone.

Motoring Just the thing! And new! It is so new that Portland does not yet know that it is here. The knitted suit. But so different—a two-piece suit, chic and tailored; with a flaring skirt and a jacket whose fitted waist, one-button fastening and ripple are more dashing than words can say. And with it one may wear scarfs—such wool scarfs as would tempt anyone into the open.

Sweaters, Scarfs and Knitted Suits are shown in the Sports Shop on the Third Floor.
