

SOCIETY

Miss Grace Simpson Whose Engagement Has Been Announced.

Miss Georgia Fletcher Who Was a Bridesmaid at the Cameron-Mulaku Wedding.

(Continued from page 2.)
 Lundy, the second prize to Mrs. Bonefi, and third to Mrs. Cooper. Among the men, first honors were won by George Wood, Mr. Howard and Mr. Kerr winning second and third prizes, respectively. Sweet cider was served. Next Tuesday will be the regular business meeting in Maccabee hall.

Oregon assembly No. 1, United Artisans, gave a card party and dance in Woodmen of the World hall, 123 Eleventh street, Thursday night. A chicken supper was served and the large crowd that was present enjoyed every minute. Thursday, November 9, Oregon assembly will hold the regular business meeting. The officers and drill team of Liberty assembly will have charge of the meeting, and all master Artisans and past masters will be honor guests. Refreshments will consist of creamed chicken, hot biscuits and coffee. All visiting Artisans are more than welcome.

Thursday, October 26, the staff of Phalena temple, Pythian Sisters, entertain at Orpha temple by giving the fantastic "Snak Sisters" Friday night. The staff, assisted Phalanx, Knights of Pythias, in giving a programme at their "Grocery Shower," given to benefit the Pythian relief bureau. Saturday Phalena temple held "open house" and a delightful programme was given by the young folks. All were garbed in appropriate Halloween dress. This was the first public appearance of 4-year-old Alice De Witt, who danced with grace and skill, the more remarkable as the child as never had instruction in either dancing or music.

Saturday, November 11, Phalena temple will have its usual bi-monthly initiation. At this time they will entertain the Pythian sisters from Vancouver, Wash. Any other members who wish to visit will be welcome.

Mrs. W. G. Thatcher of 114 Paramount apartment was delightfully surprised Thursday night. Among those present were: Mrs. Leo MacDonald, Mrs. Dan McLoughlin, Mrs. Charles Lillis, Mrs. Will McLoughlin, Mrs. J. H. Brockhagen, Mrs. J. Vermorel, Mrs. R. Coyle and the Misses Jessie MacDonald, Marie O'Hare, Irene O'Hare, Marie Deschner.

Mrs. Thatcher and her brother, Jack Tierney, will leave for the east soon.

Saturday night was a gala time in the lives of Portland Camp Fire girls. The occasion was their masquerade Halloween party, held in the ball room of the Multnomah hotel. The 150 girls with their friends and parents made merry with games and dancing. The many masquerade crowns worn by the girls showed that they were designed along the lines of economy as well as beauty. In chaperoning the girls, Mrs. White, Camp Fire girls' executive, was assisted by many of the guardians. This is one of the happy occasions that the Guardians' association is planning for the girls of Camp Fire.

James A. Garfield circle, No. 32, Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic, will give the second card party of the series Thursday, November 9, at 1:30 P. M. in the Woodmen of the World hall, East Sixth and Alder streets. Hand-made prizes will be awarded. The public is invited.

Sunnyside temple, East Thirty-ninth street and Hawthorne avenue, was the scene of an inspiring meeting Monday night, October 30, when Sunnyside Bethel, Daughters of Job, had as their guests the members of Friendship Bethel No. 1 and Victory Bethel, together with their respective advisory councils. The work of the order was exemplified by Friendship Bethel and was put in excellent form. Great credit must be given to Mrs. Minnie L. South, local deputy guardian, as it has been through her untiring efforts that these officers were able to make this showing.

It was a great privilege to have

Investigate our complete line of Leather Goods —2d Floor

SPECIAL COMPOSITION DOLL
 Jointed and durable.
 Moving eyes with eye lashes.
 Sewed mohair wig.
 Cotton chemise.

Height of doll 23 inches. Each $2.48

Toy Department
 3d Floor
The J. K. Gill Co.
 Third and Alder Streets

Time is short. Order your Personal Engraved Greeting Cards Now with them at that time Mrs. Etta Bueretta, state guardian, who gave an appropriate address upon the order. Other speakers were J. H. Hankin, master of Sunnyside blue lodge, who welcomed the new order and spoke upon their aims and ideals. C. C. Stout, a member of the Sunnyside Bethel advisory council, also spoke. At the close of the meeting refreshments were served.

Mrs. Alfred DeCristoforo (formerly Josephine Baratta) entertained Saturday, October 28, at a delightful Halloween party. The evening was spent with dancing and games and a buffet supper was served at midnight. The parlor and adjoining rooms were artistically decorated in autumn leaves and white and yellow chrysanthemums with beautiful lanterns and the seasonal colors of orange and black. Those who enjoyed the hospitality of the hostess were the Misses Josephine Greco, Adilyn and Julia Casciato, Valentine Baratta, Mollie Carlo, Marie Ambrose, Rose Giura, Margaret and Marie Mosocco, Mrs. M. J. Greco, Anna and Anna Buzell, Rose DeCristoforo and Frances DeCristoforo; Messrs. Frank Baratta, Angelo Bosch, Dan and Vito Carlo, Frank Greco, Lewis Mosocco, Dominic Venturi, Aurelio DeMichele, James Rogers, Edward Napoli, Francis Fanella, Thomas Jones, Harold McGuire, Joseph Casciato, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Paladini, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Clossel and Mr. DeCristoforo and the hostess.

Monday evening, November 6, the Chirillion club will hold its next dancing party at Christensen's hall and will be for members only. The recent Halloween party was a wonderful success and the committee in charge of the coming one expect to make it the best of the season. The committee hopes that all who belong and can come will be present to help along the new venture of the club in making all the dances for the balance of the season last and hostesses' parties. Dancing will be from 9 to 12 o'clock and those in charge are Mr. and Mrs. C. Whitteley, Miss Lockwood, Miss Georgia Howe, Mr. Stucke and J. E. Kofodt.

An elaborate Halloween party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Miller, 514 Broadway, Tuesday night. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. J. Hopp, Miss Anna Walker, Miss Elizabeth Jorg, Miss Lydia Hopp, Miss Anna Schnell, Miss Marie Hopp, Miss Helen, Billie Brown, Carl Hopp, Rex Stratton, Sidney Sorenson and Robert Patterson. A midnight supper was served and a musical programme furnished entertainment.

Mr. and Mrs. John Schuttef of Logan celebrated their golden wedding anniversary Sunday, October 22. They were married October 22, 1872 in Ohio, and went to Missouri in 1874. They had seven daughters, five of whom are living. Fifty-two relatives were present—Mrs. Rose Gallagher and family and Mrs. Lydia Schlapf and family of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Teschopp and family, Mr. and Mrs. G. Strahn and family, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Moser and family and Mr. and Mrs. John Boss and family of Logan, Mr. and Mrs. C. Maier and family of Milwaukee and Dan Malzer of Hood River.

The Alberta Forward club held its regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Irwin Lawson Thursday. Sixteen members responded to rollcall with "memory gems." An open discussion on "Favorite Authors" was held.

On October 30 the club entertained families and friends with a Halloween party at Cowley's hall, East Twenty-eighth and Alberta streets. About 50 attended.

Games and dancing were followed by musical numbers by Mrs. Dwight Green at the piano and Harry Clark on the banjo, and vocal numbers by Mrs. Arthur Perrin and Lieutenant Robert Crane.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Ralph Pogue, 1665 East Twenty-sixth street North, on November 16.

Monday night Miss Verna L. Smith celebrated the 15th of her girl friends at a costume party at her home, 114 East Forty-eighth street. The early part of the evening was spent with Halloween stunts and music. About 9 o'clock the guests led the guests into a dark room. When the lights were turned on two large red satin hearts announced the engagement of Miss Smith to Raymond Smith of Zigzag, Or.

Miss Smith is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert V. Smith. She is assistant cashier of the Portland Gas & Coke company.

Mr. Smith is a Chicago man. He is in the government service and stationed at Zigzag, Or. The wedding will take place in the winter.

Last Saturday night, October 28, Misses Mayme Paulsohn and Ruth Peterson entertained a large number of friends at a Halloween party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Paulsohn, 253 East Seventieth street north.

The home was decorated in autumn leaves and Halloween trimmings. The crowd joined in playing games, after which Lawrence Carlson played several violin selections. Mr. and Mrs. Paulsohn served refreshments.

Those who attended the party were: Misses Mayme Paulsohn, Ruth Peterson, Anna Erickson, Florence Newman, Minnie Rodlund, Elsie Erickson, Gladys Olson, Agnes Eastlund, Mabel Olson, Loren Peterson, Nan Olson, Agnes Karberg, Esther Sunberg, Marie Fostvedt and Julia Anderson.

Messrs. Alfred Larson, Lester Paulsohn, Sidney Peterson, Paul Johnson, Wesley Molin, Carl Street, Harry Johnson, Carl Akesson, Donald Carlson, Oscar Johnson, Lawrence Carlson, Nathan Sunberg, Reuben Peterson, Philip Hedeen, Truman Peterson and Carl Burgess.

A number of Eastern Star members will leave today in a special car to attend the biennial assembly of the general grand chapter, which convenes in Washington, D. C., November 14. Those in the party are Mrs. Therese M. Castner, worthy grand matron, Hood River; Miss Nellie McKinley, grand secretary; Mrs. Pauline Moore Riley, Mrs. Lena C. Mendenhall, Mrs. Mary M. Reischer, Mrs. Della L. Houston, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Evans, Leslie S. Parker, all of Portland; Mrs. Doris E. Schlike, La Grande; Mrs. Minnie C. Letson, Ontario; Mrs. Nellie McGowan, Medford; Mrs. Mabel Setlumer, Woodburn; Mrs. Mary E. Houck, Roseburg; Thomas F. Ryan, Oregon City; C. A. Howard, Marshfield. With the exception of the two grand officers all others are past grand matrons and patrons of the grand chapter of Oregon. This will be the largest delegation from any grand jurisdiction west of Chicago.

COMING EVENTS.
 The social event at the First Congregational church next week is called "Main Street." The spacious parlors downstairs will be made to look like a village street. On both sides of the street there will be shops at which various things will be sold. At the end of the street will be the courthouse, at which Judge George will preside. Judge Rossman will administer fines on Wednesday evening. W. D. Scott is chief constable. Andy Gump, Harold Lloyd, Mutt and Jeff and other celebrities will be present. The Huggery seven orchestra will give a concert each evening. Riddle's museum of curios and monsters will be open to all. Even the custodian of the church has been interested in the scheme and he will run the Goozee moving theater. Meier & Frank company's radio broadcaster will give election returns on Tuesday night. The "Four Square" Sunday school class will conduct a shoe shining parlor. A. P. Hughes will run the village express and post-office. Martin & Sturm's torgery will sell all manner of men's furnishings. Morrison Handmaker will print calling and business cards. Frank Mangold is the proprietor of the cafeteria. C. J. Walker and a group of assistants will control the chocolate fountain. A. O. Smith will manage a coffee shop. George Murphy is the conductor of the "Black Cat." Harold Gilbert will sell reliable toys. George Cressler manages the bookery. A. G. Adams runs the fruit and vegetable emporium. M. Walton has transported a bit of his Hood River apple ranch to the Sunday school room. Fred Nelson sells seeds, bulbs and flowers. J. C. Naylor runs the washery. T. H. Reeves has a pumpkin exchange. Dr. McElveen is the proprietor of a bakery that also sells preserves and pickles. Main Street will be open for business Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons and evenings.

Myrtle chapter, Order Eastern Star, will hold its annual bazaar Friday afternoon and night, November 10, in Pythian temple. Articles for sale will include home cooking, fancy work, rag rugs, home-made candy, hand-made quilts, plain and embroidered aprons and many other miscellaneous novelties. A 50-cent buffet dinner will be served at 6 o'clock. A special feature will be a display of beautifully dressed dolls at attractive prices. A fortune telling booth is also announced. The following is a list of chairmen in charge of the various committees: Mrs. Jennie Galloway, Mrs. Elizabeth Lomax, Mrs. Lizzie A. Bailey, Mrs. Minnie Wolf, Mrs. Louise Griffin, Mrs. Mary Cameron, Mrs. Ruth Echeberry, Mrs. Della McIntyre, Mrs. Mary Munter, Mrs. Ida Willis, Leon Gibbs, H. E. McIntyre and Charles W. Simmons. A turkey will be given away as a door prize. Admission is free.

Waverly Vocal society will meet tomorrow at Waverly hall, Twenty-sixth and Clinton streets. Luncheon will be served at 1 o'clock. Joint hostesses are Mrs. Margaret Clark, Alta Gerber, Myrtle Perry, Ray Richards and Lenora Renshaw.

Mrs. L. H. Hensen and her assistant hostesses, Mesdames Larin, Duke, Hollenbeck and Frideman, are planning a delightful dance at the new Portland Women's clubhouse, Twelfth and Taylor streets, Wednesday, November 15. This will be the initial greetor-dance of the season, and all members of charter 26, Greetingers of America, and their friends are invited.

The Friday Afternoon club will meet next Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Maurice A. Bray, 881 East Kelly street. The programme will include a book review by Mrs. Edgar H. Whitney, who will discuss "The Age of Innocence," by Edith Wharton. Responses to roll-call will be current fiction. Lunch will be served at 1 o'clock.

The Minnesota State society will hold its regular monthly social meeting and dance next Wednesday at 8:15 P. M. in Turnverein hall, Thirteenth and Main streets. This is the night following the state election and one of the important features will be the election returns, which will be announced from a bulletin board on the stage at intervals. The society in a brief ad-

AGAIN WE TELL IT WITH VALUES

New York — Seattle San Francisco — Los Angeles

Sweet Sixteen—The Garments of the Day

EXPRESSING VIVIDLY AND SENSIBLY the fashions authenticated by Paris and New York and enthusiastically taken up by the women of Portland as the most worthy exponents of youthful, fascinating and inimitable styles

OVER 400 NEW DRESSES

most of which introduce the latest turns of Fashion's newest whims—dispatched to us from New York to play a part in our last week's selling, are going to make over 400 women very happy as they are displayed and released this week at

MILLINERY DEPARTMENT
 Visit our Millinery Department under the personal supervision of J. J. Dolan, the Woman's Hatter, formerly manager of Lipman, Wolfe & Co. Millinery Department.

Had they arrived in time for last week's selling they would have created a furore along with the thousands of other

WONDERFUL VALUES THAT HAVE RE-AWAKENED PORTLAND TO 'SWEET SIXTEEN'S' CONTINUED VALUE-GIVING.

They are the very climax of smartness—sparkling with youthfulness, yet truly becoming women of years, in sizes 16 to 44. Fine Tricotine, heavy Canton Crepes, Velvets, Poiret Twills, beaded and embroidered, for day and every other use, as well as dainty party dresses in Georgettes, Laces and Taffetas.

FURS

Giving full weight to the importance of our guarantee of Quality and Superior Workmanship, who can not appreciate our Fur Coats

MAN-MADE SPORT and COLLEGE COATS

Chic tricks in Tweeds and two-faced materials for the College girl and general sport wear. Mixtures and novelty weaves giving gay touches to the modish ideas of both the miss and more matronly woman : : : : $16

COATS AND WRAPS OF NEW DISTINCTIONS
 —in the very fine grade of Velours with tailoring that makes them worth ever so much more. For the street, motor and all-round wear.

THANKS TO OUR PORTLAND WOMEN
 They showed great appreciation of our value-giving the past few days. We have had to merit it. We can not rest on the glory of this splendid showing. We must continue holding this confidence, and we will. Thank you!

$16 145-147 BROADWAY, PORTLAND

Big Sale on Coats and Suits
The Famous
 355 Alder, Corner Park