Mrs. G. B. Frankel Who Will Participate in A Reception To Be Given At The Flower Show

Mrs. Charles W. Martin And Her Granddaughters

A graduate of Stanford university, where she was a member of the Phi Beta Phi sorority. Mr. Sammons is the son of Mrs. May J. Sammons. He is a prominent young business man, being assistant cashier of the United States National bank. During the war he served with great distinction overseas with the 35th division. The wedding will be an interesting event of early spring.

Mrs. C. D. Brown has asked guests to an informal bridge party Tuesday afternoon.

Harry Cloutier was host at an attractive dinner last Saturday evening preceding the Yillium dance. His guests included Mrs. Margaret Ayer Hayden, Miss Adelaide Terry, Mrs. Paul Terry, Mr. and Mrs. Earle Latourette, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hauser, Frederick L. Smith and Arnan Whitmer.

Friday evening Mrs. Margaret Ayer Hayden gave a buffet supper at her home, and later the guests enjoyed dancing at the Hotel Portland. Her guests were Mr. and Mrs. August Van Rosendaal, Mr. and Mrs. Earle Latourette, Miss Adelaide Terry, Mrs. Paul Terry, Miss Isabelle Clark, Frederick Lassen Smith, Harry Cloutier, Arnan Whitmer and Leland Steiner.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Allen are now residing at their new home at 909 Tichner avenue, on Arlington Heights.

Mrs. Pat Allen will entertain the women members of the Portland Golf club next Friday at a luncheon at the clubhouse. Plans for the next tournament will be discussed. Mr. and Mrs. Allen have recently returned from an extended visit in New Orleans, Kansas City and several other places in the south.

Mr. and Mrs. Coe A. McKenna were hosts for a charming dinner given Monday night at Hotel Portland. Autumn blossoms formed an attractive centerpiece. Covers were placed for ten. Later the party occupied a box at the horse show.

A smart event among the debutante set was the dinner and supper dance given Friday evening at Hotel Portland by Mrs. Edward Holman, to honor the 15th birthday anniversary of Robert Holman.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick E. Judd entertained with a beautifully appointed dinner at Hotel Portland Friday evening. Covers were placed for eight.

Preceding the Japanese consul's ball Mr. and Mrs. Frank Branch Jilley presided over an attractive dinner. Their guests included Mr. and Mrs. James Gillison, Mr. and Mrs. C. Edmund King and Mr. and Mrs. Pierre Rossier Hines.

Mrs. Anderson M. Cannon and Mrs. Merrill B. Moores entertained with an attractive tea Wednesday afternoon for their aunt, Mrs. F. N. Gilbert, who leaves soon for a trip around the world. Mrs. Clarence Honolulu were also guests of honor. Presiding at the tea table were Mrs. D. E. Wolverton, Mrs. H. C. Wortman, Mrs. A. D. Charlton and Mrs. W. H. Hooga. Assisting in the living room were the Mesdames Edmund Mautz, Frederick Patterson, Ernest Meyer, Marie Newman and John Wittscombe. A group of the younger set assisted in the dining room. They were Mrs. Henry Clay, Miss Elizabeth Halley, Mrs. Harold Bean, Mrs. Chester Moores, Mrs. George Allen Lawrence and Miss Grace Hoyden.

Mrs. J. R. Myers of Berkeley arrived in the city last Monday and will make her home with her sister, Mrs. T. T. Strain, of 1925 Franklin street. Mrs. Myers before her marriage was Clara Dekum and has spent most of her married life in the Hawaiian islands, but four years ago she and her husband left there to make their home in Berkeley, where her husband's death occurred last July.

All Chi Omegas in Portland are invited to attend the regular alumni meeting next Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. John Justice, 189 East Sixteenth street south. Take the Brooklyn car to Sixteenth street.

An affair which will long be remembered for its charm and distinctiveness was the ball and reception at the Multnomah hotel given by the Japanese consul, Yonji Takeda, and Mrs. Takeda Friday evening. Mrs. Takeda was much admired in her
