

News World As Seen By Camera

Teacher In Far North Returns From Amundsen's Camp © Underwood & Underwood, N.Y.

E. J. WARD, teacher in the United States public school at Wainwright, Alaska, the northernmost point in America, has just returned with his daughter, Martha, to Washington. Ward has "the call of the north," and wants to go back.

Captain Gordon-Smith, captain of cavalry in the Royal Serbian army, is now connected with the Serbian legation in Washington. He was originally sent to Washington.

Mrs. Henry C. Wallace, wife of the secretary of agriculture, and Mrs. Edwin Denby, wife of the secretary of the navy, recently attended a private showing at the chrysanthemum show in the conservatories at the department of agriculture.

Brigadier General William Mitchell, assistant chief of the army air service and one of the most dashing generals in the army, took part in the army horse show recently in the Washington monument grounds.

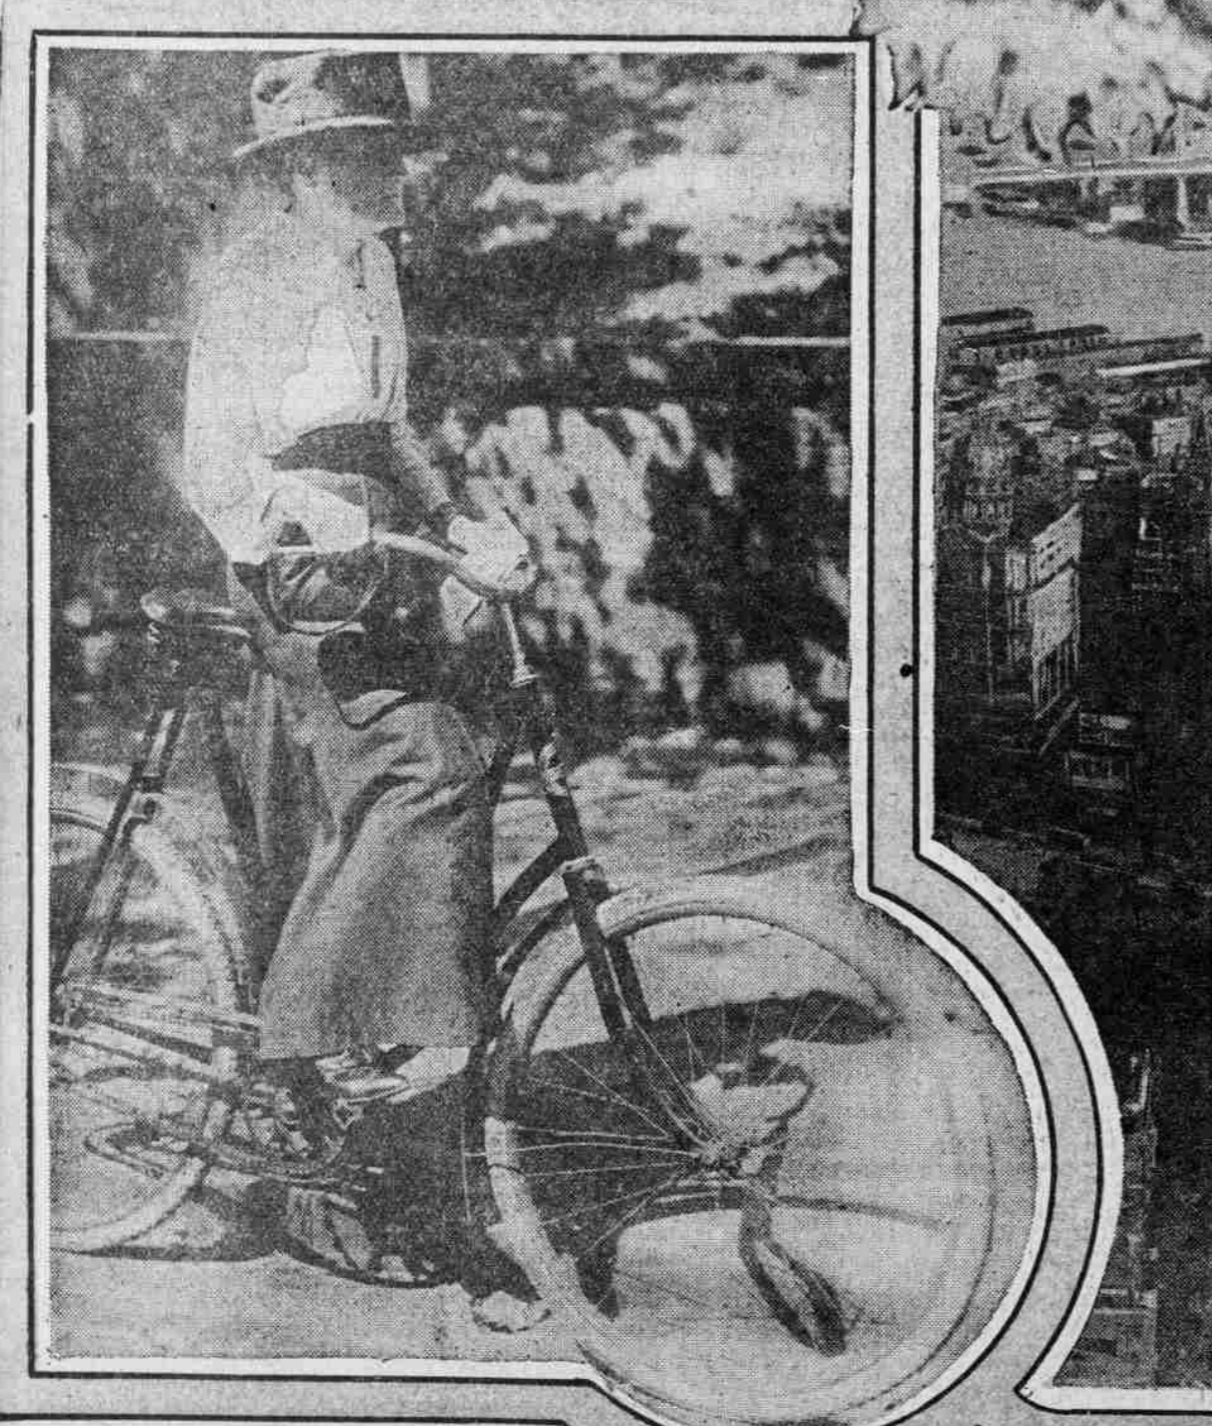

The fashion of riding bicycles comes and goes, but Miss M. Kearns, employe in the interior department at Washington, declares that she has ridden hers for 25 years.

A remarkable contrast of American engineering science of half a century ago and today is illustrated by the photographs taken from the air of the great Woolworth building—highest building in the world—which towers over all the other skyscrapers of Manhattan.

Lady Allen Johnston, sister of Mr. Gifford Pinchot, who is candidate for governor of Pennsylvania, is one of the most distinguished visitors in the capital for the fall season.

Wives of Cabinet Members Attend Flower Show © Underwood & Underwood, N.Y.

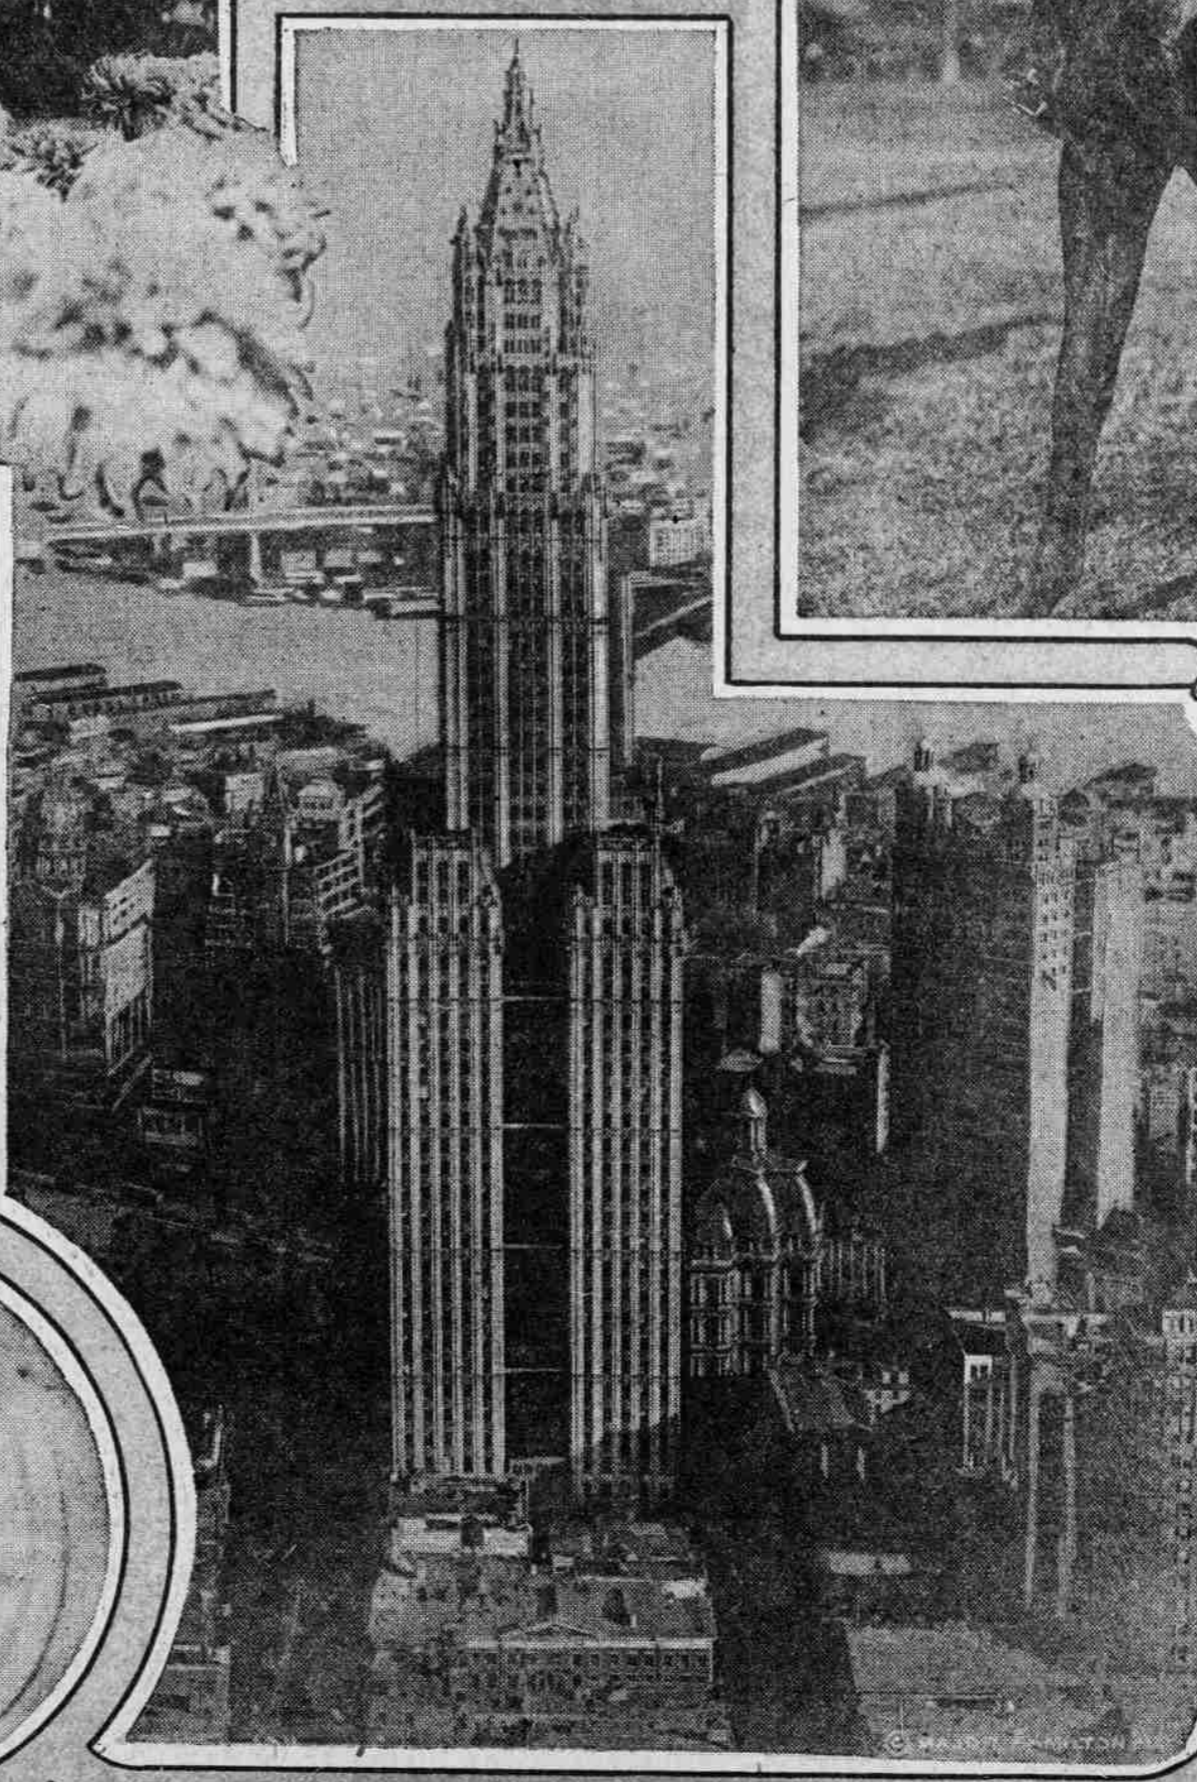

Woman Rides Bicycle For 25 Years © Underwood & Underwood, N.Y.

Portrait of Captain Gordon-Smith © Underwood & Underwood, N.Y.

Air Chief Takes Part In Army Horse Show © Underwood & Underwood, N.Y.

New York's Great Gothic Cathedral of Commerce © Underwood & Underwood, N.Y.

Lady Johnston Is White House Guest © Underwood & Underwood, N.Y.