

Society

becomingly gowned in blue crepe and silver brocade and carrying pink roses.

Miss Jean Geisler of Portland, also a Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority sister, as bridesmaid, wore a frock of blue crepe and carried white roses.

The bride centered with her brother, P. A. Dielschneider, who gave her in marriage. The straight, single lines of her gown were becoming. The bodice was fashioned with a round neck and short sleeves of brown silk crepe and lace, and skirt draped in soft folds of Spanish lace. She carried Opheia roses.

Philip Holmes acted as groomsmen for his brother.

An informal reception followed the ceremony. Messrs. Lowell Keen of Portland and Mrs. Harver Johnson were in charge of the dining room, decorated with pink snapdragons and lighted by tall pink candles in crystal censers. Assisting were Miss Evelyn Macey and Miss Mina Redmond.

In the hotel room the bride's cake was served, by Mrs. Walter Miller, and the punch bowl presided over by Mrs. Pierre Mead of Portland and Miss Beattie Converse.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Holmes were students at the University of Oregon, where she was affiliated with Kappa Kappa Gamma, and he with Phi Delta Theta and the To-Ko-lo honor society. During the war Mr. Holmes served with distinction as a member of the formal guard, American expeditious force.

An engagement of interest in college circles was announced Saturday evening November 11, when Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Hawley entertained at a dinner and dance at Mrs. Henderson's Crown Point chalet on the Columbia river highway, announcing the engagement of their daughter Francelle to Willis E. Earl. Those present included Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schlegel, the Messes Beatrice, Edith, Joseph, Curtis, Thelma, Dykes and Francelle Hawley and Eugene Robinson, Mark Skiff and Willis Earl.

Mr. Hawley, the bride-elect's father, is a member of the board of regents of the Oregon Agricultural college and holds the office of state dairy and food commissioner. Mr. Hawley was graduated from the Oregon Agricultural college in 1920 and is a member of the Phi Beta Phi sorority. She was active in home economics work, being vice-president of the Home Economics club and manager of the home economics exhibit in 1919.

Mr. Earl is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Earl of Reedsport, Or. At the time of the war he enlisted in the 55th aero squadron, spending 22 months in service, 17 months of which were spent overseas. Mr. Earl is now in the automobile business in Portland.

An interesting musical and social event of last Friday evening was given at the Ellison-White conservatory studios, when Susie Ponnell Pipes and David Campbell, pianist, played a programme for the students and their parents. The programme included the Schutt suite for piano and violin and a group of piano solos by Mr. Campbell.

Presiding at the refreshment table were Mrs. Dora Danforth and Mrs. C. P. Osborne. Assisting about the room were Misses White, Searling, Anderson, Teal Parker, Danforth, Osborne, Stone and Nyberg.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Maurice was the scene of a very pretty home wedding Sunday, November 12, when Miss Gertrude Moore, daughter of Mrs. Maude E. Moore, became the bride of Mr. Jay I. Gore, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Gore of Medford.

Miss Moore is a graduate of Lincoln high school and the University of Southern California. For the past year she has been with the Pangle Light Oil and Gas company.

Mr. Gore is the son of a prominent pioneer family of Medford and attended the University of Oregon, where he was a member of the Beta Theta Pi fraternity.

The couple will reside in Medford.

Miss Loretta Elicanor Capri, whose engagement has been announced to A. M. Persia of this city, will be of great interest to her wide circle of friends in the east. Miss Capri has made her home here since last November.

In honor of Nathan Berkham's 12th birthday, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sigmond gave a dinner at their home on November 12. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. A. Gottfeld and son Martin from Olympia, Wash. Mr. and Mrs. George Berkham and son Nathan and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sigmond and their children, Irwin and Robert.

At a pretty ceremony yesterday afternoon, the wedding of Miss Katherine Mildred Baker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Baker, and Allyn Capron Burton, son of Mrs. P. B. Burton, was solemnized at St. Mark's Episcopal church. The Right Rev. William P. Remington, recently elected bishop of the eastern Oregon diocese of the church, officiated. Miss Catherine Carter was maid of honor, and Robert Blinn was best man. E. Banks Mortimer and Corbett Alexander were ushers, and the wedding march was played by Mrs. A. S. Kolstad.

The bride wore a handsome givaway gown of midnight blue tulle. She wore a corsage bouquet of lilies of the valley and pink bride's roses.

Mrs. Burton was formerly a student at the University of Oregon and is a member of the Delta Gamma sorority. Mr. Burton, formerly a student at the University of California, is a member of Alpha Tau Omega. Both are members of pioneer Hood River families. They are popular young people and received many handsome and valuable presents. Mr. and Mrs. Burton left following a reception at the home of the latter's parents on a lovely moon of cool position. They will be at home after January 1 at a bungalow now being completed on Oak Street. Mr. Burton is a great war veteran having been overseas with the 55th regiment, coast artillery corps.

The reception was attended only by immediate members of the wedding party. Mrs. George H. L. Sharp and Mrs. Trafford E. Smith, valley matrons, poured and served ices and cakes.

The marriage of Georgiana Fletcher and Sidney Williams took place recently in Pendleton at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Fletcher. Rev. Alfred Lockwood, pastor of the Church of the Redeemer, officiated.

The bride entered to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march played by an orchestra composed of Bobby, Billy, Florence and Eleanor Fletcher, young brothers and sisters of Miss Fletcher. She wore a lovely frock of blue charmeuse with an overdress of flowered chiffon, and a corsage of red roses and lilies of the valley.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served. Oregon grape and chrysanthemums decorated the Fletcher home.

Mr. and Mrs. Williams left yesterday for Portland, where they will make their home. The bride is a member of an old pioneer family of Pendleton. Mr. Williams, who formerly resided in Bendleton, is the son of Mrs. Nellie Gates Williams of Portland. He is a grandson of John Gates of Portland. They will reside at 35 East Twenty-second street North.

A marriage of interest to a wide circle of Portland friends occurred recently in the residence of Mrs. Miss Willam Samson Macaulay became the bride of Mr. Samuel Inlow Ross. The ceremony took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Howard where the bride has been a house guest for some weeks. Dr. Walter Scott Priest of the First Christian church officiated. The bride wore a stunning model in sand-colored canton crepe with a large picture hat, a corsage of orchids and roses completing her costume. A wedding breakfast was served immediately following the ceremony, after which Mr. and Mrs. Ross left for a motor trip to Kansas City, later going on to New Orleans.

The bride is a former resident of Portland, where she was very popular socially. She is the daughter of Mrs. Cornelius Sweeney of Helena, Mont. She left Portland some weeks ago to visit in Montana and Kansas. Mr. Ross is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Ross of Jackson, Tenn. He is a graduate of the University of Tennessee. Following a wedding tour they will reside in Fort Worth, Tex., where he is engaged in the oil business.

Mr. and Mrs. George C. Avery entertained Tuesday in honor of their daughter Harriett's 11th birthday. Dancing and music were enjoyed by the little folks. Martin Marks Jr. played several selections. Mrs. J. G. Avery assisted Mrs. Avery.

Members of the Intercollegiate "hop" committee, who motored to homecoming at Eugene last week-end, report that a large number of college folk will be in Portland to attend the dance Thanksgiving night at the Multnomah hotel. Large posters announcing this annual affair were much in evidence at the Oregon-Pullman game. Honor guests of the evening will be members of the Olympic club and Multnomah football teams, who play in Portland that day.

Mrs. Willis T. Tiller entertained the Woman's club at an attractive luncheon on Wednesday. The rooms were tastefully decorated, the color scheme being pink. Guests of hostess included Mrs. Hamilton, H. Johnston, Mrs. J. Jarvis and Mrs. E. W. Snell, assisting with serving.

Miss Alice McElroy was hostess to her friends at the Portland Heights club last Monday evening. Cards and dancing entertained the guests during the large part of the evening and later several musical numbers were much enjoyed. A flute quartet, played by H. E. Knight, Robert E. Millard, Ivelio Nicol and John C. Abbott, members of the Portland Symphony orchestra, was a delightful number. Mrs. Herman Bohman sang two numbers and Miss Genevieve Gilbert and Hal Young also sang. Miss Lloyd accompanied.

Miss Gertrude Fredden of The Dalles, who is attending Reed college, honored Miss Ilma Rordon (turned from extended travels in Europe, with a charming dinner party in the Japanese room of the Rest commons Tuesday night. Miss Rordon is a member of Kappa Alpha Rordon and spent a few days at Corvallis on her way north.

The bride's sister, Miss Dorothy Leaman, the guest of honor, presided at the dinner were Miss Nancy Gavin, Miss Alice Johnson, Miss Lillian Kilham and Miss Margaret McGowan of Portland, Robert Pippen and James Stone of New York, William Graham of Butte, Mont., and Clifford Johnson, Donald Randall and William Brewer of Portland.

Mrs. Fred L. Hartman entertained at bridge on Thursday at her Irving home, honoring Mrs. Torrence M. Beck, recently of Seattle, and Mrs. Ray Wheeler of Shaaniko. The guests included Mrs. Henry Arthur White, Mrs. Orval H. Miller, Mrs. E. E. Henderson, Mrs. Clarence E. Guernsey, Mrs. Walter H. Yerlan, Mrs. Tarrence M. Beck, Mrs. Ray Wheeler, Mrs. Edgar J. Bryan, Mrs. J. H. White, Mrs. Coleman Wheeler, and Mrs. W. M. Kirkpatrick.

The beautiful country home of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Flint was the scene of an elaborate wedding on Sunday, November 5, when their daughter Julia Estella became the bride of Donald W. McLannan of Seattle. Decorations were artistic in autumn leaves and greenery, the predominating color scheme being carried out in great bouquets of dried chrysanthemums. One hundred and fifty invitations were issued.

The ceremony took place under an arch in one end of the large living room. Mrs. J. E. Davis of Beaverton sang "Until" June Hudson played a pleasing instrumental number. Mrs. Harry Hoefel sang, "I Love You Truly." The wedding march was played by a cousin of the bride, Mrs. Robert Smith of Portland. Little Marybel Flint, flower girl, and Miss Ruth Flint, bridesmaid, both cousins of the bride, were charming in dainty yellow and carried out in great bouquets of dried chrysanthemums. The bride was joined at the altar by the groom and his best man, Mr. Earl Messinger. A simple ring service was impressively read by Rev. John F. Coleman, pastor of the Scholl's church.

The bride wore a white crepe de chine gown, beautiful in its simplicity, elaborated only with hand work and beading. She wore a dainty veil held in place by orange blossoms and carried a bouquet of Opheia roses.

After the ceremony an elaborate buffet luncheon was served. The bride received many beautiful gifts.

Miss Gertrude Fredden of The Dalles, who is attending Reed college, honored Miss Ilma Rordon (turned from extended travels in Europe, with a charming dinner party in the Japanese room of the Rest commons Tuesday night. Miss Rordon is a member of Kappa Alpha Rordon and spent a few days at Corvallis on her way north.

The bride's sister, Miss Dorothy Leaman, the guest of honor, presided at the dinner were Miss Nancy Gavin, Miss Alice Johnson, Miss Lillian Kilham and Miss Margaret McGowan of Portland, Robert Pippen and James Stone of New York, William Graham of Butte, Mont., and Clifford Johnson, Donald Randall and William Brewer of Portland.

Mrs. Fred L. Hartman entertained at bridge on Thursday at her Irving home, honoring Mrs. Torrence M. Beck, recently of Seattle, and Mrs. Ray Wheeler of Shaaniko. The guests included Mrs. Henry Arthur White, Mrs. Orval H. Miller, Mrs. E. E. Henderson, Mrs. Clarence E. Guernsey, Mrs. Walter H. Yerlan, Mrs. Tarrence M. Beck, Mrs. Ray Wheeler, Mrs. Edgar J. Bryan, Mrs. J. H. White, Mrs. Coleman Wheeler, and Mrs. W. M. Kirkpatrick.

The beautiful country home of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Flint was the scene of an elaborate wedding on Sunday, November 5, when their daughter Julia Estella became the bride of Donald W. McLannan of Seattle. Decorations were artistic in autumn leaves and greenery, the predominating color scheme being carried out in great bouquets of dried chrysanthemums. One hundred and fifty invitations were issued.

The ceremony took place under an arch in one end of the large living room. Mrs. J. E. Davis of Beaverton sang "Until" June Hudson played a pleasing instrumental number. Mrs. Harry Hoefel sang, "I Love You Truly." The wedding march was played by a cousin of the bride, Mrs. Robert Smith of Portland. Little Marybel Flint, flower girl, and Miss Ruth Flint, bridesmaid, both cousins of the bride, were charming in dainty yellow and carried out in great bouquets of dried chrysanthemums. The bride was joined at the altar by the groom and his best man, Mr. Earl Messinger. A simple ring service was impressively read by Rev. John F. Coleman, pastor of the Scholl's church.

The bride wore a white crepe de chine gown, beautiful in its simplicity, elaborated only with hand work and beading. She wore a dainty veil held in place by orange blossoms and carried a bouquet of Opheia roses.

After the ceremony an elaborate buffet luncheon was served. The bride received many beautiful gifts.

The bride couple are spending their short honeymoon at the Oregon beaches and will make their future home on a large ranch near Astoria, Or.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. A. B. Flint, state representative from Washington county, and having lived here all her life is well known throughout the county. The groom has been a resident of Washington county for many years and is well known.

Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Johnson Jr. of Seattle, are receiving congratulations upon the arrival of a daughter, born Monday, November 13, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur M. Eldowney at Forest Grove, Or.

Miss Margaret Booth was the inspiration for a box party at the Orpheum Tuesday afternoon given by Miss Tess Dillane. The party included Miss Dofis Hicks, Miss Isabella Lundy, Miss Ann Tower, Miss Josephine Booth, Miss Margaret Booth and hostess, Miss Booth is leaving soon to make her home in Seattle.

Mrs. Robert Wade Major's marriage (formerly Miss Betty Jane Brown, 475 East Fifty-third street, North, Portland, was one of the recent social events of this city. Miss Brown was a talented pupil in Russian ballet dancing of Miss Marie Gamme and formerly attended St. Mary's academy. More recently she was a student at the Washington high school, where Mr. Major is professor of English. The marriage took place last Monday morning in the First Christian church of Vancouver, Wash. Rev. William H. Garrett of Portland officiating. Mrs. Major looked charming in a tailored suit of blue duvetyne and a hat to match. She carried a bouquet of bride's roses. The bride was attended by Miss Mildred Ohm and Mrs. Earl N. Brown of Portland. Earl N. Brown, an intimate friend of the groom, acted as best man. After the ceremony the wedding party motored to Portland, where a wedding breakfast was served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl N. Brown in the Tudor Arms apartments.

Mr. Major was born in Kentucky, but is more recently of Ogden and Salt Lake City, Utah. He graduated from the University of Posters, France, in 1920. Prior to that he served two years with the American troops in France and Belgium. He was editor of a regimental soldiers' publication during the training period in France, and was later transferred to the staff of the Stars and Stripes in Paris, where his ability as a writer had been recognized. After the armistice he toured all Europe, including England, Germany, Spain and down into Egypt. Following his graduation from the French university, he returned to the United States in 1920. Last year he was a member of the faculty of the Lewis and Clark high school of Spokane. He came to Portland in August of this year and at present is instructor in English at Washington high school. Mr. Major was actively engaged in dramatic work prior to coming to Portland and, besides his newspaper experience, is a scenario writer of marked ability.

Mr. and Mrs. Major are making their home at the Ambassador apartments.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

The drill corps of Oregon commandery No. 1, Knights Templar, gave their second formal dance of the season at Christensen's hall last Monday evening. Light refreshments were served during the evening. The following attended:

Messrs. and Mesdames—F. W. Ariss, J. C. Albrecht, J. W. Alford, J. C. Bray, W. B. Burton, L. J. Bergmann, Verdi Berg, Thomas J. Blake, George W. Baldwin, J. W. Chase, H. Christofferson, W. L. Corbell, George B. Collins, A. M. Compton, A. E. Davidson, Elmer A. Drost, C. De Young, J. E. Davis, L. E. Elder, Ernest W. Ellis, A. G. Findlay, Ben F. Greene, A. Gies, R. J. Gordon, A. W. Groth, M. G. Goss, Roy Gray, G. H. Hinnenkamp, George C. Hayner, Walter H. Holt, F. W. Howell, J. E. Hammack, J. B. Haviland, John T. Hetchings, Fred O. Jenning, Henry Jenning, A. R. Kellogg, Branch S. Jones, J. L. Latture, Frank Lucas, George C. MacDonald Jr., Frank McJury, W. H. Monroe, R. H. Muhme, Charles Mills, Fred Miller, Robert Martin, T. L. Malloy, Dolph H. Norton, John C. Osborn, R. D. Reene, Ed Reed, E. O. Rann, T. M. Ramsdell, Albert H. Schmidt, Robert Skoen, Fred Simington, Russell H. Stephens, H. L. Stevens, F. T. Stone, Will H. See, A. H. Tregoe, Ben F. Van Kirk, C. F. Wismard, C. W. Young, W. C. Stone, Judge and Mrs. Walter H. Evans, Dr. and Mrs. Frank P. Frey, Dr. and Mrs. O. A. Hess, Dr. and Mrs. J. Clarence Jones and Dr. and Mrs. Sara West.

Misses—Grace Walsh, Beulah Hart, Maimie Siglin, Alice Tate, Flora Kemp, Hoagland, Heber, Lochridge, De Kelloz, Simon, Asia Peebles and Mrs. Weber.

Messrs.—P. H. Dahl, J. G. Durst, R. E. Ploos, C. J. Haster, R. Babcock, E. E. Lawrence, George Meredith, E. S. Noidse, Alex M. Oliver, Carl H. Siglin, Randolph Simpson, J. S. Smith, H. Thompson, W. C. Smith, Dr. Peebles and H. A. Groesbeck Jr.

Utopia Social club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Peake, 1124 Clinton street, last Monday evening, for the arrangement of its next dance and card party to be held in Linnea hall, 608 Irving street, Saturday evening, December 3; also to hear the returns of their dance and card party of November 11, which proved successful financially as well as socially. Those winning at cards were: First prize, S. B. Arnold and Mrs. George Young; second prize, Robert Larson and Mrs. Gertrude Oliver. After the business session a social evening at cards was enjoyed. Mrs. Carl Grove carrying off first prize and Mrs. Henry Myers the consolation prize. Refreshments were served. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. Steele, 344 East Taylor street, Monday evening, December 18.

A benefit party was given by the women of Elks' Card club November 16 in the clubrooms. Both bridge and five hundred were played. Proceeds of the party will be donated to the Christmas tree fund. Those acting as hostesses were Mesdames F. J. Curriegan, E. L. Dimmitt, Hugh Knipe, R. Tauscher, R. L. Yokum, Nelson Gay, W. Allard, L. J. Fuchs, O. Rudig and G. N. Littleton.

Miss Genevieve Kruse and Miss Olive Motting entertained with a dance Friday evening November 10 for members of the younger set. Those present included Helen Winslow, Catherine Roduner, Jane Price, Marjorie Low, Grace Farrell, Betty Low, Dorothy Franklin, Ruth Burnstrager, Beatrice Anderson, Edith Barr, Mildred Thomas, Josephine Price, Bessie Davies, Iola Kellum, Florence Kruse, and Robert Stenell, Laverne Palmer, Carl Gortler, Leroy Louma, Robert Math, Samuel Gortler, Jack Underdown, Harold Sloat, Charles Cram, Lewis Ruenpell, Kenneth Roduner, Warren Coffeen, Jay Hardin, Harold Kelley, Ted McGrath, Bert Mickey and Mott Walker.

A vaudeville entertainment which preceded the annual club smoker (Continued on Page 7.)

H-LIEBES & CO.

Furs and individual style shops Broadway at Morrison

Modes that keep pace with the advancing season

Simpler lines, richer fabrics, softer furs—and this as true of frocks as coats—this is the tale fashion writes for winter—

Imported, beaded velvet frocks

—destined for dinner wear—are patterned with charming originality on that soft silk velvet called "salome"—in white, jade, platinum, scarlet and tete de negre. Original French models, priced from100.00

Coats flare or drape, like frocks

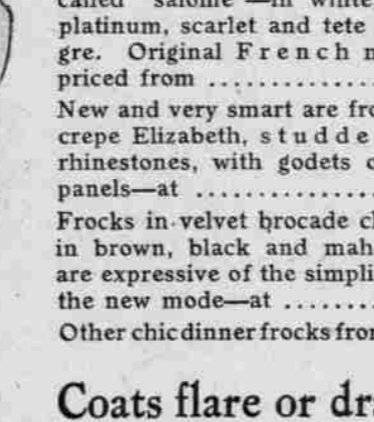

A coat in navy preciosa, with deep collar and cuffs of taupe dyed fox—ties with a perky grosgrain ribbon—and is cut with the smart Vionnet flare225.00

Chic turbans in the new slipper satin

This sturdy new satin, combined with monkey, with glycerine, with silver braid, or small glittering ornaments—has produced a vogue of its own—original, effective and practical! Individual models priced from 15.00

Flat crepe fashions new negligees

Long, straight tea gowns, in rose, violet and maize, have sleeves in matching chiffon, so long that they fall below the hem! And the quaintest, most delicate of handmade silk flowers outline handkerchief pockets and adorn the neck. Delightfully feminine, simple and very softly colored—and priced but 29.50.

H-LIEBES & CO.

Furs and individual style shops Broadway at Morrison

Fur coats for the colder days

The patent economy of the Liebes fur coat is evidenced in its quality, its authoritative styling—its flawless workmanship—and the service it renders. Among the favored models—

A straightline black caracul coat, collared with viadka squirrel, with chic gun metal girdle. 45 inches long795.00

A stunning new coat of mole, with wide squirrel sleeves and collar. A slender model, with silk cord belt. 45 inch, 650.00

A nutria coat, practical for so many uses—has wide bell sleeves, a cord silk belt, an exquisite brocade lining! 500.00

—and a limited number of 40-in. Hudson seal coats specially priced 345.00

All of Hudson seal, or trimmed with squirrel or skunk, these smartly fashioned coats may be belted, or hang straight. Values are most unusual!

H. Liebes & Co.

ESTABLISHED 1864

Curtains and Draperies

500 yds. Cretonnes, specially priced at 25¢ yd. 20 different patterns, in a big variety of colors.

Madras Draperies, special at 89¢ yd. Colors in blue, rose, gold, etc. An ideal material for side draperies, 36 in. wide.

Dotted Ruffled Grenadine Curtains with tie bands to match, 2 1/4 yds. long, white color only, specially priced at $2.39 Pair

PEACOCK SHOE SALON

If it is new in a SHOE We have it

287 Alder Street Across from Gas Co.