

MARSHFIELD SCENE OF MYSTIC REVELS

Portland Shriners Capture
Coos Bay Metropolis.

PARADE IS BIG FEATURE

About 50 Candidates Initiated
Into Order at Ceremonial Afternoon and Night.

BY JAMES D. OLSON.

MARSHFIELD, Or., Nov. 18.—(Special.)—After two of the stormiest days in Marshfield's history, the sun arose today in all its glory to greet several hundred Portland Shriners, accompanied by Al Kader's band, patrol, chanters and dancing girls.

Business was suspended in the Coos Bay metropolis as the festal wearers paraded through the streets, gave impromptu concerts and normally returned only when the work of staging the ceremonial began in one of the local theaters.

With the exception of a half hundred candidates everyone seemed glad to see the Portland delegation. The majority of the novices, however, had heard of the ability of this group to inflict torture on those seeking entrance to the mystic order, but advance reports were mild indeed compared with what really happened. A baggage car load of paraphernalia designed to make the delegates weary came with the delegation and nothing was overlooked.

Shortly after 1 o'clock this afternoon the visiting Shriners participated in a parade through the streets which ended at the theater where the ceremonial was staged. The "first section" of the ceremonial was held during the afternoon, while in the evening the "rough stuff" was put on.

Officers of the Marshfield Shrine club provided a special dinner for the members of the divan, and heads of the various organizations, while an elaborate dinner was served to all other visitors on the Southern Pacific special. Frank S. Grant, boss of the "section gang," the organization that arranges the "settings and decorations," left Portland Thursday, but because of fallen trees that delayed all trains, due to the storm, did not arrive here until late Friday night.

As a result they were compelled to work all night to place things in readiness, and as members of the gang are required to assist in the ceremonial, it was a weary group, indeed, that climbed on the train when the show was over.

The Shriners' crippled children's hospital project was explained to the Marshfield Shrine club by Mayor Baker at a meeting preceding the ceremonial.

"The Shrine no longer is known simply as the 'playground of Masonry,'" said the mayor. "While we still have a fine time wherever we get together, we have a more serious object in life. This object, launched by the way, in Portland, is known as the Shrine hospital for crippled children."

"In cities throughout the United States and Canada, the Shrine is constructing hospitals where crippled children, regardless of color, race or creed, will be taken and treated. This movement, fostered by W. Freeland Kendrick, past imperial potentate, and potentate of Lu Lu temple, Philadelphia, will result in the reclamation of thousands of children, each one of them."

It means that the Shrine has ceased merely to blow bubbles and has entered into a humanitarian enterprise which only will bring pride to every member of the organization, but will bring health to thousands of unfortunate children. Portland already has let the contract for the excavation of one of these mercy shops, and within a month or two will award the contract for the erection of a $250,000 building. Within six or seven months we hope to see this unit of the Shrine hospital in actual operation.

Following the ceremonial, the Marshfield Shrine club arranged a dance at the armory, the dance continuing until the special train pulled out for Portland.

Marshfield women who were on the committee to entertain visiting women expected not less than 50 women on the special Shrine train. When the committee of 14 counted the visitors they found that there were just four. But they gave these visitors the time of their lives, with a trip to North Bend, a luncheon and a reception in the afternoon.

As usual, sleep was an unknown quantity on the Shrine train between Eugene and Marshfield. Tommy Lake organized a minstrel show, held in the observation car, with Mayor Baker and Bert Lea as end men and George C. McDonald as intercomedian. The show did not end until about 4 A. M.

Weather reports of Thursday gave Marshfield as the spot in which more rain fell during a 24-hour period than in any other city in the Pacific northwest.

"We just had it come down all at once," rain measuring in all 1.49 inches, so that we could be certain to give you a wonderful day," explained Doc Johnson, president of the Shrine club. And the day was one in which old Sol ruled.

Dave Segar was in selling tickets for popular Shrine girls. Up to a late hour today Dave had sold $55 worth of the tickets and fully expected to bring this total to $100 before he left the Coos Bay district.

Deputy Sheriff Zackery of Lake-side was one of the candidates who held to the rope today. The undersheriff was one of the large delegation that met the Portland train when it pulled in, and he searched out Jack Heiser, who, with Harvey Wells and Rube Noldke, was in charge of the famous "second section." He explained that he was candidate who had traveled far and he wanted to be taken care of properly. His request was granted, for he certainly was treated "fine."

"I'm sorry I asked for favors," said the undersheriff after the ceremonial.

The busiest men in the Portland delegation were Henry S. Hayek, chairman of the transportation committee, and Walter Warner, assistant to the potentate. Handling an excursion of several hundred persons is no small job, but these experts never overlooked one detail.

Captain Davis, in charge of the patrol, is looking for the person who stole his mascot. He bought a young collie dog in Portland to march with his patrol, but it was lost somewhere in Eugene. He says that never again will he attempt to carry a mascot with the patrol.

WILL TO WORK WANTED

COLLEGE MEN TAKE LIFE
TOO EASY, SAYS EDISON.

Attendance at Higher Institutions
Believed Not Necessary for Success.

PRINCETON, N. J., Nov. 18.—"The main objection I have against a college graduate," said Thomas A. Edison in an interview today, "is that he objects to work, especially if it is dirty."

Mr. Edison expressed his views at his laboratory in Orange, N. J., to the Princetonian.

"The college graduate doesn't want a job with work in it," continued the electrical wizard, "and when he does get a position he expects to be appointed foreman at the end of six weeks. Most men working for me never attended college. The college men I have usually show lack of imagination. They scarcely have any suggestions to make in their daily routine, which might lead to improvement in their various departments."

"College is a good place for a man who wants to work, but unfortunately there are very few of this type nowadays. Yet if a man wants to succeed it is not necessary for him to go to college. He will broaden himself without it."

"We have enough lawyers, doctors and literary men. Also we have many $100,000 jobs with no one capable of filling them. The main quality for success, in my estimation, is ambition with a will to work."

TEACHERS' MEET DATED
350 Expected at Lewis County
Institute November 27 to 29.

CHEHALIS, Wash., Nov. 18.—(Special.)—The annual Lewis county teachers' institute will be held in Chehalis November 27-29, inclusive. More than 350 teachers are expected to attend. Miss Z. May Melgren, county superintendent, has practically completed the programme for the gathering. Chehalis schools will adjourn Thanksgiving week.

The list of instructors for the institute is headed by William W. Neeley, assistant state superintendent of schools, and L. B. Travers, supervisor of trades and industries of Olympia. Dr. D. B. Waldo of the Bellingham state normal; May G. Long of Bellingham, in charge of physical education; Miss Clara Melchner of the University of Washington; and R. E. Bennett, principal of the Chehalis high school.

Speakers will include Miss Mary Sutherland, director of the state college, Pullman; Mrs. Victor Malstrom of Tacoma, head of the Parent-Teacher association; and Mrs. B. B. Buchanan, executive secretary of the Washington Tuberculosis league.

STOCKYARD IS PLANNED
Co-operative Enterprise Proposed by Eugene Farmers.

EUGENE, Or., Nov. 18.—(Special.)—The establishment of co-operative stockyards and a packing house in Eugene in the near future is a probability, according to farmers and business men of this city, who have been discussing the project for some time past. Encouraged by the success of other co-operative enterprises here, the farmers believe that stockyards and a packing house also can be made successful.

An argument advanced in favor of the enterprise is that, with the completion of the Nation cut-off to cross the Cascades into the stock-raising sections of central Oregon, stock raised in that portion of the state could be shipped to Eugene much more quickly and at a lower freight rate than by shipping to Portland.

Eugene is already the marketing center for a large territory in southern and southwestern Oregon served by the Southern Pacific, and it is argued that there would be no lack of a market for the products of a packing house of moderate proportions.

Quarter-Million Dollar JEWELRY SALE!

Diamonds reduced from a fifth to a third—watches from a fourth to a half and less. Sterling silver pieces—much at half price. Rogers and Community plated table ware to go for twenty to thirty per cent less.

Sale Opens Monday Morning at 10 o'Clock

BISMARCK once remarked that in order to carry on a successful war three things were absolutely necessary.

The first was—"money."

The second was—"more money."

The third was—"still more money."

The F. Friedlander Company, in order to reorganize its business, finds that Bismarck's theory is correct.

One-half the stocks on hand must be turned into cash.

Some lines are to be closed out altogether.

In order that these things may be done quickly everything has been marked down—

Some things only twenty per cent.

Some things are to be sold at one-half and even less.

Nothing "cheap" has been brought in for "sale" purposes.

Not an item but measures up to the high standard which the F. Friedlander Company has upheld for over half a century.

THE sale and the advertisements are all prepared in great haste. Even tho' the entire staff works night and day there will be much to do. This advertisement makes no attempt to appear formal or dignified. All it will do is to tell as plainly as can be what has happened to the prices.

WHITE Gold Watches such as the artist illustrates can be bought for $18.50 instead of $25. They are 14-karat Solid Gold—and the movements have 15 jewels. Guaranteed, of course. And the newest and smartest style of the year.

Yellow Gold Filled Watches for ladies are offered at $13.50 instead of $20. These also are fine quality, delightfully small and the movements have 15 jewels.

A Lady's Gruen Wrist Watch in a solid gold case is marked $39.50 instead of $60.

A Diamond and Platinum Wrist Watch with 24 diamonds that was $325 can be bought now for $255. Another with 20 diamonds that was $275 has been marked down to $215. Still another octagonal shape all platinum and set with sapphires which was $250 can now be bought for $175.

There are, of course, hundreds more—far more than can be told in this newspaper—but the foregoing will serve to show what sort of a sale this is.

DIAMONDS are marked down in the same fashion. The original prices were very modest. The Friedlander Store has always attempted to sell Diamonds a little lower than any other good store. And in a large measure has succeeded.

For instance the Hundred Dollar Diamond Rings which have always held their own against the keenest competition—these marked $78.50.

The $75 Rings are marked $58.50—and all the $50 Rings are marked $38.50. Not a few lonesome rings—but big trays filled with them and in all the new style mountings. All the Platinum Wedding Rings which sold for $24.50 are now re-marked $18.50.

All the fine Solitaires are marked down. For instance: A Solitaire, weighing 1.48-karats which was $750 is now $495. A Platinum Dinner Ring with 13 diamonds is $179 instead of $250. Other Diamond Pieces are radically reduced. Here's a bar pin of Platinum with 24 diamonds which was $1,200—now marked $895. A Pendant of platinum and diamonds is marked $295 instead of $400—and bar pins by the score are reduced in like fashion.

STERLING Silverware is marked down to less than most stores pay for it. A Sterling Candy Jar which was $33.50 is now $17.50. A Center Piece which was $25 will be sold for $12.50. A $40 Bread Tray is now $25.50. A Sterling Bowl which was $19 can be had for $10.50. A Nut Bowl is $13 instead of $22.50. A $75 Water Pitcher is $48.50. A Solid Silver Basket which was $175 is now $95. A $37.50 Bowl is now $20. A Water Pitcher of hammered silver which was $90 is now $45. A Butterfly Plaque—largest size, which was $27.50 is now $16.50. Sterling Sugar and Creamers are $14.50 instead of $21—and all the sterling Knives and Forks and Platters and Tea Sets are reduced in the same fashion.

THIRTY-DOLLAR meat platters are now $19.85. Nine-dollar Bread Trays are $5.35. Twelve-dollar Covered Dishes are $6.85. Tea Sets that were $16.50 are now $9.75. Community Silver Plate is marked down, too. Not alone the par plate, which is guaranteed for ten years, but the fifty-year plate—all is reduced.

Tea Spoons are $2.85 a set. Tablespoons are $5.65 a set. Forks are $5.45. And sets of Knives and Forks (six of each)—the knives with hollow handles—are $13.75 a set. All the single pieces in every pattern are reduced in the same proportion.

MEN'S Watches are marked like this: A hundred-dollar Solid Gold Howard Watch is now $69.50. A $42.50 Waltham Watch is $29.50. Another Waltham which was $35 is now $26.50. A thirty-five-dollar Elgin Watch is $26.50—another which was $22.50 is now $16.50. Another Howard Watch which was marked $70 is now $59.50. A South Bend Watch which was $53 is now $39.50 and all the fine thin-model Elgins which are supposed to sell at $75 (the manufacturers set the price and print it plainly in the case)—all of these are marked $59.50.

ROGERS "Lincoln" Pattern Silver Plate is selling for less than was ever known before. And Community Par Plate is included at the same prices. Community or Rogers Spoons are 95c a set of six. Forks are $1.95 a set. Knives are $6.75 (they have hollow handles). Soup Spoons are $1.95. Salad Forks are $2.95. Table Spoons are $1.95.

By the time this is printed everything will be plainly marked. And the original price tags will enable the least experienced buyer to see just how much the sale saves the Christmas Gift Buyer.

No attempt is made to create the impression that anything is being given away. No attempt will be made to persuade anybody to buy anything. Nobody will need urging to buy at such a sale as this.

PLATED Silverware and Sheffield reproductions are all to be sold at lower prices. There are possibly a hundred and fifty pieces of Silver-plated Ware including Cruets, Salts and Peppers, Vinegar and Oil Bottles in plated frames and holders. These will be sold at 55c apiece, tho' some were as much as five dollars.

Pearls are selling for less than was ever known before—that is, for the quality such as refined people like to give and to get! Half a hundred boxes will be on sale tomorrow at $5.85 instead of ten dollars. Unfortunately there will not be enough to last till Christmas eve.

Jet and Jade and Coral Beads are all reduced in the same fashion. And there are scores of rare and beautiful strands to choose among.

UMBRELLAS are all reduced. Silk covered, all colors, novelty handles of leather and bakelite. One group will be presented at $4.85—it will include Umbrellas that were bought to sell for as much as $7.50.

Clocks are selling for little more than they cost at the "works." Indeed, anybody who is entitled to know the cost of anything in the Friedlander Sale can see the invoices or the stock books. There is nothing to hide—nothing to apologize for.

THE Sale begins at 10 o'clock Monday morning. And each day thereafter the doors will open at nine and close at six. All sales are for cash—of course. But anything selected tomorrow will be held for later delivery on payment of a reasonable deposit. Buy all you can and buy with confidence that what you buy is essentially right and worthy. Fifty years of reputation are behind the sale and every item in it!
