

WOODMEN OF WORLD WILL HOLD BIG REVEL

Oregon Camps Will Center Here for Initiation.

CLASS NUMBERS 2500

More Than 10,000 Members Will Take Part in Night Parade and Grant Ceremonial.

All camps of the Woodmen of the World, from The Dalles to the sea and from Salem to Centralia, Wash., will gather in Portland for the big demonstration to be held next Saturday. The first event on the programme is a street parade, which will start promptly at 7 o'clock at night, leaving Eleventh and Alder streets and disbanded at the auditorium, where an initiation ceremonial will take place.

A special degree staff, consisting of representatives from the head camp and head officers, will exemplify the work of the order. For the first time in Portland a side degree will be conferred by a picked team.

Police to Head Parade

The street parade will be headed by a platoon of police, followed by a band and Salem camp drill team. Each camp will be represented by a drill team, and is expected to put on special stunts for the parade, for which prizes are offered.

Mayor Baker will give an address of welcome to the visiting members and to the newly made members of the society. The address of the evening will be delivered by Walter M. Pierce, governor-elect.

It is expected that more than 10,000 members of the order will be in Portland for the event. Nearly 2500 new members will be initiated. These candidates will come from 60 camps of the order, Portland supplying more than 1500. The largest class will come from McMinnville and will be more than 100 strong.

Four Teams to Perform

Four teams of the degree staff will take active part in the initiation. A special silent fancy drill will be put on by the degree team of Multnomah camp. Prospect camp degree team will have charge of the candidates and also will act as ushers.

A large radio set will be installed in the auditorium and at a certain hour during the evening the members will be addressed by I. H. Bask, head camp, who will be speaking into the transmitters of a broadcasting station in San Francisco. Big meetings will be held at the same time in San Francisco and Denver, with the same kind of programme in the other cities.

The initiation and celebration will be the close of one of the most successful campaigns for members which the Woodmen of the World ever have conducted in this district, and it will be undoubtedly the largest class of candidates ever initiated into any order of this state at one time.

EAST OREGON BLOC FIRM

BACKING OF STATE SENATOR UPTON ASSURED.

Acting Governor Ritner, Passing Through City, Interviewed on Senate Presidency.

Roy W. Ritner, acting governor of Oregon, passed through Portland Friday night on his way to Salem, having attended the conference in Pendleton on the state senate presidency. Mr. Ritner said the original part of the eastern Oregon delegation to stand together and abide by the majority was what influenced the delegation in the delegation in the camp of Jay H. Upton of Prineville despite the provocation to bolt.

Senator Upton was selected as the candidate of the eastern Oregon delegation by a majority of the seven members because it was believed he could pick up a few votes that no other member of the delegation could attract. Upton's candidacy has not been his own but that of the delegation, so that in the Pendleton conference Upton was an incident and the main idea was the sacredness of the pact for the whole delegation to stand together.

The conference, Mr. Ritner admitted Friday night continued for many hours, during which the situation was considered and discussed from all angles. Now, so far as the eastern Oregon bloc is concerned, the presidency is settled and nothing will jar it loose from Upton. Mr. Ritner will serve as acting governor until about Christmas week.

COLLEGE WORK PRAISED

Fruit Growers of Country Watch Experiments With Interest.

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, Corvallis, Dec. 3.—(Special.)—"You have something in the horticultural products investigations of the experiment station that no other educational institution in the United States has," writes C. L. Lewis, editor of the "American Fruit Grower" of Chicago. "I believe you would do well to give a great deal of publicity to this work because there is tremendous interest in it all over the country at this time."

Fruit growers of the entire country are watching these experiments with a great deal of interest because they feel that there is a much better way of handling these horticultural products, fruits and vegetables, than has yet been learned. Use of the Oregon tunnel with the recirculation system worked out by E. H. Wiegand is a case in point.

Scouts to Play Santa.

ALBANY, Or., Dec. 3.—(Special.)—Boy Scouts of Albany will play Santa Claus to their less fortunate companions here Christmas, when toys and games will be distributed to those who might not otherwise be remembered. The toys and games will be repaired and repainted by the scouts and a canvass of the city for such articles will be made Monday. Each troop also will provide a Christmas dinner for a needy family, co-operating with the local Red Cross chapter and the churches. The scouts also will help lodges, clubs and churches in the distribution of Christmas packages to the poor.

PROMINENT WOODMEN WHO WILL TAKE PART IN THE BIG INITIATION CEREMONIES SATURDAY.

STRICTER PAROLE URGED AS TOO LIBERAL.

Northwest Association of Police and Sheriffs to Be Addressed by Prohibition Director.

Proposals for stricter parole laws which will keep the criminal element behind penitentiary walls will be discussed at the coming convention of the Northwest Association of Sheriffs and Police, to be held in Portland, January 15, 19 and 20. The existing laws in the majority of the northwest states are weak and need revision, in the opinion of law-enforcing officers, says Luke S. May, criminologist and president of the association.

As an added feature of the convention, Roy A. Haynes, national prohibition director, has consented to attend and will address the delegates the night of June 18. Mr. Haynes, who is continually in the limelight as a result of his position as head of the entire prohibition law enforcement bureau of the government, particularly will discuss the dry laws and the means adopted by the federal government for their enforcement.

The discussion of the parole system will be the principal business before the convention. Sentimentalism in handling criminals will be attacked by the peace officers, according to Mr. May. Hundreds of cases of third-term violators, who have been released on parole after serving short portions of their original sentences, and who immediately went back to crime, will be quoted by the different officers as reasons for more stringent laws governing the parole and pardon powers of public officials.

Peace officers from Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Montana, British Columbia and Alberta will be in attendance. The convention is to be held in the municipal auditorium. It is expected that about 500 delegates will attend.
