An improvised altar of beautiful Christmas holly and Oregon grape formed a charming background for Miss Charlie Fenton, who was married Wednesday evening to Dudley Randolph Clarke, at the home of her uncle and aunt, Dr. and Mrs. Hicks C. Fenton, on Willamette Heights. Dr. A. A. Morrison performed the ceremony. Dr. Horace Fenton acted as best man. The wedding march was played by Miss Margaret Hawkins, accompanied on the violin by Miss Irene Sullivan, Miss Marion Linn of Eugene sang "Thou Art Lovely as a Flower," preceding the ceremony.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her uncle, wore an attractive wedding robe of white crepe back satin with long graceful lines, draped on one side and adorned by a cluster of silver grapes and an ornament of crystal. Her flowers were a shower bouquet of Ophelia roses and gladioli.

Miss Virginia Fenton and Miss Margaret Spencer, cousins of the bride, were her attendants. Miss Fenton's costume was a smart model of blue crepe back satin, worn with a silver wreath on her coiffure. She carried a bouquet of Columbia roses. Miss Spencer wore a pretty frock of apricot georgette with a silver wreath on her head and carried Ophelia roses.

A reception followed the ceremony. Receiving with the wedding party were Dr. and Mrs. Hicks C. Fenton and Mrs. Charles Robert Sherman, mother of the bride. Frequenting in the dining room, which was colorful with its decorations of yellow chrysanthemums, were Mrs. Edgar B. Piper, Mrs. Robert K. Keller, Mrs. J. Guy Strohm, Mrs. Edward Cusick of Albany, Mrs. Robert D. Ford, Mrs. Harry J. Carman, Mrs. Jerry E. Bronaugh and Mrs. Francis Sherman. They were assisted by a group of the younger set, including Miss Eleanor McClaine of Silverton, Miss Genevieve Shaver, Miss Marcella Carlock, Miss Theadora Stoppembach, Mrs. Roland Lockwood, Miss Myrtle Smith, Miss Elizabeth Torrey, Mrs. Robert McMurray and Miss Mary Helen Spaulding, Mrs. Matthew F. Fenton, Mrs. Arthur C. Spencer, Mrs. Dean Hayes and Miss Florence Flynn.

Mrs. Clarke is an attractive and popular young woman, and since the announcement of her engagement has been the inspiration for numerous affairs. Mr. Clarke is the son of Mrs. Lucy Baxter Von Zoll Clarke, and is a former Portlander. He is well known in business and social circles here, and is now in business in San Francisco. Mr. and Mrs. Clarke will reside in Berkeley.

Mr. Warren Allen, organist of Stanford university, passed through the city on his way from an eastern tour. He was entertained by Dr. and Mrs. Ralph C. Walker at the University club.

A number of society folk called at the home of Mrs. George Gerlinger Sunday afternoon, when she complimented Mrs. Truax Albert, her house guest, with a tea. Mrs. Albert is now visiting Mrs. David T. Honeyman.

Mrs. Wesley Ladd Kendall, who was the house guest of Miss Nancy Holt, has returned to her home in Worcester, Mass. During her visit here she was the motif for several affairs.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph W. Wilbur are motoring in California.

Mr. and Mrs. Cameron Squires are enjoying a short stay in California.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Thompson left Thursday for a motor trip to California.

Mrs. Phil Metschan Sr. is visiting in San Diego. Later she will be the guest of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Clar Nell, in Phoenix, Ariz.

The commanding officer and the officers and women of the 7th infantry at Vancouver barracks will give a formal dance on the night of December 27 at the post gymnasium. This is the second of a series of formal dances announced early in the season to be given by the post this winter. Cards will be sent out in the near future. Many Portland people will be among the guests.

Hops will be given frequently throughout the winter months.

Captain and Mrs. Bryant E. Moore entertained Thursday night at bridge in honor of Captain and Mrs. Julius L. Bischof. Captain Bischof is leaving the post in the near future to go into civilian life.

Honoring Miss Cecile Whitfield, who was their week-end guest, Lieutenant and Mrs. Hubert S. Miller entertained at a luncheon Sunday. A number of Portland and Vancouver people were among the guests.

Lieutenant and Mrs. Arthur H. Wolf were host and hostess Wednesday night at dinner for a number of officers of the post and their wives. Captain and Mrs. Phillip Overstreet gave an informal bridge party Tuesday night.

Mrs. John Shull was hostess Friday at a smart luncheon in the grill room of Hotel Portland. Covers were placed for ten.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer A. Kruse on Thanksgiving celebrated their silver wedding. They received many gifts of silver. Dinner and supper were served at their home, near Wilsonville, to 24 guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Kruse were married at their present home on November 23, 1897. They have two sons, Adolphus and Elmer.

Social as well as musical interest is centered in the third concert of the Chamber Music trio tomorrow night at the Portland Woman's club. This probably will be the last appearance this season of this well-known trio.

Mrs. Francis E. Burns of St. Louis, Mo., great commander of the Ladies of the Macabees, with Mrs. McTear, state commander of Oregon, will arrive in Portland today.
