Mrs. Justin Wallace McEachern Who Is Passing the Winter at Colorado.

at 2:55 o'clock. Mrs. Burns is not only a Lady Macabre, but is prominently in the Eastern Star, Pythian Sisters, past president of the American Fraternal Congress, member of the National Fraternal Congress, member of the Daughters of the Revolution and Federations of Women's clubs.

A committee will meet her at the station and escort her to Benson hotel for a rest. A banquet will be given Mrs. Burns at 6 P. M. at the Chamber of Commerce. Mayor Baker will give the address of welcome.

The annual Oregon Agricultural college Christmas dance will be given in honor of the high school seniors who contemplate entering college. The dance will be held Wednesday night, December 27, in the assembly ballroom of the Multnomah hotel. The committee includes Ralph Westering, Wayne Davis, Francis Lounsbury and Henry Welsenborn.

Mrs. F. A. Douy and her daughters, Miss Roberta and Miss Margaret Ellen, who have been east for several months, returned to Portland Tuesday.

An attractive dance was given by the members of the Portland Heights club Friday night, at the clubhouse. The social committee for this month includes Mrs. G. Norman Pease, chairman; Mrs. H. W. Bates, Mrs. Omar C. Spencer, Mrs. Forrest E. Fisher, Mrs. F. C. Austen, Mrs. Harry J. Strowbridge, and Mrs. J. A. Givens.

The alumnae organization of the Alpha Delta Pi sorority is planning to have its regular Christmas dance at the Portland hotel in the holiday season. The committee are at work but have not yet announced their plans definitely. Also plans for the Alpha Delta Pi tea for mothers are under way and will be announced later. The mothers' tea is always an event of December.

The Glee club of St. Helen's Hall will give a concert at the school Wednesday night, December 13, at 8 o'clock. All friends of the faculty and students are cordially invited to attend. This is the first appearance of the club this year. The girls have been trained by Mrs. Mabel Hall Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Simmons were honored at a surprise party last Tuesday evening at their new home, 1480 Thompson street. Dancing and cards were the diversions of the evening.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, Dec. 9.—(Special.)—An affair which interests the college set, alumni, sub-fabs and society matrons and maids of Portland is the annual Christmas college ball to be given in Portland in the Christmas vacation by the Woman's League of the University of Oregon. This year the event will take place in the Multnomah hotel ballrooms, with the tea gardens between, and the date is Tuesday, December 26. An excellent orchestra will furnish music for the affair. A number of dinners, smart dinner dances and no-host parties are being planned to precede the dance. Tickets may be obtained at Spaulding's and at Sherman, Clay's.

The culmination of another college romance was brought to light Friday night when the wedding of Miss Ruth Alice Laughton to Henry Cofold Dillon of Portland was announced at a dinner party given in their honor by Miss Eliza Armstrong and Miss Helen Pippy of Reed college in the Japanese room of the Reed commons. Both the bride and bridegroom are former students of Reed college. Mr. Dillon having transferred from the University of California, where he spent his first year.

Mr. and Mrs. Dillon were married quietly in Vancouver December 6. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Laughton of Portland. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Dillon and a nephew of Dr. C. A. Cofold, professor at the University of California.

The young couple are at home to their friends at 711 Ravensview drive. Yellow chrysanthemums and burning tapers adorned the table, at which covers were laid for 12. In addition to the hostesses the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Dillon, Miss Elizabeth Gore, Miss Myrtle Swallow, Miss Alice Johnson, Charles McIlraith, Thomas McKay, Aden Jones, Fred Gaiser and Herman Kehrl.

In a beautiful ceremony, performed before an altar laden with palms and yellow chrysanthemums, Miss Gladys Elaine of Seattle became the bride of Dr. Frederick E. Chambers of Portland in the Reed college chapel Thursday night. Mrs. Chambers is a Reed alumna and has the honor of being the third Reed graduate to be married in the chapel of her alma mater. The bridegroom is a brother to Miss Ruth Chambers, a classmate of Mrs. Chambers.

The bride was robed in white satin heavily beaded and carried a bouquet of pale pink bride's roses. She was attended by Miss Ruth Chambers, bridesmaid, who wore Nile green chiffon. Dr. D. A. Chambers, brother of the bridegroom, acted as best man. The bride was presented by her brother, J. J. Blaine of Seattle. Rev. William L. Riley officiated.

Miss Alice Johnson played the wedding march from Lohengrin as the procession entered. Soft organ selections accompanied the ceremony, which was followed later by Mendelssohn's "Nuptial" march. The Reed chapel was artistically decorated with yellow chrysanthemums and ferns for the occasion and the altar was a veritable shrine of floral beauty.

A short reception in the chapel followed the wedding, which was attended by 100 friends of the young couple. Mr. and Mrs. Chambers departed immediately upon their honeymoon. They will be at home after New Year's in Piedmont.

Men of House II at Reed college were host to a hundred Reed couples
