both she and Mr. Holloper are considered among the foremost players in America. Mrs. Holloper will make her headquarters at the Benson hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Vynce Lesler are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son, Frederick Vynce Jr., November 29.

Miss Freida Pablos entertained with a charmingly appointed luncheon Saturday at the Multnomah hotel in honor of Miss Margaret Cundy, whose engagement was announced to Harry Eugene Winesberg of this city. The news was enfolded in lovely corsages tied with streamers extending from an attractive centerpiece to the plate of each guest. Dainty favors and place cards marked the places of 15 of the bride-elect's most intimate friends. Christmas decorations were used throughout the dining room.

Miss Cundy is the daughter of Mrs. Edward Sweeney of this city. She is a graduate of Lincoln high school and attended the University of Oregon, where she was a member of Delta Gamma sorority. Mr. Winesberg is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Winesberg of South Dakota, and is now a prominent business man of this city. The wedding will take place sometime in January.

Covers were placed for the following guests: The Misses Helen Ballard, Myrtle MacLean, Florence Tatham, and Mrs. Edward Sweeney, Mrs. B. Brachhagen, Mrs. J. J. Cogswell, Mrs. Virgil Hamlin, Mrs. Leonard Raymond Shaver, Mrs. Westcott A. Carpenter, Mrs. Ralph Rector, Mrs. Ralph Cochran, Mrs. A. Paul and Mrs. Edward Humphrey.

Messages of congratulation are being received by Mr. and Mrs. Edward E. Werlein (Ruth Sellwood) upon the arrival of a daughter, Mary Ellen, born December 1. The infant is the granddaughter of Mrs. Charles A. Stansborough of Bend, Or., and Mrs. J. E. Werlein of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Quick, 463 East Fifty-third street North, entertained at a theater party at the Hellig Thursday night after a delightful dinner. In the party were Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Frazier, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hager of McMinnville, Or., and Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Quick.

Mrs. B. F. Weaver entertained on Thanksgiving at dinner at the Multnomah hotel, a number of guests enjoying dancing until a late hour.

Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Comera entertained a group of friends at their home on East Forty-ninth street Saturday night. Cards were the diversion of the evening. High honors were awarded to Mrs. A. L. Stockman and R. R. Quick, and congratulations to Mrs. R. R. Quick and Arthur Stockman. Present were Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Gouldstone, Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Cameron, Mr. and Mrs. Ben J. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Frazier, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Quick, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Stockman and Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Struckman.

A marriage which came as quite a surprise to society was that of Miss Frances Burrill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William V. Burrill of at their annual Christmas dance, given Saturday night in the Reed commons. Every detail of the party reflected the joy of Yuletide and created an atmosphere of genial good will.

In the center of the commons stood a huge Christmas tree, laden with snow and tinsel and bedecked with multi-colored lights of merry hue. From the tip of the tree radiated streamers of green, and hangings of rich ruby flanked the snow-blown windows. Twelve old English lanterns, through their amber, blue and green panes, cast over all a warmth of color which was added to by flickerings from the huge commons fireplace, over which reposed a green shield with a red H embossed upon it. Red tapers burned in each of the windows beneath wreaths of cedar.

Patrons and patronesses for the party were Dr. and Mrs. Richard F. Scholz, Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Botsford, Dr. and Mrs. V. L. O. Chittick and Miss Ruth Compton.

and Mrs. Sifton, Mr. and Mrs. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Faulk, Mr. and Mrs. Prester, Mrs. J. T. MacAllister and E. J. Morrill.

High honors in cards went to Mrs. Hagar and Mr. Sifton received the consolation prize.

Toscha Siedel and his mother, Mrs. Siedel, were honor guests at a luncheon given by Mrs. Mischa Pelz at the Benson hotel Thursday. Covers were laid for Toscha Siedel, Mrs. Siedel, Mrs. D. Nemevrosky, Mischa Pelz Jr., Francesco Lango, Leand Pink, Mischa Pelz and the hostess.

Mrs. E. C. Stienman of New York has been the inspiration for many charming social events. On Saturday Mrs. Stienman was honor guest at the smart tea given by Mrs. Mischa Pelz. Tuesday evening Mrs. Leslie Scott was hostess with a dancing party in her home. Wednesday Mrs. William Lyons entertained with a luncheon, followed by bridge, at the Lyons home. Luncheon covers were laid for Mrs. Ward Bowles, Mrs. Clifford Lamping, Mrs. Mischa Pelz, Mrs. Henri Keater, Mrs. Leslie Scott, Mrs. Ormand Fletcher, Mrs. Frank McCauley, Mrs. James Lyons, Mrs. Norman Matschek, the honor guest and the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Wilkinson entertained relatives and friends at dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Palmer Thanksgiving day, which was their sixth wedding anniversary. Following this an evening of music was enjoyed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilkinson.

Students of the Northwestern College of Law gave the first of a series of informal get-together parties at the Laurelhurst club last week. One feature of the party was a balloon dance during which multi-colored spheres were distributed among the dancers. Dean J. Hunt Hendrickson spoke, and President Wiggins of the student body told of the value of the law school as a founder of good citizenship.

Patrons and patronesses of the get-together were Dean and Mrs. J. Hunt Hendrickson, Judge and Mrs. George Rossman and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Young.

Elaborate plans are being made for the Christmas dance to be given by Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority, Wednesday evening, December 27, at the new Woman's club. The dance is a benefit and not an invitational affair. It is being given for the student aid, a national fund established by the sorority for the aid of all college women. Miss Edith Lee is general chairman and among those assisting her on committees are Mrs. T. E. Garbade, Mrs. J. F. Crowbridge, Mrs. Earl Murphy, Mrs. Raymond Kerr, Mrs. Boyd Hamilton, Mrs. George Rossmann, Mrs. Earl Flegel, Mrs. F. E. Gulick, Mrs. Frank Holmes, Mrs. Wallace Wharton, Mrs. Don Byrd and the Misses Georgine Collier, Marie Williams, Florence Skinner, Dorothy Flegel, Fhebe Gage and Florence Tompson.

A brilliant event of December 27 will be the ball given by the members of the Chi Omega sorority at the Hotel Multnomah for the benefit of the mothers' pension bureau and its social service work, which is generally known as the sunshine fund. Mrs. Elmer C. Ramsey is chairman of the arrangements. Her committee consists of Mrs. M. Maurice, Mrs. John Justice, Mrs. William D. Wheelwright, Mrs. Mildred Peg, Miss Agnes Kennedy and Miss Carmel Shearman.

Invitations are out for a dance to be given at Laurelhurst club Wednesday, December 27, by the Misses May Aggie Barr, Harriet Desendorf and Kathryn Short.

Mrs. J. M. Main entertained with a luncheon at her home in Hoyt street Thursday. Covers were placed for Mrs. E. N. Howe, Mrs. Dan Martin, Mrs. M. J. Clohessey, Mrs. J. F. Bruening and Mrs. Franklin Fulton.

Mrs. Martina Weber, with C. J. Hanzlik, entertained about 60 of their friends with a dance at the Irvington club, December 2. The hall was decorated elaborately. Punch was served throughout the evening and refreshments during the intermission.

were laid for Miss Marguerite Stevens, Miss Ardinella Clark, Miss Jean Pullian and Miss Helen Peck. The table was decorated with a centerpiece formed by Cupid on a heart with red ribbons attached to attractive place cards, which had the announcement tied inside a red heart.

Wednesday evening, November 29 in the presence of relatives and a few friends at St. David's church, Miss Heloise Wirt, daughter of Mrs. Omer B. Wirt, was united in marriage to Walter L. Pearnley, Rev. Thomas Jenkins officiating.

The bride was given in marriage by Joseph Oswald and Miss Alta J. Wirt was her attendant. John McLernon acted as best man. Thomas Taylor presided at the organ and at the conclusion of the ceremony Mrs. Eloise Hall Cook sang "O Perfect Love."

Mrs. Pearnley is a member of one of the oldest pioneer families of Oregon. Mr. Pearnley attended Oregon Agricultural college and is a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity.

Miss Essie Cohan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Cohan, has announced her engagement to Leo L. Mattin.

Mrs. Anthony John Stowell was hostess at a card party Wednesday evening. Five hundred was played. Her guests were: Dr. and Mrs. Hagar, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas, Mr.

Mr. Robert H. Down, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Re, Madame George E. Frost, Mrs. Helen Miller Senn, Celia V. Hager, Esther W. West, Anne Hardy, Mrs. Thomas Sharp, Ruth Workman, Gladys Eowen, Dr. E. S. Bates, Charles A. Rice, William H. Boyer, Henry M. Grant, Clinton H. Thiens and Philip Janney.

Thirty cadets from Hill Military academy, accompanied by members of the faculty, made up a party for the concert of the Symphony orchestra Wednesday night.

Mrs. Alice Webster will open her home in Irvington, 755 Stanton street, for a picture exhibit December 11, 12, 13 and 14. The showing will include some beautiful pieces of painted china. Take Broadway car to Twenty-fourth and Stanton streets and walk one block to Twenty-third.

Mrs. Mischa Pelz entertained with a supper party at her home after the symphony concert Wednesday night in honor of Francesco Longo, who is accompanist with Toscha Siedel.

In view of the extreme popularity of Mah Jongg in Portland, where it threatens to supersede all card games at social gatherings, Mrs. H. A. Holloper has been appointed official instructor for this city.

Mrs. Holloper's long residence in China, where she learned Mah Jongg, has familiarized her with the game to such an extent that

WHY ARE "SALES"?

The merchant who resorts to "sales" knows it to be the only way to get rid of undesirable or too high-priced merchandise.

It is a common practice with "sale" merchandisers to add a few attractive models and pass to the unguarded purchaser some such a representation as, "they were values to $75, and now they are $19.75."

It is safe to say any such so-called $75.00 garment never sold because it was too high-priced.

Don't be fooled by "sales." They were not made to do you any good, especially "sales" of this age. The "sale" of years ago was "honest-to-goodness."

We have no "sales." Our merchandise is too active.
