Mrs. C. A. Ruegg (Gladys Neal), Miss Pearl Ruegg, Bridesmaid At The Ruegg-Neel Wedding, Virginia Jettke, Flower Girl, and Thomas Lee Starbuck Ringbearer

Tacoma, to Edward Schmiedell, Jr., which occurred last Sunday. The marriage was a culmination of a short romance which developed since the bride has been visiting here as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Goodie.

Mrs. Schmiedell is a popular society girl of Tacoma and a graduate of Westover and Smith college. Mr. Schmiedell is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Schmiedell, a prominent San Francisco family, and has been making his home in Portland for more than a year, being in business here.

Mrs. W. Lester was hostess for a delightful party at her home Saturday afternoon, the occasion being the seventh birthday anniversary of her daughter, Gertrude.

Musical and games were the pastimes. Refreshments were served. The large birthday cake was decorated with candles.

Those present were the Misses Olliviana George, Florence Pollett, Helen Donis, Hazel Donis, Rowland Bradley, Bernice Guphill, Helen Rand, Beth Havdahl, Ruth Bradley, Helen Guphill, Alice Ivy, David Bradley, Gertrude Lester, Blanche Lester, Betty Lester, Helen Scribner. Mrs. W. Lester was assisted by Mrs. H. Black, Miss Ruth Donis and Mrs. W. Bradley.

A charming dinner was given Friday night by Mr. and Mrs. Guy Webster Talbot. Their guests were: Mr. and Mrs. David T. Honeyman, Mr. and Mrs. Edmund L. Devereaux, Mr. and Mrs. C. Hunt Lewis, Mrs. Antoine G. Labbe, Mrs. C. Edward Guelle, Henry F. Chaney and Walter Martin of San Francisco.

Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett entertained informally with a tea Wednesday afternoon in honor of her sister, Mrs. Frederick Pra of New York.

Mrs. Eric F. Winney asked a few friends to tea Tuesday afternoon.

Society girls are looking forward to the intermission to be given tomorrow afternoon by Sara Truax, which will be "Loyalities," a John Galsworthy play, and at the present time is being presented in New York with much success. This will be the third impersonation that Miss Truax has given. She is an actress of great ability and has thoroughly delighted her audiences.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Edward Guelle were hosts with a beautifully appointed dinner recently. Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. James C. Gillison, Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Devereaux, Mr. and Mrs. Pierre R. Hines and the hosts. Bridge was enjoyed later in the evening.

Several dinners preceded the Mac-Oregon dance last night. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas S. Barnes entertained with a dinner of eight covers. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Kurt H. Koehl, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest G. Swigert and Mr. and Mrs. Holt W. Cookingham.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis H. Mills were hosts for a dinner of six covers and Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand Smith gave a delightful buffet supper.

COMING EVENTS.

The Brigand Patrol association of Abd-Uhl-Atef temple 117 have commenced their series of popular dances for the season. A well-known orchestra has been engaged and refreshments will be served. The next dance will be held Thursday evening at the Pythian temple auditorium, West Park and Yamhill streets.

The North Dakota State society will hold its next party December 19 at 8 P. M. at the Turn Verein hall, 235 Thirteenth street. Musical numbers, dancing, cards and refreshments will be enjoyed. All ex-North Dakotans and their friends have been invited.

The Minnesota State society will meet in Turn Verein hall, Thirteenth and Main streets, next Wednesday night. A special Christmas programme will be given, commencing promptly at 8:15 o'clock, followed by dancing at 9 o'clock. This will be the first meeting under the administration of the newly elected officers: J. R. Greenfield, president; Arthur Lord, vice-president; Mrs. B. W. Standford, secretary; K. H. Besteland, treasurer; C. A. Moser, chairman music committee; Mrs. Bertha Pluh, woman floor manager; Mrs. W. A. Hellberg, programme committee; Mrs. L. L.
