Jefferson Likes “Exhibition Nights.”

Diversified Assembly Held—Session of Songs Meets With Splendid Response.

BY HARRY G. JOHNSON.

JEFFERSON HIGH school pupils had their first annual “Exhibition Nights” last Friday and Saturday evenings in the school building. Careful preparation for the affair had been made by both the students and the faculty for several weeks prior to the show, and the responsible factor in the smoothness with which the various details of the exhibition were conducted, the responsibility for the show, which attracted a large number of guests, was shared by the students and the faculty so that practically all had a part in the exhibition. Every department of the school was represented by a large number of exhibits. The work of decorating the building for the occasion was taken over by the Latin and Spanish clubs. Members of these organizations artistically decorated the halls in Christmas green.

Washington Letter Men Have New Caps.

Fuzzes Present Dazzling Appearance and Will Be Worn When School Games Are Played.

BY TED McGRATH.

THE members of the Order of the “W,” Washington's lettermen club, appeared last week with their fuzzes, which are similar to those worn by the Shriners. On the front of the fuzz is the famous Washington “W” and on back a gold tassel. The tassel is attached to the top of the fuzz by a small ring. The fuzz which Washington plays a game. Jim Winslow, president of the society, requests that all members be present at all meetings, which are held at 11 A. M. on the third floor of the Central Library every Thursday.
